Section 19(10).

DETERMINATION OF CERTAIN APPEALS BY PERSON APPOINTED BY SECRETARY OF STATE

Determination of appeals by appointed person

- 1
- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe classes of appeals under section 19 which are to be determined by a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose instead of by the Secretary of State.
  - (2) Those classes of appeals shall be so determined except in such classes of case—
    - (a) as may for the time being be prescribed, or
    - (b) as may be specified in directions given by the Secretary of State.
  - (3) Such regulations may provide for the giving of publicity to any directions given by the Secretary of State under this paragraph.
  - (4) This paragraph shall not affect any provision in this Act or any instrument made under it that an appeal shall lie to, or a notice of appeal shall be served on, the Secretary of State.
  - (5) A person appointed under this paragraph is referred to in this Schedule as an “appointed person”.

Powers and duties of appointed person

- (1) An appointed person shall have the same powers and duties as the Secretary of State has under section 19(5), (7) and (9).
  - (2) Subsection (6) of that section shall not apply to an appeal which falls to be determined by an appointed person, but before it is determined the Secretary of State shall ask the appellant and the planning authority whether they wish to appear before and be heard by the appointed person.
  - (3) If both the parties express a wish not to appear and be heard, the appeal may be determined without their being heard.
  - (4) If either of the parties expresses a wish to appear and be heard, the appointed person shall give them both an opportunity of doing so.
  - (5) Where an appeal has been determined by an appointed person, his decision shall be treated as that of the Secretary of State.
  - (6) Except as provided by section 20, the decision of an appointed person on an appeal shall be final.

Determination of appeals by Secretary of State

- (1) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, direct that an appeal which would otherwise fall to be determined by an appointed person shall instead be determined by the Secretary of State.
  - (2) Such a direction shall state the reasons for which it is given and shall be served on the appellant, the planning authority and any person who has made representations relating to the subject matter of the appeal which the authority are required to take into account by regulations made under section 6 or, as the case may be, 15(2) and, if any person has been appointed under paragraph 1, on him.

- (3) Where in consequence of such a direction an appeal under section 19 falls to be determined by the Secretary of State himself, the provisions of this Act which are relevant to the appeal shall, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, apply to the appeal as if this Schedule had never applied to it.
  - (4) The Secretary of State shall give the appellant, the planning authority and any person who has made such representations as are referred to in sub-paragraph (2) an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Secretary of State for that purpose if—
    - (a) the reasons for the direction raise matters with respect to which any of those persons have not made representations, or
    - (b) in the case of the appellant or the planning authority, either of them was not asked in pursuance of paragraph 2(2) whether they wish to appear before and be heard by the appointed person, or expressed no wish in answer to that question, or expressed a wish to appear and be heard, but was not given an opportunity of doing so.
  - (5) Except as provided by sub-paragraph (4), the Secretary of State need not give any person an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed for the purpose, or of making fresh representations or making or withdrawing any representations already made.
  - (6) In determining the appeal the Secretary of State may take into account any report made to him by any person previously appointed to determine it.
- (1) The Secretary of State may by a further direction revoke a direction under paragraph 3 at any time before the determination of the appeal.
  - (2) Such a further direction shall state the reasons for which it is given and shall be served on the person, if any, previously appointed to determine the appeal, the appellant, the planning authority and any person who has made representations relating to the subject matter of the appeal which the authority are required to take into account by regulations made under section 6 or, as the case may be, 15(2).
  - (3) Where such a further direction has been given, the provisions of this Schedule relevant to the appeal shall apply, subject to sub-paragraph (4), as if no direction under paragraph 3 had been given.
  - (4) Anything done by or on behalf of the Secretary of State in connection with the appeal which might have been done by the appointed person (including any arrangements made for the holding of a hearing or local inquiry) shall, unless that person directs otherwise, be treated as having been done by him.

Appointment of another person to determine appeal

- (1) At any time before the appointed person has determined the appeal the Secretary of State may—
    - (a) revoke his appointment, and
    - (b) appoint another person under paragraph 1 to determine the appeal instead.
  - (2) Where such a new appointment is made the consideration of the appeal or any inquiry or other hearing in connection with it shall be begun afresh.
