SCHEDULE 13

REFERENDUM EXPENSES: QUALIFYING EXPENSES

PART II

SUPPLEMENTAL

Guidance by Commission

- 3 (1) The Commission may prepare, and from time to time revise, a code of practice giving guidance as to the kinds of expenses which do, or do not, fall within Part I of this Schedule.
- (2) Once the Commission have prepared a draft code under this paragraph, they shall submit it to the Secretary of State for his approval.
- (3) The Secretary of State may approve a draft code either without modification or with such modifications as he may determine.
- (4) Once the Secretary of State has approved a draft code he shall lay a copy of the draft, whether—
- (a) in its original form, or
 - (b) in a form which incorporates any modifications determined under sub-paragraph (3),
- before each House of Parliament.
- (5) If the draft incorporates any such modifications, the Secretary of State shall at the same time lay before each House a statement of his reasons for making them.
- (6) If, within the 40-day period, either House resolves not to approve the draft, the Secretary of State shall take no further steps in relation to the draft code.
- (7) If no such resolution is made within the 40-day period—
- (a) the Secretary of State shall issue the code in the form of the draft laid before Parliament, and
 - (b) the code shall come into force on such date as the Secretary of State may by order appoint;
- and the Commission shall arrange for it to be published in such manner as they consider appropriate.
- (8) Sub-paragraph (6) does not prevent a new draft code from being laid before Parliament.
- (9) In this paragraph “40-day period”, in relation to a draft code, means—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) if the draft is laid before one House on a day later than the day on which it is laid before the other House, the period of 40 days beginning with the later of the two days, and
 - (b) in any other case, the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before each House,
- no account being taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.
- (10) In this paragraph references to a draft code include a draft revised code.

Power to amend Part I

- 4 (1) The Secretary of State may by order make such amendments of Part I of this Schedule as he considers appropriate.
- (2) The Secretary of State may make such an order either—
- (a) where the order gives effect to a recommendation of the Commission; or
 - (b) after consultation with the Commission.
