

Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 8

PART V

PERFORMANCE OF REGULATED ACTIVITIES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Pt. V (ss. 56-71) modified (1.12.2001) by S.I. 2001/3592, arts. 1(2), 114(3)(a), 128(3)(a) (with art. 23(2))

Prohibition orders

56 Prohibition orders.

[^{F1}(1) The FCA may make a prohibition order if it appears to it that an individual is not a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to a regulated activity carried on by—

- (a) an authorised person,
- (b) a person who is an exempt person in relation to that activity, or
- (c) a person to whom, as a result of Part 20, the general prohibition does not apply in relation to that activity.

(1A) The PRA may make a prohibition order if it appears to it that an individual is not a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to a regulated activity carried on by—

- (a) a PRA-authorised person, or
- (b) a person who is an exempt person in relation to a PRA-regulated activity carried on by the person.]

(2) [^{F2}A “prohibition order” is an order] prohibiting the individual from performing a specified function, any function falling within a specified description or any function.

(3) A prohibition order may relate to—

Status: Point in time view as at 02/04/2013.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a specified regulated activity, any regulated activity falling within a specified description or all regulated activities;
- [^{F3}(b) all persons falling within subsection (3A) or a particular paragraph of that subsection or all persons within a specified class of person falling within a particular paragraph of that subsection.]
- [^{F4}(3A) A person falls within this subsection if the person is—
 - (a) an authorised person,
 - (b) an exempt person, or
 - (c) a person to whom, as a result of Part 20, the general prohibition does not apply in relation to a regulated activity.]
- (4) An individual who performs or agrees to perform a function in breach of a prohibition order is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (5) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (4) it is a defence for the accused to show that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.
- (6) [^{F5}A person falling within subsection (3A)] must take reasonable care to ensure that no function of his, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity, is performed by a person who is prohibited from performing that function by a prohibition order.
- (7) [^{F6}The regulator that has made a prohibition order] may, on the application of the individual named in [^{F7}the order], vary or revoke it.
- [^{F8}(7A) If—
 - (a) the FCA proposes to vary or revoke a prohibition order, and
 - (b) as a result of the proposed variation or revocation, an individual—
 - (i) will no longer be prohibited from performing a function of interest to the PRA, or
 - (ii) will be prohibited from performing such a function, the FCA must consult the PRA before varying or revoking the order.
- (7B) A function is of interest to the PRA if it is performed in relation to a regulated activity carried on by—
 - (a) a PRA-authorised person, or
 - (b) a person who is an exempt person in relation to a PRA-regulated activity carried on by the person.
- (7C) The PRA must consult the FCA before varying or revoking a prohibition order.]
- [^{F9}(8)
- (9) “Specified” means specified in the prohibition order.

Approval

59 Approval for particular arrangements.

- (1) An authorised person (“A”) must take reasonable care to ensure that no person performs a controlled function under an arrangement entered into by A in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity, unless [^{F15}the appropriate regulator] approves the performance by that person of the controlled function to which the arrangement relates.
- (2) An authorised person (“A”) must take reasonable care to ensure that no person performs a controlled function under an arrangement entered into by a contractor of A in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity, unless [^{F16}the appropriate regulator] approves the performance by that person of the controlled function to which the arrangement relates.

[^{F17}(3) “Controlled function”—

- (a) in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a PRA-authorised person, means a function of a description specified in rules made by the FCA or the PRA, and
- (b) in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by any other authorised person, means a function of a description specified in rules made by the FCA.

(4) “The appropriate regulator”—

- (a) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the FCA, means the FCA, and
- (b) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the PRA, means the PRA with the consent of the FCA.

(5) The FCA may specify a description of function under subsection (3)(a) or (b) only if, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by an authorised person, it is satisfied that the function is—

