

Mental Capacity Act 2005

2005 CHAPTER 9

PART 1

PERSONS WHO LACK CAPACITY

Independent mental capacity advocate service

39 Provision of accommodation by local authority

- (1) This section applies if a local authority propose to make arrangements—
- (a) for the provision of residential accommodation for a person (“P”) who lacks capacity to agree to the arrangements, or
  - (b) for a change in P’s residential accommodation,
- and are satisfied that there is no person, other than one engaged in providing care or treatment for P in a professional capacity or for remuneration, whom it would be appropriate for them to consult in determining what would be in P’s best interests.

[<sup>F1</sup>(1A) But this section applies only if—

- (a) in the case of a local authority in England, subsection (1B) applies;
- (b) in the case of a local authority in Wales, subsection (2) applies.]

[<sup>F2</sup>(1B) This subsection applies if the accommodation is to be provided in accordance with—

- (a) Part 1 of the Care Act 2014, or
- (b) section 117 of the Mental Health Act.]

- (2) [<sup>F3</sup>This subsection applies] if the accommodation is to be provided in accordance with—

- [<sup>F4</sup>(a) Part 4 of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014; or]
- (b) section 117 of the Mental Health Act,

<sup>F5</sup> ...

- (3) This section does not apply if P is accommodated as a result of an obligation imposed on him under the Mental Health Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this provision has been superseded.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Mental Capacity Act 2005, Section 39. (See end of Document for details)

[<sup>F6</sup>(3A) And this section does not apply if—

- (a) an independent mental capacity advocate must be appointed under section 39A or 39C (whether or not by the local authority) to represent P, and
- (b) the place in which P is to be accommodated under the arrangements referred to in this section is the relevant hospital or care home under the authorisation referred to in that section.]

<sup>F6</sup>(4) Before making the arrangements, the local authority must instruct an independent mental capacity advocate to represent P unless they are satisfied that—

- (a) the accommodation is likely to be provided for a continuous period of less than 8 weeks, or
- (b) the arrangements need to be made as a matter of urgency.

(5) If the local authority—

- (a) did not instruct an independent mental capacity advocate to represent P before making the arrangements because they were satisfied that subsection (4)(a) or (b) applied, but
- (b) subsequently have reason to believe that the accommodation is likely to be provided for a continuous period that will end 8 weeks or more after the day on which accommodation was first provided in accordance with the arrangements, they must instruct an independent mental capacity advocate to represent P.

(6) The local authority must, in deciding what arrangements to make for P, take into account any information given, or submissions made, by the independent mental capacity advocate.

[<sup>F7</sup>(7) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person appointed under Part 10 of Schedule A1 to be P's representative is not, by virtue of that appointment, engaged in providing care or treatment for P in a professional capacity or for remuneration. ]
