Road Safety Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 49

An Act to make provision about road traffic, registration plates, vehicle and driver information, hackney carriages and private hire vehicles, and trunk road picnic areas.
[8th November 2006]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Payments for road safety

1 Road safety grants

For section 40 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52) (power to subsidise promotion of road safety by bodies other than local authorities) substitute—

“40 Road safety grants

- (1) A national transport authority may make payments to any local authority or any other authority or body for meeting the whole or part of the capital or running costs of any measures for promoting road safety.
- (2) A “national transport authority” means—
 - (a) the Secretary of State acting with the approval of the Treasury, or
 - (b) the National Assembly for Wales.”

2 Application of surplus income from safety camera enforcement

- (1) Section 38 of the Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 (c. 3) (unified power for Secretary of State to fund speed cameras etc.) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsections (3) and (4), for “this section” substitute “subsection (1)”.

- (3) After subsection (4) insert –
- “(4A) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for making to public authorities for road safety purposes payments calculated by reference to any amount by which –
- (a) the amount of the sums paid into the Consolidated Fund in consequence of the commission of offences to which subsection (2) applies and which are detected by cameras, exceeds
 - (b) the amount of any payments made under subsection (1).”

Fixed penalties

3 Graduated fixed penalties

- (1) The Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 53 (amount of fixed penalty), for subsections (2) and (3) substitute –

“(2) Any order made under subsection (1)(a) above in relation to an offence may make provision for the fixed penalty for the offence to be different depending on the circumstances, including (in particular) –

 - (a) the nature of the contravention or failure constituting the offence,
 - (b) how serious it is,
 - (c) the area, or sort of place, where it takes place, and
 - (d) whether the offender appears to have committed any offence or offences of a description specified in the order during a period so specified.”
- (3) In section 84(2) (regulations about surcharge notices), for paragraphs (b) and (c) substitute “and
 - (b) the amount of the penalty stated in the offer is less than the fixed penalty applicable in the circumstances,”.

4 Graduated fixed penalty points

- (1) Section 28 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (penalty points to be attributed to an offence) is amended as follows.
- (2) For subsection (3) substitute –

“(3) For the purposes of sections 57(5) and 77(5) of this Act, the number of penalty points to be attributed to an offence is –

 - (a) where both a range of numbers and a number followed by the words “(fixed penalty)” is shown in the last column of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to this Act in relation to the offence, that number,
 - (b) where a range of numbers followed by the words “or appropriate penalty points (fixed penalty)” is shown there in relation to the offence, the appropriate number of penalty points for the offence, and
 - (c) where only a range of numbers is shown there in relation to the offence, the lowest number in the range.
- (3A) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b) above the appropriate number of penalty points for an offence is such number of penalty points as the Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument prescribe.

- (3B) An order made under subsection (3A) above in relation to an offence may make provision for the appropriate number of penalty points for the offence to be different depending on the circumstances, including (in particular) –
- (a) the nature of the contravention or failure constituting the offence,
 - (b) how serious it is,
 - (c) the area, or sort of place, where it takes place, and
 - (d) whether the offender appears to have committed any offence or offences of a description specified in the order during a period so specified.”
- (3) In subsection (7), in paragraph (b), after “penalty)” insert “or the words “or appropriate penalty points (fixed penalty)””.
- (4) Before the word “and” at the end of that paragraph insert –
- “(ba) substitute the words “or appropriate penalty points (fixed penalty)” for a number together with the words “(fixed penalty)”, or substitute a number together with the words “(fixed penalty)” for the words “or appropriate penalty points (fixed penalty)”, in relation to an offence in the last column of Part 1 or 2.”.
- (5) After subsection (8) insert –
- “(8A) Before making any order under subsection (3A) above the Secretary of State must consult with such representative organisations as he thinks fit.”
- (6) In subsection (9), for “subsection (7) above” substitute “this section”.

5 Giving of fixed penalty notices by vehicle examiners

Schedule 1 contains provision about the giving of fixed penalty notices by vehicle examiners and connected matters.

6 Goods vehicles operator licensing

- (1) The Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 (c. 23) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1) of section 9 (duty of applicant for operator’s licence to notify traffic commissioner of notifiable conviction subsequent to making of application), insert at the end “or there is issued a notifiable fixed penalty notice within the meaning given in paragraph 7 of that Schedule.”
- (3) In subsection (3)(b) of that section (offence of failing to notify conviction of transport manager), insert at the end “or the issue to the transport manager of a fixed penalty notice or conditional offer under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 in respect of such an offence.”
- (4) In subsection (1) of section 26 (revocation, suspension and curtailment of operators' licences), after paragraph (c) insert—

“(ca) that during those five years a fixed penalty notice or conditional offer has been issued under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 to the licence-holder in respect of an offence within sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (c) or to a servant or agent of the licence-holder in respect of an offence within sub-paragraph (ii) of that paragraph;”.

- (5) In paragraph (d) of that subsection, insert at the end “or an issue of a fixed penalty notice or conditional offer under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 to the licence-holder or a servant or agent of his in respect of such an offence;”.
- (6) In paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 (information about, and convictions of, applicants for and holders of operators' licences), after paragraph (f) insert—
- “(fa) particulars of any notifiable fixed penalty notices which have been issued during those five years;”.
- (7) After paragraph 6 of that Schedule insert—

““Notifiable fixed penalty notices””

7 In paragraph 1(fa) “notifiable fixed penalty notice” means any fixed penalty notice or conditional offer under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988—

- (a) issued to a relevant person in respect of an offence such as is mentioned in paragraph 5, or
- (b) issued to a servant or agent of a relevant person in respect of an offence within paragraph 4(b).”

7 Public passenger vehicle licensing

- (1) The Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 (c. 14) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 19 (duty of applicant for PSV operator's licence to inform traffic commissioners of relevant convictions etc.), after subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above the issue to a person of a fixed penalty notice or conditional offer under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 in respect of an offence prescribed for the purposes of this Act is to be treated as if it were a relevant conviction of him.”
- (3) In sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 (supplementary provisions as to qualifications for PSV operator's licence), before the word “and” at the end of paragraph (a) insert—
- “(aa) relevant fixed penalty notices issued to him and to his employees and agents;”.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph, before the word “and” at the end of paragraph (a) insert—
- “(aa) relevant fixed penalty notices issued to the company's officers, employees and agents;”.

(5) After that sub-paragraph insert –

“(2A) In sub-paragraphs (1)(aa) and (2)(aa) above “relevant fixed penalty notice” means a fixed penalty notice or conditional offer issued under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 in respect of an offence prescribed for the purposes of this Act.”

New system of endorsement

8 Driving record

In the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53), after section 97 insert –

“97A Meaning of “driving record”

- (1) In this Act “driving record”, in relation to a person, means a record in relation to the person maintained by the Secretary of State and designed to be endorsed with particulars relating to offences committed by the person under the Traffic Acts.
- (2) The Secretary of State may make arrangements for the following persons to have access, by such means as the Secretary of State may determine, to information held on a person’s driving record –
 - (a) courts,
 - (b) constables,
 - (c) fixed penalty clerks,
 - (d) the person in respect of whom the record is maintained and persons authorised by him, and
 - (e) other persons prescribed in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The power to make regulations under subsection (2)(e) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (4) No regulations shall be made under subsection (2)(e) above unless a draft of the instrument containing them has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

9 Unlicensed and foreign drivers

- (1) The Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 44 (endorsement of licences) –
 - (a) after subsection (3) insert –

“(3A) Where a person who is not the holder of a licence is convicted of an offence involving obligatory endorsement, subsection (1) above applies as if the reference to the counterpart of any licence held by him were a reference to his driving record.”, and
 - (b) for the heading substitute “Orders for endorsement”.

