

Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER 4

N.I.

An Act to amend Part 1 of the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2002; to make further provision concerning the public prosecution service established by that Act; to impose a new duty on certain criminal justice organisations in Northern Ireland in relation to human rights standards; to make provision consequential on the dissolution of the Juvenile Justice Board; to amend the law relating to bail in Northern Ireland; to provide for the transfer of certain prisoners from Northern Ireland to another part of the United Kingdom; to amend section 103 of the Terrorism Act 2000; to provide for driving while disqualified to be an arrestable offence in Northern Ireland; to re-enact with amendments sections 79 to 81 of the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2002 and make further provision about court security officers in Northern Ireland; to enable barristers in Northern Ireland to enter into contracts for the provision of their services; and for connected purposes. [13th May 2004]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

The judiciary

1 Transfer to Lord Chancellor of functions relating to Judicial Appointments Commission N.I.

The Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2002 (c. 26) (“the 2002 Act”) is amended as set out in Schedule 1 for the purpose of transferring to the Lord Chancellor functions exercisable by the First Minister and deputy First Minister, acting jointly, in relation to the Northern Ireland Judicial Appointments Commission.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

2 Membership of the Commission N.I.

- (1) In section 3 of the 2002 Act for subsection (8) (lay members of the Commission to be representative of the community in Northern Ireland) substitute—

“(8) It is the duty of—

- (a) the Lord Chancellor, and
- (b) those responsible for making nominations under subsection (5)(a) and (b), to make such arrangements in connection with the exercise of their functions under this section as will, so far as is practicable, secure that the membership of the Commission is reflective of the community in Northern Ireland.”

- (2) In Schedule 2 to the 2002 Act in paragraph 1 (tenure of judicial members) for subparagraph (1) substitute—

“(1) Subject as follows, a judicial member of the Commission holds office for the period specified in his appointment (or re-appointment).

- (1A) A person may not be appointed as a judicial member for more than five years at a time; and the aggregate period for which a person may be a judicial member by virtue of his holding any one of the judicial offices mentioned in section 3(6) must not exceed ten years.”

3 Duty of Commission to secure judiciary reflective of the community N.I.

In section 5 of the 2002 Act for subsections (8) and (9) (duty of Commission to secure range of persons reflective of community in Northern Ireland is available for consideration by the Commission, but appointment to be on basis of merit) substitute—

“(8) The selection of a person to be appointed, or recommended for appointment, to a listed judicial office (whether initially or after reconsideration) must be made solely on the basis of merit.

(9) Subject to that, the Commission must at all times engage in a programme of action which complies with subsection (10).

(10) A programme of action complies with this subsection if—

- (a) it is designed to secure, so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, that appointments to listed judicial offices are such that those holding such offices are reflective of the community in Northern Ireland;
- (b) it requires the Commission, so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, to secure that a range of persons reflective of the community in Northern Ireland is available for consideration by the Commission whenever it is required to select a person to be appointed, or recommended for appointment, to a listed judicial office; and
- (c) it is for the time being approved by the Commission for the purposes of this section.”

4 Appointment of Lord Chief Justice and Lords Justices of Appeal N.I.

In section 12 of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (c. 23) (as substituted by section 4 of the 2002 Act) for subsections (3) to (5) (consultations by Prime Minister

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

before making recommendations to Her Majesty as to appointment of Lord Chief Justice or Lord Justice of Appeal) substitute—

- “(3) Before making any recommendation to Her Majesty concerning an appointment under subsection (1) or (2) the Prime Minister shall—
- (a) require the First Minister and deputy First Minister, acting jointly, to make a recommendation to him concerning the appointment in such form as the Prime Minister may specify, and
 - (b) consider any recommendation so made.
- (4) Before making any recommendation under subsection (3)(a) the First Minister and deputy First Minister shall consult the Lord Chief Justice or, if the office of Lord Chief Justice is vacant or he is not available, the most senior Lord Justice of Appeal who is available.
- (5) The Northern Ireland Judicial Appointments Commission shall give to the First Minister and deputy First Minister advice as to the procedure which, whenever they are required by the Prime Minister to make any recommendation under subsection (3)(a), they should adopt for formulating that recommendation.
- (6) After considering that advice, the First Minister and deputy First Minister acting jointly shall, with the approval of the Prime Minister, determine the procedure which, whenever they are required by the Prime Minister to make any recommendation under subsection (3)(a), they are to adopt for formulating that recommendation and on each occasion on which they are so required, they shall adopt that procedure.”

