- (3) The amount of a person’s liability for BID levy for any chargeable period is to be determined in accordance with the BID arrangements.

- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) is to be taken as limiting the power conferred by subsection (1).

Procedure

50 Approval in ballot

- (1) BID proposals are not to be regarded as approved by a ballot held for the purposes of section 49(1) unless two conditions are satisfied.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The first condition is that a majority of the persons voting in the ballot have voted in favour of the BID proposals.
- (3) The second condition is that A exceeds B.
- (4) A is the aggregate of the rateable values of each hereditament in respect of which a person voting in the ballot has voted in favour of the BID proposals.
- (5) B is the aggregate of the rateable values of each hereditament in respect of which a person voting in the ballot has voted against the BID proposals.

- (2) The billing authority to which the proposals relate may, in prescribed circumstances, veto the proposals within such period from the date of the ballot as may be prescribed.
- (3) In deciding whether to exercise the veto, a billing authority is to have regard to such matters as may be prescribed.
- (4) If a billing authority vetoes BID proposals, it must give notice of the exercise of the veto to the persons entitled to vote in the ballot.
- (5) The notice—

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the BID arrangements are to come into force on such day as may be provided under the BID proposals.
- (4) If the BID proposals are vetoed under section 51, BID arrangements which give effect to the proposals are not to come into force unless the Secretary of State allows an appeal against the veto under section 52.
- (5) Where the Secretary of State allows such an appeal, BID arrangements which give effect to the proposals are to come into force on such day as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (6) The day determined under subsection (5) must not be earlier than the day mentioned in subsection (3).
- (7) Before making a determination under subsection (5), the Secretary of State must consult—