(3) After that section insert –

“44A Endorsement of driving record in accordance with order

- (1) Where the court orders the endorsement of a person’s driving record with any particulars or penalty points it must send notice of the order to the Secretary of State.
- (2) On receiving the notice, the Secretary of State must endorse those particulars or penalty points on the person’s driving record.
- (3) A notice sent by the court to the Secretary of State in pursuance of this section must be sent in such manner and to such address and contain such particulars as the Secretary of State may require.”

(4) In section 54 (notices on-the-spot etc.), after subsection (5) insert –

“(5A) Where the offence appears to the constable or vehicle examiner to involve obligatory endorsement, and the person is not the holder of a licence, the constable or vehicle examiner may only give him a fixed penalty notice under subsection (2) above in respect of the offence if the constable or vehicle examiner is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of that offence.

(5B) Subsection (5C) below applies where –

- (a) the offence appears to the constable or vehicle examiner to involve obligatory endorsement,
- (b) the person concerned is not the holder of a licence, and
- (c) the constable or vehicle examiner is unable to satisfy himself, by accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of that offence.

(5C) Where this subsection applies, the constable or vehicle examiner may give the person a notice stating that if –

- (a) he delivers the notice in accordance with subsection (5D) below, and
- (b) the person to whom it is delivered is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence, he will then be given a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence.

(5D) Delivery must –

- (a) if the notice is given by a constable, be made in person, within seven days after the notice is given, to a constable or authorised person at the police station specified in the notice (being a police station chosen by the person concerned), or
- (b) if the notice is given by a vehicle examiner, be made (either by post or in person), within fourteen days after the notice is given, to the Secretary of State at the place specified in the notice.

(5E) If a person to whom a notice has been given under subsection (5C) above delivers the notice in accordance with subsection (5D) above, and the person to whom it is delivered is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence, that person must give him a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence to which the notice under subsection (5C) relates.”

(5) After section 57 insert –

“57A Endorsement of driving records without hearings

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where a person who is not the holder of a licence has been given a fixed penalty notice under section 54 of this Act in respect of an offence involving obligatory endorsement, his driving record may be endorsed in accordance with this section without any order of a court.
 - (2) A person’s driving record may not be endorsed under this section if at the end of the suspended enforcement period –
 - (a) he has given notice, in the manner specified in the fixed penalty notice, requesting a hearing in respect of the offence to which the fixed penalty notice relates, and
 - (b) the fixed penalty has not been paid in accordance with this Part of this Act.
 - (3) If payment of the fixed penalty is made before the end of the suspended enforcement period and the person to whom the payment is made is the fixed penalty clerk, the fixed penalty clerk must send to the Secretary of State notice of the relevant particulars which are to be endorsed on the person’s driving record.
 - (4) Where any sum determined by reference to the fixed penalty is registered under section 71 of this Act for enforcement against the person as a fine in a case where the fixed penalty is required to be paid to the fixed penalty clerk, the fixed penalty clerk must send to the Secretary of State notice of the relevant particulars which are to be endorsed on the person’s driving record –
 - (a) if he is himself the person who registers the sum, on the registration of that sum, and
 - (b) in any other case, on being notified of the registration by the person who registers that sum.
 - (5) The Secretary of State must endorse the relevant particulars on the person’s driving record if –
 - (a) he receives notice of them under subsection (3) or (4) above,
 - (b) the fixed penalty is paid to him before the end of the suspended enforcement period, or
 - (c) in a case where the fixed penalty is required to be paid to the Secretary of State, any sum determined by reference to the fixed penalty is registered under section 71 of this Act for enforcement against the person as a fine.
 - (6) References in this section to the relevant particulars are to –
 - (a) particulars of the offence, including the date when it was committed, and
 - (b) the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence.”
- (6) Schedule 2 contains further amendments about the endorsement of driving records in the case of unlicensed and certain foreign drivers.

10 All drivers

- (1) The Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) (as amended by section 9 and Schedule 2) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 44 (orders for endorsement) –
 - (a) in subsection (1), for “the counterpart of any licence held by him” substitute “his driving record”, and
 - (b) omit subsection (3A).
- (3) Section 54 (notices on-the-spot etc.) is amended as follows.
- (4) For subsections (3) to (5E) substitute –
 - “(3) Where the offence appears to the constable or vehicle examiner to involve obligatory endorsement, the constable or vehicle examiner may only give him a fixed penalty notice under subsection (2) above in respect of the offence if –
 - (a) the constable or vehicle examiner is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of that offence, and
 - (b) in the case of a person who is the holder of a licence, he produces it for inspection by the constable or vehicle examiner and surrenders it to him to be retained and dealt with in accordance with this Part of this Act.
 - (4) Where the offence appears to the constable or vehicle examiner to involve obligatory endorsement, subsection (5) below applies if –
 - (a) the constable or vehicle examiner is unable to satisfy himself, by accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of that offence, or
 - (b) in the case of a person who is the holder of a licence, he does not produce it for inspection by the constable or vehicle examiner.
 - (5) Where this subsection applies, the constable or vehicle examiner may give the person a notice stating that if –
 - (a) he delivers the notice and (if he is the holder of a licence) his licence in accordance with subsection (5A) below, and
 - (b) the requirements of subsection (5B) below are met,he will then be given a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence.
- (5A) Delivery must –
 - (a) if the notice is given by a constable, be made in person, within seven days after the notice is given, to a constable or authorised person at the police station specified in the notice (being a police station chosen by the person concerned), or
 - (b) if the notice is given by a vehicle examiner, be made (either by post or in person), within fourteen days after the notice is given, to the Secretary of State at the place specified in the notice.
- (5B) If a person to whom a notice has been given under subsection (5) above delivers the notice and (if he is the holder of a licence) his licence in accordance with subsection (5A) above, and the following requirements are met, that is –

- (a) the person to whom the notice is delivered is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence, and
 - (b) if he is the holder of a licence, it is delivered to be retained and dealt with in accordance with this Part of this Act,
- the person to whom the notice is delivered must give him a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence to which the notice under subsection (5) above relates.”
- (5) In subsection (6), for “(4) or (5C)” substitute “(5)”.
 - (6) In subsection (7), omit “and a counterpart of a licence”.
 - (7) Omit section 57 (endorsement of counterparts without hearings).
 - (8) Section 57A (endorsement of driving records without hearings) is amended as follows.
 - (9) In subsection (1), omit “who is not the holder of a licence”.
 - (10) In subsection (3), at the end insert “and return to that person any licence surrendered by him under section 54 of this Act.”
 - (11) In subsection (4), after “record” insert “and return to that person any licence surrendered by him under section 54 of this Act”.
 - (12) Schedule 3 contains further amendments about the endorsement of driving records in the case of all drivers.

Deposits and prohibition on driving

11 Financial penalty deposits

- (1) In the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53), after Part 3 insert—

“PART 3A

FINANCIAL PENALTY DEPOSITS

90A Power to impose financial penalty deposit requirement

- (1) A constable or vehicle examiner may impose a financial penalty deposit requirement on a person on any occasion if the conditions in this section are satisfied.
- (2) The constable or vehicle examiner must have reason to believe—
 - (a) that the person is committing or has on that occasion committed an offence relating to a motor vehicle, and
 - (b) that the person, the offence and the circumstances in which the offence is committed are of a description specified in an order made by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The person must be—
 - (a) given written notification that it appears likely that proceedings will be brought against him in respect of the offence, or

- (b) (if the offence is a fixed penalty offence) either given such notification or given a fixed penalty notice (or, in Scotland, handed a conditional offer) in respect of the offence.
- (4) The person must fail to provide a satisfactory address; and for this purpose “a satisfactory address” is an address in the United Kingdom at which the constable or vehicle examiner considers it likely that it would be possible to find the person whenever necessary to do so in connection with the proceedings, fixed penalty notice or conditional offer.
- (5) The person who is to impose the financial penalty deposit requirement—
 - (a) if a constable, must be in uniform, and
 - (b) if a vehicle examiner, must produce his authority.

