

Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 8

PART XXVI

NOTICES

Publication

391 Publication.

- (1) Neither the Authority nor a person to whom a warning notice or decision notice is given or copied may publish the notice or any details concerning it.
- (2) A notice of discontinuance must state that, if the person to whom the notice is given consents, the Authority may publish such information as it considers appropriate about the matter to which the discontinued proceedings related.
- (3) A copy of a notice of discontinuance must be accompanied by a statement that, if the person to whom the notice is copied consents, the Authority may publish such information as it considers appropriate about the matter to which the discontinued proceedings related, so far as relevant to that person.
- (4) The Authority must publish such information about the matter to which a final notice relates as it considers appropriate.
- (5) When a supervisory notice takes effect, the Authority must publish such information about the matter to which the notice relates as it considers appropriate.
- (6) But the Authority may not publish information under this section if publication of it would, in its opinion, be unfair to the person with respect to whom the action was taken or prejudicial to the interests of consumers.
- (7) Information is to be published under this section in such manner as the Authority considers appropriate.
- (8) For the purposes of determining when a supervisory notice takes effect, a matter to which the notice relates is open to review if—
