General elections

2 Voting system in Great Britain

- (1) The system of election of MEPs in an electoral region in Great Britain is to be a regional list system.
- (2) The Secretary of State must by regulations—
- (a) make provision for the nomination of registered parties in relation to an election in such a region, and
 - (b) require a nomination under paragraph (a) to be accompanied by a list of candidates numbering no more than the MEPs to be elected for the region.

Status: Point in time view as at 08/05/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The system of election must comply with the following conditions.
- (4) A vote may be cast for a registered party or an individual candidate named on the ballot paper.
- (5) The first seat is to be allocated to the party or individual candidate with the greatest number of votes.
- (6) The second and subsequent seats are to be allocated in the same way, except that the number of votes given to a party to which one or more seats have already been allocated are to be divided by the number of seats allocated plus one.
- (7) In allocating the second or any subsequent seat there are to be disregarded any votes given to—
 - (a) a party to which there has already been allocated a number of seats equal to the number of names on the party’s list of candidates, and
 - (b) an individual candidate to whom a seat has already been allocated.
- (8) Seats allocated to a party are to be filled by the persons named on the party’s list of candidates in the order in which they appear on that list.
- (9) For the purposes of subsection (6) fractions are to be taken into account.
- (10) In this section “registered party” means a party registered under Part 2 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (c. 41).

3 Voting system in Northern Ireland

The system of election of MEPs in Northern Ireland is to be a single transferable vote system under which—

- (a) a vote is capable of being given so as to indicate the voter’s order of preference for the candidates, and
- (b) a vote is capable of being transferred to the next choice—
 - (i) when the vote is not required to give a prior choice the necessary quota of votes, or
 - (ii) when, owing to the deficiency in the number of votes given for a prior choice, that choice is eliminated from the list of candidates.

4 Date of elections

The poll at each general election of MEPs is to be held on a day appointed by order of the Secretary of State.

Vacant seats

5 Filling vacant seats

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision prescribing the procedure to be followed when a seat is or becomes vacant.
- (2) The regulations may—
 - (a) include provision requiring a by-election to be held in specified circumstances (and provision modifying section 2 in its application to by-elections);

Status: Point in time view as at 08/05/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) require a seat last filled from a party's list of candidates to be filled, in specified circumstances, from such a list (without a by-election).
- (3) Where regulations provide for a by-election to be held—
- (a) the poll must take place on a day, appointed by order of the Secretary of State, within such period as may be specified in the regulations, but
 - (b) the regulations may enable the Secretary of State to decline to appoint a day in certain circumstances.

Conduct of elections

6 Returning officers

- (1) There is to be a returning officer for each electoral region.
- (2) For a region in England and for Wales, the returning officer is to be a person who—
- (a) is an acting returning officer by virtue of section 28(1) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2), and
 - (b) is designated for the purposes of this subsection by order of the Secretary of State.
- (3) For Scotland the returning officer is to be a person who—
- (a) is a returning officer by virtue of section 25 of that Act, and
 - (b) is designated for the purposes of this subsection by order of the Secretary of State.
- (4) For Northern Ireland the returning officer is to be the Chief Electoral Officer.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations confer functions on the returning officers for the electoral regions and on persons who are, in relation to parliamentary elections—
- (a) in the case of England and Wales, acting returning officers, or
 - (b) in the case of Scotland, returning officers.
- (6) There are to be charged on, and paid out of, the Consolidated Fund—
- (a) charges to which persons on whom functions are conferred under subsection (5) are entitled under regulations under this Act, and
 - (b) any sums required by the Secretary of State for expenditure on the provision of training relating to functions conferred under subsection (5).
- (7) Where functions are conferred on a person under subsection (5) in relation to an electoral region, the council of a relevant area which falls wholly or partly within that region must place the services of their officers at his disposal for the purpose of assisting him in the discharge of those functions.
- (8) In subsection (7), “relevant area” means—
- (a) a district or London borough in England,
 - (b) a county or county borough in Wales, and
 - (c) a local government area in Scotland.

