

These notes refer to the Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005 (c.16) which received Royal Assent on 7 April 2005

CLEAN NEIGHBOURHOODS AND ENVIRONMENT ACT 2005

EXPLANATORY NOTES

THE ACT

Commentary on Sections

Part 4: Graffiti and Other Defacement

Graffiti and fly-posting

Section 29 Fixed penalty notices: powers to require name and address

108. Section 29 further amends the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003 to give an authorised officer of a local authority the power to require the name and address of a person to whom he proposes to give a fixed penalty notice, and makes it an offence for that person either to fail to give that information or to give false or inaccurate information.