

Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996

1996 CHAPTER 22

An Act to re-enact, with omissions and amendments, the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1991; and for connected purposes. [17th June 1996]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Act: temporary provisions of the Act (as defined in s. 62(2)) except s. 36, Sch. 3 to continue in force for a period of twelve months beginning with 16.6.1997 by S.I. 1997/1114, art. 3
- C2 Act: temporary provisions (as defined in s. 62(2)) to continue in force for a period of twelve months beginning with 16.6.1999 by S.I. 1999/1709, art. 3

PART I

SCHEDULED OFFENCES

The scheduled offences

1 The scheduled offences.

- (1) In this Act “scheduled offence” means an offence specified in Part I or III of Schedule 1 to this Act but subject to any relevant note in Part I of that Schedule.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Part II of that Schedule shall have effect with respect to offences related to those specified in Part I of that Schedule.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order amend Parts I and II of that Schedule whether by adding an offence to, or removing an offence from, either of those Parts or otherwise; and an order under this subsection may contain such transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient.

Preliminary inquiries, bail and young persons in custody

2 Preliminary inquiry into scheduled offences.

- (1) Where in any proceedings before a magistrates' court for a scheduled offence (not being an extra-territorial offence as defined in section 1(3) of the ^{M1}Criminal Jurisdiction Act 1975) the prosecution requests the court to conduct a preliminary inquiry into the offence under the ^{M2}Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981, the court shall, notwithstanding anything in Article 31 of that Order, conduct a preliminary inquiry into the offence unless the court is of opinion that in the interests of justice a preliminary investigation should be conducted into the offence under that Order.
- (2) Where in any proceedings a person charged with a scheduled offence is also charged with another offence which is not a scheduled offence, that other offence shall be treated as a scheduled offence for the purposes of this section.

3 Limitation of power to grant bail in case of scheduled offences.

- (1) This section applies to any person who has attained the age of fourteen and is charged with a scheduled offence which is neither being tried summarily nor certified by the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland as in his opinion suitable to be so tried.
- (2) Subject to subsection (7), a person to whom this section applies shall not be admitted to bail except—
 - (a) by a judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal; or
 - (b) by the judge of the court of trial on adjourning the trial of a person charged with a scheduled offence.
- (3) A judge may, in his discretion, admit to bail in pursuance of subsection (2) a person to whom this section applies except where he is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for believing that that person, if released on bail (whether subject to conditions or not), would—
 - (a) fail to surrender to custody, or
 - (b) commit an offence while on bail, or
 - (c) interfere with any witness, or

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (d) otherwise obstruct or attempt to obstruct the course of justice, whether in relation to himself or in relation to any other person, or, if released subject to conditions, would fail to comply with all or any of those conditions.
- (4) In exercising his discretion in accordance with subsection (3) in relation to a person, a judge shall have regard to such of the following considerations as appear to him to be relevant, namely—
- (a) the nature and seriousness of the offence with which the person is charged,
 - (b) the character, antecedents, associations and community ties of the person,
 - (c) the time which the person has already spent in custody and the time which he is likely to spend in custody if he is not admitted to bail, and
 - (d) the strength of the evidence of his having committed the offence,
- as well as to any others which appear to be relevant.
- (5) Without prejudice to any other power to impose conditions on admission to bail, a judge may impose such conditions on admitting a person to bail under this section as appear to him to be likely to result in that person's appearance at the time and place required, or to be necessary in the interests of justice or for the prevention of crime.
- (6) Where a person to whom this section applies is a serving member of—
- (a) any of Her Majesty's forces; or
 - (b) the Royal Ulster Constabulary or the Royal Ulster Constabulary Reserve,
- he may be admitted to bail on condition that he is held in military or (as the case may be) police custody if the judge is satisfied that suitable arrangements have been made for holding him in such custody; and where a person is admitted to bail on such a condition it shall be lawful for him to be held in such custody in accordance with the conditions of his bail.
- (7) The power to admit a person to bail in accordance with subsection (6) shall, notwithstanding subsection (2), be exercisable by a resident magistrate as well as by a judge.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C3 S. 3 (except so far as relating to offences which are scheduled offences by virtue of Sch. 1 Pt. III) continued for a period of 12 months beginning with 20.7.2000 by 2000 c. 11, ss. 2\(2\), 128, Sch. 1 paras. 1, 2\(1\)

4 Legal aid to applicants for bail in case of scheduled offences.

- (1) Where it appears to a judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal—
- (a) that a person charged with a scheduled offence intends to apply to be admitted to bail; and
 - (b) that it is desirable in the interests of justice that that person should have legal aid but that he has not sufficient means to enable him to obtain that aid,
- the judge may assign to him a solicitor and counsel, or counsel only, in the application for bail.
- (2) If, on a question of granting a person free legal aid under this section, there is a doubt whether his means are sufficient to enable him to obtain legal aid or whether it is desirable in the interests of justice that he should have free legal aid, the doubt shall be resolved in favour of granting him free legal aid.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Articles 32, 36 and 40 of the ^{M3}Legal Aid, Advice and Assistance (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (statements, payments, rules and stamp duty) shall apply in relation to legal aid under this section as they apply in relation to legal aid under Part III of that Order as if any legal aid under this section were given in pursuance of a criminal aid certificate under Article 29 of that Order.

6 Holding in custody of young persons charged with scheduled offences.

- (1) Where a young person charged with a scheduled offence has been remanded or committed for trial as respects that offence and is not released on bail, he may—
- (a) notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment, and
 - (b) whether or not he was remanded or committed for trial at a time when this section was not in force,
- be held in custody in such prison or other place as may be specified in a direction given by the Secretary of State under this section.
- (2) The Secretary of State may give a direction in respect of a person to whom this section applies if he considers that it is necessary, in order to prevent his escape or to ensure his safety or the safety of others, to make special arrangements as to the place at which that person is to be held in custody while on remand or while committed for trial.
- (3) A direction may be given by the Secretary of State at any time after the young person to whom it relates has been charged with a scheduled offence, and may be varied or revoked by a further direction.
- (4) In this section “young person” means a person who has attained the age of fourteen and is under the age of seventeen.

7 Directions under section 6.

- (1) A direction under section 6 shall, if it has not previously ceased to have effect, cease to have effect at the expiry of such period as may be specified in the direction (being

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

a period not exceeding two months beginning with the date of the direction) unless continued in force by a further direction.

- (2) Where, by virtue of a direction, a young person is held in custody in a prison or other place and the direction ceases to have effect (whether or not by reason of the expiry or cesser of section 6) it shall be lawful for him to continue to be held in custody in that prison or place until arrangements can be made for him to be held in custody in accordance with the law then applicable to his case.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) above shall be taken to make lawful the holding in custody of any person who would, disregarding that subsection, be entitled to be released from custody.

