

Land Registration Act 2002

2002 CHAPTER 9

PART 6

REGISTRATION: GENERAL

Boundaries

61 Accretion and diluvion

- (1) The fact that a registered estate in land is shown in the register as having a particular boundary does not affect the operation of accretion or diluvion.
- (2) An agreement about the operation of accretion or diluvion in relation to a registered estate in land has effect only if registered in accordance with rules.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act 2002, Section 61.