5 Removal or suspension from listed judicial offices N.I.

In section 7 of the 2002 Act in subsection (5) (agreement of the Lord Chief Justice required to the removal or suspension of a person from a listed judicial office) for “without the agreement of” substitute “except after consultation with”.

Prosecutors

6 Duty of Director of Public Prosecutions to refer certain matters to Police Ombudsman N.I.

- (1) Section 55 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 1998 (c. 32) (referral of matters to Ombudsman) is amended as set out in subsections (2) to (5).
- (2) In subsection (1) (power of Policing Board, Director or Secretary of State to refer certain matters) omit the words “, the Director” (wherever they occur).
- (3) After subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) The Director shall refer to the Ombudsman any matter which—

 - (a) appears to the Director to indicate that a police officer—
 - (i) may have committed a criminal offence; or
 - (ii) may, in the course of a criminal investigation, have behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings; and
 - (b) is not the subject of a complaint,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

unless it appears to the Director that the Ombudsman is already aware of the matter.

(4B) In subsection (4A) “criminal investigation” has the same meaning as in Part 2 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25).”

- (4) In subsection (5) (power of Ombudsman to investigate matters referred under subsection (4)) after “(4)” insert “, or (4A) ”.
- (5) In subsection (7) (duty on Ombudsman to notify outcome of criminal or disciplinary proceedings) omit “, the Director”.
- (6) In section 64(2A)(b) of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 1998 (Ombudsman not to investigate matter referred under section 55(1), (2) or (4) if it took place more than the prescribed period before the date of referral) for “or (4)” substitute “, (4) or (4A) ”.

7 Influencing a prosecutor N.I.

After section 32 of the 2002 Act insert—

“32A Influencing a prosecutor

- (1) A person commits an offence if, with the intention of perverting the course of justice, he seeks to influence the Director, the Deputy Director or a Public Prosecutor in any decision as to whether to institute or continue criminal proceedings.
- (2) A person commits an offence if, with the intention of perverting the course of justice, he seeks to influence a barrister or solicitor to whom the Director has under section 36(2) assigned the institution or conduct of any criminal proceedings in any decision as to whether to institute or continue those proceedings.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both, and
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine, or to both.
- (4) Proceedings for an offence under this section shall not be instituted without the consent of the Director.”

Criminal justice organisations

8 Guidance for criminal justice organisations on human rights standards N.I.

- (1) The Attorney General for Northern Ireland shall issue, and as he thinks appropriate from time to time revise, guidance to organisations to which this section applies on the exercise of their functions in a manner consistent with international human rights standards relevant to the criminal justice system.
- (2) In the exercise of its functions, such an organisation shall have regard to any guidance for the time being in operation under this section; but this does not affect the operation,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

in relation to any such organisation, of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 (c. 42) (public authority not to act in a way incompatible with a Convention right).

- (3) Any guidance issued or revised under this section—
- (a) shall be published in such manner as the Attorney General for Northern Ireland thinks appropriate;
 - (b) shall be laid before each House of Parliament; and
 - (c) shall not come into operation until the Attorney General for Northern Ireland by order so provides.
- (4) This section applies to the following organisations—
- (a) the Public Prosecution Service for Northern Ireland,
 - (b) the Court Service,
 - (c) the Probation Board for Northern Ireland,
 - (d) the Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland,
 - (e) the Northern Ireland Office, but only in respect of functions exercised by—
 - (i) the Northern Ireland Prison Service,
 - (ii) the Youth Justice Agency,
 - (iii) Forensic Science Northern Ireland,
 - (iv) the State Pathologist’s Department, or
 - (v) the Compensation Agency;

and accordingly references in this section to the functions of an organisation are, in the case of the Northern Ireland Office, references to the functions mentioned in paragraph (e).

