25 [The Professional Standards Authority for Health and Social Care]

(1) There shall be a body corporate known as [the Professional Standards Authority for Health and Social Care] (in this group of sections referred to as [the Authority]).

(2) The general functions of the [Authority] are—

(a) to promote the interests of [users of health care, users of social care in England, users of social work services in England] and other members of the public in relation to the performance of their functions by the bodies mentioned in subsection (3) (in this group of sections referred to as “regulatory bodies”), and by their committees and officers,

(b) to promote best practice in the performance of those functions,

(c) to formulate principles relating to good professional self-regulation, and to encourage regulatory bodies to conform to them, and

(d) to promote co-operation between regulatory bodies; and between them, or any of them, and other bodies performing corresponding functions.

(2A) The over-arching objective of the Authority in exercising its functions under subsection (2)(b) to (d) is the protection of the public.

(2B) The pursuit by the Authority of its over-arching objective involves the pursuit of the following objectives—

(a) to protect, promote and maintain the health, safety and well-being of the public;

(b) to promote and maintain public confidence in the professions regulated by the regulatory bodies;

(c) to promote and maintain proper professional standards and conduct for members of those professions;

(d) to promote and maintain proper standards in relation to the carrying on of retail pharmacy businesses at registered pharmacies (as defined in article 3(1) of the Pharmacy Order 2010 (S.I. 2010/231)); and

(e) to promote and maintain proper standards and conduct for business registrants (as defined in section 36(1) of the Opticians Act 1989).

(3) The bodies referred to in subsection (2)(a) are—

(a) the General Medical Council,

(b) the General Dental Council,

(c) the General Optical Council,

(d) the General Osteopathic Council,

(e) the General Chiropractic Council,

(f) the General Pharmaceutical Council,

(g) subject to section 26(6), the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland,

(h) the Nursing and Midwifery Council,

(i) the Health and Care Professions Council,

(j) Social Work England and,

(k) any other regulatory body (within the meaning of Schedule 3 to the 1999 Act) established by an Order in Council under section 60 of that Act.

(3A) A reference in an enactment to a body mentioned in subsection (3) is not (unless there is express provision to the contrary) to be read as including—

(a) a reference to Social Work England, or

(b) a reference to the Health and Care Professions Council, or a regulatory body within subsection (3)(j), so far as it has functions relating to social care workers in England.

(3B) For the purposes of subsection (3A)—

“enactment” means an enactment contained in—

(a) an Act, an Act of the Scottish Parliament or an Act or Measure of the National Assembly for Wales (whether passed before or after the commencement of this subsection), or

(4) Schedule 7 (which makes further provision about the [F37] Authority) is to have effect.

(5) “This group of sections” means this section and sections [F38] 25A to 29, and includes Schedule 7.

(6) In this group of sections, references to regulation, in relation to a profession, are to be construed in accordance with paragraph 11(2) [F39] ... of Schedule 3 to the 1999 Act.

[25A Funding of the Authority by bodies other than Social Work England]

(1) The Privy Council must by regulations require each regulatory body, other than Social Work England, to pay the Authority periodic fees of such amount as the Privy Council determines in respect of such of the Authority's functions in relation to that body as are specified in the regulations.

(2) A reference in this section to the Authority's functions does not include a reference to its functions under sections 25G to 25I and 26A.

(3) The regulations must, in particular, provide for the method of determining the amount of a fee under the regulations.

(4) Before determining the amount of a fee under the regulations, the Privy Council must request the Authority to make a proposal as to the amount of funding that it considers it requires in order to perform for the period to which the fee would apply such of its functions in relation to the regulatory bodies as are specified in the regulations.

(5) The Authority must—
   (a) comply with a request under subsection (4), but
   (b) before doing so, consult the regulatory bodies.

(6) Having received a proposal under subsection (5), the Privy Council may consult the regulatory bodies.

(7) Having taken into account such representations as it receives from consultees, the Privy Council must—
   (a) make a proposal as to the amount of funding that it considers the Authority requires in order to perform for the period to which the fee would apply such of its functions in relation to the regulatory bodies as are specified in the regulations, and
   (b) determine in accordance with the method provided for under subsection (3) the amount of the fee that each regulatory body would be required to pay.

(8) The Privy Council must—
   (a) consult the Authority about the proposal under subsection (7)(a) and the determinations under subsection (7)(b), and
   (b) consult each regulatory body about the determination under subsection (7)(b) of the amount it would be required to pay.

(9) Having taken into account such representations as it receives from consultees, the Privy Council must—
(a) determine the amount of funding that the Authority requires in order to perform for the period to which the fee would apply such of its functions in relation to the regulatory bodies as are specified in the regulations, and
(b) determine in accordance with the method provided for under subsection (3) the amount of the fee that each regulatory body is to be required to pay.

(10) Regulations under this section requiring payment of a fee may make provision—
(a) requiring the fee to be paid within such period as is specified;
(b) requiring interest at such rate as is specified to be paid if the fee is not paid within the period specified under paragraph (a);
(c) for the recovery of unpaid fees or interest.

(11) The regulations may enable the Privy Council to redetermine the amount of a fee provided for under the regulations, on a request by the Authority or a regulatory body or on its own initiative.

(12) Before making regulations under this section, the Privy Council must consult—
(a) the Authority,
(b) the regulatory bodies, and
(c) such other persons as it considers appropriate.

(a) comply with a request under subsection (4), but
(b) before doing so, consult Social Work England.
(6) Having received a proposal under subsection (5), the Secretary of State may consult Social Work England.

