- (4) For the purposes of Part XI of the <sup>M1</sup>Employment Rights Act 1996 (redundancy payments etc) the employee shall not be regarded as having been dismissed by virtue of the transfer.
- (5) For the purposes of that Act, the employee’s period of employment with the transferor shall count as a period of employment with the transferee, and the change of employment shall not break the continuity of the period of employment.
- (6) In this section—
- (a) any reference to anything made or done by or in relation to the transferor includes a reference to anything which is treated by virtue of any enactment as having been made or done by or in relation to the transferor; and
  - (b) any reference to an employee’s period of employment with the transferor shall be construed accordingly.
- (7) In the application of this section to a person employed in the civil service of the State—
- (a) any reference to employment includes a reference to employment in that service;
  - (b) any reference to a contract of employment includes a reference to the terms of that employment; and
  - (c) any reference to dismissal includes a reference to the termination of that employment.
- (8) Where a transfer instrument makes provision for or in connection with a transfer falling within subsection (1)(b) above, the provision that may be made includes provision for or in connection with applying subsections (3) to (7) above (with or without modifications) in relation to or otherwise in connection with the transfer.
- (9) In this section “transfer instrument” means—
- (a) an order under section 408 above; or
  - (b) a scheme under section 409 above.

- (a) that disputes as to the effect of the instrument between the transferor and any transferee are to be referred to such arbitration as may be specified in or determined under the instrument;
  - (b) that determinations on such arbitrations and certificates given jointly by the transferor and any transferee as to the effect of the instrument as between them are to be conclusive for all purposes.
- (12) A Minister of the Crown may by order confer on any body or person to whom property, rights or liabilities are transferred by a transfer or pension instrument any statutory functions which were previously exercisable in relation to that property or, as the case may be, those rights or liabilities—
- (a) by a body or person falling within subsection (3) of section 408 above; or
  - (b) in the case of a transfer under or by virtue of section 411 above, the transferor under the instrument.
- (13) It shall be the duty—
- (a) of each of the bodies and persons falling within subsection (2) or (3) of section 408 above, and
  - (b) of the trustees or managers, or administrators, of any pension scheme,
- to provide any Minister of the Crown with such information or assistance as he may reasonably require for the purposes of, or in connection with, the exercise of any powers exercisable by him in relation to transfer or pension instruments.
- (14) Where any person is entitled, in consequence of any transfer made by virtue of a transfer or pension instrument, to possession of a document relating in part to the title to, or to the management of, any land or other property in England and Wales—
- (a) the instrument may contain provision for treating that person as having given another person an acknowledgment in writing of the right of that other person to the production of the document and to delivery of copies thereof; and
  - (b) section 64 of the <sup>M3</sup>Law of Property Act 1925 (production and safe custody of documents) shall have effect accordingly, and on the basis that the acknowledgment did not contain any such expression of contrary intention as is mentioned in that section.
- (15) In this section—
- “relevant document” means—
    - (a) any enactment, other than an enactment contained in this Act;
    - (b) any subordinate legislation made otherwise than under this Act; or
    - (c) any deed or other instrument;
  - “transfer or pension instrument” means—
    - (a) an order under section 408 or 411 above; or
    - (b) a scheme under section 409 above.

413 Modification of transfer or pension instruments.

- (1) If, at any time after a transfer or pension instrument has come into force, a Minister of the Crown considers it appropriate to do so, he may by order provide that the instrument shall for all purposes be deemed to have come into force with such modifications as may be specified in the order.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) above may make such provision as could have been made by the transfer or pension instrument.
- (3) An order under subsection (1) above may only be made after the requisite consultation.
- (4) If, at any time after a scheme under section 409 above has come into force, a Minister of the Crown considers it appropriate to do so, he may by directions require a body or person falling within subsection (2) of section 408 above to prepare modifications to the scheme of such a description as may be specified in the directions.
- (5) Where a body or person is required to prepare any modifications under subsection (4) above, the body or person shall submit the modifications to the Minister for his approval before such date as he may direct.
- (6) Where any modifications are submitted under subsection (5) above, the Minister may approve them with or without amendment.
- (7) Approval under subsection (5) above shall only be given after the requisite consultation.
- (8) An approval under subsection (5) above shall take effect on such date as the Minister may specify in giving the approval.
- (9) Where any modifications are made and approved under the preceding provisions of this section, whether with or without amendment, the scheme shall for all purposes be deemed to have come into force with those modifications, subject to any such amendment.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, “the requisite consultation”—
  - (a) if or to the extent that the transfer or pension instrument concerned makes provision by virtue of the pension powers of this Part, is consultation with the trustees or managers, or the administrators, of any pension scheme affected; and
  - (b) if or to the extent that the transfer or pension instrument concerned makes provision otherwise than by virtue of the pension powers of this Part, is consultation with any body which, or person who, the Minister considers may be affected.
- (11) In this section—
  - “approval” means approval in writing;
  - “the pension powers of this Part” means—
    - (a) in the case of a scheme, section 409(7) above; and
    - (b) in the case of an order, section 411 above;

Changes to legislation: Greater London Authority Act 1999, Cross Heading: Transfers is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 April 2024. “transfer or pension instrument” has the same meaning as in section 412 above.

Commencement Information

- I5 S. 413: by virtue of s. 425(2) the Act comes into force at Royal Assent in regards to any power of a Minister of the Crown to make regulations or an order

414 Foreign property, rights or liabilities: perfection of vesting.

- (1) This section applies in any case where a transfer or pension instrument provides for the transfer of any foreign property, rights or liabilities.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the transferor and the transferee to take, as and when the transferee considers appropriate, all such steps as may be requisite to secure that the vesting in the transferee by virtue of the transfer or pension instrument of any foreign property, right or liability is effective under the relevant foreign law.
- (3) Until the vesting in the transferee, by virtue of the transfer or pension instrument, of any foreign property, right or liability is effective under the relevant foreign law, it shall be the duty of the transferor to hold that property or right for the benefit of, or to discharge that liability on behalf of, the transferee.
- (4) Nothing in subsections (2) and (3) above shall be taken as prejudicing the effect under the law of any part of the United Kingdom of the vesting in the transferee by virtue of a transfer or pension instrument of any foreign property, right or liability.
- (5) The transferor shall have all such powers as may be requisite for the performance of his duty under this section, but it shall be the duty of the transferee to act on behalf of the transferor (so far as possible) in performing the duty imposed on the transferor by this section.
- (6) References in this section to any foreign property, right or liability are references to any property, right or liability as respects which any issue arising in any proceedings would have been determined (in accordance with the rules of private international law) by reference to the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.
- (7) Duties imposed on the transferor or the transferee by this section shall be enforceable in the same way as if the duties were imposed by a contract between the transferor and the transferee.
- (8) Any expenses incurred by the transferor under this section shall be met by the transferee.
- (9) In this section “transfer or pension instrument” has the same meaning as in section 412 above.