Time limits on preliminary proceedings

8 Power of Secretary of State to set time limits in relation to preliminary proceedings for scheduled offences.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision, with respect to any specified preliminary stage of proceedings for a scheduled offence, as to the maximum period—
 - (a) to be allowed to the prosecution to complete that stage;
 - (b) during which the accused may, while awaiting completion of that stage, be—
 - (i) in the custody of a magistrates' court; or
 - (ii) in the custody of the Crown Court,in relation to that offence.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular—
 - (a) provide for—
 - (i) the ^{M5}Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981,
 - (ii) section 3 above, or
 - (iii) any other enactment, or any rule of law, relating to bail,to apply in relation to cases to which custody or overall time limits apply subject to such modifications as may be specified (being modifications which the Secretary of State considers necessary in consequence of any provision made by the regulations);
 - (b) provide for time limits imposed by the regulations to cease to have effect in cases where, after the institution of proceedings for a scheduled offence, the Attorney General for Northern Ireland has certified that the offence in question is not to be treated as a scheduled offence;
 - (c) make such provision with respect to the procedure to be followed in criminal proceedings as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of any other provision of the regulations; and
 - (d) make such transitional provision in relation to proceedings instituted before the commencement of any provision of the regulations as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (3) Where separate counts of an indictment allege a scheduled offence and an offence which is not a scheduled offence, then (subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of the regulations) the regulations shall have effect in relation to the latter offence as if it were a scheduled offence.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Crown Court may, in circumstances prescribed by the regulations, extend or further extend a time limit at any time before it expires.
- (5) Where, in relation to any proceedings for a relevant offence, an overall time limit has expired before the completion of the stage of the proceedings to which the limit applies, the accused shall be treated, for all purposes, as having been acquitted of that offence.

9 Section 8: supplementary provisions.

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a person escapes from the custody of a magistrates' court or of the Crown Court before the expiry of a custody time limit which applies in his case; or
 - (b) a person who has been released on bail in consequence of the expiry of a custody time limit—
 - (i) fails to surrender himself into the custody of the court at the appointed time; or
 - (ii) is arrested by a constable in connection with any breach, or apprehended breach, of any condition of his bail, the regulations under section 8 shall, so far as they provide for any custody time limit in relation to the preliminary stage in question, be disregarded.

- (2) Where—
 - (a) a person escapes from the custody of a magistrates' court or of the Crown Court; or
 - (b) a person who has been released on bail fails to surrender himself into the custody of the court at the appointed time, the overall time limit which applies in his case in relation to the stage which the proceedings have reached at the time of the escape or, as the case may be, at the appointed time shall, so far as the relevant offence in question is concerned, cease to have effect.

- (3) Where a person is convicted of a relevant offence in any proceedings, the exercise, in relation to any preliminary stage of those proceedings, of the power conferred by section 8(4) shall not be called into question on any appeal against that conviction.
- (4) In the application of section 8 in relation to proceedings on indictment, "preliminary stage" does not include any stage—
 - (a) after the time when the case for the prosecution is opened; or
 - (b) if the court accepts a plea of guilty before the case for the prosecution is opened, after that plea is accepted.
- (5) In the application of section 8 in relation to summary proceedings, "preliminary stage" does not include any stage—
 - (a) after the court begins to hear evidence for the prosecution at the trial;
 - (b) if the court accepts a plea of guilty before it has begun to hear evidence for the prosecution, after that plea is accepted; or

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (c) after the court begins to consider whether to exercise its power under Article 44(4) of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (power to make hospital order without convicting the accused).
- (6) In this section and section 8—
- “custody of the Crown Court” includes custody to which a person is committed in pursuance of—
- (a) Article 37 or 40(4) of the ^{M6}Magistrates’ Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (magistrates’ court committing accused for trial); or
- (b) section 51(8) of the ^{M7}Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (magistrates’ court dealing with a person brought before it following his arrest in pursuance of a warrant issued by the Crown Court);
- “custody of a magistrates’ court” means custody to which a person is committed in pursuance of Article 47 or 49 of the Magistrates’ Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (remand);
- “custody time limit” means a time limit imposed by the regulations in pursuance of section 8(1)(b) or, where any such limit has been extended by the Crown Court under section 8(4), the limit as so extended;
- “overall time limit” means a time limit imposed by the regulations in pursuance of section 8(1)(a) or, where any such limit has been extended by the Crown Court under section 8(4), the limit as so extended;
- “relevant offence” means—
- (a) a scheduled offence, or
- (b) an offence in relation to which the regulations have effect in accordance with section 8(3); and
- “specified” means specified in the regulations.
- (7) For the purposes of the application of any custody time limit in relation to a person who is in the custody of a magistrates’ court or of the Crown Court—
- (a) all periods during which he is in the custody of a magistrates’ court in respect of the same offence shall be aggregated and treated as a single continuous period; and
- (b) all periods during which he is in the custody of the Crown Court in respect of the same offence shall be aggregated and treated similarly.

Court and mode of trial

10 Court for trial of scheduled offences.

- (1) A trial on indictment of a scheduled offence shall be held only at the Crown Court sitting in Belfast, unless—
- (a) the Lord Chancellor after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland directs that the trial, or a class of trials within which it falls, shall be held at the Crown Court sitting elsewhere; or

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland directs that the trial, or part of it, shall be held at the Crown Court sitting elsewhere.
- (2) A person committed for trial for a scheduled offence, or for two or more offences at least one of which is a scheduled offence, shall be committed—
 - (a) to the Crown Court sitting in Belfast, or
 - (b) where a direction has been given under subsection (1) which concerns the trial, to the Crown Court sitting at the place specified in the direction; and section 48 of the ^{M8}Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (committal for trial on indictment) shall have effect accordingly.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) in accordance with subsection (2) any person is committed for trial to the Crown Court sitting in Belfast, and
 - (b) a direction is subsequently given under subsection (1), before the commencement of the trial, altering the place of trial, that person shall be treated as having been committed for trial to the Crown Court sitting at the place specified in the direction.

11 Mode of trial on indictment of scheduled offences.

- (1) A trial on indictment of a scheduled offence shall be conducted by the court without a jury.
- (2) The court trying a scheduled offence on indictment under this section shall have all the powers, authorities and jurisdiction which the court would have had if it had been sitting with a jury, including power to determine any question and to make any finding which would, apart from this section, be required to be determined or made by a jury, and references in any enactment to a jury or the verdict or finding of a jury shall be construed accordingly in relation to a trial under this section.
- (3) Where separate counts of an indictment allege a scheduled offence and an offence which is not a scheduled offence, the trial on indictment shall, without prejudice to section 5 of the ^{M9}Indictments Act (Northern Ireland) 1945 (orders for amendment of indictment, separate trial and postponement of trial), be conducted as if all the offences alleged in the indictment were scheduled offences.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (2), where the court trying a scheduled offence on indictment—
 - (a) is not satisfied that the accused is guilty of that offence, but
 - (b) is satisfied that he is guilty of some other offence which is not a scheduled offence, but of which a jury could have found him guilty on a trial for the scheduled offence,

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details) the court may convict him of that other offence.

