2006 CHAPTER 46

PART 10

A COMPANY'S DIRECTORS

CHAPTER 4

TRANSACTIONS WITH DIRECTORS REQUIRING APPROVAL OF MEMBERS

Payments for loss of office

215 Payments for loss of office

- (1) In this Chapter a “payment for loss of office” means a payment made to a director or past director of a company—
- (a) by way of compensation for loss of office as director of the company,
  - (b) by way of compensation for loss, while director of the company or in connection with his ceasing to be a director of it, of—
    - (i) any other office or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of the company, or
    - (ii) any office (as director or otherwise) or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of any subsidiary undertaking of the company,
  - (c) as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from his office as director of the company, or
  - (d) as consideration for or in connection with his retirement, while director of the company or in connection with his ceasing to be a director of it, from—
    - (i) any other office or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of the company, or

- (ii) any office (as director or otherwise) or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of any subsidiary undertaking of the company.
- (2) The references to compensation and consideration include benefits otherwise than in cash and references in this Chapter to payment have a corresponding meaning.
- (3) For the purposes of sections 217 to 221 (payments requiring members' approval)—
- (a) payment to a person connected with a director, or
  - (b) payment to any person at the direction of, or for the benefit of, a director or a person connected with him,
- is treated as payment to the director.
- (4) References in those sections to payment by a person include payment by another person at the direction of, or on behalf of, the person referred to.
- [<sup>F1</sup>(5) Nothing in this section or sections 216 to 222 applies in relation to a payment for loss of office to a director of a quoted company [<sup>F2</sup>or unquoted traded company] other than a payment to which section 226C does not apply by virtue of section 226D(6).]
- [<sup>F3</sup>(6) “Unquoted traded company” means a traded company (as defined by section 360C) that is not a quoted company.]

216 Amounts taken to be payments for loss of office

- (1) This section applies where in connection with any such transfer as is mentioned in section 218 or 219 (payment in connection with transfer of undertaking, property or shares) a director of the company—
- (a) is to cease to hold office, or
  - (b) is to cease to be the holder of—
    - (i) any other office or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of the company, or
    - (ii) any office (as director or otherwise) or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of any subsidiary undertaking of the company.
- (2) If in connection with any such transfer—
- (a) the price to be paid to the director for any shares in the company held by him is in excess of the price which could at the time have been obtained by other holders of like shares, or
  - (b) any valuable consideration is given to the director by a person other than the company,
- the excess or, as the case may be, the money value of the consideration is taken for the purposes of those sections to have been a payment for loss of office.

220 Exception for payments in discharge of legal obligations etc

- (1) Approval is not required under section 217, 218 or 219 (payments requiring members' approval) for a payment made in good faith—
  - (a) in discharge of an existing legal obligation (as defined below),
  - (b) by way of damages for breach of such an obligation,
  - (c) by way of settlement or compromise of any claim arising in connection with the termination of a person's office or employment, or
  - (d) by way of pension in respect of past services.
- (2) In relation to a payment within section 217 (payment by company) an existing legal obligation means an obligation of the company, or any body corporate associated with it, that was not entered into in connection with, or in consequence of, the event giving rise to the payment for loss of office.
- (3) In relation to a payment within section 218 or 219 (payment in connection with transfer of undertaking, property or shares) an existing legal obligation means an obligation of the person making the payment that was not entered into for the purposes of, in connection with or in consequence of, the transfer in question.
- (4) In the case of a payment within both section 217 and section 218, or within both section 217 and section 219, subsection (2) above applies and not subsection (3).
- (5) A payment part of which falls within subsection (1) above and part of which does not is treated as if the parts were separate payments.

  - (b) any director who authorised the payment is jointly and severally liable to indemnify the company that made the payment for any loss resulting from it.
- (2) If a payment is made in contravention of section 218 (payment in connection with transfer of undertaking etc), it is held by the recipient on trust for the company whose undertaking or property is or is proposed to be transferred.
- (3) If a payment is made in contravention of section 219 (payment in connection with share transfer)—
  - (a) it is held by the recipient on trust for persons who have sold their shares as a result of the offer made, and
  - (b) the expenses incurred by the recipient in distributing that sum amongst those persons shall be borne by him and not retained out of that sum.