(7) Having taken into account any representations from Social Work England, the Secretary of State must—
   (a) make a proposal as to the amount of funding that the Secretary of State considers the Authority requires in order to perform for the period to which the fee would apply such of its functions in relation to Social Work England as are specified in the regulations, and
   (b) determine in accordance with the method provided for under subsection (3) the amount of the fee that Social Work England would be required to pay.

(8) The Secretary of State must—
   (a) consult the Authority about the proposal under subsection (7)(a) and the determinations under subsection (7)(b), and
   (b) consult Social Work England about the determination under subsection (7)(b) of the amount it would be required to pay.

(9) Having taken into account such representations as it receives from consultees, the Secretary of State must—
   (a) determine the amount of funding that the Authority requires in order to perform for the period to which the fee would apply such of its functions in relation to Social Work England as are specified in the regulations, and
   (b) determine in accordance with the method provided for under subsection (3) the amount of the fee that Social Work England is to be required to pay.

(10) Regulations under this section requiring payment of a fee may make provision—
    (a) requiring the fee to be paid within such period as is specified;
    (b) requiring interest at such rate as is specified to be paid if the fee is not paid within the period specified under paragraph (a);
    (c) for the recovery of unpaid fees or interest.

(11) The regulations may enable the Secretary of State to redetermine the amount of a fee provided for under the regulations, on a request by the Authority or Social Work England or on the Secretary of State's own initiative.

(12) Before making regulations under this section, the Secretary of State must consult—
    (a) the Authority,
    (b) Social Work England, and
    (c) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

[F4425C Appointments to regulatory bodies

(1) The Privy Council and a regulatory body may make arrangements for the regulatory body or other persons to assist the Privy Council in connection with its exercise of any of its appointment functions in relation to the regulatory body.

(2) The Privy Council and the Authority may make arrangements for the Authority to assist the Privy Council in connection with—
   (a) its exercise of any of its appointment functions in relation to a regulatory body;
   (b) its exercise of its function under paragraph 4 of Schedule 7.

(3) The Privy Council may make arrangements with any other person to assist it in connection with—
   (a) its exercise of any of its appointment functions in relation to a regulatory body;
   (b) its exercise of its function under paragraph 4 of Schedule 7.

(4) The Scottish Ministers and the Authority may make arrangements for the Authority to assist them in connection with their exercise of their function under that paragraph.

(5) The Welsh Ministers and the Authority may make arrangements for the Authority to assist them in connection with their exercise of their function under that paragraph.

(6) The Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety in Northern Ireland may make arrangements for the Authority to assist the Department in connection with its exercise of its function under that paragraph.

(7) In this section, “regulatory body” does not include the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland [F46] or Social Work England.

(8) In this section, “appointment functions” means—
   (a) in relation to the General Medical Council, the function under paragraph 1A(2) of Schedule 1 to the Medical Act 1983 and such functions as the Privy Council from time to time has by virtue of paragraph 1B(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (appointment of members and chair and determination of terms of office),

(b) in relation to the General Dental Council, the function under paragraph 1A(2) of Schedule 1 to the Dentists Act 1984 and such functions as the Privy Council from time to time has by virtue of paragraph 1B(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (corresponding functions in relation to that Council),

c) in relation to the General Optical Council, the function under paragraph 1A(2) of Schedule 1 to the Opticians Act 1989 and such functions as the Privy Council from time to time has by virtue of paragraph 1B(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (corresponding functions in relation to that Council),

(d) in relation to the General Osteopathic Council, the function under paragraph 1A(2) of the Schedule to the Osteopaths Act 1993 and such functions as the Privy Council from time to time has by virtue of paragraph 1B(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (corresponding functions in relation to that Council),

e) in relation to the General Chiropractic Council, the function under paragraph 1A(2) of Schedule 1 to the Chiropractors Act 1994 and such functions as the Privy Council has by virtue of paragraph 1B(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (corresponding functions in relation to that Council),

(f) in relation to the General Pharmaceutical Council, the function under paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 1 to the Pharmacy Order 2010 (S.I. 2010/231) and such functions as the Privy Council from time to time has by virtue of paragraph 2(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (corresponding functions in relation to that Council),

(g) in relation to the Nursing and Midwifery Council, the function under paragraph 1A(2) of Schedule 1 to the Nursing and Midwifery Order 2001 (S.I. 2002/253) and such functions as the Privy Council from time to time has by virtue of paragraph 1B(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (corresponding functions in relation to that Council), and

(h) in relation to the Health and Care Professions Council, the function under paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 1 to the Health Professions Order 2001 and such functions as the Privy Council from time to time has by virtue of paragraph 1B(1)(b) or (d) of that Schedule (corresponding functions in relation to that Council).

(a) unregulated health professionals;
(b) unregulated health care workers;
(c) unregulated social care workers in England;
(d) participating in studies that come within subsection (2) or (3).

(2) Studies come within this subsection if they are studies for the purpose of becoming a member of—
(a) a profession to which section 60(2) of the Health Act 1999 applies F50.
(b) ........................................

(3) Studies come within this subsection if they are studies for the purpose of becoming—
(a) an unregulated health professional,
(b) an unregulated health care worker, or
(c) an unregulated social care worker in England.

(4) A regulatory body may establish and maintain a register under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) of only such persons as are (or have been) engaged in work that supports, or otherwise relates to, work engaged in by members of a profession which the body regulates; but this subsection does not apply to the Health and Care Professions Council.

(5) A regulatory body may establish and maintain a register under subsection (1)(d) of only such persons as are (or have been) participating in studies for the purpose of—
(a) in the case of studies coming within subsection (2), becoming a member of a profession which the body regulates,
(b) in the case of studies coming within subsection (3)(a), becoming a member of a profession for which the body maintains a voluntary register, or
(c) in the case of studies coming within subsection (3)(b) or (c), engaging in work in respect of which the body maintains a voluntary register.