- (5) Where the court trying a scheduled offence convicts the accused of that or some other offence, then, without prejudice to its power apart from this subsection to give a judgment, it shall, at the time of conviction or as soon as practicable thereafter, give a judgment stating the reasons for the conviction.
- (6) A person convicted of any offence on a trial under this section without a jury may, notwithstanding anything in sections 1 and 10(1) of the^{M10}Criminal Appeal (Northern Ireland) Act 1980, appeal to the Court of Appeal under Part I of that Act—
- (a) against his conviction, on any ground, without the leave of the Court of Appeal or a certificate of the judge of the court of trial; and
 - (b) against sentence passed on conviction, without that leave, unless the sentence is one fixed by law.
- (7) Where a person is so convicted, the time for giving notice of appeal under subsection (1) of section 16 of that Act of 1980 shall run from the date of judgment if later than the date from which it would run under that subsection.

Evidence and onus of proof

12 Admissions by persons charged with scheduled offences.

- (1) In any criminal proceedings for a scheduled offence, or for two or more offences at least one of which is a scheduled offence, a statement made by the accused may be given in evidence by the prosecution in so far as—
- (a) it is relevant to any matter in issue in the proceedings, and
 - (b) it is not excluded by the court in pursuance of subsection (2) or in the exercise of its discretion referred to in subsection (3) (and has not been rendered inadmissible by virtue of such a direction as is mentioned in subsection (2) (iii)).
- (2) Where in any such proceedings—
- (a) the prosecution proposes to give, or (as the case may be) has given, in evidence a statement made by the accused, and
 - (b) prima facie evidence is adduced that the accused was subjected to torture, to inhuman or degrading treatment, or to any violence or threat of violence (whether or not amounting to torture), in order to induce him to make the statement,

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

then, unless the prosecution satisfies the court that the statement was not obtained by so subjecting the accused in the manner indicated by that evidence, the court shall do one of the following things, namely—

- (i) in the case of a statement proposed to be given in evidence, exclude the statement;
- (ii) in the case of a statement already received in evidence, continue the trial disregarding the statement; or
- (iii) in either case, direct that the trial shall be restarted before a differently constituted court (before which the statement in question shall be inadmissible).

(3) It is hereby declared that, in the case of any statement made by the accused and not obtained by so subjecting him as mentioned in subsection (2)(b), the court in any such proceedings as are mentioned in subsection (1) has a discretion to do one of the things mentioned in subsection (2)(i) to (iii) if it appears to the court that it is appropriate to do so in order to avoid unfairness to the accused or otherwise in the interests of justice.

(4) This section does not apply to a summary trial.

13 Onus of proof in relation to offences of possession.

(1) Where a person is charged with possessing a proscribed article in such circumstances as to constitute an offence to which this section applies and it is proved that at the time of the alleged offence—

- (a) he and that article were both present in any premises; or
- (b) the article was in premises of which he was the occupier or which he habitually used otherwise than as a member of the public, the court may accept the fact proved as sufficient evidence of his possessing (and, if relevant, knowingly possessing) that article at that time unless it is further proved that he did not at that time know of its presence in the premises in question, or, if he did know, that he had no control over it.

(2) This section applies to vessels, aircraft and vehicles as it applies to premises.

(3) In this section “proscribed article” means an explosive, firearm, ammunition, substance or other thing (being a thing possession of which is an offence under one of the enactments mentioned in subsection (4)).

(4) This section applies to scheduled offences under the following enactments, that is to say—

The ^{M11}Explosive Substances Act 1883

Section 3, so far as relating to subsection (1)(b) thereof (possessing explosive with intent to endanger life or cause serious damage to property).

Section 4 (possessing explosive in suspicious circumstances).

The Protection of the ^{M12}Person and Property Act (Northern Ireland) 1969

Section 2 (possessing petrol bomb, etc, in suspicious circumstances).

The ^{M13}Firearms (Northern Ireland) Order 1981

Article 6(1) (manufacturing, dealing in or possessing certain weapons, etc.).

Article 17 (possessing firearm or ammunition with intent to endanger life or cause serious damage to property).

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Article 18(2) (possessing firearm or imitation firearm at time of committing, or being arrested for, a specified offence).

Article 22(1), (2) or (4) (possession of a firearm or ammunition by a person who has been sentenced to imprisonment, etc.).

Article 23 (possessing firearm or ammunition in suspicious circumstances).

(5) This section does not apply to a summary trial.

15 Restricted remission for persons sentenced for scheduled offences.

- (1) The remission granted under prison rules in respect of a sentence of imprisonment passed in Northern Ireland for a scheduled offence shall not, where it is for a term of five years or more, exceed one-third of that term.
- (2) Where a person is sentenced on the same occasion for two or more such offences to terms which are consecutive subsection (1) shall apply as if those terms were a single term.
- (3) Where a person is serving two or more terms which are consecutive but not all subject to subsection (1), the maximum remission granted under prison rules in respect of those terms taken together shall be arrived at by calculating the maximum remission for each term separately and aggregating the result.

- (5) The Secretary of State may by order substitute a different length of sentence and a different maximum period of remission for those mentioned in subsection (1).
- (6) This section applies where—
- (a) the scheduled offence is committed while this section is in force;
 - (b) the offence (being a scheduled offence within the meaning of the ^{M15}Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1991) was committed while section 14 of that Act was in force; or
 - (c) the offence (being a scheduled offence within the meaning of the ^{M16}Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1978) was committed while section 22 of the ^{M17}Prevention of Terrorism (Temporary Provisions) Act 1989 was in force.