Status: Point in time view as at 08/05/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

7 Regulation-making powers: general

- (1) The Secretary of State may, subject to the provisions of this Act, by regulations make provision as to—
 - (a) the conduct of elections to the European Parliament, and
 - (b) the questioning of such an election and the consequences of irregularities.
- (2) Regulations under this Act may make provision (including the creation of criminal offences)—
 - (a) about the limitation of election expenses of candidates;
 - (b) for the allocation of seats in the case of an equality of votes;
 - (c) for securing that no person stands for election more than once at a general election (whether by being nominated as a candidate or by being included in a party's list of candidates).
- (3) Regulations under this Act may apply, with such modifications or exceptions as may be specified in the regulations—
 - (a) any provision of the Representation of the People Acts or of any other enactment relating to parliamentary elections or local government elections, and
 - (b) any provision made under any enactment.
- (4) Regulations under this Act may amend any form contained in regulations made under the Representation of the People Acts so far as may be necessary to enable it to be used both for the purpose indicated in regulations so made and for the corresponding purpose in relation to elections to the European Parliament.
- (5) Section 26 of the Welsh Language Act 1993 (c. 38) (power to prescribe Welsh version) applies in relation to regulations under this Act as it applies in relation to Acts of Parliament.

Entitlement to vote

8 Persons entitled to vote

- (1) A person is entitled to vote as an elector at an election to the European Parliament in an electoral region if he is within any of subsections (2) to (5).
- (2) A person is within this subsection if on the day of the poll he would be entitled to vote as an elector at a parliamentary election in a parliamentary constituency wholly or partly comprised in the electoral region, and—
 - (a) the address in respect of which he is registered in the relevant register of parliamentary electors is within the electoral region, or
 - (b) his registration in the relevant register of parliamentary electors results from an overseas elector's declaration which specifies an address within the electoral region.
- (3) A person is within this subsection if—
 - (a) he is a peer who on the day of the poll would be entitled to vote at a local government election in an electoral area wholly or partly comprised in the electoral region, and
 - (b) the address in respect of which he is registered in the relevant register of local government electors is within the electoral region.

Status: Point in time view as at 08/05/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) A person is within this subsection if he is entitled to vote in the electoral region by virtue of section 3 of the Representation of the People Act 1985 (c. 50) (peers resident outside the United Kingdom).
- (5) A person is within this subsection if he is entitled to vote in the electoral region by virtue of the European Parliamentary Elections (Franchise of Relevant Citizens of the Union) Regulations 2001 (S.I. 2001/1184) (citizens of the European Union other than Commonwealth and Republic of Ireland citizens).
- (6) Subsection (1) has effect subject to any provision of regulations made under this Act which provides for alterations made after a specified date in a register of electors to be disregarded.
- (7) In subsection (3) “local government election” includes a municipal election in the City of London (that is, an election to the office of mayor, alderman, common councilman or sheriff and also the election of any officer elected by the mayor, aldermen and liverymen in common hall).

9 Double voting

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence if, on any occasion when elections to the European Parliament are held in all the member states under Article 9 of the Act annexed to Council Decision 76/787, he votes as an elector more than once in those elections, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.
- (2) Subsection (1) is without prejudice to any enactment relating to voting offences, as applied by regulations under this Act to elections of MEPs held in the United Kingdom.
- (3) The provisions of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2), as applied by regulations under this Act, have effect in relation to an offence under this section as they have effect in relation to an offence under section 61(2) of that Act (double voting).
- (4) In particular, the following provisions of that Act apply—
 - (a) section 61(7) (which makes an offence under section 61(2) an illegal practice but allows any incapacity resulting from conviction to be mitigated by the convicting court), and
 - (b) section 178 (prosecutions for offences committed outside the United Kingdom).