90B Financial penalty deposit requirement

- (1) For the purposes of this Part of this Act a financial penalty deposit requirement is a requirement to make a payment of the appropriate amount to the Secretary of State—
 - (a) in a manner specified in an order made by him, and
 - (b) either immediately or within the relevant period.
- (2) In this Part of this Act “the appropriate amount”, in relation to an offence and a person, is an amount specified in relation to the offence in an order made by the Secretary of State; and different amounts may be so specified—
 - (a) by reference to whether the person is given notification that it appears likely that proceedings will be brought against him or given a fixed penalty notice (or handed a conditional offer), and
 - (b) otherwise by reference to the circumstances of the offence.
- (3) In this Part of this Act “the relevant period” means—
 - (a) if the person was given a fixed penalty notice and proceedings are not brought in respect of the offence by virtue of this Act before the end of the suspended enforcement period, the suspended enforcement period,
 - (b) if he was handed a conditional offer and proceedings are not brought in respect of the offence by virtue of this Act before the end of the period of 28 days following the date on which the conditional offer was given or any longer period specified in the conditional offer, that period, and
 - (c) otherwise, the period ending with the person being charged with the offence.

90C Making of payment in compliance with requirement

- (1) This section applies where a person on whom a financial penalty deposit requirement is imposed in respect of an offence makes a payment of the appropriate amount in accordance with section 90B(1) of this Act (and any order made under it).
- (2) On payment by the person of the appropriate amount the person by whom the payment is received must issue him with a written receipt for the payment specifying the effect of the following provisions of this section.

- (3) If the person was handed a conditional offer –
 - (a) the person is entitled to give notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence, and
 - (b) the written receipt must specify the manner in which such notice is to be given.
- (4) In a case where –
 - (a) a fixed penalty notice relating to the offence has been given to the person or a conditional offer so relating has been handed to him,
 - (b) the person does not give notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence before the end of the relevant period in the appropriate manner, and
 - (c) proceedings are not brought in respect of the offence by virtue of this Act,subsection (6) below applies.
- (5) In subsection (4)(b) above “the appropriate manner” means –
 - (a) if the person was given a fixed penalty notice, the manner specified in the fixed penalty notice, and
 - (b) if he was handed a conditional offer, the manner specified in the written receipt under subsection (2) above.
- (6) Where this subsection applies, the Secretary of State must –
 - (a) apply so much of the payment as does not exceed the amount of the fixed penalty in or towards payment of the fixed penalty, and
 - (b) take the appropriate steps to make any appropriate refund to the person.
- (7) In any other case –
 - (a) if the person is informed that he is not to be prosecuted for the offence, is acquitted of the offence or is convicted but not fined in respect of it, or the prosecution period comes to an end without a prosecution having been commenced against him in respect of it, subsection (9) below applies, and
 - (b) if a fine is imposed on the person in respect of the offence (otherwise than as a result of a conviction obtained on a prosecution commenced after the end of the prosecution period), subsection (10) below applies.
- (8) In this Part of this Act “the prosecution period” means the period of twelve months beginning with the imposition of the financial penalty deposit requirement or, if shorter, any period after which no prosecution may be commenced in respect of the offence.
- (9) Where this subsection applies, the Secretary of State must take the appropriate steps to make the appropriate refund to the person.
- (10) Where this subsection applies, the Secretary of State must –
 - (a) apply so much of the payment as does not exceed the amount of the fine in or towards payment of the fine, and
 - (b) take the appropriate steps to make any appropriate refund to the person.

- (11) Where the Secretary of State is required by this section to take the appropriate steps to make an appropriate refund, he must take such steps to trace the person and to make the refund to him, by such means, as are specified in an order made by the Secretary of State.
- (12) In this Part of this Act “the appropriate refund”, in any case, is a refund of—
- (a) where subsection (6) above applies, so much of the payment as exceeds the amount of the fixed penalty,
 - (b) where subsection (9) above applies, the amount of the payment, and
 - (c) where subsection (10) above applies, so much of the amount of the payment as exceeds the amount of the fine,
- together with interest calculated in accordance with provision made by order made by the Treasury.

90D Prohibition on driving on failure to make payment

- (1) This section applies where a person on whom a financial penalty deposit requirement is imposed does not make an immediate payment of the appropriate amount in accordance with section 90B(1) of this Act (and any order made under it).
- (2) The constable or vehicle examiner by whom the requirement was imposed may prohibit the driving on a road of any vehicle of which the person was in charge at the time of the offence by giving to the person notice in writing of the prohibition.
- (3) The prohibition—
 - (a) shall come into force as soon as the notice is given, and
 - (b) shall continue in force until the happening of whichever of the events in subsection (4) below occurs first.
- (4) Those events are—
 - (a) the person making a payment of the appropriate amount in accordance with section 90B(1) of this Act (and any order made under it) at any time during the relevant period,
 - (b) (where a fixed penalty notice was given, or a conditional offer handed, to the person in respect of the offence) payment of the fixed penalty,
 - (c) the person being convicted or acquitted of the offence,
 - (d) the person being informed that he is not to be prosecuted for the offence, and
 - (e) the coming to an end of the prosecution period.
- (5) A constable or vehicle examiner may by direction in writing require the person to remove the vehicle to which the prohibition relates (and, if it is a motor vehicle drawing a trailer, also to remove the trailer) to such place and subject to such conditions as are specified in the direction; and the prohibition does not apply to the removal of the vehicle (or trailer) in accordance with the direction.
- (6) A person who—
 - (a) drives a vehicle in contravention of a prohibition under this section,

- (b) causes or permits a vehicle to be driven in contravention of such a prohibition, or
 - (c) fails to comply within a reasonable time with a direction under subsection (5) above,
- is guilty of an offence.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order provide for exceptions from subsection (6) above.
 - (8) Schedule 4 to the Road Safety Act 2006 makes provision about the immobilisation of vehicles the driving of which has been prohibited under this section and about their removal and disposal.

90E Orders about financial penalty deposits

- (1) Any power conferred by section 90A, 90B, 90C or 90D of this Act on the Secretary of State or the Treasury to make an order shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (2) Before making an order under any of those sections the Secretary of State or the Treasury must consult with such representative organisations as appear appropriate.
- (3) An order under any of those sections may make different provision for different cases.
- (4) No order shall be made under section 90B(2) of this Act unless a draft of the instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing an order under section 90A, 90B(1), 90C or 90D of this Act shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Drink-driving etc.

13 High risk offenders: medical enquiries following disqualification

- (1) In section 88 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (exceptions to requirement to hold driving licence), after subsection (2) insert –

“(2A) Subsection (1) above does not apply by virtue of an application mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection having been received by the Secretary of State if –

- (a) the application was made as a result of, or in anticipation of, the expiry of a disqualification relevant to the licence applied for,
 - (b) either the nature of the disqualification or its imposition within a particular period after an earlier disqualification amounted to circumstances prescribed under subsection (4) of section 94 of this Act (disqualification: high risk offenders), and
 - (c) the Secretary of State has notified the applicant that, because of that, he will be subject to a requirement under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (5) of that section.”
- (2) The amendment made by subsection (1) does not apply where the conviction in respect of which the disqualification was ordered was imposed before the coming into force of that subsection.

14 Period of endorsement for failure to allow specimen to be tested

In section 45(7) of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) (effect of endorsement: period for which effective), after paragraph (b) insert “or

- (c) under section 7A(6) of that Act (failing to allow a specimen to be subjected to laboratory test),”.