16 Conviction of scheduled offence during period of remission.

- (1) This section applies where a person who has been sentenced to imprisonment or a term of detention in a young offenders centre for a period exceeding one year—
- (a) is discharged from prison or the centre in pursuance of prison rules; and
 - (b) before that sentence or term of detention would (but for that discharge) have expired he commits, and is convicted on indictment of, a scheduled offence.
- (2) If the court before which he is convicted of the scheduled offence sentences him to imprisonment or a term of detention it shall in addition order him to be returned to prison or, where appropriate, to a young offenders centre for the period between the date of the order and the date on which the sentence of imprisonment or term of detention mentioned in subsection (1) would have expired but for his discharge.
- (3) No order shall be made under subsection (2) if the sentence imposed by the court is a suspended sentence or a sentence of life imprisonment or of detention during the Secretary of State's pleasure under [^{F2}Article 45(2) of the Criminal Justice (Children) (Northern Ireland) Order 1998]; and any order made by a court under that subsection shall cease to have effect if an appeal results in the acquittal of the person concerned or in the substitution of a sentence other than one in respect of which the duty imposed by that subsection applies.
- (4) The period for which a person is ordered under this section to be returned to prison or a young offenders centre—
- (a) shall be taken to be a sentence of imprisonment or term of detention for the purposes of the ^{M18}Prison Act (Northern Ireland) 1953 and for the purposes of the ^{M19}Treatment of Offenders Act (Northern Ireland) 1968 other than section 26(2) (reduction for time spent in custody);
 - (b) shall not be subject to any provision of prison rules for discharge before expiry; and

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (c) shall be served before, and be followed by, the sentence or term imposed for the scheduled offence and be disregarded in determining the appropriate length of that sentence or term.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a certificate purporting to be signed by the governor or deputy governor of a prison or young offenders centre which specifies—
 - (a) the date on which a person was discharged from prison or a young offenders centre;
 - (b) the sentence or term which the person was serving at the time of his discharge, the offence in respect of which the sentence or term was imposed and the date on which he was convicted of that offence;
 - (c) the date on which the person would, but for his discharge in pursuance of prison rules, have been discharged from prison or a young offenders centre,shall be evidence of the matters so specified.
- (6) In this section—
 - “prison rules” means rules made under section 13 of the Prison Act (Northern Ireland) 1953;
 - “sentence of imprisonment” does not include a committal in default of payment of any sum of money or for want of sufficient distress to satisfy any sum of money or for failure to do or abstain from doing anything required to be done or left undone;
 - “young offenders centre” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2(a) of the ^{M20}Treatment of Offenders Act (Northern Ireland) 1968.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (1) consecutive terms of imprisonment or of detention in a young offenders centre shall be treated as a single term and a sentence of imprisonment or detention in a young offenders centre includes—
 - (a) a sentence or term passed by a court in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man;
 - (b) in the case of imprisonment, a sentence passed by a court-martial on a person found guilty of a civil offence within the meaning of the ^{M21}Army Act 1955, the ^{M22}Air Force Act 1955 and the ^{M23}Naval Discipline Act 1957.
- (8) The Secretary of State may by order substitute a different period for the period of one year mentioned in subsection (1).
- (9) This section applies irrespective of when the discharge from prison or a young offenders centre took place but only if—
 - (a) the scheduled offence is committed while this section is in force;
 - (b) the offence (being a scheduled offence within the meaning of the ^{M24}Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1991) was committed while section 15 of that Act was in force; or
 - (c) the offence (being a scheduled offence within the meaning of the ^{M25}Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1978) was committed while section 23 of the ^{M26}Prevention of Terrorism (Temporary Provisions) Act 1989 was in force.

PART II

POWERS OF ARREST, SEARCH AND SEIZURE, ETC.

17 Entry and search of premises for purpose of arresting terrorists.

For the purpose of arresting a person under section 14(1)(b) of the Prevention of Terrorism (Temporary Provisions) Act 1989 (arrest of persons suspected of being concerned in acts of terrorism) a constable may enter and search any premises or other place where that person is or where the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting him to be.

18 Constables' general power of arrest and seizure.

- (1) Any constable may arrest without warrant any person who he has reasonable grounds to suspect is committing, has committed or is about to commit a scheduled offence or an offence under this Act which is not a scheduled offence.
- (2) For the purpose of arresting a person under this section a constable may enter and search any premises or other place where that person is or where the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting him to be.
- (3) A constable may seize anything which he has reasonable grounds to suspect is being, has been or is intended to be used in the commission of a scheduled offence or an offence under this Act which is not a scheduled offence.

19 Powers of arrest and seizure by members of Her Majesty's forces.

- (1) Any member of Her Majesty's forces on duty may arrest without warrant, and detain for not more than four hours, a person who he has reasonable grounds to suspect is committing, has committed or is about to commit any offence.
- (2) A person effecting an arrest under this section complies with any rule of law requiring him to state the ground of arrest if he states that he is effecting the arrest as a member of Her Majesty's forces.
- (3) For the purpose of arresting a person under this section a member of Her Majesty's forces may enter and search any premises or other place—
 - (a) where that person is, or

- (b) if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that that person is a terrorist or has committed an offence involving the use or possession of an explosive substance or firearm, where there are reasonable grounds for suspecting him to be.
- (4) Any member of Her Majesty's forces may seize, and detain for not more than four hours, anything which he has reasonable grounds to suspect is being, has been or is intended to be used in the commission of an offence under section 26 or 27.