- (5) The Attorney General for Northern Ireland may by order amend subsection (4) by—
- (a) adding any organisation having a role in the criminal justice system in Northern Ireland (apart from a court or tribunal);
 - (b) omitting an organisation; or
 - (c) altering the description of an organisation; and an order under this subsection may make appropriate consequential amendments in this section or in any other enactment (whenever passed or made).

- (6) In section 52 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000 (c. 32) (code of ethics for police officers) after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) In revising the code the Chief Constable and the Board shall also have regard to any guidance for the time being in operation under section 8 of the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004.”

- (7) In section 37 of the 2002 Act (code of practice for prosecutors) after subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) In preparing or making alterations to a code the Director must also have regard to any guidance for the time being in operation under section 8 of the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004.”

- (8) Nothing in this section requires the Public Prosecution Service for Northern Ireland to have regard to so much of any guidance for the time being in operation under this section as is inconsistent with a provision of a code of practice issued under section 37 of the 2002 Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

(9) In Schedule 7 to the 2002 Act (functions of Advocate General for Northern Ireland) after paragraph 7 insert—

“7A In section 8 of the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004 (guidance for criminal justice organisations on human rights standards)—

(a) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) Before issuing or revising any guidance under this section, the Attorney General for Northern Ireland shall consult the Advocate General for Northern Ireland.”;

(b) after subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) Before making an order under subsection (3)(c) or (5), the Attorney General for Northern Ireland shall consult the Advocate General for Northern Ireland.””

Bail

10 Prosecution right of appeal against grant of bail by magistrates' court N.I.

(1) Where a magistrates' court grants bail to a person who is charged with, or convicted of, an offence punishable by imprisonment, the prosecution may appeal to the High Court against the granting of bail.

[^{F1}(1A) Where a magistrates' court grants bail to a person in connection with extradition proceedings, the prosecution may appeal to the High Court against the granting of bail.]

(2) Subsection (1) applies only where the prosecution is conducted—

- (a) by or on behalf of the Director of Public Prosecutions, or
- (b) on behalf of the Police Service of Northern Ireland (whether by a member of that Service or any other person).

(3) An appeal under subsection (1) [^{F2}or (1A)] may be made only if—

- (a) the prosecution made representations that bail should not be granted, and
- (b) the representations were made before it was granted.

(4) Where the prosecution wishes to exercise the right of appeal under subsection (1) [^{F3}or (1A)], oral notice of appeal shall be given to [^{F4}the court which has granted bail] at the conclusion of the proceedings in which bail has been granted and before the release from custody of the person concerned.

(5) Written notice of appeal shall thereafter be served on [^{F5}the court which has granted bail] and the person concerned within two hours of the conclusion of such proceedings.

(6) On receipt from the prosecution of oral notice of appeal from its decision to grant bail, [^{F5}the court which has granted bail] shall remand in custody the person concerned, until the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.

(7) Where the prosecution fails, within the period of two hours mentioned in subsection (5), to serve one or both of the notices required by that subsection, the appeal shall be deemed to have been disposed of.

(8) The hearing of an appeal under subsection (1) [^{F6}or (1A)] against a decision of the ^{F7}. . . court to grant bail shall be commenced within 48 hours, excluding weekends, Christmas Day, Good Friday and a bank holiday, from the time when oral notice of appeal is given.

(9) An appeal by the prosecution under this section shall be by way of re-hearing, and on such an appeal the High Court may—

- (a) remand the person concerned in custody, or
- (b) grant bail subject to such conditions (if any) as it thinks fit.