(6) The General Pharmaceutical Council may establish and maintain a register under subsection (1) of only such persons as are (or have been) engaged in work or participating in studies in England, Wales or Scotland.

(7) The Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland may establish and maintain a register under subsection (1) of only such persons as are (or have been) engaged in work, or are participating in studies, in Northern Ireland.

(8) A regulatory body may establish and maintain a register under subsection (1) jointly with one or more other regulatory bodies.

(9) Where regulatory bodies establish and maintain a register in reliance on subsection (8)—
(a) subsections (4) and (5) apply to each body (but subsection (4) does not apply to the Health and Care Professions Council),
(b) subsection (6) applies to the General Pharmaceutical Council if it is one of the bodies, and
(c) subsection (7) applies to the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland if it is one of the bodies.

(10) But subsections (6) and (7) do not apply where the bodies concerned are or include the General Pharmaceutical Council and the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland.
(11) Accordingly, in those circumstances, the General Pharmaceutical Council and the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland may jointly establish and maintain a register of persons who are (and, where they consider appropriate, have been) engaged in work or participating in studies anywhere in the United Kingdom.

(12) A request to be registered, or to continue to be registered, in a register established under subsection (1) must be accompanied by a fee of such amount as the regulatory body (or bodies) concerned may determine.

Section 25D: interpretation

(1) This section applies for the purposes of section 25D.

(2) “Voluntary register” means a register of persons in which a person is not required by an enactment to be registered in order to be entitled to—

(a) use a title,

(b) practise as a member of a profession,

(c) engage in work that involves the provision of health care,

(d) engage in work of a description given in section 60(2ZC) of the Health Act 1999 (social care work in England), or

(e) participate in studies that come within section 25D(2) or (3).

(3) Where an enactment imposes a requirement of that kind which applies to part only of the United Kingdom, a register is to be regarded as a voluntary register in so far as it applies to any part of the United Kingdom to which the requirement does not apply.

(4) The reference in subsection (2) to an enactment does not include a reference to an enactment in so far as it imposes a requirement of that kind which applies—

(a) only to work or practice of a particular kind, and

(b) only when work or practice of that kind is engaged in for particular purposes.

(5) In subsections (2) to (4), “enactment” means an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under—

(a) an Act of Parliament,

(b) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,

(c) an Act or Measure of the National Assembly for Wales, or

(d) Northern Ireland legislation.

(6) “Unregulated health professional” means a member of a profession—

(a) which is concerned with the physical or mental health of individuals, but

(b) to which section 60(2) of the Health Act 1999 does not apply.
“Unregulated health care worker” means a person engaged in work which—
(a) involves the provision of health care, but
(b) is not work which may be engaged in only by members of a profession.

“Unregulated social care worker in England” means a person engaged in social care work in England within the meaning of section 60 of the Health Act 1999.

Before establishing a register under section 25D, a regulatory body—
(a) must make an assessment of the likely impact of doing so, and
(b) must consult such persons as it considers appropriate.

In performing the duty under subsection (1)(a), the body must have regard to such guidance relating to the preparation of impact assessments as it considers appropriate.

An assessment under this section must, in particular, include an assessment of the likely impact of establishing the register on—
(a) persons who would be eligible for inclusion in the register;
(b) persons who employ persons who would be eligible for inclusion in the register;
(c) users of health care \(^{F52}\) and users of social care in England.\(^{F32}\)

A regulatory body must publish any assessment it makes under this section.

In deciding whether to establish a register under section 25D, a regulatory body must have regard to the assessment it made under this section in relation to the register.\(^{F31}\)

25G  Power of the Authority to accredit voluntary registers

(1) Where a regulatory body or other person maintains a voluntary register, the Authority may, on an application by the body or other person, take such steps as it considers appropriate for the purpose of establishing whether the register meets such criteria as the Authority may from time to time set (“accreditation criteria”).

(2) Accreditation criteria may, in particular, relate to—
   (a) the provision to the Authority of information in connection with the establishment, operation or maintenance of register;
   (b) publication of the names of persons included in the register or who have been removed from the register (whether voluntarily or otherwise);
   (c) the establishment or operation of a procedure for appeals from decisions relating to inclusion in or removal from the register.

(3) If the Authority is satisfied that a voluntary register meets the accreditation criteria, it may accredit the register.

(4) The Authority may carry out periodic reviews of the operation of registers accredited under this section for the purpose of establishing whether they continue to meet the accreditation criteria.

(5) If, on a review under subsection (4), the Authority is satisfied that a voluntary register no longer meets the accreditation criteria, the Authority may remove or suspend, or impose conditions on, the accreditation of the register.

(6) The Authority may refuse to accredit a register, or to continue to accredit a register, unless the person who maintains the register pays a fee of such amount as the Authority may determine.

(7) The Authority must publish such accreditation criteria as it sets.

(8) The Authority may publish a list of registers accredited under this section.

(9) “Voluntary register” has the meaning given in section 25E.

25H  Accreditation of voluntary register: impact assessment

(1) Before accrediting a register under section 25G, the Authority—
   (a) must make an assessment of the likely impact of doing so, and
   (b) must consult such persons as it considers appropriate.

(2) For that purpose, the Authority must have regard to such guidance relating to the preparation of impact assessments as it considers appropriate.
(3) An assessment under this section must, in particular, include an assessment of the likely impact of accrediting the register on—
   (a) persons who are, or are eligible to be, included in the register;
   (b) persons who employ persons who are, or are eligible to be, included in the register;
   (c) users of health care [F55 and users of social care in England].

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the Authority may request the person who maintains the register to provide it with such information as it specifies; and if the person refuses to comply with the request, the Authority may refuse to accredit the register.