20 Power to search for munitions, radio transmitters and scanning receivers.

- (1) Any member of Her Majesty's forces on duty or any constable may enter any premises or other place other than a dwelling-house for the purpose of ascertaining—
 - (a) whether there are any munitions unlawfully at that place; or
 - (b) whether there is a transmitter at that place;and may search the place for any munitions or transmitter with a view to exercising the powers conferred by subsection (7).
- (2) Any member of Her Majesty's forces on duty authorised by a commissioned officer of those forces or any constable authorised by an officer of the Royal Ulster Constabulary not below the rank of inspector may enter any dwelling-house in which there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there are unlawfully any munitions or that there is a transmitter and may search it for any munitions or transmitter with a view to exercising the said powers.
- (3) If it is necessary for the purpose of effectively carrying out a search—
 - (a) a member of Her Majesty's forces or constable exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1) may be accompanied by other persons; and
 - (b) any authority given under subsection (2) may authorise other persons to accompany the member of Her Majesty's forces or constable to whom the authority is given.
- (4) If the member of Her Majesty's forces or constable carrying out a search under subsection (1) or (2) reasonably believes that it is necessary to do so for the purpose of effectively carrying out the search or of preventing the frustration of its object he may—
 - (a) require any person who when the search begins is on, or during the search enters, the premises or other place where the search is carried out ("the place of search") to remain in, or in a specified part of, that place, to refrain from entering a specified part of it or to go from one specified part of it to another specified part;
 - (b) require any person who is not resident in the place of search to refrain from entering it; and
 - (c) use reasonable force to secure compliance with any such requirement.
- (5) No requirement imposed under subsection (4) shall have effect after the conclusion of the search in relation to which it was imposed; and no such requirement shall be imposed or have effect after the end of the period of four hours beginning with the time when that or any other requirement was first imposed under that subsection in relation to the search in question but an officer of the Royal Ulster Constabulary not below the rank of superintendent may extend that period by a further period of four hours if he reasonably believes that it is necessary to do so for the purpose mentioned in that subsection.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Any member of Her Majesty's forces on duty or any constable may—
- (a) stop any person in any public place and, with a view to exercising the powers conferred by subsection (7), search him for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has any munitions unlawfully with him or any transmitter with him; and
 - (b) with a view to exercising the said powers—
 - (i) search any person not in a public place who he has reasonable grounds to suspect has any munitions unlawfully with him or any transmitter with him; and
 - (ii) search any person entering or found in a dwelling-house entered under subsection (2).
- (7) Where a member of Her Majesty's forces or a constable is empowered by virtue of any provision of this Act to search any premises or other place or any person—
- (a) he may seize any munitions found in the course of the search (unless it appears to him that the munitions are being, have been and will be used only lawfully) and may retain and, if necessary, destroy them; and
 - (b) he may seize any transmitter found in the course of the search (unless it appears to him that the transmitter has been, is being and is likely to be used only lawfully) and may retain it.
- (8) The preceding provisions of this section shall have effect in relation to scanning receivers as they have effect in relation to transmitters.
- (9) In this section—
- “munitions” means—
 - (a) explosives, explosive substances, firearms and ammunition; and
 - (b) anything used or capable of being used in the manufacture of any explosive, explosive substance, firearm or ammunition;
 - “scanning receiver” means—
 - (a) any apparatus for wireless telegraphy designed or adapted for the purpose of automatically monitoring selected frequencies, or automatically scanning a selected range of frequencies, so as to enable transmissions on any of those frequencies to be detected or intercepted; or
 - (b) part of any such apparatus;
 - “transmitter” means any apparatus for wireless telegraphy designed or adapted for emission, as opposed to reception, or part of any such apparatus;
 - “wireless telegraphy” has the same meaning as in section 19(1) of the ^{M27}Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949.

- (a) the address of the premises, or a description of the place, which is searched;
 - (b) the date and time of the search;
 - (c) any damage caused in the course of the search; and
 - (d) anything seized in the course of the search.
- (2) Such a record shall also include the name (if known) of any person appearing to the person making the record to be the occupier of the premises or other place searched; but—
 - (a) a person may not be detained to find out his name; and
 - (b) if the person making the record does not know the name of a person appearing to him to be the occupier of the premises or other place searched, he shall include in the record a note otherwise describing him.
- (3) Such a record shall identify the person by whom the search is carried out—
 - (a) in the case of a constable, by reference to his police number; and
 - (b) in the case of a member of Her Majesty's forces, by reference to his service number, rank and regiment.
- (4) Where a record of a search is made under this section a copy of the record shall be supplied at once or, where that is not practicable, as soon as is practicable to any person appearing to the person making the record to be the occupier of the premises or other place searched.
- (5) A person who wilfully fails to comply with a requirement imposed under section 20(4) or wilfully obstructs, or seeks to frustrate the object of, a search in relation to which such a requirement has been or could be imposed is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both.
- (6) A person who fails to stop when required to do so under subsection (6) of section 20 is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

22 Powers of explosives inspectors.

- (1) An inspector appointed under section 53 of the ^{M28}Explosives Act 1875 may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is unlawfully in any premises or other place other than a dwelling-house any explosive or explosive substance, enter that place and search it with a view to exercising the powers conferred by subsection (3).
- (2) Any such inspector may, with a view to exercising those powers, stop any person in a public place and search him for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has any explosive or explosive substance unlawfully with him.
- (3) Any such inspector may seize any explosive or explosive substance found in the course of a search under this section unless it appears to him that it is being, has been and will be used only for a lawful purpose and may retain and, if necessary, destroy it.

30 Proscribed organisations.

- (1) Subject to subsection (6), any person who—
 - (a) belongs or professes to belong to a proscribed organisation; or
 - (b) solicits or invites support for a proscribed organisation other than support with money or other property; or

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (c) solicits or invites any person to become a member of a proscribed organisation or to carry out on behalf of a proscribed organisation orders or directions given, or requests made, by a member of that organisation; or
- (d) arranges or assists in the arrangement or management of, or addresses, any meeting of three or more persons (whether or not it is a meeting to which the public are admitted) knowing that the meeting—
 - (i) is to support a proscribed organisation;
 - (ii) is to further the activities of such an organisation; or
 - (iii) is to be addressed by a person belonging or professing to belong to such an organisation, is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years or a fine or both and on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both.
- (2) The organisations specified in Schedule 2 to this Act are proscribed organisations for the purposes of this Act; and any organisation which passes under a name mentioned in that Schedule shall be treated as proscribed, whatever relationship (if any) it has to any other organisation of the same name.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order add to Schedule 2 to this Act any organisation that appears to him to be concerned in terrorism or in promoting or encouraging it.
- (4) The Secretary of State may also by order remove an organisation from Schedule 2 to this Act.
- (5) The possession by a person of a document—
 - (a) addressed to him as a member of a proscribed organisation; or
 - (b) relating or purporting to relate to the affairs of a proscribed organisation; or
 - (c) emanating or purporting to emanate from a proscribed organisation or officer of a proscribed organisation, shall be evidence of that person belonging to the organisation at the time when he had the document in his possession.
- (6) A person belonging to a proscribed organisation shall—
 - (a) if the organisation is a proscribed organisation by virtue of an order under subsection (3); or
 - (b) if this section has ceased to be in force but has been subsequently brought into force by an order under section 62(3), not be guilty of an offence under this section by reason of belonging to the organisation if he has not after the coming into force of the order under subsection (3) or the coming into force again of this section, as the case may be, taken part in any activities of the organisation.
- (7) Subsection (6) shall apply in relation to a person belonging to the Red Hand Commando, the Ulster Freedom Fighters, the Ulster Volunteer Force, the Irish National Liberation Army, the Irish People's Liberation Organisation or the Ulster Defence Association as if the organisation were proscribed by virtue of an order under subsection (3) with the substitution in subsection (6) for the reference to the coming into force of such an order of a reference—
 - (a) as respects a person belonging to the Red Hand Commando or the Ulster Freedom Fighters, to 12th November 1973;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) as respects a person belonging to the Ulster Volunteer Force, to 4th October 1975;
- (c) as respects a person belonging to the Irish National Liberation Army, to 3rd July 1979;
- (d) as respects a person belonging to the Irish People's Liberation Organisation, to 29th March 1990;
- (e) as respects a person belonging to the Ulster Defence Association, to 11th August 1992.

[^{F3}30A Evidence and inferences.

