- (3B) The prescribed manner of determination in relation to the person or persons must not include an individual element of child tax credit in respect of the child or qualifying young person unless—
- (a) he is (or they are) claiming the individual element of child tax credit for no more than one other child or qualifying young person, or
 - (b) a prescribed exception applies.]
- (4) The prescribed manner of determination may involve the inclusion of such other elements as may be prescribed.
- (5) The prescribed manner of determination—
- (a) may include provision for the amount of the family element of child tax credit to vary according to the age of any of the children or qualifying young persons or according to any such other factors as may be prescribed,
 - (b) may include provision for the amount of the individual element of child tax credit to vary according to the age of the child or qualifying young person or according to any such other factors as may be prescribed, and
 - [^{F6}(c) may include provision for the amount of the disability element of child tax credit to vary according to whether the child or qualifying young person is disabled or severely disabled.]
- (6) A child or qualifying young person is disabled, or severely disabled, for the purposes of this section only if—
- (a) he satisfies prescribed conditions, or
 - (b) prescribed conditions exist in relation to him.
- (7) If, in accordance with regulations under section 8(2), more than one claimant may be entitled to child tax credit in respect of the same child or qualifying young person, the prescribed manner of determination may include provision for the amount of any element of child tax credit included in the case of any one or more of them to be less than it would be if only one claimant were so entitled.
- (8) “Claimant” means—
- (a) in the case of a single claim, the person who makes the claim, and
 - (b) in the case of a joint claim, the persons who make the claim.]
