CHAPTER II

PUPILS’ PERFORMANCE

19 School performance targets.

[(1) [F16 The Welsh Ministers] may by regulations make such provision as [F17 the Welsh Ministers consider] appropriate for requiring the governing bodies of maintained schools [F18 in Wales] to secure that annual targets are set in respect of the performance of pupils—

(a) in public examinations or in assessments for the purposes of the National Curriculum, in the case of pupils of compulsory school age; or

(b) in public examinations or in connection with the attainment of other external qualifications, in the case of pupils of any age over that age.

(2) Regulations under this section may require—

(a) such targets, and

(b) the past performance of pupils in the particular examinations or assessments, or in connection with the attainment of the particular qualifications, to which such targets relate, to be published in such manner as is specified in the regulations.

20 Provision of information about individual pupils’ performance.

After section 537 of the Education Act 1996 there shall be inserted—

“537A Provision of information about individual pupils’ performance.

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring—

(a) the governing body of every school which is—

(i) maintained by a local authority, or
(ii) a grant-maintained school, or
(iii) a special school which is not maintained by a local authority, and

(b) the proprietor of each independent school, for the purpose of this section—

the Secretary of State to provide to the Secretary of State such individual performance information relating to pupils or former pupils at the school as may be prescribed.

(2) In this section “individual performance information” means information about the performance of individual pupils (identified in the prescribed manner)—

(a) in any assessment made for the purposes of the National Curriculum or in accordance with a baseline assessment scheme (within the meaning of Chapter I of Part IV of the Education Act 1997);
(b) in any prescribed public examination;
(c) in connection with the attainment of any vocational qualification; or
(d) in any such other assessment or examination, or in connection with the attainment of any such other qualification, as may be prescribed.

(3) The Secretary of State may provide any information received by him by virtue of subsection (1)—
(a) to any prescribed body or person, or

(b) to any body or person falling within a prescribed category.

(4) Any body or person holding any individual performance information may provide that information to any body to which this subsection applies; and any body to which this subsection applies—

(a) may provide any information received by it under this subsection—

(i) to the Secretary of State, or

(ii) to the governing body or proprietor of the school attended by the pupil or pupils to whom the information relates; and

(b) may, at such times as the Secretary of State may determine, provide to any prescribed body such information received by it under this subsection as may be prescribed.

(5) Subsection (4) applies to any body which, for the purposes of or in connection with the functions of the Secretary of State relating to education, is responsible for collating or checking information relating to the performance of pupils—

(a) in any assessment or examination falling within subsection (2)(a), (b) or (d), or

(b) in connection with the attainment of any qualification falling within subsection (2)(c) or (d).

(6) No individual performance information received under or by virtue of this section shall be published in any form which includes the name of the pupil or pupils to whom it relates.

(7) References in this section to the attainment of a qualification of any description include references to the completion of any module or part of a course leading to any such qualification.”

(a) in the case of a school within subsection (2)(a) or (b), its governing body;
(b) in the case of a pupil referral unit, the local authority that maintain it.

(4) The responsible authorities must secure that careers guidance provided under subsection (1)—

(a) is presented in an impartial manner,
(b) includes information on options available in respect of 16 to 18 education or training, including apprenticeships, and
(c) is guidance that the person giving it considers will promote the best interests of the pupils to whom it is given.

(5) Careers guidance provided to pupils at a school is independent for the purposes of this section if it is provided other than by—

(a) a teacher employed or engaged at the school, or
(b) any other person employed at the school.

(6) For the purposes of this section the relevant phase of a pupil's education is the period—
(a) beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil's class attain the age of 14, and
(b) ending with the expiry of the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil's class attain the age of 16.

(7) In this section—

“career” includes undertaking any training, education, employment or occupation;
“careers guidance” means guidance about careers;
“class”, in relation to a pupil, means—
(a) the teaching group in which the pupil is regularly taught, or
(b) if the pupil is taught in different groups for different subjects, such one of those groups as is designated by the head teacher of the school or, in the case of a pupil at a pupil referral unit, by the teacher in charge of the unit;
“16 to 18 education or training” means education or training suitable to the requirements of persons who have ceased to be of compulsory school age but have not attained the age of 18;
“training” includes a voluntary or other placement apt to enable the development of any skill or competency (whether or not taking place at a time when the person concerned is still a registered pupil at a school in England).

PART VIII

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Exceptional educational provision

47 Functions of [local authorities] as regards exceptional educational provision.

(1) Section 19 of the Education Act 1996 (exceptional provision of education in pupil referral units or elsewhere) shall be amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (1) (duty of [local authority] to make arrangements for provision of suitable full-time or part-time education, at school or otherwise, for excluded children etc.), the words “full-time or part-time” shall be omitted.
(3) In subsection (4) (power of local authority to make arrangements for provision of suitable full-time or part-time education, otherwise than at school, for excluded young persons etc.), the words “full-time or part-time” shall be omitted.

(4) After that subsection there shall be inserted—

“(4A) In determining what arrangements to make under subsection (1) or (4) in the case of any child or young person a local authority shall have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State.”

Management committees for pupil referral units

48 Management committees for pupil referral units.

At the end of Schedule 1 to the Education Act 1996 (pupil referral units) there shall be added—

“15 (1) Regulations may make provision—

(a) for requiring any local authority who maintain a pupil referral unit to establish a committee to act as the management committee for the unit; and

(b) for that committee to discharge on behalf of the authority such of their functions in connection with the unit as are delegated by them to the committee in accordance with the regulations.

(2) Regulations under this paragraph may in particular make provision—

(a) for enabling a local authority to establish a joint committee to act as the management committee for two or more pupil referral units maintained by the authority;

(b) for requiring the approval of the Secretary of State to be obtained before any such joint committee is established;

(c) as to the composition of a management committee established under the regulations and—

(i) the appointment and removal of its members, and

(ii) their terms of office,

and in particular for requiring such a committee to include persons representing schools (including grant-maintained schools) situated in the area from which the unit or units in question may be expected to draw pupils;
(d) for requiring or (as the case may be) prohibiting the delegation by a [F20 local authority] to a management committee of such functions in connection with pupil referral units as are specified in the regulations;
(e) for authorising a management committee to establish sub-committees;
(f) for enabling (subject to any provisions of the regulations) a [F20 local authority] or a management committee to determine to any extent the committee’s procedure and that of any sub-committee;
(g) for limiting the personal liability of members of any such committee or sub-committee in respect of their acts or omissions as such members;
(h) for applying to any such committee or sub-committee, with or without modification—
   (i) any provision of the Education Acts, or
   (ii) any provision made by or under any other enactment and relating to committees or (as the case may be) sub-committees of a local authority.”