- (1) This section applies where a person is charged with an offence under section 30(1)(a); and references here to a specified organisation must be construed in accordance with section 30B.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent states in oral evidence that in his opinion the accused—
 - (a) belongs to an organisation which is specified, or
 - (b) belonged at a particular time to an organisation which was then specified.
- (3) If this subsection applies—
 - (a) the statement shall be admissible as evidence of the matter stated, but
 - (b) the accused shall not be committed for trial or be found to have a case to answer or be convicted solely on the basis of the statement.
- (4) Subsection (6) applies if evidence is given that—
 - (a) at any time before being charged with the offence the accused, on being questioned under caution by a constable, failed to mention a fact which is material to the offence and which he could reasonably be expected to mention, and
 - (b) before being questioned he was permitted to consult a solicitor.
- (5) Subsection (6) also applies if evidence is given that—
 - (a) on being charged with the offence or informed by a constable that he might be prosecuted for it the accused failed to mention a fact which is material to the offence and which he could reasonably be expected to mention, and
 - (b) before being charged or informed he was permitted to consult a solicitor.
- (6) If this subsection applies—
 - (a) the court, in considering any question whether the accused belongs or belonged at a particular time to a specified organisation, may draw from the failure inferences relating to that question, but
 - (b) the accused shall not be committed for trial or be found to have a case to answer or be convicted solely on the basis of the inferences.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Subject to any directions by the court, evidence tending to establish the failure may be given before or after evidence tending to establish the fact which the accused is alleged to have failed to mention.
- (8) This section does not—
- (a) prejudice the admissibility of evidence admissible apart from this section;
 - (b) preclude the drawing of inferences which could be drawn apart from this section;
 - (c) prejudice an enactment providing (in whatever words) that an answer or evidence given by a person in specified circumstances is not admissible in evidence against him or some other person in any proceedings or class of proceedings (however described, and whether civil or criminal).
- (9) In subsection (8)(c) the reference to giving evidence is a reference to giving it in any manner (whether by giving information, making discovery, producing documents or otherwise).
- (10) In this section “police officer” means a member of—
- (a) a police force within the meaning of the ^{M35}Police Act 1996 or the ^{M36}Police (Scotland) Act 1967, or
 - (b) the Royal Ulster Constabulary.
- (11) This section does not apply to a statement made or failure occurring before the day on which the Criminal Justice (Terrorism and Conspiracy) Act 1998 was passed.]

^{F4}30B Specified organisations.

- (1) For the purposes of section 30A an organisation is specified at a particular time if at that time—
- (a) it is specified under section 3(8) of the ^{M37}Northern Ireland (Sentences) Act 1998 or under subsection (2) below, and
 - (b) it is, or forms part of, an organisation which is proscribed for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) If the condition in subsection (3) is satisfied the Secretary of State may by order specify an organisation which is not specified under section 3(8) of the Northern Ireland (Sentences) Act 1998.
- (3) The condition is that the Secretary of State believes that the organisation—
- (a) is concerned in terrorism connected with the affairs of Northern Ireland, or in promoting or encouraging it, and
 - (b) has not established or is not maintaining a complete and unequivocal ceasefire.

REGULATION OF THE PROVISION OF PRIVATE SECURITY SERVICES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C19 Pt. V (ss. 37-44) amended (20.7.2000) by 2000 c. 11, ss. 2(2), 128, Sch. 1 para. 12

37 Prohibition on provision of security services without a certificate.

- (1) A person shall not provide, or offer to provide, security services for reward, unless he is, or is acting on behalf of, the holder of a certificate in force under this Part of this Act.
- (2) A person shall not publish, or cause to be published, any advertisement for the provision of such services by a person who is not the holder of such a certificate.
- (3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or a fine or both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both.
- (4) Where a person is charged with an offence under this section in respect of an advertisement it shall be a defence for him to prove—
 - (a) that he is a person whose business it is to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements; and
 - (b) that he received the advertisement for publication in the ordinary course of business; and
 - (c) that he had reasonable grounds for believing that the person advertised as the provider of the security services in question was the holder of a certificate in force under this Part of this Act.
- (5) In this Part of this Act “security services” means the services of one or more individuals as security guards (whether with or without any other services relating to the protection of property or persons).

38 Applications for certificates.

- (1) An application for a certificate under this Part of this Act—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) shall be made to the Secretary of State in such manner and form as he may specify, and
- (b) shall be accompanied by such information as he may specify concerning—
 - (i) the applicant;
 - (ii) any business carried on or proposed to be carried on by the applicant and involving the provision of security services for reward;
 - (iii) any persons whom the applicant employs, or proposes to employ, as security guards;
 - (iv) any partners or proposed partners of the applicant or (if the applicant is a partnership) the members, and any proposed members, of the partnership; and
 - (v) if the applicant is a body corporate, the officers, and any proposed officers, of that body.
- (2) Any person who, in connection with any such application, knowingly or recklessly furnishes the Secretary of State with information which is false or misleading in a material respect is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both.
- (3) In this section—
 - (a) “officer” includes a director, manager or secretary; and
 - (b) any reference to the employment or proposed employment of any person or persons by an applicant for a certificate under this Part of this Act shall, in relation to an applicant who is, or is a member of, a partnership, be construed as a reference to the employment or proposed employment of any person or persons by the partnership or any of the partners.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors of a body corporate are accustomed to act shall be treated as an officer of that body, except that a person shall not be so treated by reason only that the directors act on advice given by him in a professional capacity.

39 Issue, duration and revocation of certificates.

- (1) Where an application for a certificate under this Part of this Act has been made to the Secretary of State in accordance with section 38, the Secretary of State may only refuse to issue such a certificate to the applicant in a case where he is satisfied that an organisation falling within subsection (8) below would be likely to benefit from the issue of the certificate or that the applicant has persistently failed to comply with the requirements of this Part of this Act or of Part V of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1991; and if the Secretary of State refuses to issue a certificate he shall notify the applicant of the refusal.
- (2) A certificate under this Part of this Act shall come into force at the beginning of the day on which it is issued and, subject to subsection (3), shall expire at the end of the period of twelve months beginning with that day.
- (3) Where the certificate is issued to a person who already holds a certificate in force under this Part of this Act, the new certificate shall expire at the end of the period of

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details) twelve months beginning with the day following that on which that person's current certificate expires.