Entitlement to be MEP

10 Disqualification

- (1) A person is disqualified for the office of MEP if—
 - (a) he is disqualified for membership of the House of Commons, or
 - (b) he is a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary.
- (2) But a person is not disqualified for the office of MEP under subsection (1)(a) merely because—
 - (a) he is a peer,
 - (b) he is a Lord Spiritual,

*Status: Point in time view as at 08/05/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (c) he holds an office mentioned in section 4 of the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c.24) (stewardship of Chiltern Hundreds etc.), or
 - (d) he holds any of the offices described in Part 2 or 3 of Schedule 1 to that Act which are designated by order by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section.
- (3) A citizen of the European Union who is resident in the United Kingdom is not disqualified for the office of MEP under subsection (1)(a) merely because he is disqualified for membership of the House of Commons under section 3 of the Act of Settlement (12&13 Will 3 c.2.) (disqualification of persons, other than Commonwealth and Republic of Ireland citizens, who are born outside Great Britain and Ireland and the dominions).
- (4) A person is disqualified for the office of MEP for a particular electoral region if, under section 1(2) of the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c. 24), he is disqualified for membership of the House of Commons for any parliamentary constituency wholly or partly comprised in that region.
- (5) A person who—
- (a) is a citizen of the European Union, and
 - (b) is not a Commonwealth citizen or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland,
- is disqualified for the office of MEP if he is disqualified for that office through a criminal law or civil law decision under the law of the member state of which he is a national (and in this subsection “criminal law or civil law decision” has the same meaning as in Council Directive 93/109/EC).
- (6) If a person who is returned as an MEP for an electoral region under section 2, 3 or 5—
- (a) is disqualified under this section for the office of MEP, or
 - (b) is disqualified under this section for the office of MEP for that region,
- his return is void and his seat vacant.
- (7) If an MEP becomes disqualified under this section for the office of MEP or for the office of MEP for the electoral region for which he was returned, his seat is to be vacated.
- (8) Subsection (1) is without prejudice to Article 6(1) of the Act annexed to Council Decision 76/787 (incompatibility of office of MEP with certain offices in or connected with Community institutions).

11 Judicial determination of disqualification

- (1) Any person may apply to the appropriate court for a declaration or (in Scotland) declarator that a person who purports to be an MEP for a particular electoral region—
- (a) is disqualified under section 10 (whether generally or for that region), or
 - (b) was so disqualified at the time when, or at some time since, he was returned as an MEP under section 2, 3 or 5.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the appropriate court is—
- (a) the High Court, if the electoral region concerned is in England, or is Wales,
 - (b) the Court of Session, if the electoral region concerned is Scotland, or
 - (c) the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, if the electoral region concerned is Northern Ireland.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (3) The decision of the court on an application under this section is final.
- (4) On an application under this section—
 - (a) the person in respect of whom the application is made is to be the respondent or (in Scotland) the defender, and
 - (b) the applicant must give such security for the costs or expenses of the proceedings, not exceeding £5000, as the court may direct.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by order substitute another figure for the figure in subsection (4)(b).
- (6) No declaration or declarator is to be made under this section in respect of any person on grounds which subsisted at the time of his election if there is pending, or has been tried, an election petition in which his disqualification on those grounds is, or was, in issue.
- (7) Any declaration or declarator made by the court on an application under this section must be certified in writing to the Secretary of State immediately by the court.

European Parliament

12 Ratification of treaties

- (1) No treaty which provides for any increase in the powers of the European Parliament is to be ratified by the United Kingdom unless it has been approved by an Act of Parliament.
- (2) In this section “treaty” includes—
 - (a) any international agreement, and
 - (b) any protocol or annex to a treaty or international agreement.

Supplementary

13 Regulations and orders

- (1) Regulations and orders made under this Act must be made by statutory instrument.
- (2) No regulations may be made under this Act unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (3) A statutory instrument containing an order under—
 - (a) section 10(2)(d) or 11(5),^{F3} . . .
 - (b) ^{F3}
 is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing an order under section 4 or 5(3) is to be laid before Parliament after being made.

