QUALIFYING BUILDINGS AND QUALIFYING FLATS

- (5) Treasury regulations may make further provision as to the circumstances in which a flat is, or is not, a qualifying flat.

393E High value flats

- (1) For the purposes of section 393D(1) a flat is a high value flat if the notional rent exceeds the relevant limit set out in the Table in subsection (5).
- (2) The “ notional rent ” means the rent that could reasonably be expected for the flat on the relevant date, on the assumption that, on that date—

CHAPTER 4

THE RELEVANT INTEREST IN THE FLAT

393F General rule as to what is the relevant interest

- (1) The relevant interest in a flat in relation to any qualifying expenditure is the interest in the flat to which the person who incurred the expenditure was entitled when it was incurred.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to the following provisions of this Chapter and to section 393V (provisions applying on termination of lease).
- (3) If—
- (a) the person who incurred the qualifying expenditure was entitled to more than one interest in the flat when the expenditure was incurred, and
 - (b) one of those interests was reversionary on all the others,
- the reversionary interest is the relevant interest in the flat.
- (4) An interest does not cease to be the relevant interest merely because of the creation of a lease or other interest to which that interest is subject.
- (5) If—
- (a) the relevant interest is a leasehold interest, and
 - (b) that interest is extinguished on the person entitled to it acquiring the interest which is reversionary on it,
- the interest into which the leasehold interest merges becomes the relevant interest when the leasehold interest is extinguished.

393G Interest acquired on completion of conversion

- For the purposes of determining the relevant interest in a flat, a person who—
- (a) incurs expenditure on the conversion of part of a building into the flat, and
 - (b) is entitled to an interest in the flat on or as a result of the completion of the conversion,
- is treated as having had that interest when the expenditure was incurred.

CHAPTER 5

INITIAL ALLOWANCES

393H Initial allowances

- (1) A person who has incurred qualifying expenditure in respect of a flat is entitled to an initial allowance in respect of the expenditure.
- (2) The amount of the initial allowance is 100% of the qualifying expenditure.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Capital Allowances Act 2001, Part 4A. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A person claiming an initial allowance under this section may require the allowance to be reduced to a specified amount.
- (4) The initial allowance is made for the chargeable period in which the qualifying expenditure is incurred.

393I Flat not qualifying flat or relevant interest sold before flat first let

- (1) No initial allowance is to be made under section 393H if, at the relevant time, the flat is not a qualifying flat.
- (2) An initial allowance which has been made in respect of a flat which is to be a qualifying flat is to be withdrawn if—
 - (a) the flat is not a qualifying flat at the relevant time, or
 - (b) the person to whom the allowance was made has sold the relevant interest in the flat before the relevant time.
- (3) All such assessments and adjustments of assessments are to be made as are necessary to give effect to this section.
- (4) In this section “ the relevant time ” means the time when the flat is first suitable for letting as a dwelling.

CHAPTER 6

WRITING-DOWN ALLOWANCES

393J Entitlement to writing-down allowances

- (1) A person is entitled to a writing-down allowance for a chargeable period if he has incurred qualifying expenditure in respect of a flat and, at the end of the chargeable period—

 - (b) the person has not granted a long lease of the flat out of the relevant interest in consideration of the payment of a capital sum, and
 - (c) the flat is a qualifying flat.
- (2) In subsection (1)(b) “ long lease ” means a lease the duration of which exceeds 50 years.
- (3) Whether the duration of a lease exceeds 50 years is to be determined—
 - (a) in accordance with section 38(1) to (4) and (6) of ICTA, and
 - (b) without regard to section 393V(3) (new lease granted as a result of the exercise of an option treated as continuation of old lease).
- (4) A person claiming a writing-down allowance may require the allowance to be reduced to a specified amount.

393K Amount of allowance

- (1) The writing-down allowance for a chargeable period is 25% of the qualifying expenditure.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/05/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Capital Allowances Act 2001, Part 4A. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The allowance is proportionately increased or reduced if the chargeable period is more or less than a year.
- (3) The amount of the writing-down allowance for a chargeable period is limited to the residue of qualifying expenditure.
- (4) For this purpose the residue is ascertained immediately before writing off the writing-down allowance at the end of the chargeable period.