- (4) The Secretary of State may from time to time by order substitute for the period specified in each of subsections (2) and (3) such period exceeding twelve months as is specified in the order.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the Secretary of State may revoke a certificate in force under this Part of this Act if he is satisfied that an organisation falling within subsection (8) would be likely to benefit from the certificate remaining in force or that the holder of the certificate has persistently failed to comply with the requirements of this Part of this Act or of Part V of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1991.
- (6) The Secretary of State shall not revoke a certificate under subsection (5) unless the holder of the certificate—
 - (a) has been notified of the Secretary of State's intention to revoke it, and
 - (b) has been given a reasonable opportunity of making representations to the Secretary of State.
- (7) If the Secretary of State revokes a certificate under subsection (5), he shall forthwith notify the holder of the certificate of its revocation.
- (8) An organisation falls within this subsection if—
 - (a) it is for the time being a proscribed organisation; or
 - (b) it appears to the Secretary of State to be closely associated with an organisation which is for the time being a proscribed organisation.
- (9) In this section "benefit" means benefit whether directly or indirectly and whether financially or in any other way.

40 Duty to notify Secretary of State of changes of personnel.

- (1) Where—
 - (a) an application has been made by any person under section 38, and
 - (b) that person proposes to employ a person as a security guard as from a relevant time, and
 - (c) information concerning the proposed employee was not furnished to the Secretary of State in pursuance of section 38(1)(b)(iii) at the time when the application was made,the person who made the application shall, not later than fourteen days before that relevant time, notify to the Secretary of State such information concerning the proposed employee as the Secretary of State may specify.
- (2) Where an application has been made by any person under section 38, that person shall notify to the Secretary of State such information concerning any change to which this subsection applies as the Secretary of State may specify, and shall so notify any such information—
 - (a) not later than fourteen days before the change occurs; or
 - (b) if that is not reasonably practicable, as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in relation to an application made by a partnership or by a member of a partnership, to any change occurring at a relevant time in the members of the partnership, and
 - (b) in relation to an application made by a body corporate, to any change occurring at a relevant time in the officers of that body,
- unless the change involves a person becoming a partner or officer and information relating to that change was furnished to the Secretary of State in pursuance of section 38(1)(b)(iv) or (v) at the time when the application was made.
- (4) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or both.
- (5) In this section “relevant time”, in relation to an application made under section 38, means a time when—
- (a) the application has been neither granted nor refused by the Secretary of State; or
 - (b) a certificate issued in pursuance of the application is in force under this Part of this Act;
- and subsections (3) and (4) of that section apply also for the purposes of this section.

41 Records of employees.

- (1) A constable may enter any premises where a business involving the provision of security services is carried on and require to be produced for his inspection any records kept there of persons employed as security guards.
- (2) A constable exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1) shall identify himself to the person appearing to be in charge of the premises in question and, if not in uniform, shall produce to that person documentary evidence that he is a constable.
- (3) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to produce for inspection any records required to be produced under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or both.
- (4) Any person providing security services for reward who makes or keeps records of persons employed by him as security guards which he knows to be false or misleading in a material respect is guilty of an offence and liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both.

42 Payments in respect of the provision of security services.

- (1) Any person who, in respect of the provision of security services, pays any sum of money to a person who is neither—
- (a) the holder of a certificate in force under this Part of this Act, nor
 - (b) a person acting on behalf of the holder of such a certificate,
- is guilty of an offence.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or both.
- (3) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that, at the time when he paid the money in question, he had reasonable grounds for believing that the person to whom he paid it was, or was acting on behalf of, the holder of a certificate in force under this Part of this Act.

43 Liability of directors, etc.

- (1) Where an offence under this Part of this Act which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

44 Notifications.

- (1) Any notification given under this Part of this Act shall be in writing.
- (2) Any notification required by this Part of this Act to be given by any person to the Secretary of State may be sent to him by post.
- (3) Any notification required by this Part of this Act to be given by the Secretary of State to any person may—
 - (a) if that person is an individual, be sent to him by post addressed to him at his usual or last-known place of residence or business;
 - (b) if that person is a partnership, be sent to a partner, or to a person having the control or management of the partnership business, at the principal office of the partnership; or
 - (c) if that person is a body corporate, be sent to the secretary or clerk of that body at its registered or principal office.
- (4) This section is without prejudice to any other lawful method of giving a notification.

PART VI

PERSONS IN POLICE CUSTODY UNDER TERRORISM PROVISIONS

45 The terrorism provisions and police custody.

- (1) In this Part of this Act “the terrorism provisions” means section 14 of the^{M40} Prevention of Terrorism (Temporary Provisions) Act 1989 and any provision of Schedule 2 or 5 to that Act conferring a power of arrest or detention.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A person is held in police custody for the purposes of this Part of this Act if he is detained at a police station or is detained elsewhere in the charge of a constable except that a person who is at a court after being charged with an offence is not held in police custody for the purposes of section 46 below.

46 Right to have someone informed of detention under terrorism provisions.

- (1) A person who is detained under the terrorism provisions and is being held in police custody shall be entitled, if he so requests, to have one friend or relative or other person who is known to him or is likely to take an interest in his welfare told that he is being detained under those provisions and where he is being held in police custody.
- (2) A person shall be informed of the right conferred on him by subsection (1) as soon as practicable after he has become a person to whom that subsection applies.
- (3) A request made by a person under subsection (1), and the time at which it is made, shall be recorded in writing.
- (4) If a person makes such a request, it must be complied with as soon as is practicable except to the extent that any delay is permitted by this section.
- (5) Any delay in complying with such a request is only permitted if—
- (a) it is authorised by an officer of at least the rank of superintendent; and
 - (b) it does not extend beyond the end of the period referred to in subsection (6).
- (6) That period is—
- (a) except where paragraph (b) applies, the period of forty-eight hours beginning with the time when the detained person was first detained under the terrorism provisions;
 - (b) where the detained person was, prior to the time when he was first so detained, being examined in accordance with paragraph 2 of Schedule 5 to the ^{M41}Prevention of Terrorism (Temporary Provisions) Act 1989, the period of forty-eight hours beginning with the time when he was first so examined.
- (7) An officer may give an authorisation under subsection (5) orally or in writing but, if he gives it orally, he shall confirm it in writing as soon as is practicable.
- (8) An officer may only authorise a delay in complying with a request under subsection (1) where he has reasonable grounds for believing that telling the person named in the request of the detention of the detained person—
- (a) will lead to interference with or harm to evidence connected with a scheduled offence or interference with or physical injury to any person; or
 - (b) will lead to the alerting of any person suspected of having committed such an offence but not yet arrested for it; or
 - (c) will hinder the recovery of any property obtained as a result of such an offence; or
 - (d) will lead to interference with the gathering of information about the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism; or

- (e) by alerting any person, will make it more difficult—
 - (i) to prevent an act of terrorism; or
 - (ii) to secure the apprehension, prosecution or conviction of any person in connection with the commission, preparation or instigation of an act of terrorism.
- (9) If any delay is authorised, then, as soon as is practicable—
 - (a) the detained person shall be told the reason for authorising it; and
 - (b) the reason shall be recorded in writing.
- (10) Any authorisation under subsection (5) shall cease to have effect once the reason for giving it ceases to subsist.
- (11) The right conferred by subsection (1) may be exercised by a person to whom that subsection applies on each occasion when he is transferred from one place to another; and this section applies to each subsequent occasion on which that right is so exercised as it applies to the first such occasion.
- (12) Subsection (11) shall not be construed as prejudicing the operation of a request by a person to whom subsection (1) applies which was made, but not complied with, before he was transferred.

