CHAPTER 5

SUPPLEMENTARY

Reports

118 Excisions from reports

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where the Secretary of State is under a duty to publish—
 - (a) a report of the OFT under section 44 or 61; or
 - (b) a report of the Commission under section 50 or 65.
- (2) The Secretary of State may exclude a matter from the report concerned if he considers that publication of the matter would be inappropriate.
- (3) In deciding what is inappropriate for the purposes of subsection (2) the Secretary of State shall have regard to the considerations mentioned in section 244.
- (4) The body which has prepared the report shall advise the Secretary of State as to the matters (if any) which it considers should be excluded by him under subsection (2).
- (5) References in sections 38(4) and 107(11) to the giving or laying of a report of the Commission shall be construed as references to the giving or laying of the report as published.