15 Alcohol ignition interlocks

- (1) In the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988, after section 34C insert –

“34D Reduced disqualification period: alcohol ignition interlock programme orders

- (1) This section applies where –
- (a) a person is convicted of a relevant drink offence by or before a court,
 - (b) he has committed another relevant drink offence at any time during the period of ten years ending with the date of the conviction,
 - (c) the court makes an order under section 34 of this Act but does not make an order under section 34A of this Act, and
 - (d) the period stated by the court as that for which, apart from this section, he would be disqualified (“the unreduced period”) is not less than two years.
- (2) In this section “relevant drink offence” means –
- (a) an offence under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 3A of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (causing death by careless driving when unfit to drive through drink) committed when unfit to drive through drink,
 - (b) an offence under paragraph (b) of that subsection (causing death by careless driving with excess alcohol),
 - (c) an offence under paragraph (c) of that subsection (failing to provide a specimen) where the specimen is required in connection with drink or consumption of alcohol,
 - (d) an offence under section 4 of that Act (driving or being in charge when under influence of drink) committed by reason of unfitness through drink,

- (e) an offence under section 5(1) of that Act (driving or being in charge with excess alcohol),
 - (f) an offence under section 7(6) of that Act (failing to provide a specimen) committed in the course of an investigation into an offence within any of the preceding paragraphs, or
 - (g) an offence under section 7A(6) of that Act (failing to allow a specimen to be subjected to a laboratory test) in the course of an investigation into an offence within any of the preceding paragraphs.
- (3) Where this section applies, the court may specify a lesser period of disqualification (“the reduced period”) if it also makes an order (an “alcohol ignition interlock programme order”) requiring the offender to comply with the alcohol ignition interlock conditions.
- (4) The difference between the unreduced period and the reduced period shall be a period specified in the order of –
- (a) not less than 12 months, and
 - (b) not more than one half of the unreduced period.
- (5) If the offender contravenes the alcohol ignition interlock conditions, a further order under section 34 disqualifying him for the rest of the unreduced period is to be treated as having been made by the court immediately before the contravention.
- (6) “The alcohol ignition interlock conditions” are that the offender –
- (a) must participate fully in an approved alcohol ignition interlock programme specified in the order during such part of the unreduced period as is so specified, and
 - (b) during the part of that period following the reduced period, must not drive a motor vehicle unless it is fitted with an alcohol ignition interlock in good working order and must not drive a motor vehicle which is so fitted when not using the alcohol ignition interlock properly.
- (7) A court shall not make an alcohol ignition interlock programme order in the case of an offender unless –
- (a) the court is satisfied that a place on the approved alcohol ignition interlock programme specified in the order will be available for the offender,
 - (b) the offender appears to the court to be of or over the age of 17,
 - (c) the court has informed the offender (orally or in writing and in ordinary language) of the effect of the order and the amount of the fees which he is required to pay for the programme and when he must pay them, and
 - (d) the offender has agreed that the order should be made.
- (8) For the purposes of this section an “approved alcohol ignition interlock programme” is a programme approved by the appropriate national authority and involving the provision of an alcohol ignition interlock for use by the offender, training in its use and other education and counselling relating to the consumption of alcohol and driving.
- (9) For the purposes of this section “alcohol ignition interlock” means a device –
- (a) of a type approved by the Secretary of State, and

- (b) designed to be fitted to a motor vehicle with the purpose of preventing the driving of the vehicle by a person who does not, both before starting driving the vehicle and at regular intervals while driving it, provide specimens of breath in which the proportion of alcohol is likely not to exceed the limit specified in subsection (10) below.
- (10) That limit is 9 microgrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of breath or such other proportion of alcohol to breath as the Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe.
- (11) For the purposes of this section an offender uses an alcohol ignition interlock properly if (and only if) he is complying with all the instructions given to him about its use as part of the approved alcohol ignition interlock programme.
- (12) Where an alcohol ignition interlock is fitted to a motor vehicle as part of an approved alcohol ignition interlock programme relating to an offender, a person commits an offence if—
 - (a) he interferes with the alcohol ignition interlock with intent to cause it not to function or not to function properly, or
 - (b) he is a person other than the offender and provides or attempts to provide a specimen of breath for the purposes of the alcohol ignition interlock with intent to enable the driving (or continued driving) of the vehicle by the offender.

34E Certificates of failing fully to participate

- (1) An offender shall be regarded for the purposes of section 34D of this Act as not fully participating in an approved alcohol ignition interlock programme if (and only if) a certificate that that is so is received by the proper officer of the supervising court.
- (2) A certificate under subsection (1) above may be given if (and only if) the offender has failed—
 - (a) to make due payment of fees for the programme,
 - (b) to attend for training, education or counselling forming part of the programme in accordance with the programme provider's reasonable instructions,
 - (c) to attend at a place specified by the programme provider for the monitoring and maintenance of the alcohol ignition interlock, at a time specified by the programme provider or a person with whom the programme provider has made arrangements for its monitoring and maintenance, or
 - (d) to comply with any other reasonable requirement of the programme provider.
- (3) A certificate under subsection (1) above is to be given by the programme provider and shall be in such form, and contain such particulars, as may be prescribed by, or determined in accordance with, regulations made by the appropriate national authority.
- (4) Where a programme provider decides to give a certificate under subsection (1) above, he shall give written notice of the decision to the offender as soon as possible.

- (5) An offender to whom a notice is given under subsection (4) above may, within such period as may be prescribed by rules of court, apply to the supervising court, or (if the supervising court is not the Crown Court, the High Court of Justiciary or the relevant local court) to either the supervising court or the relevant local court, for a declaration that the programme provider has given the certificate under subsection (1) above in contravention of subsection (2) above.
- (6) If the court grants the application, section 34D of this Act shall have effect as if the certificate had not been duly received by the proper officer of the supervising court.
- (7) A notice under subsection (4) above shall specify the ground on which it is given; and the appropriate national authority may by regulations make provision as to the form of notices under that subsection and as to the circumstances in which they are to be treated as given.
- (8) Where the proper officer of a court receives a certificate under subsection (1) above, or a court grants an application under subsection (5) above, the proper officer or court must send notice of that fact to the Secretary of State; and the notice must be sent in such manner and to such address, and must contain such particulars, as the Secretary of State may determine.

34F Approval of programmes

- (1) If an application is made to the appropriate national authority for the approval of a programme for the purposes of section 34D of this Act, the appropriate national authority must decide whether to grant or refuse the application.
- (2) In reaching that decision the appropriate national authority must have regard to –
 - (a) the nature of the programme, and
 - (b) whether the programme provider is an appropriate person to provide the programme and administer its provision efficiently and effectively,and may take into account any recommendations made by any persons appointed to consider the application.
- (3) A programme may be approved subject to conditions specified by the appropriate national authority.
- (4) An approval of a programme is for the period specified by the appropriate national authority (which must not exceed seven years), subject to withdrawal of approval.
- (5) Regulations made by the appropriate national authority may make provision in relation to the approval of programmes and may, in particular, include provision –
 - (a) in relation to the making of applications for approval,
 - (b) for the payment in respect of applications for approval, or of approvals, (or of both) of fees of such amounts as are prescribed by the regulations,
 - (c) specifying the maximum fees that a person may be required to pay for a programme and by when they are to be paid,
 - (d) for the monitoring of programmes and programme providers,

- (e) in relation to withdrawing approval,
- (f) for an appeal to lie to the Transport Tribunal against a refusal of an application for approval, the imposition of conditions on the grant of such an application or the withdrawal of approval, and
- (g) authorising the appropriate national authority to make available (with or without charge) information about programmes and programme providers.

