

Employment Relations Act 1999

1999 CHAPTER 26

Trade unions

3 Blacklists.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations prohibiting the compilation of lists which—
 - (a) contain details of members of trade unions or persons who have taken part in the activities of trade unions, and
 - (b) are compiled with a view to being used by employers or employment agencies for the purposes of discrimination in relation to recruitment or in relation to the treatment of workers.
- (2) The Secretary of State may make regulations prohibiting—
 - (a) the use of lists to which subsection (1) applies;
 - (b) the sale or supply of lists to which subsection (1) applies.
- (3) Regulations under this section may, in particular—
 - (a) confer jurisdiction (including exclusive jurisdiction) on employment tribunals and on the Employment Appeal Tribunal;
 - (b) include provision for or about the grant and enforcement of specified remedies by courts and tribunals;
 - (c) include provision for the making of awards of compensation calculated in accordance with the regulations;
 - (d) include provision permitting proceedings to be brought by trade unions on behalf of members in specified circumstances;
 - (e) include provision about cases where an employee is dismissed by his employer and the reason or principal reason for the dismissal, or why the employee was selected for dismissal, relates to a list to which subsection (1) applies;
 - (f) create criminal offences;
 - (g) in specified cases or circumstances, extend liability for a criminal offence created under paragraph (f) to a person who aids the commission of the offence
