

Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 12

Membership

8 Designated members.

- (1) If the incorporation document specifies who are to be designated members—
 - (a) they are designated members on incorporation, and
 - (b) any member may become a designated member by and in accordance with an agreement with the other members,and a member may cease to be a designated member in accordance with an agreement with the other members.
- (2) But if there would otherwise be no designated members, or only one, every member is a designated member.
- (3) If the incorporation document states that every person who from time to time is a member of the limited liability partnership is a designated member, every member is a designated member.
- (4) A limited liability partnership may at any time deliver to the registrar—
 - (a) notice that specified members are to be designated members, or
 - (b) notice that every person who from time to time is a member of the limited liability partnership is a designated member,and, once it is delivered, subsection (1) (apart from paragraph (a)) and subsection (2), or subsection (3), shall have effect as if that were stated in the incorporation document.
- ^{F1}(5)
- (6) A person ceases to be a designated member if he ceases to be a member.