34G Provisions supplementary to sections 34D to 34F

- (1) The appropriate national authority may issue guidance to programme providers, or to any category of programme provider, as to the conduct of programmes approved for the purposes of section 34D of this Act; and—
 - (a) programme providers shall have regard to any guidance given to them under this subsection, and
 - (b) in determining for the purposes of section 34E of this Act whether any instructions or requirements of a programme provider were reasonable, a court shall have regard to any guidance given to him under this subsection.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) amending section 34D(1)(b) of this Act by substituting for the period for the time being specified there a different period,
 - (b) amending section 34D(1)(d) of this Act by substituting for the period for the time being specified there a different period, or
 - (c) amending section 34D(4) of this Act by substituting for the period for the time being specified there a different period, or by substituting for the fraction of the unreduced period for the time being specified there a different fraction of that period, (or by doing both).
- (3) In sections 34D to 34F of this Act and this section—
 - “appropriate national authority” means (as respects Wales) the National Assembly for Wales and (otherwise) the Secretary of State;
 - “contravention” includes failure to comply;
 - “programme provider”, in relation to an alcohol ignition interlock programme, means the person by whom it is, or is to be, provided;
 - “proper officer” means—
 - (a) in relation to a magistrates’ court in England and Wales, the designated officer for the court, and
 - (b) otherwise, the clerk of the court;
 - “relevant local court”, in relation to an alcohol ignition interlock programme order in the case of an offender, means—
 - (a) in England and Wales, a magistrates’ court acting for the local justice area in which the offender resides, and
 - (b) in Scotland, the sheriff court for the district where the offender resides or, where the order is made by a stipendiary magistrate and the offender resides within his commission area, the district court for that area; and
 - “supervising court”, in relation to an alcohol ignition interlock programme order, means—

- (a) in England and Wales, if the Crown Court made the order the Crown Court and otherwise a magistrates' court acting for the same local justice area as the court which made the order, and
 - (b) in Scotland, the court which made the order.
 - (4) Any power to make regulations under section 34D, 34E or 34F of this Act or this section includes power to make different provision for different cases, and to make such incidental or supplementary provision as appears to the appropriate national authority to be necessary or appropriate.
 - (5) Any power to make regulations under section 34D, 34E or 34F of this Act or this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
 - (6) A statutory instrument containing regulations made under section 34D, 34E or 34F of this Act by the Secretary of State shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
 - (7) No regulations shall be made under this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament."
- (2) In the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53), after section 41A insert –
- “41B Suspension of certificate pending determination of applications under section 34E
- (1) Where a person given a certificate under subsection (1) of section 34E of this Act makes an application to a court under subsection (5) of that section, the court may suspend the effect of the certificate pending the determination of the application.
 - (2) Where a court exercises its power under subsection (1) above it must send notice of the suspension to the Secretary of State.
 - (3) The notice must be sent in such manner and to such address and must contain such particulars, as the Secretary of State may determine.”
- (3) In Schedule 1 to that Act (offences to which certain sections apply) –
- (a) in paragraph 3, after paragraph (a) insert –
 - “(aa) an offence under section 34D(12) of this Act,”, and
 - (b) in paragraph 4, before paragraph (a) insert –
 - “(za) an offence under section 34D(12) of this Act,”.
- (4) In Part 1 of Schedule 2 to that Act (prosecution and punishment of offences: offences under the Traffic Acts), after the entry relating to section 27 of that Act insert –

| “Section 34D(12) of this Act | Interference etc. with alcohol ignition interlock. | Summarily. | Level 4 on the standard scale if the motor vehicle to which the alcohol ignition interlock is fitted is a goods vehicle or a vehicle adapted to carry more than eight passengers. Level 3 on the standard scale in any other case. | ” |

16 Experimental period for section 15

- (1) Subject as follows, no order shall be made under section 34D of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) (inserted by section 15) after –
 - (a) the end of 2010, or
 - (b) such later time as may be specified in an order made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) But at any time before the restriction imposed by subsection (1) has taken effect, the Secretary of State may by order provide that it shall not do so.
- (3) In this section “the experimental period” means the period beginning when section 15 comes into force and ending –
 - (a) when the restriction imposed by subsection (1) takes effect, or
 - (b) if the Secretary of State makes an order under subsection (2), on a date specified in the order.
- (4) During the experimental period –
 - (a) no order shall be made under section 34D by virtue of a person’s conviction under section 3A of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52), and
 - (b) no order shall be made under section 34D except by a magistrates’ court acting for a local justice area (or, in Scotland, a sheriff court for a district or a stipendiary magistrate for a commission area) which is for the time being designated for the purposes of this section.
- (5) In relation to orders made under section 34D during the experimental period, section 34E(5) shall have effect with the omission of the references to the relevant local court.
- (6) The power to designate an area or district for the purposes of this section is exercisable by the Secretary of State by order, and includes power to revoke a designation previously made.
- (7) An order under subsection (6) must specify the period for which an area or district is designated, and may –
 - (a) specify different periods for different areas or districts, and
 - (b) extend or shorten any period previously specified.
- (8) The power to make an order under subsection (1) is not exercisable after the end of 2010, and no more than one order may be made under that subsection.

- (9) Any power of the Secretary of State to make orders under this section is exercisable by statutory instrument, and –
- (a) no order is to be made under subsection (1) or (2) unless a draft of it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament, and
 - (b) any statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (6) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Speeding

19 Exemptions from speed limits

For section 87 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (c. 27) (exemption of fire, ambulance and police vehicles from speed limits) substitute –

“87 Exemptions from speed limits

- (1) No statutory provision imposing a speed limit on motor vehicles shall apply to any vehicle on an occasion when –
- (a) it is being used for fire and rescue authority purposes or for or in connection with the exercise of any function of a relevant authority as defined in section 6 of the Fire (Scotland) Act 2005, for ambulance purposes or for police or Serious Organised Crime Agency purposes,
 - (b) it is being used for other prescribed purposes in such circumstances as may be prescribed, or
 - (c) it is being used for training persons to drive vehicles for use for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) above, if the observance of that provision would be likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for the purpose for which it is being used on that occasion.

- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply unless the vehicle is being driven by a person who—
 - (a) has satisfactorily completed a course of training in the driving of vehicles at high speed provided in accordance with regulations under this section, or
 - (b) is driving the vehicle as part of such a course.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about courses of training in the driving of vehicles at high speed.
- (4) The regulations may include—
 - (a) provision about the nature of courses,
 - (b) provision for the approval by the Secretary of State of persons providing courses or giving instruction on courses and the withdrawal of approvals (including provision for appeals against refusal and withdrawal of approvals),
 - (c) provision specifying the maximum fees that a person may be required to pay for a course,
 - (d) provision for the training or assessment, or the supervision of the training or assessment, of persons providing courses or giving instruction on courses,
 - (e) provision for the evidencing of the successful completion of courses,
 - (f) provision authorising the Secretary of State to make available information about persons providing courses or giving instruction on courses, and
 - (g) provision treating courses of training in the driving of vehicles at high speed which have been completed before the coming into force of the regulations as if they had been provided in accordance with the regulations.
- (5) The regulations may include provision for the charging of reasonable fees in respect of any function conferred or imposed on the Secretary of State by the regulations.
- (6) The regulations may make different provision—
 - (a) for different classes of vehicle,
 - (b) for different descriptions of persons, or
 - (c) otherwise for different circumstances.”

22 Offence of keeping vehicle which does not meet insurance requirements

- (1) In the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52), after section 144 insert –

“144A Offence of keeping vehicle which does not meet insurance requirements

- (1) If a motor vehicle registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 does not meet the insurance requirements, the person in whose name the vehicle is registered is guilty of an offence.
- (2) For the purposes of this section a vehicle meets the insurance requirements if –
 - (a) it is covered by a such a policy of insurance or such a security in respect of third party risks as complies with the requirements of this Part of this Act, and
 - (b) either of the following conditions is satisfied.
- (3) The first condition is that the policy or security, or the certificate of insurance or security which relates to it, identifies the vehicle by its registration mark as a vehicle which is covered by the policy or security.
- (4) The second condition is that the vehicle is covered by the policy or security because –
 - (a) the policy or security covers any vehicle, or any vehicle of a particular description, the owner of which is a person named in the policy or security or in the certificate of insurance or security which relates to it, and
 - (b) the vehicle is owned by that person.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a vehicle is covered by a policy of insurance or security if the policy of insurance or security is in force in relation to the use of the vehicle.