(5) The Authority may publish any assessment it makes under this section.

(6) In deciding whether to accredit a register under section 25G, the Authority must have regard to its assessment under this section in relation to the register.

25I Functions of the Authority in relation to accredited voluntary registers

(1) The Authority has the following functions—
   (a) to promote the interests of users of health care, users of social care in England [F56 ... and other members of the public in relation to the performance of voluntary registration functions,
   (b) to promote best practice in the performance of voluntary registration functions, and
   (c) to formulate principles of good governance in the performance of voluntary registration functions and to encourage persons who maintain or operate accredited voluntary registers to conform to those principles.

(2) In this section—
   (a) a reference to the performance of voluntary registration functions is a reference to the maintenance or operation of an accredited voluntary register, and
   (b) “accredited voluntary register” means a register accredited under section 25G”.]

26  Powers and duties of the [F57 Authority]: general

(1) Except as mentioned in subsections (3) to (6), the [F58 Authority] may do anything which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of, or in connection with, the performance of its functions.

(2) The [F58 Authority] may, for example, do any of the following—

(a) investigate, and report on, the performance by each regulatory body of its functions,

(b) where a regulatory body performs functions corresponding to those of another body (including another regulatory body), investigate and report on how the performance of such functions by the bodies in question compares,

(c) recommend to a regulatory body changes to the way in which it performs any of its functions.

[F59 (2A)] A reference in subsection (2) to a regulatory body includes a reference to a person other than a regulatory body who has voluntary registration functions; and for that purpose, the only functions that person has are the person's voluntary registration functions.

(3) The [F58 Authority] may not do anything in relation to the case of any individual in relation to whom—

(a) there are, are to be, or have been proceedings before a committee of a regulatory body, or the regulatory body itself or any officer of the body, or

(b) an allegation has been made to the regulatory body, or one of its committees or officers, which could result in such proceedings.

[F60 (3A)] A reference in subsection (3) to a regulatory body includes a reference to a person other than a regulatory body in so far as that person has voluntary registration functions.

[F61 (4)] Subsection (3) does not prevent the [F58 Authority] from—

(a) taking action under section 28,

(b) where section 29 applies, taking action under that section after the regulatory body's proceedings have ended, or

(c) investigating particular cases with a view to making general reports on the performance by the regulatory body of its functions or making general recommendations to the regulatory body affecting future cases.

[F62 (4A)] For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (4), the reference in that subsection to subsection (3) includes a reference to subsection (3) as construed in accordance with subsection (3A).

[F63] .................................

(6) [F64 Authority] may not do anything in relation to the functions of the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland (or its Council, or an officer or committee of the Society) unless those functions are—

(a) conferred on the Society (or its Council, or an officer or committee of the Society) by or by virtue of any provision of the Pharmacy (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 (S.I. 1976/1213 (N.I. 22)), other than Article 3(3)(e) (the benevolent functions),

(b) conferred as mentioned in paragraph (a) by, or by virtue of, an Order in Council under section 60 of the 1999 Act or an order under section 56 of the Health and Personal Social Services Act (Northern Ireland) 2001 (c. 3) (which makes provision corresponding to section 60 of the 1999 Act), or
(c) otherwise conferred as mentioned in paragraph (a) and relate to the regulation of the profession regulated by the Pharmacy (Northern Ireland) Order 1976.

(7) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(8) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(9) In section 60(1) of the 1999 Act (regulation of health care and associated professions), after paragraph (b) there is inserted—

“(c) modifying the functions, powers or duties of the Council for the Regulation of Health Care Professionals,

(d) modifying the list of regulatory bodies (in section 25(3) of the National Health Service Reform and Health Care Professions Act 2002) in relation to which that Council performs its functions,

(e) modifying, as respects any such regulatory body, the range of functions of that body in relation to which the Council performs its functions.”

(10) In Schedule 3 to the 1999 Act (which makes further provision about orders under section 60 of that Act), in paragraph 7, after sub-paragraph (3) there is inserted—

“(4) An Order may not confer any additional powers of direction over the Council for the Regulation of Health Care Professionals.”

(11) In subsections (3) and (4), “proceedings”, in relation to a regulatory body, or one of its committees or officers, includes a process of decision-making by which a decision could be made affecting the registration of the individual in question.

(12) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(13) In this section, “voluntary registration functions” is to be construed in accordance with section 251.
Powers of Secretary of State and devolved administrations

(1) The Secretary of State, the Welsh Ministers, the Scottish Ministers or the relevant Northern Ireland department may request the Authority for advice on any matter connected with a profession appearing to the person making the request to be a health care profession; and the Authority must comply with such a request.

(1A) The Secretary of State may request the Authority for advice on any matter connected with the social work profession, or social care workers, in England; and the Authority must comply with such a request.

(1B) The Secretary of State may request the Authority for advice on any matter connected with accreditation of registers under section 25G; and the Authority must comply with such a request.

(1C) The Welsh Ministers, the Scottish Ministers or the relevant Northern Ireland department may request the Authority for advice on any matter connected with accreditation of registers under section 25G other than accreditation of registers referred to in subsection (1D); and the Authority must comply with such a request.

(1D) The registers are registers of persons who are or have been—

(a) unregulated social care workers in England,

(b) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(c) participating in studies for the purpose of becoming an unregulated social care worker in England.

(1E) In subsection (1D), “unregulated social care worker in England” has the meaning given in section 25E.

(2) The Secretary of State, the Welsh Ministers, the Scottish Ministers or the relevant Northern Ireland department may require the Authority to investigate and report on a particular matter in respect of which the Authority’s functions are exercisable.