Electoral Commission review and recommendation

- 1
- (1) As soon as possible after 1st May in a pre-election year the Electoral Commission (“the Commission”) must, subject to paragraph 2—
 - (a) carry out a review (“the periodic review”) of the distribution of MEPs between the electoral regions; and
 - (b) report its conclusions to the Secretary of State.
 - (2) In carrying out the periodic review the Commission must consider whether (assuming that each region is entitled to be allocated at least three MEPs) the ratio of electors to MEPs is as nearly as possible the same for every electoral region.
 - (3) If the Commission concludes that the result mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) is not achieved by the current distribution of MEPs, it must include in its report a recommendation specifying a distribution that would achieve that result.
 - (4) The report must be published by the Commission and laid before Parliament by the Secretary of State.

Exclusion or suspension of duties under paragraph 1

- (1) The Commission may not take any step (or further step) under paragraph 1 if a 2003 Act order is made or a suspension notice is given to the Commission—
 - (a) within the period of 12 months ending with 1st May in the pre-election year in question or,

Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) after the end of that period but before the Commission makes its report, unless and until the duties under paragraph 1 revive by virtue of sub-paragraph (2).
- (2) If the Secretary of State withdraws a suspension notice more than nine months before the date of the poll for the next general election of MEPs, the duties under paragraph 1 revive (but subject again to this paragraph).
- (3) In this Schedule—
 - “2003 Act order” means an order under section 5 of the European Parliament (Representation) Act 2003 (orders implementing changes in the number of United Kingdom MEPs) which takes effect in relation to the next general election of MEPs after it is made; and
 - “suspension notice” means a notice stating that the Secretary of State considers it likely that a 2003 Act order will be made before the next general election of MEPs.

Implementation of Electoral Commission recommendation

- (1) Where a recommendation under paragraph 1(3) is made to him, the Secretary of State must—
 - (a) lay before Parliament a draft of an order giving effect to the recommendation by amending any of the numbers specified in section 1(3); and
 - (b) if the draft is approved by resolution of each House, make an order in the terms of the draft.
- (2) An order under this paragraph may make consequential, transitional or saving provision.
- (3) Provision made under sub-paragraph (2) may modify any enactment.
- (4) The Secretary of State must consult the Commission before laying an order under this paragraph before Parliament.
- (5) This paragraph has effect subject to paragraphs 4 and 5.

Implementation of Electoral Commission recommendation

- (1) If a motion for the approval of a draft of an order under paragraph 3 is rejected by either House or withdrawn by leave of the House, the Secretary of State may, after consulting the Commission, alter the draft order and lay it before Parliament for approval.
- (2) But the Secretary of State may not, without the consent of the Commission, alter a draft order so as to propose a distribution of MEPs other than that recommended under paragraph 1(3).
- (3) The Commission may not give its consent under sub-paragraph (2) unless it is satisfied that the distribution of MEPs could have been recommended under paragraph 1(3).
- (4) If an altered draft order is approved by both Houses the Secretary of State must make an order under paragraph 3 in the terms of the altered draft.
- (5) This paragraph has effect subject to paragraph 5.

Status: Point in time view as at 08/05/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Exclusion or suspension of duties and powers under paragraph 3 or 4

- 5
- (1) The Secretary of State may not take any step (or further step) under paragraph 3 or 4 if a 2003 Act order is made before he would otherwise have taken it.
 - (2) Subject to that, the Secretary of State is not required to take any step (or further step) under paragraph 3 or 4 if and so long as he is of the opinion that it is likely that a 2003 Act order will be made before the next general election of MEPs.
 - (3) But if he ceases to be of that opinion, the Secretary of State—
 - (a) may not make an order under paragraph 3 on or after the relevant day; and
 - (b) is not required to take any other step under paragraph 3 or 4 if he does not consider that it will be practicable to make an order under paragraph 3 before the relevant day.
 - (4) In sub-paragraph (3) “the relevant day” means the first day of the period of four months ending with the day on which the poll for the next general election of MEPs is to be held.

