3 Designation of records and artefacts. E+W+S

- (1) It shall be a function of the [^{F8}Board of Trustees]—
- to designate those records or artefacts, or those classes or descriptions of record or artefact, which in the opinion of the [^{F8}Board of Trustees] are of sufficient interest to warrant preservation; and
 - to notify every body to which this Act applies of the records or artefacts, or the classes or descriptions of record or artefact, so designated.
- (2) The function conferred by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above includes power to revoke or amend designations previously made; and paragraph (b) of that subsection shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, references in this section to records or artefacts are references to records kept, or artefacts made, for purposes connected with railways.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Railway Heritage Act 1996. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) References in this section to records do not include references to records which are public records within the meaning of the ^{M1}Public Records Act 1958.

4 Notice of proposed disposal of record or artefact. E+W+S

- (1) Where a body to which this Act applies proposes to dispose of a designated record or artefact to any person to any extent, it shall give notice to the [^{F9}Board of Trustees] containing details of the proposed disposal.
- (2) If the [^{F9}Board of Trustees] is content both with the person to whom the record or artefact is proposed to be disposed of and with the terms of the proposed disposal (including any terms relating to payment), it shall consent to the disposal.
- (3) If the [^{F9}Board of Trustees] is content with that person but not with those terms, it shall give directions to the body with respect to the terms (including any terms relating to payment) on which the body may offer to dispose of the record or artefact to that person to the extent proposed.
- (4) If the [^{F9}Board of Trustees] is not content with that person, it shall give directions to the body—
- specifying the person or persons to whom the body may offer to dispose of the record or artefact to the extent proposed and, where there are two or more such persons, specifying the order in which the offers must be made; and
 - with respect to the terms (including any terms relating to payment) on which the body must make the offer or offers.
- (5) In subsections (2) to (4) above “terms relating to payment” includes terms as to the basis on which the amount or terms of payment are to be settled.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall apply to, and nothing in section 5 below shall preclude, any disposal of a designated record or artefact by a body to which this Act applies if—
- at the time of the disposal, the body has not been notified of the designation;
 - the disposal is made in accordance with a transfer scheme under [^{F10}the Transport Act 2000 [^{F11}or the Railways Act 2005]]; or
 - the disposal is not so made but is a disposal to another body to which this Act applies;

but where such a body makes such a disposal as is mentioned in paragraph (c) above, it shall, within the period of two months beginning with the day of the disposal, give notice to the [^{F9}Board of Trustees] of the disposal.

5 Disposal of record or artefact. E+W+S

- (1) A body to which this Act applies may dispose of a designated record or artefact if, and only if—
- the [^{F12}Board of Trustees] has consented to the disposal under section 4(2) above; or
 - the disposal is made in pursuance of an offer made by the body in accordance with directions given under section 4(3) or (4) above; or
 - the body has given notice of the disposal under section 4(1) above and has made one or more offers in accordance with directions given under section 4(3) or (4) above, but the offer has not been accepted, or (as the case may be) none of the offers has been accepted, within the requisite period; or
 - the body has given notice of the disposal under section 4(1) above, but the [^{F12}Board of Trustees] has neither consented under section 4(2) above, nor given directions under section 4(3) or (4) above, within the requisite period; and in this subsection “the requisite period”, in relation to an offer or notice, means the period of six months beginning with the day on which the offer or notice was made or given.
- (2) Any disposal made in contravention of subsection (1) above shall be void.
- (3) Subject to paragraph 7 of Schedule 1 to the ^{M2}Public Records Act 1958 and any Orders in Council made under that paragraph, nothing in that Schedule shall cause any records disposed of in accordance with subsection (1) above to become, by reason of that or any subsequent disposal, public records within the meaning of that Act.
- (4) Any records disposed of in accordance with subsection (1) above which at any time are for the time being in the custody of the Secretary of State for Scotland may be treated for the purposes of section 5(1) of the ^{M3}Public Records (Scotland) Act 1937 as records belonging to Her Majesty.

7 Interpretation. E+W+S

- (1) In this Act—
 - ^{F14}“Board of Trustees” means the Board of Trustees of the Science Museum established under section 9 of the National Heritage Act 1983;
 - “designated”, in relation to a record or artefact, means designated, or of a class or description designated, by the [^{F15}Board of Trustees] under section 3 above, and “designation” shall be construed accordingly;
 - “disposal”, in relation to a designated record or artefact, includes—
 - (a) a lease or loan of the record or artefact for a period which exceeds twelve months, or for any period to a person to whom the record or artefact has been leased or loaned at any time in the preceding twelve months;
 - (b) the creation of any security over the record or artefact,and “dispose” shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) In this Act expressions which are also used in the ^{M4}Railways Act 1993 have the same meanings as in that Act.