144B Exceptions to section 144A offence

- (1) A person (“the registered keeper”) in whose name a vehicle which does not meet the insurance requirements is registered at any particular time (“the relevant time”) does not commit an offence under section 144A of this Act at that time if any of the following conditions are satisfied.
- (2) The first condition is that at the relevant time the vehicle is owned as described –
 - (a) in subsection (1) of section 144 of this Act, or
 - (b) in paragraph (a), (b), (da), (db), (dc) or (g) of subsection (2) of that section, (whether or not at the relevant time it is being driven as described in that provision).
- (3) The second condition is that at the relevant time the vehicle is owned with the intention that it should be used as described in paragraph (c), (d), (e) or (f) of section 144(2) of this Act.
- (4) The third condition is that the registered keeper –
 - (a) is not at the relevant time the person keeping the vehicle, and
 - (b) if previously he was the person keeping the vehicle, he has by the relevant time complied with any requirements under subsection (7)(a) below that he is required to have complied with by the relevant or any earlier time.

- (5) The fourth condition is that—
 - (a) the registered keeper is at the relevant time the person keeping the vehicle,
 - (b) at the relevant time the vehicle is not used on a road or other public place, and
 - (c) the registered keeper has by the relevant time complied with any requirements under subsection (7)(a) below that he is required to have complied with by the relevant or any earlier time.
- (6) The fifth condition is that—
 - (a) the vehicle has been stolen before the relevant time,
 - (b) the vehicle has not been recovered by the relevant time, and
 - (c) any requirements under subsection (7)(b) below that, in connection with the theft, are required to have been complied with by the relevant or any earlier time have been complied with by the relevant time.
- (7) Regulations may make provision—
 - (a) for the purposes of subsection (4)(b) and (5)(c) above, requiring a person in whose name a vehicle is registered to furnish such particulars and make such declarations as may be prescribed, and to do so at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed, and
 - (b) for the purposes of subsection (6)(c) above, as to the persons to whom, the times at which and the manner in which the theft of a vehicle is to be notified.
- (8) Regulations may make provision amending this section for the purpose of providing for further exceptions to section 144A of this Act (or varying or revoking any such further exceptions).
- (9) A person accused of an offence under section 144A of this Act is not entitled to the benefit of an exception conferred by or under this section unless evidence is adduced that is sufficient to raise an issue with respect to that exception; but where evidence is so adduced it is for the prosecution to prove beyond reasonable doubt that the exception does not apply.

144C Fixed penalty notices

- (1) Where on any occasion the Secretary of State has reason to believe that a person has committed an offence under section 144A of this Act, the Secretary of State may give the person a notice offering him the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for that offence by payment of a fixed penalty to the Secretary of State.
- (2) Where a person is given a notice under this section in respect of an offence under section 144A of this Act—
 - (a) no proceedings may be instituted for that offence before the end of the period of 21 days following the date of the notice, and
 - (b) he may not be convicted of that offence if he pays the fixed penalty before the end of that period.

- (3) A notice under this section must give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the offence.
- (4) A notice under this section must also state –
 - (a) the period during which, by virtue of subsection (2) above, proceedings will not be taken for the offence,
 - (b) the amount of the fixed penalty, and
 - (c) the person to whom and the address at which the fixed penalty may be paid.
- (5) Without prejudice to payment by any other method, payment of the fixed penalty may be made by pre-paying and posting a letter containing the amount of the penalty (in cash or otherwise) to the person mentioned in subsection (4)(c) above at the address so mentioned.
- (6) Where a letter is sent in accordance with subsection (5) above payment is to be regarded as having been made at the time at which that letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
- (7) Regulations may make provision as to any matter incidental to the operation of this section, and in particular –
 - (a) as to the form of a notice under this section,
 - (b) as to the information to be provided in such a notice by virtue of this section, and
 - (c) as to any further information to be provided in a such notice.
- (8) The fixed penalty payable under this section is, subject to subsection (9) below, £100.
- (9) Regulations may substitute a different amount for the amount for the time being specified in subsection (8) above.
- (10) Regulations may make provision for treating a fixed penalty payable under this section as having been paid if a lesser amount is paid before the end of a prescribed period.
- (11) In any proceedings a certificate which –
 - (a) purports to be signed by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) states that payment of a fixed penalty was or was not received by a date specified in the certificate,is evidence of the facts stated.

- (2) In section 29 (penalty points to be taken into account on conviction), after subsection (2) insert—
 - “(2A) Subsection (1)(b) above has effect subject to section 30A(4) of this Act.”

(3) After section 30 insert—

“30A Reduced penalty points for attendance on course

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person is convicted of a specified offence by or before a court,
 - (b) penalty points are to be attributed to the offence and the court does not order him to be disqualified, and
 - (c) at least seven but no more than eleven penalty points are to be taken into account on the occasion of the conviction.
- (2) In this section “specified offence” means—
 - (a) an offence under section 3 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (careless, and inconsiderate, driving),
 - (b) an offence under section 36 of that Act (failing to comply with traffic signs),
 - (c) an offence under section 17(4) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (use of special road contrary to scheme or regulations), or
 - (d) an offence under section 89(1) of that Act (exceeding speed limit).
- (3) But the Secretary of State may by regulations amend subsection (2) above by adding other offences or removing offences.
- (4) Where this section applies, the court may make an order that three of the penalty points attributed to the offence (or all of them if three or fewer are so attributed) shall not be taken into account under section 29(1)(b) of this Act on the occasion of any conviction of an offence after the end of the period of twelve months beginning with the date of the order if, by the relevant date, the offender completes an approved course specified in the order.
- (5) In subsection (4) above—

“an approved course” means a course approved by the appropriate national authority for the purposes of this section in relation to the description of offence of which the offender is convicted, and

“the relevant date” means such date, no later than ten months after the day on which the order is made, as is specified in the order.
- (6) A court shall not make an order under this section in the case of an offender convicted of an offence if—
 - (a) the offender has, during the period of three years ending with the date on which the offence was committed, committed a specified offence and successfully completed an approved course pursuant to an order made under this section or section 34A of this Act on conviction of that offence, or
 - (b) the offence was committed during his probationary period.
- (7) A court shall not make an order under this section in the case of an offender unless—
 - (a) the court is satisfied that a place on the course specified in the order will be available for the offender,
 - (b) the offender appears to the court to be of or over the age of 17,

- (c) the court has informed the offender (orally or in writing and in ordinary language) of the effect of the order and of the amount of the fees which he is required to pay for the course and when he must pay them, and
- (d) the offender has agreed that the order should be made.

30B Certificates of completion of courses

- (1) An offender shall be regarded for the purposes of section 30A of this Act as having completed a course satisfactorily if (and only if) a certificate that he has done so is received by the proper officer of the supervising court.
- (2) A course provider must give a certificate under subsection (1) above to the offender not later than fourteen days after the date specified in the order as the latest date for the completion of the course unless the offender –
 - (a) fails to make due payment of fees for the course,
 - (b) fails to attend the course in accordance with the course provider's reasonable instructions, or
 - (c) fails to comply with any other reasonable requirement of the course provider.
- (3) A certificate under subsection (1) above is to be given by the course provider and shall be in such form, and contain such particulars, as may be prescribed by, or determined in accordance with, regulations made by the appropriate national authority.
- (4) Where a course provider decides not to give a certificate under subsection (1) above to the offender, he shall give written notice of the decision to the offender as soon as possible, and in any event not later than fourteen days after the date specified in the order as the latest date for completion of the course.
- (5) An offender to whom a notice is given under subsection (4) above may, within such period as may be prescribed by rules of court, apply to the supervising court, or (if the supervising court is not the Crown Court, the High Court of Justiciary or the relevant local court) to either the supervising court or the relevant local court, for a declaration that the course provider's decision not to give a certificate under subsection (1) above was contrary to subsection (2) above.
- (6) If the court grants the application, section 30A of this Act shall have effect as if the certificate had been duly received by the proper officer of the supervising court.
- (7) If fourteen days after the date specified in the order as the latest date for completion of the course the course provider has given neither the certificate under subsection (1) above nor a notice under subsection (4) above, the offender may, within such period as may be prescribed by rules of court, apply to the supervising court, or (if the supervising court is not the Crown Court, the High Court of Justiciary or the relevant local court) to either the supervising court or the relevant local court, for a declaration that the course provider is in default.

