

Export Control Act 2002

CHAPTER 28

EXPORT CONTROL ACT 2002

- 1 Export controls
- 2 Transfer Controls
- 3 Technical assistance controls
- 4 Trade controls
- 5 General restriction on control powers
- 6 Exceptions from the general restriction
- 7 Control powers: supplementary
- 8 Protection of certain freedoms
- 9 Guidance about the exercise of functions under control orders
- 10 Annual reports
- 11 Interpretation
- 12 Power to modify the Schedule
- 13 Orders
- 14 Financial provision
- 15 Consequential repeals
- 16 Short title, etc

---

SCHEDULE — Categories of goods, technology and technical assistance

- 1 (1) Export controls and trade controls may be imposed in...
- 2 (1) Export controls may be imposed in relation to any...
- 3 (1) For the purposes of paragraph 2 a relevant consequence,...

RELEVANT
CONSEQUENCES

---

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Export Control Act 2002. (See end of Document for details)

---

National security of the United Kingdom and other countries

- A An adverse effect on— (a) the national security; or

Regional stability and internal conflict

- B An adverse effect on peace, security or stability in any...

Weapons of mass destruction

- C The carrying out anywhere in the world of acts which...

Breaches of international law and human rights

- D The carrying out anywhere in the world of (or of...

Terrorism and crime

- E The carrying out anywhere in the world of (or of...
4 Export controls may be imposed in relation to objects of...

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Export Control Act 2002.