(2A) A person to whom the Authority gives advice, or for whom it investigates and reports on a matter, under this section must pay such fee as the Authority determines; and the fee may be charged by reference to the advice or the investigation and report concerned or on a periodic basis.

(3) In this section—

“health care profession” means a profession (whether or not regulated by or by virtue of any enactment) which is concerned (wholly or partly) with the physical or mental health of individuals; and

“the relevant Northern Ireland department” means the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety in Northern Ireland.
[\textit{\textbf{F78}}\textbf{26B} Duty to inform and consult the public]

(1) For the purpose of ensuring that members of the public are informed about the \textit{\textbf{[F79]Authority}} and the exercise by it of its functions, the \textit{\textbf{[F79]Authority}} must publish or provide in such manner as it thinks fit information about the \textit{\textbf{[F79]Authority}} and the exercise of its functions.

(1A) The references in subsection (1) to the Authority's functions do not include a reference to its accreditation functions.

(1B) For the purpose of ensuring that members of the public are informed about the exercise by the Authority of its accreditation functions, the Authority may publish or provide in such manner as it thinks fit information about the exercise of those functions.

(1C) For the purposes of this section, the Authority's accreditation functions are—

\begin{itemize}
  \item[(a)] its functions under sections 25G to 25I,
  \item[(b)] its functions under section 26 that relate to the performance of voluntary registration functions (within the meaning given by section 25I), and \item[(c)] its function under section 26A(1B).
\end{itemize}

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) \textit{\textbf{[F81]}} or (1B) authorises or requires the publication or provision of information if the publication or provision of that information—

\begin{itemize}
  \item[(a)] is prohibited by any enactment, or \item[(b)] would constitute or be punishable as a contempt of court.
\end{itemize}

(3) In subsection (2) “enactment” has the same meaning as in Part 2 of the Health and Social Care Act 2008.

(4) The \textit{\textbf{[F82]Authority}} must from time to time seek the views of—

\begin{itemize}
  \item[(a)] members of the public, and \end{itemize}
27  Regulatory bodies and the [F85Authority]

(1) Each regulatory body must in the exercise of its functions co-operate with the [F86Authority].

(2) If the [F86Authority] considers that it would be desirable to do so for the protection of members of the public, it may give directions requiring a regulatory body [F87otherwise than Social Work England] to make rules (under any power the body has to do so) to achieve an effect which must be specified in the directions.

(3) [F88The Authority] may give such directions only in relation to rules which must be approved by the Privy Council (whether by order or not) or by the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety in Northern Ireland before coming into force.

(4) The [F89Authority] must send a copy of any such directions to the relevant authority.

(5) The relevant authority is the [F90Privy Council] or, if the regulatory body in question is the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland, the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety there.

(6) The directions do not come into force until the date specified in an order made by the relevant authority.

(7) The [F91Privy Council] must lay before both Houses of Parliament, or (as the case may be) the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety must lay before the Northern Ireland Assembly, a draft of an order—

(a) setting out any directions [F92... it receives pursuant to subsection (4), and

(b) specifying the date on which the directions are to come into force.
(8) Subsections (4) to (7) apply also to—
   (a) directions varying earlier directions, and
   (b) directions revoking earlier directions, and given after—
      (i) both Houses of Parliament have resolved to approve the draft order specifying the date on which the earlier directions are to come into force, or (as the case may be)
      (ii) the Northern Ireland Assembly has done so.

(9) Subsections (4) and (5) apply also to directions—
   (a) revoking earlier directions, but
   (b) which do not fall within subsection (8)(b), but subsections (6) and (7) do not apply to such directions.

(10) If the \[F93\] Authority gives directions which fall within subsection (9), the earlier directions which those directions revoke shall be treated as if subsections (6) and (7) had never applied to them, and as never in force.

(11) A regulatory body must comply with directions given under subsection (2) which have come into force and have not been revoked.

(12) A regulatory body is not to be taken to have failed to comply with such directions merely because a court determines that the rules made pursuant to the directions are to be construed in such a way that the effect referred to in subsection (2) is not achieved.

(13) The \[F95\] Privy Council shall make provision in regulations as to the procedure to be followed in relation to the giving of directions under subsection (2).

(14) The regulations must, in particular, make provision requiring the \[F95\] Authority to consult a regulatory body before giving directions relating to it under subsection (2).

(15) In this section—
   (a) “making” rules includes amending or revoking rules, and
   (b) “rules” includes regulations, byelaws and schemes.
28 Complaints about regulatory bodies

(1) [F96] The Privy Council may make provision in regulations about the investigation by the [F97] Authority of complaints made to it about the way in which a regulatory body [F98] other than Social Work England has exercised any of its functions.

(2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision as to—
   (a) who (or what description of person) is entitled to complain,
   (b) the nature of complaints which the [F99] Authority must (or need not) investigate,
   (c) matters which are excluded from investigation,
   (d) requirements to be complied with by a person who makes a complaint,
   (e) the procedure to be followed by the [F100] Authority in investigating complaints,
   (f) the making of recommendations or reports by the [F100] Authority following investigations,
   (g) the confidentiality, or disclosure, of any information supplied to the [F100] Authority or acquired by it in connection with an investigation,
   (h) the use which the [F100] Authority may make of any such information,
   (i) the making of payments to any persons in connection with investigations,
   (j) privilege in relation to any matter published by the [F101] Authority in the exercise of its functions under the regulations.

(3) The regulations may also make provision—
   (a) empowering the [F102] Authority to require persons to attend before it,
   (b) empowering the [F102] Authority to require persons to give evidence or produce documents to it,
   (c) about the admissibility of evidence,
   (d) enabling the [F102] Authority to administer oaths.