- (8) If the court grants the application, section 30A of this Act shall have effect as if the certificate had been duly received by the proper officer of the supervising court.
- (9) A notice under subsection (4) above shall specify the ground on which it is given; and the appropriate national authority may by regulations make provision as to the form of notices under that subsection and as to the circumstances in which they are to be treated as given.
- (10) Where the proper office of a court receives a certificate under subsection (1) above, or a court grants an application under subsection (5) or (7) above, the proper officer or court must send notice of that fact to the Secretary of State; and the notice must be sent in such manner and to such address, and must contain such particulars, as the Secretary of State may determine.

30C Approval of courses

- (1) If an application is made to the appropriate national authority for the approval of a course for the purposes of section 30A of this Act, the appropriate national authority must decide whether to grant or refuse the application.
- (2) In reaching that decision the appropriate national authority must have regard to—
 - (a) the nature of the course, and
 - (b) whether the course provider is an appropriate person to provide the course and administer its provision efficiently and effectively,and may take into account any recommendations made by any persons appointed to consider the application.
- (3) A course may be approved subject to conditions specified by the appropriate national authority.
- (4) An approval of a course is for the period specified by the appropriate national authority (which must not exceed seven years), subject to withdrawal of approval.
- (5) Regulations made by the appropriate national authority may make provision in relation to the approval of courses and may, in particular, include provision—
 - (a) in relation to the making of applications for approval,
 - (b) for the payment in respect of applications for approval, or of approvals, (or of both) of fees of such amounts as are prescribed by the regulations,
 - (c) specifying the maximum fees that a person may be required to pay for a course and by when they are to be paid,
 - (d) for the monitoring of courses and course providers,
 - (e) in relation to withdrawing approval,
 - (f) for an appeal to lie to the Transport Tribunal against a refusal of an application for approval, the imposition of conditions on the grant of such an application or the withdrawal of approval, and
 - (g) authorising the appropriate national authority to make available (with or without charge) information about courses and course providers.

30D Provisions supplementary to sections 30A to 30C

- (1) The appropriate national authority may issue guidance to course providers, or to any category of course provider, as to the conduct of courses approved for the purposes of section 30A of this Act; and—
 - (a) course providers shall have regard to any guidance given to them under this subsection, and
 - (b) in determining for the purposes of section 30B of this Act whether any instructions or requirements of a course provider were reasonable, a court shall have regard to any guidance given to him under this subsection.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) amending section 30A(1)(c) of this Act by substituting for the lower number of penalty points for the time being specified there a different number of penalty points, or
 - (b) amending section 30A(6)(a) of this Act by substituting for the period for the time being specified there a different period.
- (3) In sections 30A to 30C of this Act and this section—

“appropriate national authority” means (as respects Wales) the National Assembly for Wales and (otherwise) the Secretary of State;

“course provider”, in relation to a course, means the person by whom it is, or is to be, provided;

“probationary period” has the meaning given in section 1 of the Road Traffic (New Drivers) Act 1995;

“proper officer” means—

 - (a) in relation to a magistrates’ court in England and Wales, the designated officer for the court, and
 - (b) otherwise, the clerk of the court;

“relevant local court”, in relation to an order made under section 30A of this Act in the case of an offender, means—

 - (a) in England and Wales, a magistrates’ court acting for the local justice area in which the offender resides, and
 - (b) in Scotland, the sheriff court for the district where the offender resides or, where the order is made by a stipendiary magistrate and the offender resides within his commission area, the district court for that area; and

“supervising court”, in relation to an order under section 30A of this Act, means—

 - (a) in England and Wales, if the Crown Court made the order the Crown Court and otherwise a magistrates’ court acting for the same local justice area as the court which made the order, and
 - (b) in Scotland, the court which made the order.
- (4) Any power to make regulations under section 30A, 30B or 30C of this Act or this section includes power to make different provision for different cases, and to make such incidental or supplementary provision as appears to the appropriate national authority to be necessary or appropriate.

- (5) Any power to make regulations under section 30A, 30B or 30C of this Act or this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (6) No regulations shall be made under section 30A of this Act or this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations made under section 30B or 30C of this Act by the Secretary of State shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

35 Reduced disqualification period for attendance on course

For sections 34A to 34C of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) substitute—

“34A Reduced disqualification for attendance on courses

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person is convicted of a relevant drink offence or a specified offence by or before a court, and
 - (b) the court makes an order under section 34 of this Act disqualifying him for a period of not less than twelve months.
- (2) In this section “relevant drink offence” means—
 - (a) an offence under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 3A of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (causing death by careless driving when unfit to drive through drink) committed when unfit to drive through drink,
 - (b) an offence under paragraph (b) of that subsection (causing death by careless driving with excess alcohol),
 - (c) an offence under paragraph (c) of that subsection (failing to provide a specimen) where the specimen is required in connection with drink or consumption of alcohol,
 - (d) an offence under section 4 of that Act (driving or being in charge when under influence of drink) committed by reason of unfitness through drink,
 - (e) an offence under section 5(1) of that Act (driving or being in charge with excess alcohol),
 - (f) an offence under section 7(6) of that Act (failing to provide a specimen) committed in the course of an investigation into an offence within any of the preceding paragraphs, or
 - (g) an offence under section 7A(6) of that Act (failing to allow a specimen to be subjected to a laboratory test) in the course of an investigation into an offence within any of the preceding paragraphs.
- (3) In this section “specified offence” means—
 - (a) an offence under section 3 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (careless, and inconsiderate, driving),
 - (b) an offence under section 36 of that Act (failing to comply with traffic signs),
 - (c) an offence under section 17(4) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (use of special road contrary to scheme or regulations), or

- (d) an offence under section 89(1) of that Act (exceeding speed limit).
- (4) But the Secretary of State may by regulations amend subsection (3) above by adding other offences or removing offences.
- (5) Where this section applies, the court may make an order that the period of disqualification imposed under section 34 of this Act (“the unreduced period”) shall be reduced if, by the relevant date, the offender satisfactorily completes an approved course specified in the order.
- (6) In subsection (5) above—
“an approved course” means a course approved by the appropriate national authority for the purposes of this section in relation to the description of offence of which the offender is convicted, and
“the relevant date” means such date, at least two months before the last day of the period of disqualification as reduced by the order, as is specified in the order.
- (7) The reduction made in a period of disqualification by an order under this section is a period specified in the order of—
(a) not less than three months, and
(b) not more than one quarter of the unreduced period,
(and, accordingly, where the unreduced period is twelve months, the reduced period is nine months).
- (8) A court shall not make an order under this section in the case of an offender convicted of a specified offence if—
(a) the offender has, during the period of three years ending with the date on which the offence was committed, committed a specified offence and successfully completed an approved course pursuant to an order made under this section or section 30A of this Act on conviction of that offence, or
(b) the specified offence was committed during his probationary period.
- (9) A court shall not make an order under this section in the case of an offender unless—
(a) the court is satisfied that a place on the course specified in the order will be available for the offender,
(b) the offender appears to the court to be of or over the age of 17,
(c) the court has informed the offender (orally or in writing and in ordinary language) of the effect of the order and of the amount of the fees which he is required to pay for the course and when he must pay them, and
(d) the offender has agreed that the order should be made.