(10) No appeal lies against the decision of the High Court on an appeal under this section.

(11) In relation to a person under the age of 21, the reference in subsection (1) to an offence punishable by imprisonment is to be read as a reference to an offence which would be so punishable in the case of a person over that age.

- (b) absents himself (otherwise than in accordance with permission given by or on behalf of the court) from the court at any time before the court is ready to begin or to resume the hearing of the proceedings, that court may issue a warrant for his arrest.
- (4) A constable may arrest without warrant any person to whom this paragraph applies—
 - (a) if the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that that person is not likely to surrender to custody;
 - (b) if the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that that person is likely to break any of the conditions of his bail or has reasonable grounds for suspecting that that person has broken any of those conditions; or
 - (c) in a case where that person was admitted to bail with one or more surety or sureties, if a surety notifies a constable in writing that that person is unlikely to surrender to custody and that for that reason the surety wishes to be relieved of his obligations as a surety.
- (5) If, on an application made by a constable, a justice of the peace is satisfied that—
 - (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person who is liable to arrest under sub-paragraph (4) is to be found on premises specified in the application; and
 - (b) any of the conditions specified in sub-paragraph (6) is satisfied, he may issue a warrant authorising a constable to enter those premises (if need be by force) and search them for the purpose of arresting that person.
- (6) The conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (5) are—
 - (a) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises;
 - (b) that entry to the premises will not be granted unless a warrant is produced;
 - (c) that the purpose of a search of the premises may be frustrated or seriously prejudiced unless a constable arriving at the premises can secure immediate entry to them.

Procedure where person arrested without warrant

- 3 (1) A person who is arrested under paragraph 2(4) shall be brought before a judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal as soon as practicable after the arrest and in any event not later than—
 - (a) the next day following the day on which he is arrested, or
 - (b) if that day is a Sunday, Good Friday or Christmas Day, the next following day which is not one of those days.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not require a person to be brought before a judge at any time when that person is in hospital and is not well enough.
- (3) Where a person is brought before a judge under sub-paragraph (1), the judge—
 - (a) if of the opinion that he—
 - (i) is not likely to surrender to custody, or
 - (ii) has broken or is likely to break any condition of his bail,may remand him in custody or commit him to custody (as the case may require) or, alternatively, may admit him to bail under and in accordance with section 67 of the Terrorism Act 2000 (c. 11) (subject to the same or to different conditions); and

- (b) if not of that opinion, shall admit him to bail subject to the same conditions (if any) as were originally imposed.

- (4) A person admitted to bail under sub-paragraph (3)(b) shall be treated for all purposes as having been admitted to bail under section 67 of the Terrorism Act 2000.

Procedure where offences certified as suitable for summary trial

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies where—
 - (a) a person is admitted to bail; and
 - (b) a certificate is issued under subsection (1)(b) of section 67 of the Terrorism Act 2000 (offences suitable for summary trial) in relation to the scheduled offence or (if he is charged with more than one such offence) all of the scheduled offences with which he is charged.
- (2) As regards any time after the issue of the certificate, that person shall be treated for all purposes as if—
 - (a) he had been admitted to bail (within the meaning of Part II of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2003 (S.I. 2003/1247 (N.I. 13)) by a magistrates' court, subject to the same conditions (if any) as those imposed under section 67 of the Terrorism Act 2000 (c. 11);
 - (b) any warrant for his arrest issued under paragraph 2(2) or (3) had been a warrant issued under Article 6(1) or (2) of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2003; and
 - (c) (in a case where he has been arrested under paragraph 2(4)) he had been arrested under Article 6(3) of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2003.

Application of this Schedule

- 5 This Schedule applies in relation to a person admitted to bail before, as well as after, it comes into force; but—
 - (a) paragraphs 1 to 3 apply only in relation to an act or failure of that person which occurs after this Schedule comes into force; and
 - (b) paragraph 4 applies only where the certificate mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(b) of that paragraph is issued after this Schedule comes into force.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

SCHEDULE 3 N.I.