(4) No person shall be required by or by virtue of regulations under this section to give any evidence or produce any document or other material to the [F103] Authority which he could not be compelled to give or produce in civil proceedings before the High Court or, in Scotland, the Court of Session.
Reference of disciplinary cases by [\textsuperscript{F105}Authority] to court

(1) This section applies to—

\textsuperscript{F106}(a) a direction of the Fitness to Practise Committee of the General Pharmaceutical Council under article 54 of the Pharmacy Order 2010 (consideration by the Fitness to Practise Committee) or under section 80 of the Medicines Act 1968 (power to disqualify and direct removal from register),

(b) a direction of the Statutory Committee of the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland under Article 20 of the Pharmacy (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 (S.I. 1976/1213 (N.I. 22)) (control of registrations by Statutory Committee) or section 80 of the Medicines Act 1968,

\textsuperscript{F107}(c) a direction by [\textsuperscript{F108}a Medical Practitioners Tribunal] of the General Medical Council under section 35D of the Medical Act 1983 (c. 54) that the fitness to practise of a medical practitioner was impaired \textsuperscript{F109}...

\textsuperscript{F110}(ca) a direction by a Medical Practitioners Tribunal of the General Medical Council under paragraph 5A(3D) or 5C(4) of Schedule 4 to the Medical Act 1983 for suspension of a person’s registration or for conditional registration, \textsuperscript{F111}(c) a direction by the Professional Conduct Committee, the Professional Performance Committee or the Health Committee of the General Dental Council under any of sections 27B, 27C, 36P or 36Q of the Dentists Act 1984 following a determination that a person’s fitness to practise as a dentist or as a member of a profession complementary to dentistry, or class of members of such a profession, is impaired \textsuperscript{F112}...

\textsuperscript{F113}(f) a direction by the Fitness to Practise Committee of the General Optical Council under section 13F(2) of the Opticians Act 1989 (powers of Fitness to Practise Committee) \textsuperscript{F114}...

\textsuperscript{F115}(g) any step taken—

(i) by the Professional Conduct Committee of the General Osteopathic Council under section 22 of the Osteopaths Act 1993 (which relates to action to be taken in cases of allegations referred to the Professional Conduct Committee), or
(ii) by the Health Committee of the General Osteopathic Council under section 23 of that Act (which relates to action to be taken in cases of allegations referred to the Health Committee),]

\[F^{116}(h)\] any step taken—

(i) by the Professional Conduct Committee of the General Chiropractic Council under section 22 of the Chiropractors Act 1994 (which relates to action to be taken in cases of allegations referred to the Professional Conduct Committee), or

(ii) by the Health Committee of the General Chiropractic Council under section 23 of that Act (which relates to action to be taken in cases of allegations referred to the Health Committee),]

\[F^{118}(j)\] any corresponding measure taken in relation to a member of a profession regulated by the Health Professions Order 2001, under that Order.

(2) This section also applies to—

(a) a final decision of the relevant committee not to take any disciplinary measure under the provision referred to in whichever of paragraphs (a) to (h) of subsection (1) applies,

(b) any corresponding decision taken in relation to a nurse or midwife under the Nursing and Midwifery Order 2001,

(c) a decision of the relevant regulatory body, or one of its committees or officers, to restore a person to the register following his removal from it in accordance with any of the measures referred to in paragraphs (a) to (j) of subsection (1).

(2A) This section also applies to any steps or decisions which are taken by Social Work England (or any of its committees or officers) in connection with fitness to practise or discipline and which are of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(3) The things to which this section applies are referred to below as “relevant decisions”.

(4) Where a relevant decision is made, the Authority may refer the case to the relevant court if it considers that the decision is not sufficient (whether as to a finding or a penalty or both) for the protection of the public.

(4A) Consideration of whether a decision is sufficient for the protection of the public involves consideration of whether it is sufficient—

(a) to protect the health, safety and well-being of the public;

(b) to maintain public confidence in the profession concerned; and

(c) to maintain proper professional standards and conduct for members of that profession.

(5) In subsection (4), the “relevant court” —

(a) in the case of a person who (in accordance with the rules applying to the body making the relevant decision) was, or was required to be, notified of the relevant decision at an address in Scotland, means the Court of Session,

(b) in the case of a person who (in accordance with the rules applying to the body making the relevant decision) was, or was required to be, notified of the relevant decision at an address in Northern Ireland, means the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, and
(c) in the case of any other person, means the High Court of Justice in England and Wales.

F125 In relation to something that is a relevant decision as a result of subsection (2A), “the relevant court” means the High Court of Justice in England and Wales.

(6) [F126] The Authority may not so refer a case after the end of the period of—
(a) [F127] 40 days beginning with the day which is the last day on which the practitioner concerned can appeal against the relevant decision, or
(b) in the case of a relevant decision against which it is not possible for the practitioner concerned to appeal, 56 days beginning with the day on which notification of the decision was served on the person to whom the decision relates.

(7) If the Authority does so refer a case—
(a) the case is to be treated by the court to which it has been referred as an appeal by the Authority against the relevant decision (even though the Authority was not a party to the proceedings resulting in the relevant decision), and
(b) the body which made the relevant decision (as well as the person to whom the decision relates) is to be a respondent.

F132 In a case where the relevant decision is taken by a committee, the reference in subsection (7)(b) to the body which made the decision is to be read as a reference to the body of which it is a committee.

(8) The court may—
(a) dismiss the appeal,
(b) allow the appeal and quash the relevant decision,
(c) substitute for the relevant decision any other decision which could have been made by the committee or other person concerned, or
(d) remit the case to the committee or other person concerned to dispose of the case in accordance with the directions of the court, or, in the case of a relevant decision within subsection (1)(c) or (ca) or a relevant decision within subsection (2)(a) or (c) not to take a disciplinary measure under a provision referred to in subsection (1)(c) or (ca), remit the case to the Medical Practitioners Tribunal Service for them to arrange for a Medical Practitioners Tribunal so to dispose of the case, and may make such order as to costs (or, in Scotland, expenses) as it thinks fit.

