But this subsection does not apply in the case of an amount which, by virtue of any provision of the Tax Acts other than this section, falls to be treated for the purposes of this section as expenses payable which fall to be brought into account at Step 1 in subsection (7) below (the reference to Step 1 being express in the provision).

- (7) The amount of the expenses deduction for an accounting period is found by taking the following steps—

Step 1

Find so much of the expenses payable as are—

- (a) attributable to basic life assurance and general annuity business (see subsection (8) below), and
- (b) referable to the accounting period (see subsection (9) below).

Step 2

Reduce each of the amounts found at Step 1 by excluding so much of the amount as is—

- (a) deductible in computing income for the purposes of Schedule A,
- (b) deductible by virtue of section 85(2B) of the Finance Act 1989, or paragraph 36(3) of Schedule 29 to the Finance Act 2002 (relief for non-trading loss on intangible fixed assets).

Step 4

Give effect to the provisions specified in Step 3 by adding together—

- (a) so much of the amounts found at Step 1 as remains after making any reductions at Step 2, and
- (b) the amounts found at Step 3, and then deduct the amount of any reversal (wherever brought into account) of an expense included at Step 1 in a previous period, to give Subtotal 1.

Step 5

If the whole or any part of a loss arising to the company in respect of its life assurance business in the accounting period is set off under section 393A or 403(1)—

- (a) find the amount (“amount L”) that is equal to so much of the loss as, in the aggregate, is so set off,
- (b) find the sum (“amount S”) of the amounts by which any losses for that period under section 436 or 439B fall to be reduced under section 434A(2)(b),
- (c) from amount L deduct amount S, to give the adjusted loss deduction, then reduce Subtotal 1 by deducting from it the adjusted loss deduction, to give Subtotal 2.

Step 6

Give effect to subsection (6) of section 86 of the Finance Act 1989 (spreading of acquisition expenses) by—

- (a) finding the amount that is equal to six-sevenths of the adjusted amount of the acquisition expenses (within the meaning of that section) for the accounting period, and
- (b) deducting that amount from Subtotal 2,

to give Subtotal 3.

Step 7

Add together the following amounts—

- (a) Subtotal 4, and
- (b) any amounts which are to be relieved under this section by virtue of those subsections, to give the basic deduction.

Step 9

If—

- (a) amount D1 (see subsection (10) below), exceeds
- (b) amount R (see subsection (11) below), deduct an amount equal to the excess from the basic deduction.

- (c) any amount which in pursuance of a claim under paragraph 4(3) of that Schedule is carried back to the period and (in accordance with paragraph 4(5) of that Schedule) applied in reducing profits of the company for that period.

- (12) Where for any accounting period—
- (a) the amount of the expenses deduction (see Step 10), exceeds

- (a) the sub-contractor,
 - (b) a person nominated by the sub-contractor or the contractor, or
 - (c) a person nominated by a person who is a sub-contractor under another such contract relating to all or any of the construction operations.
- (2) But a payment made under a construction contract is not a contract payment if any of the following exceptions applies in relation to it.
- (3) This exception applies if the payment is treated as earnings from an employment by virtue of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (c. 1) (agency workers).
- (4) This exception applies if the person to whom the payment is made or, in the case of a payment made to a nominee, each of the following persons—
- (a) the nominee,
 - (b) the person who nominated him, and
 - (c) the person for whose labour (or, where that person is a company, for whose employees' or officers' labour) the payment is made,
- is registered for gross payment when the payment is made.
- But this is subject to subsections (5) and (6).
- (5) Where a person is registered for gross payment as a partner in a firm (see section 64), subsection (4) applies only in relation to payments made under contracts under which—
- (a) the firm is a sub-contractor, or
 - (b) where a person has nominated the firm to receive payments, the person who has nominated the firm is a sub-contractor.
- (6) Where a person is registered for gross payment otherwise than as a partner in a firm but he is or becomes a partner in a firm, subsection (4) does not apply in relation to payments made under contracts under which—
- (a) the firm is a sub-contractor, or
 - (b) where a person has nominated the firm to receive payments, the person who has nominated the firm is a sub-contractor.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Finance Act 2004. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

 - (b) the person making it, and
 - (c) the person receiving it.

- (a) the obligation is to make a payment to a person (“A”) within paragraph (a) to (c) of subsection (1), but
 - (b) the payment discharging that obligation is made to a person (“B”) not within those paragraphs,
- the payment is for those purposes to be taken to be made to A.

