

Learning and Skills Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 21

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Support for 11 to 25 year olds: Wales

123 Provision of services

- (1) The National Assembly for Wales may direct a local authority—
 - (a) to provide youth support services;
 - (b) to secure the provision of youth support services;
 - (c) to participate in the provision of youth support services.
- (2) In this section “youth support services” means services which in the opinion of the National Assembly will encourage, enable or assist young persons (directly or indirectly)—
 - (a) to participate effectively in education or training,
 - (b) to take advantage of opportunities for employment, or
 - (c) to participate effectively and responsibly in the life of their communities.
- (3) In this section “young persons” means persons who have attained the age of 11 but not the age of 26.
- (4) A direction under subsection (1)—
 - (a) may include provision for grants, loans and other kinds of financial assistance to be provided by the National Assembly (whether or not on conditions),
 - (b) may require local authorities to have regard to guidance issued by the National Assembly, and
 - (c) may require local authorities when making arrangements with other persons to require those persons to have regard to guidance issued by the National Assembly.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) A direction under subsection (1)—
- (a) may relate to a particular class of young person;
 - (b) may make different provision for different classes of young person;
 - (c) may be revoked or varied by a later direction.