F134 Where rules under paragraph 1 of Schedule 4 to the Medical Act 1983 provide, by virtue of paragraph 1(2E) of that Schedule, for the application of section 35D of that Act, the reference in subsection (1)(c) of this section to section 35D of that Act includes a reference to that section as so applied.

(10) The reference in subsection (1)(ca) to paragraph 5A(3D) of the Medical Act 1983 includes a reference to that provision as applied by section 35A(6E) of that Act.]

References under section 29: role of the General Medical Council

(1) If the Authority makes a reference under section 29 of a case involving a relevant decision such as is mentioned in subsection (8)(d) of that section—

(a) the Authority must without delay give the General Medical Council notice of the reference; and

(b) the General Medical Council may not bring an appeal under section 40A of the Medical Act 1983 against the decision.

(2) Where the General Medical Council is the respondent in the case of a reference under section 29, the matters which it may raise on the reference include any matter that it could have raised on an appeal against the relevant decision under section 40A of the Medical Act 1983.

(3) If the General Medical Council is the respondent in the case of a reference under section 29, and the Authority either wishes to withdraw the reference or, having agreed... the terms of a settlement of the case with the person to whom the relevant decision relates, wishes the case to be disposed of on those terms, the Authority must give notice of its wish to the Council.

(4) The General Medical Council, having received a notice under subsection (3), must by notice inform the relevant court, the Authority and the person concerned whether it wishes the proceedings on the reference to continue.

(5) Where the General Medical Council gives notice under subsection (4) that it wishes the proceedings to continue, they are to continue but, from the time when the Council gives its notice to the relevant court under subsection (4), are to be treated as proceedings on an appeal made by the Council under section 40A of the Medical Act 1983.

(6) In a case within subsection (5), the General Medical Council must give notice to the relevant court, the Authority and the person concerned specifying the grounds of its case; and—

(a) the person concerned has the opportunity to respond accordingly, and

(b) the Authority has the opportunity to become a party to the appeal by virtue of section 40B(2) of the Medical Act 1983.

(7) A requirement in this section to give a notice to a specified person is in addition to such requirements as are imposed by rules of court in relation to the persons to whom notice is to be given; and the giving of notice under this section is subject to such other requirements relating to the giving of notices as are imposed by rules of court.

(8) In this section, “relevant court” and “relevant decision” each have the same meaning as in section 29.[

(2) For subsection (1) there is substituted—

“(1) An individual or body corporate who is notified under subsection (11) of section 17—

(a) that a disciplinary order has been made against him under that section; or

(b) that a direction has been given in respect of him under subsection (9) of that section, may, before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which notification was served, appeal against that order or direction to the relevant court.

(1A) In subsection (1), “the relevant court”—

(a) in the case of an individual whose address in the register is in Scotland, or a body corporate whose registered office is in Scotland, means the Court of Session,

(b) in the case of an individual whose address in the register is in Northern Ireland, or a body corporate whose registered office is in Northern Ireland, means the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, and

(c) in the case of any other individual or body corporate, means the High Court of Justice in England and Wales.

(1B) An individual or body corporate who is notified under subsection (3) of section 19 above that a direction has been given in respect of him under that section may, before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which notification was served, appeal against that direction to a county court or, in Scotland, the sheriff in whose sheriffdom the address in the register or (as the case may be) the registered office is situated.

(1C) On an appeal under this section, the court (or the sheriff) may—

(a) dismiss the appeal,

(b) allow the appeal and quash the order or direction appealed against,

(c) substitute for the order or direction appealed against any other order or direction which could have been made by the Disciplinary Committee, or

(d) remit the case to the Disciplinary Committee to dispose of the case in accordance with the directions of the court (or the sheriff), and may make such order as to costs (or, in Scotland, expenses) as it (or he) thinks fit.”

(3) In subsection (2), for “any such appeal”, where it first appears, there is substituted “any appeal under this section”.
33 Osteopaths

(1) The Osteopaths Act 1993 (c. 21) is amended as follows.

(2) In section 10 (fraud or error in relation to registration)—
   (a) in subsection (7), for “Her Majesty in Council” there is substituted “ a county court or, in the case of a person whose address in the register is in Scotland, the sheriff in whose sheriffdom the address is situated ”,
   (b) for subsection (8) there is substituted—
   “(8) Any such appeal must be brought before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which notification of the order was served under subsection (6).”,
   (c) subsection (10) is omitted, and
   (d) for subsection (11) there is substituted—
   “(11) On an appeal under this section, the court (or the sheriff) may—
   (a) dismiss the appeal,
   (b) allow the appeal and quash the order appealed against, or
   (c) remit the case to the General Council to dispose of the case in accordance with the directions of the court (or the sheriff), and may make such order as to costs (or, in Scotland, expenses) as it (or he) thinks fit.”

“(2) But (subject to paragraph 12) an order may not amend the Medicines Act 1968 except in connection with the regulation of the profession regulated by the Pharmacy Act 1954.”

PART 3

MISCELLANEOUS

36 Amendments of health service legislation in connection with consolidation

37 Minor and consequential amendments and repeals

(1) The minor and consequential amendments specified in Schedule 8 are to have effect.

(2) The enactments specified in Schedule 9 are repealed to the extent specified.
38 Regulations and orders

(1) Any power under this Act to make any order or regulations is (except in the case of orders under section 22(5)) exercisable by statutory instrument or, in the case of an order made by the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety in Northern Ireland under section 27, by statutory rule for the purposes of the Statutory Rules (Northern Ireland) Order 1979 (S.I. 1979/1573 (N.I. 12)).