61 Deductions on account of tax from contract payments

- (1) On making a contract payment the contractor (see section 57(3)) must deduct from it a sum equal to the relevant percentage of so much of the payment as is not shown to represent the direct cost to any other person of materials used or to be used in carrying out the construction operations to which the contract under which the payment is to be made relates.
- (2) In subsection (1) “the relevant percentage” means such percentage as the Treasury may by order determine.
- (3) That percentage must not exceed—

62 Treatment of sums deducted

- (1) A sum deducted under section 61 from a payment made by a contractor—
- (a) must be paid to the Board of Inland Revenue, and
 - (b) is to be treated for the purposes of income tax or, as the case may be, corporation tax as not diminishing the amount of the payment.
- (2) If the sub-contractor is not a company a sum deducted under section 61 and paid to the Board is to be treated as being income tax paid in respect of the sub-contractor's relevant profits.

If the sum is more than sufficient to discharge his liability to income tax in respect of those profits, so much of the excess as is required to discharge any liability of his for Class 4 contributions is to be treated as being Class 4 contributions paid in respect of those profits.

- (3) If the sub-contractor is a company—

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) the “relevant liabilities” of a sub-contractor are any liabilities of the sub-contractor, whether arising before or after the deduction is made, to make a payment to the Inland Revenue in pursuance of an obligation as an employer or contractor.

CHAPTER 7

SAVINGS INCOME: DOUBLE TAXATION ARISING FROM WITHHOLDING TAX

Introductory

107 Introductory

- (1) This Chapter has effect for the purpose of giving relief from double taxation in respect of special withholding tax.
- (2) Such relief is given—
 - (a) by set-off against income tax or capital gains tax;
 - (b) to the extent that it cannot be so set off, by repayment.
- (3) “Special withholding tax” means a withholding tax (however described) levied under the law of a territory outside the United Kingdom implementing—
 - (a) in the case of a member State, Article 11 of Council Directive 2003/48/ EC of 3rd June 2003 on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments (“the Savings Directive”), or
 - (b) in the case of a territory other than a member State, any corresponding provision of international arrangements (whatever the period for which the provision is to have effect).
- (4) “International arrangements”, in relation to a territory, means arrangements made in relation to that territory with a view to ensuring the effective taxation of savings income under—
 - (a) the law of the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) that law and the law of that territory.
- (5) For the purposes of Part 18 of the Taxes Act 1988 (double taxation relief)—
 - (a) relief from double taxation in respect of special withholding tax is not to be available under Chapters 1 and 2 of that Part; and
 - (b) special withholding tax is not to be regarded as foreign tax for the purposes of Chapter 2 of that Part.
- (6) Sections 113 and 114 also make provision for implementing—
 - (a) Article 13(2) of the Savings Directive (provision of certificate to avoid levy of special withholding tax), and
 - (b) any corresponding provision of international arrangements.
- (7) In this Chapter—

“double taxation arrangements” means arrangements having effect by virtue of section 788 of the Taxes Act 1988 (double taxation relief by agreement with other territories);

“international arrangements” has the meaning given by subsection (4);

“the Savings Directive” has the meaning given by subsection (3)(a);

“savings income”—

 - (a) in the case of special withholding tax levied under the law of a member State, has the same meaning as the expression “interest payment” has for the purposes of the Savings Directive (see Articles 6 and 15 of the Directive), and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Finance Act 2004. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) in the case of special withholding tax levied under the law of a territory other than a member State, has the same meaning as the corresponding expression has for the purposes of the international arrangements concerned;

“special withholding tax” has the meaning given by subsection (3).

(8) In the application of this Chapter in relation to capital gains tax, expressions used in this Chapter and in the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 (c. 12) have the same meaning in this Chapter as in that Act.

 - (b) as at the relevant time, the sum of—
 - (i) the total amount of any relevant withdrawals, and
 - (ii) the total amount or value of any relevant consideration, exceeds the company's contribution to the partnership;
 - (c) that excess (or any part of it) results directly or indirectly from an arrangement under which any relevant profit was shared in such a way that the company was not allocated all or part of its due share of the profit; and
 - (d) if the company's due shares of relevant profits had been allocated to the company, some or all of them would have been chargeable to corporation tax.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “the relevant time” means the time immediately after the capital is drawn out or received back or (as the case may be) the consideration is received;
 - (b) a “relevant withdrawal” means any capital that the company has, directly or indirectly, drawn out or received back from the partnership at any time on or after 17 March 2004;
 - (c) “relevant consideration” means consideration received by the company at any time on or after 17 March 2004 for the disposal on or after that date of all or any of its interest in the partnership;
 - (d) “the company's contribution to the partnership” means the sum of—
 - (i) the amount that it has contributed to the partnership as capital (excluding any amount originally contributed by a person from whom the company acquired an interest in the partnership); and
 - (ii) any amount paid by the company to such a person for such an interest;
 - (e) a “relevant profit” is the profit of the partnership computed for any period, but does not include any profit, or any part of a profit, that derives from income arising before 17th March 2004;
 - (f) the company's “due share” of any relevant profit is the share of the profit that the company would have been allocated if it had been allocated a share calculated by reference to the percentage of the total capital contributed (as defined by subsection (3)) that was contributed by it.