393L Meaning of “the residue of qualifying expenditure”

The residue of qualifying expenditure is the qualifying expenditure that has not yet been written off in accordance with Chapter 8.

CHAPTER 7

CHAPTER 8

WRITING OFF QUALIFYING EXPENDITURE

393Q Introduction

For the purposes of this Part qualifying expenditure is written off to the extent and at the times specified in this Chapter.

393R Writing off initial allowances and writing-down allowances

- (1) If an initial allowance is made in respect of the qualifying expenditure, the amount of the allowance is written off at the time when the flat is first suitable for letting as a dwelling.
- (2) If a writing-down allowance is made in respect of the qualifying expenditure, the amount of the allowance is written off at the end of the chargeable period for which the allowance is made.
- (3) If a balancing event occurs at the end of the chargeable period referred to in subsection (2), the amount written off under that subsection is to be taken into account in calculating the residue of qualifying expenditure immediately before the event to determine what balancing adjustment (if any) is to be made.

393S Treatment of demolition costs

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a qualifying flat is demolished, and
 - (b) the person who incurred the qualifying expenditure incurs the cost of the demolition.
- (2) The net cost of the demolition is added to the residue of qualifying expenditure immediately before the demolition.
- (3) “The net cost of the demolition” means the amount, if any, by which the cost of the demolition exceeds any money received for the remains of the flat.
- (4) If this section applies, neither the cost of the demolition nor the net cost of the demolition is treated for the purposes of any Part of this Act as expenditure on any other property replacing the flat demolished.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/05/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Capital Allowances Act 2001, Part 4A. (See end of Document for details)

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

393T Giving effect to allowances and charges

- (1) This section applies if a person is entitled or liable under this Part to an allowance or charge for a chargeable period.
- (2) If the person's interest in the flat is an asset of a Schedule A business carried on by him at any time in that period, the allowance or charge is to be given effect in calculating the profits of that business for that period, by treating—
 - (a) the allowance as an expense of that business, and
 - (b) the charge as a receipt of that business.
- (3) If the person's interest in the flat is not an asset of a Schedule A business carried on by him at any time in that period, the allowance or charge is to be given effect by treating him as if he had been carrying on a Schedule A business in that period and as if—
 - (a) the allowance were an expense of that business, and
 - (b) the charge were a receipt of that business.

393U Apportionment of sums partly referable to non-qualifying assets

- (1) If the sum paid for the sale of the relevant interest in a flat is attributable—
 - (a) partly to assets representing expenditure for which an allowance can be made under this Part, and
 - (b) partly to assets representing other expenditure, only so much of the sum as on a just and reasonable apportionment is attributable to the assets referred to in paragraph (a) is to be taken into account for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to other proceeds from a balancing event in respect of a flat as it applies to a sum given for the sale of the relevant interest in the flat.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not affect any other provision of this Act requiring an apportionment of the proceeds of a balancing event.

393V Provisions applying on termination of lease

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Part if a lease is terminated.
- (2) If, with the consent of the lessor, the lessee of a flat remains in possession of the flat after the termination without a new lease being granted to him the lease is treated as continuing so long as the lessee remains in possession.
- (3) If on the termination a new lease is granted to the lessee as a result of the exercise of an option available to him under the terms of the first lease, the second lease is treated as a continuation of the first.
- (4) If on the termination the lessor pays a sum to the lessee in respect of a flat comprised in the lease, the lease is treated as if it had come to an end by surrender in consideration of the payment.
- (5) If on the termination—

- (b) in connection with the transaction that lessee pays a sum to the person who was the lessee under the first lease, the two leases are to be treated as if they were the same lease which had been assigned by the lessee under the first lease to the lessee under the second lease in consideration of the payment.

- (1) In this Part “ lease ” includes—
 - (a) an agreement for a lease if the term to be covered by the lease has begun, and