- (1) In this Schedule—
 - “general election of MEPs” means an election required to be held in the United Kingdom by virtue of Article 10(2) of the Act annexed to Council Decision 76/787;
 - “pre-election year” means a year (including 2003) which immediately precedes a year in which a general election of MEPs is to be held; and
 - “relevant register” means—
 - (a) a register of parliamentary electors;
 - (b) a register of local government electors;
 - (c) a register of peers maintained under section 3 of the Representation of the People Act 1985 (c. 50) (peers resident outside the United Kingdom); and
 - (d) a register maintained under regulation 5 of the European Parliamentary Elections (Franchise of Relevant Citizens of the Union) Regulations 2001 (SI 2001/1184) (citizens of the European Union other than Commonwealth and Republic of Ireland citizens).
 - (2) For the purposes of paragraph 1(2) a person is an “elector”, in relation to an electoral region, if his name appears on 1st May in the pre-election year concerned in (or in any part of) a relevant register which relates to the region.
 - (3) In calculating the total number of electors for any electoral region—
 - (a) persons who are registered but have not attained the age of 18 are to be counted as electors;
 - (b) a citizen of the European Union (not being a Commonwealth citizen or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland) who is registered only for the purposes of local government elections is to be disregarded; and

Status: Point in time view as at 08/05/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the Electoral Commission may assume that each relevant register is accurate and that names appearing more than once on registers (or parts of registers) which relate to an electoral region are the names of different electors.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 14.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

- 1 The repeal and re-enactment of provisions in this Act does not affect the continuity of the law.
- 2 Anything done, or having effect as if done, under or for the purposes of a provision repealed by this Act (including subordinate legislation so made or having effect as if so made), and in force or effective immediately before the commencement of this Act, has effect after that commencement as if done under or for the purposes of the corresponding provision of this Act.
- 3 A reference, express or implied, in this Act, another enactment or an instrument or document, to a provision of this Act is, subject to its context, to be read as being or including a reference to the corresponding provision repealed by this Act, in relation to times, circumstances or purposes in relation to which the repealed provision had effect.
- 4 (1) A reference, express or implied, in any enactment, instrument or document, to a provision repealed by this Act is, subject to its context, to be read as being or including a reference to the corresponding provision of this Act, in relation to times, circumstances or purposes in relation to which that provision has effect.
- (2) In particular, where a power conferred by an Act is expressed to be exercisable in relation to enactments contained in Acts passed before or in the same Session as the Act conferring the power, the power is also exercisable in relation to provisions of this Act that reproduce such enactments.
- 5 Paragraphs 1 to 4 have effect in place of section 17(2) of the Interpretation Act 1978 (c. 30) (but are without prejudice to any other provision of that Act).

SCHEDULE 3

Section 15.

TABLE OF ORIGINS

Notes:

1 This Table shows the origin of the provisions of the Act.

2 The following abbreviations are used in the Table:—

Acts of Parliament

1978 = European Parliamentary Elections Act 1978 (c. 10) (formerly known as the European Assembly Elections Act 1978 (c. 10))

1999 = European Parliamentary Elections Act 1999 (c. 1)

Subordinate Legislation

1994/342 = European Parliamentary Elections (Changes to the Franchise and Qualification of Representatives) Regulations 1994 (S.I.1994/342)

PROSPECTIVE

3 The Table does not separately acknowledge the provisions of section 3 of the European Communities (Amendment) Act 1986 (c. 58) by virtue of which references to the European Parliament were substituted for references to the Assembly of the European Communities.

PROSPECTIVE

4 Where the Act incorporates the effect of subordinate legislation, the Table gives the relevant provision of the subordinate instrument but does not refer to the statutory provision under which the instrument was made.