- (a) a customer-dealing function, or

- (b) a significant-influence function.
- (6) The PRA may specify a description of function under subsection (3)(a) only if, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a PRA-authorised person, it is satisfied that the function is a significant-influence function.
- (7) In determining whether a function is a significant-influence function, the FCA or the PRA may take into account the likely consequences of a failure to discharge the function properly.
- (7A) “Customer-dealing function”, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by an authorised person (“A”), means a function that will involve the person performing it in dealing with—
- (a) customers of A, or
 - (b) property of customers of A,
- in a manner substantially connected with the carrying on of the activity.
- (7B) “Significant-influence function”, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by an authorised person, means a function that is likely to enable the person responsible for its performance to exercise a significant influence on the conduct of the authorised person’s affairs, so far as relating to the activity.]
- (8) Neither subsection (1) nor subsection (2) applies to an arrangement which allows a person to perform a function if the question of whether he is a fit and proper person to perform the function is reserved under any of the single market directives [^{F18}or the emission allowance auctioning regulation] to an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.
- ^{F19}(9)
- (10) “Arrangement”—
- (a) means any kind of arrangement for the performance of a function of A which is entered into by A or any contractor of his with another person; and
 - (b) includes, in particular, that other person’s appointment to an office, his becoming a partner or his employment (whether under a contract of service or otherwise).
- (11) “Customer”, in relation to an authorised person, means a person who is using, or who is or may be contemplating using, any of the services provided by the authorised person.

[^{F20}59A Specifying functions as controlled functions: supplementary

- (1) The FCA must—
 - (a) keep under review the exercise of its power under section 59(3)(a) to specify any significant-influence function as a controlled function, and
 - (b) exercise that power in a way that it considers will minimise the likelihood that approvals fall to be given by both the FCA and the PRA in respect of the performance by a person of significant-influence functions in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by the same PRA-authorised person.
- (2) The FCA and the PRA must each consult the other before exercising any power under section 59(3)(a).
- (3) Any reference in this section to the exercise of a power includes its exercise by way of amendment or revocation of provision previously made in the exercise of the power.
- (4) “Approval” means an approval under section 59.
- (5) Any expression which is used both in this section and section 59 has the same meaning in this section as in that section.

61 Determination of applications.

- (1) [^{F25}The regulator to which an application is made under section 60 may grant the application] only if it is satisfied that the person in respect of whom the application is made (“the candidate”) is a fit and proper person to perform the function to which the application relates.
- (2) In deciding that question, [^{F26}the regulator] may have regard (among other things) to whether the candidate, or any person who may perform a function on his behalf—
- has obtained a qualification,
 - has undergone, or is undergoing, training, or
 - possesses a level of competence,

required by general rules [^{F27}made by that regulator] in relation to persons performing functions of the kind to which the application relates.

[^{F28}(2A) Subsections (1) and (2) apply in relation to the giving by the FCA of any required consent as they apply in relation to the grant of the application.]

(3) [^{F29}The regulator to which an application is made under section 60 must, before the end of the period for consideration, determine] whether—

- (a) to grant the application; or
- (b) to give a warning notice under section 62(2).

[^{F30}(3A) The period for consideration” —

(a) in any case where the application under section 60 is made by a person applying for permission under Part 4A (see section 60(6)), means whichever ends last of—

- (i) the period within which the application for that permission must be determined under section 55V(1) or (2), and
- (ii) the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the regulator receives the application under section 60, and

(b) in any other case, means the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the regulator receives the application under section 60.]

(4) If [^{F31}a regulator] imposes a requirement under section 60(3), the period for consideration stops running on the day on which the requirement is imposed but starts running again—

- (a) on the day on which the required information is received by [^{F31}a regulator]; or
- (b) if the information is not provided on a single day, on the last of the days on which it is received by [^{F31}a regulator].

(5) A person who makes an application under section 60 may withdraw his application by giving written notice to the [^{F32}regulator to which the application was made] at any time before the [^{F33}regulator] determines it, but only with the consent of—

- (a) the candidate; and
- (b) the person by whom the candidate is to be retained to perform the function concerned, if not the applicant.

63A Power to impose penalties

- (1) If the [^{F43}appropriate regulator] is satisfied that—
- a person (“P”) has at any time performed a controlled function without approval, and
 - at that time P knew, or could reasonably be expected to have known, that P was performing a controlled function without approval,
- it may impose a penalty on P of such amount as it considers appropriate.
- (2) For the purposes of this section P performs a controlled function without approval at any time if at that time—

Status: Point in time view as at 02/04/2013.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) P performs a controlled function under an arrangement entered into by an authorised person (“A”), or by a contractor of A, in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity; and
 - (b) the performance by P of the function was not approved under section 59.
- (3) The [^{F43}appropriate regulator] may not impose a penalty under this section after the end of the limitation period unless, before the end of that period, it has given a warning notice to the person concerned under section 63B(1).
- (4) “The limitation period” means the period of three years beginning with the first day on which the [^{F43}appropriate regulator] knew that the person concerned had performed a controlled function without approval.
- (5) For this purpose the [^{F43}appropriate regulator] is to be treated as knowing that a person has performed a controlled function without approval if it has information from which that can reasonably be inferred.
- [The appropriate regulator” —
- ^{F44}(5A) (a) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the FCA, means the FCA, and
- (b) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the PRA, means the PRA.]
- (6) Any [^{F45}other] expression which is used both in this section and section 59 has the same meaning in this section as in that section.