Section 16

COURT SECURITY

DUTY OF COURT SERVICE TO ENSURE COURT SECURITY

- 1 (1) The Court Service must take all reasonable steps to ensure the security of every relevant building and the safety of everyone who is there.
- (2) To comply with that duty the Court Service must secure that there are provided at every relevant building an appropriate number of court security officers.
- (3) For the purposes of this Schedule the following are court security officers—
 - (a) members of staff of the Court Service designated by the Lord Chancellor as court security officers, and
 - (b) persons employed as court security officers in pursuance of arrangements made with their employers by the Court Service under section 69 of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (c. 23).
- (4) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations make provision as to—
 - (a) training courses to be completed by court security officers,
 - (b) conditions to be met before a person may be designated or employed as a court security officer.
- (5) For the purposes of this Schedule a court security officer who is not readily identifiable as such (whether by means of his uniform or badge or otherwise) is not to be regarded as acting in the execution of his duty.
- (6) Subject to sub-paragraphs (7) and (8), in this Schedule “relevant building” means any building where—
 - (a) the Court of Appeal, the High Court, the Crown Court, a county court, a coroner’s court or a magistrates’ court sits,
 - (b) a Commissioner within the meaning of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (c. 8) sits,
 - (c) a Child Support Commissioner within the meaning of the Child Support (Northern Ireland) Order 1991 (S.I. 1991/2628 (N.I. 23)) sits,
 - (d) the Master (Taxing Office) exercises any functions conferred by or under an enactment, or
 - (e) the Master (Enforcement of Judgements) exercises any functions so conferred.
- (7) Where only part of a building is used for the sittings of an office-holder mentioned in sub-paragraph (6)(b) or (c), references to a relevant building are to so much of that building as is used for the purposes of, or in connection with, such sittings.
- (8) Where only part of a building is used for the exercise by an office-holder mentioned in sub-paragraph (6)(d) or (e) of the functions there mentioned, references to a relevant building are to so much of that building as is used for the purposes of, or in connection with, the exercise of those functions.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

Powers of search

- 2 (1) A court security officer acting in the execution of his duty may search—
- (a) any person who is in, or seeking to enter, a relevant building, and
 - (b) any article in the possession of such a person.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not authorise the officer to require a person to remove any of his clothing other than an outer coat, jacket, headgear, gloves or footwear.

Power to exclude, remove or restrain persons

- 3 (1) A court security officer acting in the execution of his duty may exclude or remove from a relevant building any person who refuses—
- (a) to permit a search under paragraph 2(1), or
 - (b) to surrender any article in his possession when asked to do so under paragraph 4(1).
- (2) A court security officer acting in the execution of his duty may—
- (a) restrain any person who is in a relevant building, or
 - (b) exclude or remove any person from a relevant building,
- if it is reasonably necessary to do so for one of the purposes given in sub-paragraph (3).
- (3) The purposes are—
- (a) enabling the business of any court or office-holder mentioned in paragraph 1(6) to be carried on without interference or delay,
 - (b) maintaining order,
 - (c) securing the safety of any person in the building.
- (4) The powers conferred by sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) include power to use reasonable force, where necessary.
- (5) In the execution of his duty in any relevant building, a court security officer must act in accordance with any general or specific instructions which have been given to him (whether orally or in writing) by a person in authority.
- (6) “Person in authority” means—
- (a) a judge, coroner or magistrate who is exercising any functions in the building,
 - (b) a statutory officer (within the meaning of section 70 of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978) who is exercising functions in the building,
 - (c) an office-holder mentioned in paragraph 1(6)(b) or (c) who is exercising any functions in the building, or
 - (d) any officer or other member of staff of the Court Service authorised by the Lord Chancellor to give the court security officer instructions.
- (7) Every court security officer is to be regarded as an officer of the court for the purposes of—
- (a) Article 55 of the County Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1980 (S.I. 1980/397 (N.I. 3)),
 - (b) section 34 of the Coroners Act (Northern Ireland) 1959 (c. 15 (N.I.)), and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) Article 160 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (S.I. 1981/1675 (N.I. 26)), (which provide for the detention by court officers, and punishment, of persons misbehaving in court).

