

Housing Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER 34

PART 7

SUPPLEMENTARY AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Codes of practice and management regulations relating to HMOs etc.

233 Approval of codes of practice with regard to the management of HMOs etc.

- (1) The appropriate national authority may by order—
 - (a) approve a code of practice (whether prepared by that authority or another person) laying down standards of conduct and practice to be followed with regard to the management of houses in multiple occupation or of excepted accommodation;
 - (b) approve a modification of such a code; or
 - (c) withdraw the authority's approval of such a code or modification.
- (2) Before approving a code of practice or a modification of a code of practice under this section the appropriate national authority must take reasonable steps to consult—
 - (a) persons involved in the management of houses in multiple occupation or (as the case may be) excepted accommodation of the kind in question and persons occupying such houses or accommodation, or
 - (b) persons whom the authority considers to represent the interests of those persons.
- (3) The appropriate national authority may only approve a code of practice or a modification of a code if satisfied that—
 - (a) the code or modification has been published (whether by the authority or by another person) in a manner that the authority considers appropriate for the purpose of bringing the code or modification to the attention of those likely to be affected by it; or
 - (b) arrangements have been made for the code or modification to be so published.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 2004, Section 233 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (4) The appropriate national authority may approve a code of practice which makes different provision in relation to different cases or descriptions of case (including different provision for different areas).
- (5) A failure to comply with a code of practice for the time being approved under this section does not of itself make a person liable to any civil or criminal proceedings.
- (6) In this section “excepted accommodation” means such description of living accommodation falling within any provision of Schedule 14 (buildings which are not HMOs for purposes of provisions other than Part 1) as is specified in an order under subsection (1).
