

Employment Act 2002

2002 CHAPTER 22

PART 3

DISPUTE RESOLUTION ETC.

Statutory procedures

33 Consequential adjustment of time limits

- (1) The Secretary of State may, in relation to a jurisdiction listed in Schedule 3 or 4, by regulations make provision about the time limit for beginning proceedings in respect of a claim concerning a matter to which a statutory procedure applies.
- (2) Regulations under this section may, in particular—
 - (a) make provision extending, or authorising the extension of, the time for beginning proceedings,
 - (b) make provision about the exercise of a discretion to extend the time for beginning proceedings, or
 - (c) make provision treating proceedings begun out of time as begun within time.