(2) A statutory instrument containing any order or regulations made by the Secretary of State under this Act, other than regulations under section 29(2A) or an order under section 42(3), shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(3) A statutory instrument containing regulations under section 28 or 29(2A) or an order of the Privy Council under section 27, shall not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(3A) A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Privy Council under section 25A shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(3B) Regulations made by the Privy Council under section 25A that include provision which would, if included in an Act of the Scottish Parliament, fall within the legislative competence of that Parliament shall be subject to the negative procedure in that Parliament (in addition to the statutory instrument containing the regulations being subject to annulment under subsection (3A)).

(3C) Sections 28 and 31 of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010 (negative procedure etc.) shall apply in relation to regulations of the description given in subsection (3B) as they apply in relation to devolved subordinate legislation (within the meaning of Part 2 of that Act) that is subject to the negative procedure, but as if references to a Scottish statutory instrument were references to a statutory instrument.

(3D) Section 32 of that Act (laying) shall apply in relation to the laying of a statutory instrument containing regulations of the description given in subsection (3B) before the Scottish Parliament as it applies in relation to the laying of a Scottish statutory instrument (within the meaning of Part 2 of that Act) before that Parliament.

(3E) A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Privy Council under section 27 is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(3F) A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Privy Council under paragraph 6 of Schedule 7 is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(4) No order shall be made by the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety in Northern Ireland under section 27 unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, the Northern Ireland Assembly.

(4A) The quorum for the exercise by the Privy Council of the power under section 25A, 27 or 28 or paragraph 6 of Schedule 7 is two; and anything done by the Privy Council under either of those sections or that paragraph is sufficiently signified by an instrument signed by the Clerk of the Council.

(5) Any power under this Act to make any order or regulations may be exercised—
   (a) either in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of case,
   (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised—
      (i) the full provision to which the power extends or any less provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),
      (ii) the same provision for all cases in relation to which the power is exercised, or different provision for different cases or different classes of case or different provision as respects the same case or class of case for different purposes of this Act,
      (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any specified condition.

(6) Where any such power is expressed to be exercisable for alternative purposes it may be exercised in relation to the same case for any or all of those purposes.

(7) Any such power includes power—
   (a) to make such incidental, supplementary, consequential, saving or transitional provision (including provision amending, repealing or revoking enactments) as the authority making the order or regulations considers to be expedient, and
   (b) to provide for a person to exercise a discretion in dealing with any matter.

(8) Subsections (5) to (7) do not apply to orders under section 27.

(9) Subject to subsection (8), nothing in this Act shall be read as affecting the generality of subsection (7).

(10) Directions given in pursuance of any provision of this Act are, except where otherwise stated, to be given by instrument in writing.

(11) Any power sconferred by this Act to give directions \[F148\] by instrument in writing includes power to vary or revoke them by subsequent directions.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C6 S. 39 modified (1.3.2007) by National Health Service (Consequential Provisions) Act 2006 (c. 43), s. 8(2), Sch. 2 para. 1(6)(d) (with Sch. 3 Pt. 1)

40 Wales

(1) In Schedule 1 to the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999
   (S.I. 1999/672), any reference to an Act which is amended by this Act is (as from the time when the Act is so amended) to be treated as referring to the Act as so amended.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect the power to make further Orders varying or omitting any such reference.

41 Financial provisions

There shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament—
   (a) any expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State in consequence of this Act, and
   (b) any increase attributable to this Act in the sums payable out of money so provided by virtue of any other Act.
42 Short title, interpretation, commencement and extent

(1) This Act may be cited as the National Health Service Reform and Health Care Professions Act 2002.

(2) In this Act—

“the 1999 Act” means the Health Act 1999 (c. 8),

(3) This Act, apart from—

(a) this section and sections 38 to 41, and
(b) any other provision of this Act so far as it confers any power to make an order or regulations under this Act, shall come into force on such day as the appropriate authority may by order appoint, and different days may be appointed for different provisions and for different purposes.

(4) In subsection (3), the “appropriate authority” is—

(a) in relation to sections 1 to 5, 7, 8, 15 to 22, Part 2, and section 36, the Secretary of State,
(b) in relation to sections 11 to 14, the Secretary of State after consulting the National Assembly for Wales,
(c) in relation to sections 6, 9 and 24, the National Assembly for Wales,
(d) in relation to sections 10 and 23—

(i) the Secretary of State, in relation to England, and
(ii) the National Assembly for Wales, in relation to Wales,
(e) in relation to section 37—

(i) the Secretary of State, as respects any amendment or repeal consequential on provisions falling within paragraph (a),
(ii) the Secretary of State, after consulting the National Assembly for Wales, as respects any amendment or repeal consequential on provisions falling within paragraph (b),
(iii) the National Assembly for Wales, as respects any amendment or repeal consequential on provisions falling within paragraph (c),
(iv) otherwise, the Secretary of State, in relation to England, and the National Assembly for Wales, in relation to Wales.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), this Act extends to the whole of the United Kingdom, except for Part 1, which extends to England and Wales only.

(6) The extent of any amendment or repeal made by this Act is the same as that of the enactment amended or repealed.

(7) [F150Subsection (6) does not apply to the amendment of the Police Act 1997 (c. 50) made by paragraph 64 of Schedule 2, which extends to England and Wales only.]

(8) The Secretary of State may by order provide that so much of this Act as extends to England and Wales is to apply to the Isles of Scilly with such modifications (if any) as are specified in the order; but otherwise this Act does not extend there.
