

Landmines Act 1998

CHAPTER 33

LANDMINES ACT 1998

Introduction

- 1 Mines and components to which Act applies.

Offences relating to anti-personnel mines

- 2 Prohibited conduct.
- 3 Application of prohibitions to places outside the UK.
- 4 Conduct that is permitted.
- 5 International military operations.
- 6 Other defences to offences under section 2.

Securing the destruction of anti-personnel mines

- 7 Suspicious objects.
- 8 Power to remove or immobilise objects.
- 9 Power to destroy removed objects.
- 10 Power to enter premises and destroy objects.
- 11 Compensation for destruction.
- 12 Offences relating to destruction etc.

Fact-finding missions under the Ottawa Convention

- 13 Rights of entry etc. for fact-finding missions.
- 14 Offences in connection with fact-finding missions.
- 15 Privileges and immunities for fact-finding missions.
- 16 Reimbursement of expenditure.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Landmines Act 1998. (See end of Document for details)

Information and records

- 17 Information and records for Ottawa Convention purposes.
- 18 Power to search and obtain evidence.
- 19 Disclosure of information.

Criminal proceedings

- 20 Consents to prosecutions.
- 21 Revenue and Customs prosecutions.
- 22 Forfeiture in case of conviction.
- 23 Offences by bodies corporate etc.

Supplemental

- 24 Power to amend Act.
- 25 Financial provisions.
- 26 Service of notices.
- 27 General interpretation.
- 28 Crown application.
- 29 Short title, commencement and extent.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Landmines Act 1998.