- B is the amount by which, at the relevant time, the total amount of the company's due shares of relevant profits exceeds the total amount of the shares of relevant profits that were actually allocated to the company.
- (6) If any non-income amount is taken into account in computing a relevant profit, then for the purposes of subsection (5) the amount of the company's due share of the relevant profit and the amount of the share of the relevant profit that was actually allocated to the company shall be taken to be what they would have been if all non-income amounts had been left out of account in computing the relevant profit.
- (7) In subsection (6) a “non-income amount” means an amount that for the purposes of corporation tax would not be taken into account as income or in computing income.
- (8) Subsection (9) applies if this section applies on more than one occasion in relation to the same company and partnership (whether because of two or more receipts by the company of consideration relating to the same disposal or for any other reason).
- (9) On each occasion after the first, the amount found under subsection (5) shall be reduced (but not below nil) by the total of the chargeable amounts found (under that subsection read with this) on the previous occasions.

- (3) Where this subsection applies—
 - (a) any chargeable gain accruing to the company on a relevant disposal must be excluded in computing, for the purposes of section 8(1) of the 1992 Act, the total amount of chargeable gains accruing to the company in the accounting period in which that gain accrued;
 - (b) the relevant net gain (defined by subsection (4) below) must be included in computing for those purposes the total amount of chargeable gains accruing to the company in the accounting period in which the receipt mentioned in subsection (1) above occurred; and
 - (c) any allowable loss accruing to the company on a relevant disposal must be excluded in computing for the purposes of section 8(1) of the 1992 Act the amount of any allowable losses.
- (4) To find “the relevant net gain” for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) take the amount by which the total amount of chargeable gains accruing to the company on relevant disposals exceeds the total amount of allowable losses accruing to it on such disposals; and
 - (b) reduce it (but not below nil) by an amount equal to the chargeable amount.

- (5) Where section 131 applies as mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above, in computing any chargeable gain or allowable loss accruing to the company on a relevant disposal—
- (a) neither the chargeable amount, nor any amount taken into account in computing it, shall be excluded by section 37(1) of the 1992 Act (exclusions from consideration); and
 - (b) an amount that has been taken into account in computing the chargeable amount shall not by reason of that fact be excluded by section 39(1) of that Act (exclusions from allowable deductions).
- (6) If section 131 and this section apply more than once as a result of two or more receipts by a company of consideration relating to the same section 131 disposal—
- (a) subsection (3)(b) above does not apply in relation to any of the receipts after the first; and
 - (b) in relation to the first receipt, the amount to be deducted under subsection (4)(b) above is an amount equal to the total of the chargeable amounts found in relation to the receipts.
- (7) Subsection (8) below applies if subsection (3) above prevents an allowable loss that accrued to a company otherwise than on a relevant disposal from being deductible from a chargeable gain accruing to the company on a relevant disposal.
- (8) That loss (to the extent that it has not been deducted from any other chargeable gain) shall instead be deductible from the total amount of chargeable gains accruing to the company in the accounting period in which the receipt mentioned in subsection (1) above occurred.
- (9) But if, in any case where subsection (3) above applies, there are one or more allowable losses—
- (a) that are losses to which section 18(3) of the 1992 Act applies, and
 - (b) that accrued to the company otherwise than on a relevant disposal and are prevented by subsection (3) above from being deductible from a chargeable gain accruing to the company on a relevant disposal,
- the total amount deducted under subsection (8) above in respect of those losses must not exceed the relevant net gain.
- (10) In this section—
- “the 1992 Act” means the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 (c. 12);
 - “the chargeable amount” means the amount found under section 131 in relation to the receipt mentioned in subsection (1) above; and
- references to chargeable gains, or allowable losses, accruing on disposals are to be construed in accordance with the 1992 Act.