63C Statement of policy

- (1) ^{F47}Each regulator] must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to—
 - (a) the imposition of penalties under section 63A; and
 - (b) the amount of penalties under that section.
- (2) ^{F48}Each regulator's] policy in determining whether a penalty should be imposed, and what the amount of a penalty should be, must include having regard to—
 - (a) the conduct of the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed;
 - (b) the extent to which the person could reasonably be expected to have known that a controlled function was performed without approval;
 - (c) the length of the period during which the person performed a controlled function without approval; and
 - (d) whether the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed is an individual.
- (3) ^{F49}Each regulator's] policy in determining whether a penalty should be imposed on a person must also include having regard to the appropriateness of taking action against the person instead of, or in addition to, taking action against an authorised person.
- (4) A statement issued under this section must include an indication of the circumstances in which ^{F50}the regulator that has issued the statement] would expect to be satisfied that a person could reasonably be expected to have known that the person was performing a controlled function without approval.
- (5) ^{F51}A regulator] may at any time alter or replace a statement issued ^{F52}by it] under this section.
- (6) If a statement issued under this section is altered or ^{F53}replaced by a regulator, the regulator] must issue the altered or replaced statement.
- (7) ^{F54}A regulator] must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement which it publishes under this section.
- (8) A statement issued under this section ^{F55}by a regulator] must be published by the ^{F56}regulator] in the way appearing to the ^{F56}regulator] to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (9) The ^{F57}regulator] may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement.

63D Statement of policy: procedure

- (1) Before [^{F60}a regulator issues] a statement under section 63C, the [^{F61}regulator] must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the [^{F61}regulator] to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (2) The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the [^{F62}regulator] within a specified time.
- (3) Before issuing the proposed statement, the [^{F63}regulator] must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) If the [^{F64}regulator] issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
 - (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2); and
 - (b) its response to them.
- (5) If the statement differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is, in the opinion of the [^{F65}regulator], significant, the [^{F65}regulator] must (in addition to complying with subsection (4)) publish details of the difference.
- (6) [^{F66}A regulator] may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft published [^{F67}by it] under subsection (1).

64 Conduct: statements and codes.

[^{F69}(1) The FCA may issue statements of principle with respect to the conduct expected of persons in relation to whom either regulator has given its approval under section 59.

(1A) The PRA may issue statements of principle with respect to—

- (a) the conduct expected of persons in relation to whom it has given its approval under section 59, and
- (b) the conduct expected of persons in relation to whom the FCA has given its approval under section 59 in respect of the performance by them of significant-influence functions in relation to the carrying on by PRAauthorised persons of regulated activities.

(1B) A statement of principle issued by either regulator may relate to conduct expected of persons in relation to—

- (a) the performance by them of controlled functions, or
- (b) the performance by them of any other functions in relation to the carrying on by authorised persons of regulated activities.]

(2) If [^{F70}a regulator] issues a statement of principle under subsection (1) [^{F71}or (1A)], it must also issue a code of practice for the purpose of helping to determine whether or not a person's conduct complies with the statement of principle.

(3) A code issued under subsection (2) may specify—

- (a) descriptions of conduct which, in the opinion of the [^{F72}regulator issuing the code], comply with a statement of principle;
- (b) descriptions of conduct which, in the opinion of the [^{F72}regulator issuing the code], do not comply with a statement of principle;
- (c) factors which, in the opinion of the [^{F72}regulator issuing the code], are to be taken into account in determining whether or not a person's conduct complies with a statement of principle.

(4) [^{F73}A regulator] may at any time alter or replace a statement or code issued [^{F74}by it] under this section.

(5) If a statement or code is altered or replaced [^{F75}by a regulator], the altered or replacement statement or code must be issued by the [^{F76}regulator].