47 Right of access to legal advice.

- (1) A person who is detained under the terrorism provisions and is being held in police custody shall be entitled, if he so requests, to consult a solicitor privately.
- (2) A person shall be informed of the right conferred on him by subsection (1) as soon as practicable after he has become a person to whom that subsection applies.
- (3) A request made by a person under subsection (1), and the time at which it is made, shall be recorded in writing unless it is made by him while at a court after being charged with an offence.
- (4) If a person makes such a request, he must be permitted to consult a solicitor as soon as is practicable except to the extent that any delay is permitted by this section.
- (5) Any delay in complying with a request under subsection (1) is only permitted if—
 - (a) it is authorised by an officer of at least the rank of superintendent; and
 - (b) it does not extend beyond the relevant time.
- (6) In subsection (5) “the relevant time” means—
 - (a) where the request is the first request made by the detained person under subsection (1), the end of the period referred to in section 46(6); or
 - (b) where the request follows an earlier request made by the detained person under that subsection in pursuance of which he has consulted a solicitor, the end of the period of forty-eight hours beginning with the time when that consultation began.

- (7) An officer may give an authorisation under subsection (5) orally or in writing but, if he gives it orally, he shall confirm it in writing as soon as is practicable.
- (8) An officer may only authorise a delay in complying with a request under subsection (1) where he has reasonable grounds for believing that the exercise of the right conferred by that subsection at the time when the detained person desires to exercise it—
 - (a) will lead to interference with or harm to evidence connected with a scheduled offence or interference with or physical injury to any person; or
 - (b) will lead to the alerting of any person suspected of having committed such an offence but not yet arrested for it; or
 - (c) will hinder the recovery of any property obtained as a result of such an offence; or
 - (d) will lead to interference with the gathering of information about the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism; or
 - (e) by alerting any person, will make it more difficult—
 - (i) to prevent an act of terrorism; or
 - (ii) to secure the apprehension, prosecution or conviction of any person in connection with the commission, preparation or instigation of an act of terrorism.
- (9) If any delay is authorised, then, as soon as is practicable—
 - (a) the detained person shall be told the reason for authorising it; and
 - (b) the reason shall be recorded in writing.
- (10) If an officer of at least the rank of Assistant Chief Constable has reasonable grounds for believing that, unless he gives a direction under subsection (11), the exercise by a person of the right conferred by subsection (1) will have any of the consequences specified in subsection (8), he may give a direction under subsection (11).
- (11) A direction under this subsection is a direction that a person desiring to exercise the right conferred by subsection (1) may only consult a solicitor in the sight and hearing of a qualified officer of the uniformed branch of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.
- (12) An officer is qualified for the purposes of subsection (11) if—
 - (a) he is of at least the rank of inspector; and
 - (b) in the opinion of the officer giving the direction, he has no connection with the case.
- (13) Any authorisation under subsection (5) or direction under subsection (11) shall cease to have effect once the reason for giving it ceases to subsist.

48 Fingerprinting.

55 Right to compensation.

- (1) Where under this Act any real or personal property is taken, occupied, destroyed or damaged, or any other act is done interfering with private rights of property, compensation shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be payable by the Secretary of State to any person who—
 - (a) has an estate or interest in that property or (as the case may be) is entitled to those rights of property, and
 - (b) suffers loss or damage as a result of the act.
- (2) No compensation shall be payable under this section in respect of any act falling within subsection (1) unless an application for such compensation is made to the Secretary of State, in such manner as he may specify, within—
 - (a) the period of four months beginning with the date when the act was done, or
 - (b) such longer period beginning with that date and not exceeding twelve months as—
 - (i) the Secretary of State on a request being made to him in writing, or
 - (ii) the county court on an appeal under subsection (3), may in a particular case allow.
- (3) Where the Secretary of State refuses any request made to him for the purposes of subsection (2)(b), he shall serve a notice of his refusal on the person who made the request, and that person may, within the period of six weeks beginning with the date of service of the notice, appeal to the county court against that refusal.
- (4) Where the Secretary of State has determined any application for compensation made in accordance with subsection (2), he shall serve on the applicant either—
 - (a) a notice stating that he has decided to award the applicant compensation in pursuance of his application and specifying the amount of the award, or
 - (b) a notice stating that he has decided to refuse the application;
 and the applicant may within the period of six weeks beginning with the date of service of the notice appeal to the county court against the decision of the Secretary of State to pay the amount of compensation specified in the notice or (as the case may be) to refuse the application and unless he so appeals within that period that decision shall become in all respects final and binding.
- (5) Any notice served under subsection (3) or (4) shall contain particulars of the right of appeal under that subsection and, in the case of a notice served under subsection (4), of the consequences of a failure to exercise that right.

that other person (or, if he is subject to any legal disability, the person appearing to the Secretary of State to be entitled to act on his behalf) may be treated by the Secretary of State as the applicant for the purposes of any provision of this section.

(7) Where—

- (a) a person has a right to compensation in respect of any act falling within subsection (1), and
- (b) the act was done in connection with, or revealed evidence of the commission of—
 - (i) a scheduled offence, or
 - (ii) an offence under this Act other than a scheduled offence, and
- (c) proceedings for that offence are brought against that person, his right to such compensation shall not be enforceable at any time when any such proceedings have not been concluded or if he is convicted of the offence.

56 Compensation: notices.

Any notice required by section 55 to be served on any person by the Secretary of State may—

- (a) if that person is an individual, be served on him—
 - (i) by delivering it to him, or
 - (ii) by sending it by post addressed to him at his usual or last-known place of residence or business, or
 - (iii) by leaving it for him there;
- (b) if that person is a partnership, be served on the partnership—
 - (i) by sending it by post to a partner, or to a person having the control or management of the partnership business, at the principal office of the partnership, or
 - (ii) by addressing it to a partner or any such person and leaving it at that office;
- (c) if that person is a body corporate, be served on the body—
 - (i) by sending it by post to the secretary or clerk of the body at its registered or principal office, or
 - (ii) by addressing it to the secretary or clerk of the body and leaving it at that office; or
- (d) in any case, be served on that person's solicitor by delivering it to the solicitor, or by sending it by post to him at his office, or by leaving it for him there.
