COMMENTARY

Definitions

Schedule 2 – Seizure and forfeiture of terrorist publications

Paragraphs 3 and 4

136. These paragraphs set out that a person claiming that any seized article is not liable to forfeiture may give notice of such a claim to a constable at any police station in the police area in which the seizure took place. Such a notice, which must be given in writing, must be given within one month of the notice of the seizure, or the seizure itself if no notice has been given.
