Register of interests disclosed

812 Court supervision of purpose for which rights may be exercised

- (1) Where a company receives a request under section 811 (register of interests disclosed: right to inspect and require copy), it must—

  - (b) refuse the request if it is not so satisfied.
- (2) If the company refuses the request, it must inform the person making the request, stating the reason why it is not satisfied.
- (3) A person whose request is refused may apply to the court.
- (4) If an application is made to the court—
  - (a) the person who made the request must notify the company, and
  - (b) the company must use its best endeavours to notify any persons whose details would be disclosed if the company were required to comply with the request.
- (5) If the court is not satisfied that the inspection or copy is sought for a proper purpose, it shall direct the company not to comply with the request.
- (6) If the court makes such a direction and it appears to the court that the company is or may be subject to other requests made for a similar purpose (whether made by the same person or different persons), it may direct that the company is not to comply with any such request.
