

Water Act 2003

2003 CHAPTER 37

PART 1

ABSTRACTION AND IMPOUNDING

Restrictions on abstraction and impounding

4 Existing impounding works: works notices

- (1) Without prejudice to the [^{F1}appropriate agency's] power under subsection (2) of section 3, where it appears to [^{F2}the appropriate agency] to be necessary for—
- the protection of the environment, or
 - the performance of its functions in connection with the management of water resources,
- [^{F2}the appropriate agency] may serve a works notice on any relevant person with respect to any existing unlicensed impounding works of the kind mentioned in subsection (2) of that section.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a works notice is a notice requiring the person on whom it is served to carry out such works or operations in relation to the impounding works as—
- appear to the [^{F3}appropriate agency] to be required for the purposes mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b), and
 - are specified in the notice.
- (3) The following provisions of the WRA apply in relation to works notices under this section as they apply in relation to notices referred to in those provisions—
- subsections (5) to (9) of section 25A (as inserted by section 30 of this Act), and
 - sections 161B and 161C,
- including any power to make regulations or give directions, but references in those provisions to the Secretary of State shall be treated as references to the appropriate authority.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2013. This version of this provision has been superseded.

Changes to legislation: Water Act 2003, Section 4 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) If a person on whom [^{F2}the appropriate agency] serves a notice under this section fails to comply with any of its requirements, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under subsection (4) shall be liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding £20,000,
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (6) If a person on whom a works notice has been served under this section fails to comply with any of its requirements, [^{F2}the appropriate agency] may do what that person was required to do and may recover from him any costs or expenses reasonably incurred by [^{F2}the appropriate agency] in doing it.
- (7) If [^{F2}the appropriate agency] is of the opinion that proceedings for an offence under subsection (4) would afford an ineffectual remedy against a person who has failed to comply with the requirements of a works notice, [^{F2}the appropriate agency] may take proceedings in the High Court for the purpose of securing compliance with the notice.
- (8) In this section, “the appropriate authority”, “existing unlicensed impounding works” and “relevant person” have the meanings given in section 3.