- (6) A statement or code issued under this section must be published by [^{F77}the regulator that issued it] in the way appearing to [^{F78}that regulator] to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (7) A code published under this section and in force at the time when any particular conduct takes place may be relied on so far as it tends to establish whether or not that conduct complies with a statement of principle.
- (8) Failure to comply with a statement of principle under this section does not of itself give rise to any right of action by persons affected or affect the validity of any transaction.
- (9) A person is not to be taken to have failed to comply with a statement of principle if he shows that, at the time of the alleged failure, it or its associated code of practice had not been published.
- (10) [^{F79}A regulator] must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement or code which it publishes under this section.
- (11) The power under this section to issue statements of principle and codes of practice—
- (a) includes power to make different provision in relation to persons, cases or circumstances of different descriptions; and
 - [^{F80}(b) is to be treated for the purposes of section 1B(6)(a) as part of the FCA's rule-making functions (where the power is exercisable by the FCA) and is to be treated for the purposes of section 2J(1)(a) as part of the PRA's rule-making functions (where the power is exercisable by the PRA).]
- (12) [^{F81}A regulator] may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a statement or code published [^{F82}by it] under this section.
- [^{F83}(13) Any expression which is used both in this section and section 59 has the same meaning in this section as in that section.]

65 Statements and codes: procedure.

- [^{F84}(1) Before a regulator issues a statement or code under section 64, it must—
- (a) consult the other regulator; and
 - (b) after doing so, publish a draft of the statement or code in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring the statement or code to the attention of the public.
- (1A) The duty of the FCA to consult the PRA under subsection (1)(a) applies only in so far as the statement or code applies to persons in relation to whom approval is given under section 59 in respect of the performance by them of significant-influence functions (within the meaning of that section) in relation to the carrying on by PRA-authorised persons of regulated activities.]
- (2) The draft must be accompanied by —
- (a) a cost benefit analysis; and
 - (b) notice that representations about the proposal may be made to [^{F85}the regulator publishing the draft] within a specified time.
- (3) Before [^{F86}a regulator issues] the proposed statement or code, [^{F87}it] must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2)(b).
- (4) If [^{F88}a regulator] issues the proposed statement or code it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
- (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2)(b); and

- (b) its response to them.
- (5) If the statement or code differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is, in the opinion of [^{F89}the regulator issuing the statement or code], significant—
 - (a) [^{F90}the regulator] must (in addition to complying with subsection (4)) publish details of the difference; and
 - (b) those details must be accompanied by a cost benefit analysis.
- (6) Neither subsection (2)(a) nor subsection (5)(b) applies if [^{F91}the regulator concerned] considers—
 - (a) that, making the appropriate comparison, there will be no increase in costs; or
 - (b) that, making that comparison, there will be an increase in costs but the increase will be of minimal significance.
- [^{F92}(7) Subsections (1)(b) and (2) to (6) do not apply in relation to—
 - (a) a statement or code issued by the FCA if it considers that the delay involved in complying with them would be prejudicial to the interests of consumers, as defined in section 425A; or
 - (b) a statement or code issued by the PRA if it considers that the delay involved in complying with them would—
 - (i) be prejudicial to the safety and soundness of PRA-authorized persons, or
 - (ii) in a case where section 2C applies, be prejudicial to securing the appropriate degree of protection for policyholders.]
- (8) A statement or code must state that it is issued under section 64.
- (9) [^{F93}A regulator] may charge a reasonable fee for providing a copy of a draft published [^{F94}by it] under subsection (1).
- (10) This section also applies to a proposal to alter or replace a statement or code.
- [^{F95}(11) Cost benefit analysis” means—
 - (a) an analysis of the costs together with an analysis of the benefits that will arise—
 - (i) if the proposed statement or code is issued, or
 - (ii) if subsection (5)(b) applies, from the statement or code that has been issued, and
 - (b) subject to subsection (11A), an estimate of those costs and of those benefits.
- (11A) If, in the opinion of the regulator concerned—
 - (a) the costs or benefits referred to in subsection (11) cannot reasonably be estimated, or
 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable to produce an estimate,the cost benefit analysis need not estimate them, but must include a statement of the opinion of the regulator concerned and an explanation of it.]
- (12) “The appropriate comparison” means—
 - (a) in relation to subsection (2)(a), a comparison between the overall position if the statement or code is issued and the overall position if it is not issued;
 - (b) in relation to subsection (5)(b), a comparison between the overall position after the issuing of the statement or code and the overall position before it was issued.

