2000 CHAPTER 21

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Support for 11 to 25 year olds: Wales

124 Local authority: duty and powers

- (1) A local authority—
 - (a) shall comply with a direction given to it under section 123(1), and
 - (b) may provide, secure the provision of or participate in the provision of youth support services otherwise than in accordance with paragraph (a).
- (2) Action which a local authority takes in pursuance of subsection (1)—
 - (a) may relate to a particular class of young persons;
 - (b) may relate to services for a person from another area.
- (3) In complying with a direction under section 123(1) a local authority shall have regard to the expediency of co-operation with voluntary organisations.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (1) a local authority may—
 - (a) incur expenditure;
 - (b) employ officers;
 - (c) enter into agreements for the supply of goods or services;
 - (d) do anything else (other than forming companies) which they consider necessary or expedient.
- (5) Nothing in or done under section 123 shall prejudice any power of a local authority to provide services or incur expenditure.