Surrender and seizure of articles

- 4 (1) If a court security officer acting in the execution of his duty reasonably believes that an article in the possession of a person who is in, or seeking to enter, a relevant building ought to be surrendered on any of the grounds given in sub-paragraph (3), he may ask the person to surrender the article.
- (2) If the person refuses to surrender the article, the officer may seize it.
- (3) The grounds are that the article—
- (a) may jeopardise the maintenance of order in the building,
 - (b) may put the safety of any person in the building at risk, or
 - (c) may be evidence of, or in relation to, an offence.

Power to retain articles surrendered or seized

- 5 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), a court security officer may retain an article which was—
- (a) surrendered in response to a request under paragraph 4(1), or
 - (b) seized under paragraph 4(2),
- until the time when the person who surrendered it, or from whom it was seized, is leaving the relevant building.
- (2) If a court security officer reasonably believes that the article may be evidence of, or in relation to, an offence, he may retain it until—
- (a) the time when the person who surrendered it, or from whom it was seized, is leaving the relevant building, or
 - (b) the end of the permitted period,
- whichever is later.
- (3) “The permitted period” means such period, not exceeding 24 hours from the time the article was surrendered or seized, as will enable the court security officer to draw the article to the attention of a constable.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

- 5A (1) This paragraph applies where a knife is surrendered to a court security officer in response to a request under paragraph 4(1) or seized by a court security officer under paragraph 4(2).
- (2) Paragraph 5 does not apply.
- (3) The knife must be retained in accordance with regulations under sub-paragraph (5), unless returned or disposed of in accordance with those regulations or regulations made under paragraph 6.
- (4) If a court security officer reasonably believes that a retained knife may be evidence of, or in relation to, an offence, nothing in sub-paragraph (3) prevents the officer retaining the knife for so long as necessary to enable the court security officer to draw it to the attention of a constable.
- (5) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 6, the Lord Chancellor must by regulations make provision as to—
- (a) the procedure to be followed when a knife is retained under this paragraph;
 - (b) the making of requests by eligible persons for the return of knives so retained;
 - (c) the procedure to be followed when returning a knife pursuant to a request made in accordance with the regulations.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- “eligible person”, in relation to a knife retained under this paragraph, means—
- (a) the person who has surrendered the knife under paragraph 4(1) or from whom the knife has been seized under paragraph 4(2), or
 - (b) any other person specified in regulations made under sub-paragraph (5);
- “knife” includes—
- (a) a knife-blade, and
 - (b) any other article which—
 - (i) has a blade or which is sharply pointed, and
 - (ii) is made or adapted for use for causing injury to the person.]

Regulations about retention of articles

- 6 (1) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations make provision as to—
- (a) the provision to persons—
 - (i) by whom articles have been surrendered in response to a request under paragraph 4(1), or
 - (ii) from whom articles have been seized under paragraph 4(2), of written information about the powers of retention of court security officers,
 - (b) the keeping of records about articles which have been so surrendered or seized,
 - (c) the period for which unclaimed articles have to be kept, and
 - (d) the disposal of unclaimed articles at the end of that period.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) “Unclaimed article” means an article—
- (a) which has been retained under paragraph 5,
 - (b) which a person is entitled to have returned to him,
 - (c) which has not been returned, and
 - (d) whose return has not been requested by a person entitled to it.

Assaulting and obstructing court security officers

- 7 (1) A person who assaults a court security officer acting in the execution of his duty commits an offence.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under sub-paragraph (1) is liable on summary conviction to—
- (a) a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or
 - (b) imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months,
- or to both.
- (3) A person who resists or intentionally obstructs a court security officer acting in the execution of his duty commits an offence.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under sub-paragraph (3) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