66 Disciplinary powers.

- (1) [^{F96}A regulator] may take action against a person under this section [^{F97}(whether or not it has given its approval in relation to the person)] if—
- (a) it appears to the [^{F98}regulator] that he is guilty of misconduct; and
 - (b) the [^{F99}regulator] is satisfied that it is appropriate in all the circumstances to take action against him.
- [^{F100}(2) For the purposes of action by the FCA, a person is guilty of misconduct if, while an approved person—
- (a) the person has failed to comply with a statement of principle issued by the FCA under section 64, or
 - (b) the person has been knowingly concerned in a contravention by the relevant authorised person of a requirement imposed on that authorised person—
 - (i) by or under this Act, or
 - (ii) by any qualifying EU provision specified, or of a description specified, for the purposes of this subsection by the Treasury by order.
- (2A) For the purposes of action by the PRA, a person is guilty of misconduct if, while an approved person in respect of the performance of a significant-influence function in relation to the carrying on by a PRA-authorised person of a regulated activity—
- (a) the person has failed to comply with a statement of principle issued by the PRA under section 64, or
 - (b) the person has been knowingly concerned in a contravention by the relevant authorised person of a requirement imposed on that authorised person—
 - (i) by or under this Act, or
 - (ii) by any qualifying EU provision specified, or of a description specified, for the purposes of this subsection by the Treasury by order.]
- (3) If the [^{F101}regulator] is entitled to take action under this section against a person, [^{F102}it may do one or more of the following—]
- (a) impose a penalty on him of such amount as it considers appropriate;
 - [^{F103}(aa) suspend, for such period as it considers appropriate, any approval of the performance by him of any function to which the approval relates;
 - (ab) impose, for such period as it considers appropriate, such limitations or other restrictions in relation to the performance by him of any function to which any approval relates as it considers appropriate;] or
 - (b) publish a statement of his misconduct.
- [^{F104}(3A) The period for which a suspension or restriction is to have effect may not exceed two years.
- (3B) A suspension or restriction may have effect in relation to part of a function.
- (3C) A restriction may, in particular, be imposed so as to require any person to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- (3D) [^{F105}The regulator taking action under this section] may—
- (a) withdraw a suspension or restriction; or
 - (b) vary a suspension or restriction so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect.]

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) [^{F106}A regulator] may not take action under this section after the end of the period of [^{F107}three years] beginning with the first day on which [^{F108}the regulator] knew of the misconduct, unless proceedings in respect of it against the person concerned were begun before the end of that period.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)—
- (a) [^{F109}a regulator] is to be treated as knowing of misconduct if it has information from which the misconduct can reasonably be inferred; and
 - (b) proceedings against a person in respect of misconduct are to be treated as begun when a warning notice is given to him under section 67(1).
- [^{F110}(5A) “Approval” means an approval given under section 59.]
- [^{F111}(6) “Approved person” means a person in relation to whom an approval is given under that section.]
- (7) “Relevant authorised person”, in relation to an approved person, means the person on whose application approval ^{F112}. . . was given.
- [^{F113}(8) In relation to any time while a suspension is in force under subsection (3)(aa) in relation to part of a function, any reference in section 59 or 63A to the performance of a function includes the performance of part of a function.
- (9) If at any time a restriction imposed under subsection (3)(ab) is contravened, the approval in relation to the person concerned is to be treated for the purposes of sections 59 and 63A as if it had been withdrawn at that time.]

70 Statements of policy: procedure.

- (1) Before [^{F141}a regulator issues] a statement under section 69, the [^{F142}regulator] must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the [^{F142}regulator] to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (2) The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the [^{F143}regulator] within a specified time.
- (3) Before issuing the proposed statement, the [^{F144}regulator] must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) If the [^{F145}regulator] issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
 - (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2); and
 - (b) its response to them.
- (5) If the statement differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is, in the opinion of the [^{F146}regulator], significant, the [^{F146}regulator] must (in addition to complying with subsection (4)) publish details of the difference.
- (6) [^{F147}A regulator] may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft published [^{F148}by it] under subsection (1).
- (7) This section also applies to a proposal to alter or replace a statement.