34B Certificates of completion of courses

- (1) An offender shall be regarded for the purposes of section 34A of this Act as having completed a course satisfactorily if (and only if) a certificate that he has done so is received by the proper officer of the supervising court before the end of the unreduced period.

- (2) If a certificate under subsection (1) above is so received before the end of the unreduced period but after the end of the period which would (apart from this subsection) be the reduced period, the reduced period is to be taken to end with the day on which the certificate is so received.
- (3) A certificate under subsection (1) above is to be given by the course provider and shall be in such form, and contain such particulars, as may be prescribed by, or determined in accordance with, regulations made by the appropriate national authority.
- (4) A course provider must give a certificate under subsection (1) above to the offender not later than fourteen days after the date specified in the order as the latest date for the completion of the course unless the offender –
 - (a) fails to make due payment of fees for the course,
 - (b) fails to attend the course in accordance with the course provider's reasonable instructions, or
 - (c) fails to comply with any other reasonable requirement of the course provider.
- (5) Where a course provider decides not to give a certificate under subsection (1) above to the offender, he shall give written notice of the decision to the offender as soon as possible, and in any event not later than fourteen days after the date specified in the order as the latest date for completion of the course.
- (6) An offender to whom a notice is given under subsection (5) above may, within such period as may be prescribed by rules of court, apply to the supervising court, or (if the supervising court is not the Crown Court, the High Court of Justiciary or the relevant local court) to either the supervising court or the relevant local court, for a declaration that the course provider's decision not to give a certificate under subsection (1) above was contrary to subsection (4) above.
- (7) If the court grants the application, section 34A of this Act shall have effect as if the certificate had been duly received by the proper officer of the supervising court.
- (8) If fourteen days after the date specified in the order as the latest date for completion of the course the course provider has given neither a certificate under subsection (1) above nor a notice under subsection (5) above, the offender may, within such period as may be prescribed by rules of court, apply to the supervising court, or (if the supervising court is not the Crown Court, the High Court of Justiciary or the relevant local court) to either the supervising court or the relevant local court, for a declaration that the course provider is in default.
- (9) If the court grants the application, section 34A of this Act shall have effect as if the certificate had been duly received by the proper officer of the supervising court.
- (10) A notice under subsection (5) above shall specify the ground on which it is given; and the appropriate national authority may by regulations make provision as to the form of notices under that subsection and as to the circumstances in which they are to be treated as given.
- (11) Where the proper officer of a court receives a certificate under subsection (1) above, or a court grants an application under subsection

(6) or (8) above, the proper officer or court must send notice of that fact to the Secretary of State; and the notice must be sent in such manner and to such address, and must contain such particulars, as the Secretary of State may determine.

34BA Approval of courses

- (1) If an application is made to the appropriate national authority for the approval of a course for the purposes of section 34A of this Act, the appropriate national authority must decide whether to grant or refuse the application.
- (2) In reaching that decision the appropriate national authority must have regard to—
 - (a) the nature of the course, and
 - (b) whether the course provider is an appropriate person to provide the course and administer its provision efficiently and effectively,and may take into account any recommendations made by any persons appointed to consider the application.
- (3) A course may be approved subject to conditions specified by the appropriate national authority.
- (4) An approval of a course is for the period specified by the appropriate national authority (which must not exceed seven years), subject to withdrawal of approval.
- (5) Regulations made by the appropriate national authority may make provision in relation to the approval of courses and may, in particular, include provision—
 - (a) in relation to the making of applications for approval,
 - (b) for the payment in respect of applications for approval, or of approvals, (or of both) of fees of such amounts as are prescribed by the regulations,
 - (c) specifying the maximum fees that a person may be required to pay for a course and by when they are to be paid,
 - (d) for the monitoring of courses and course providers,
 - (e) in relation to withdrawing approval,
 - (f) for an appeal to lie to the Transport Tribunal against a refusal of an application for approval, the imposition of conditions on the grant of such an application or the withdrawal of approval, and
 - (g) authorising the appropriate national authority to make available (with or without charge) information about courses and course providers.

34C Provisions supplementary to sections 34A to 34BA

- (1) The appropriate national authority may issue guidance to course providers, or to any category of course provider, as to the conduct of courses approved for the purposes of section 34A of this Act; and—
 - (a) course providers shall have regard to any guidance given to them under this subsection, and
 - (b) in determining for the purposes of section 34B of this Act whether any instructions or requirements of a course provider were reasonable, a court shall have regard to any guidance given to him under this subsection.

- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) amending section 34A(1)(b) of this Act by substituting for the period for the time being specified there a different period,
 - (b) amending section 34A(7) of this Act by substituting for the period for the time being specified there a different period, or by substituting for the fraction of the unreduced period for the time being specified there a different fraction of that period, (or by doing both), or
 - (c) amending section 34A(8)(a) of this Act by substituting for the period for the time being specified there a different period.
- (3) In sections 34A to 34BA of this Act and this section—

“appropriate national authority” means (as respects Wales) the National Assembly for Wales and (otherwise) the Secretary of State;

“course provider”, in relation to a course, means the person by whom it is, or is to be, provided;

“probationary period” has the meaning given in section 1 of the Road Traffic (New Drivers) Act 1995;

“proper officer” means—

 - (a) in relation to a magistrates’ court in England and Wales, the designated officer for the court, and
 - (b) otherwise, the clerk of the court;

“relevant local court”, in relation to an order under section 34A of this Act in the case of an offender, means—

 - (a) in England and Wales, a magistrates’ court acting for the local justice area in which the offender resides, and
 - (b) in Scotland, the sheriff court for the district where the offender resides or, where the order is made by a stipendiary magistrate and the offender resides within his commission area, the district court for that area; and

“supervising court”, in relation to an order under section 34A of this Act, means—

 - (a) in England and Wales, if the Crown Court made the order the Crown Court and otherwise a magistrates’ court acting for the same local justice area as the court which made the order, and
 - (b) in Scotland, the court which made the order.
- (4) Any power to make regulations under section 34A, 34B or 34BA of this Act or this section includes power to make different provision for different cases, and to make such incidental or supplementary provision as appears necessary or appropriate.
- (5) Any power to make regulations under section 34A, 34B or 34BA of this Act or this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (6) No regulations shall be made under section 34A of this Act or this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

- (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations made under section 34B or 34BA of this Act by the Secretary of State shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

Driving standards

36 Driving tests

- (1) Section 89 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52) (driving tests) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (3) (regulations about nature of tests) –
- (a) in paragraph (a), insert at the end “and the administrative arrangements for submitting for such tests”,
 - (b) in paragraph (b), after “conducted” insert “, conditions which must be satisfied during the currency of an appointment, the charging of reasonable fees in respect of applications for appointment or appointments or in connection with any examination or assessment which may be required before appointment or during the currency of any appointment”, and
 - (c) after that paragraph insert –
 - “(ba) the duty of a person submitting himself for a test to produce, and in prescribed circumstances surrender, any licence previously granted to him,”.
- (3) In subsection (4) (provision that may be included in regulations under subsection (3)) –
- (a) for “In particular, regulations may, without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3) above,” substitute “Regulations under subsection (3)(a) above may in particular”,
 - (b) in paragraph (a) (provision by person submitting himself for driving test of vehicle which, if loading requirements are prescribed, is loaded in accordance with prescribed requirements), for “a vehicle” substitute “a safe and suitable vehicle”,
 - (c) in that paragraph, for the words after “the test” substitute “and for requiring that, if the vehicle is a vehicle of a prescribed description, it has been certified in the prescribed manner after a prescribed inspection as satisfying such requirements as may be prescribed,”, and
 - (d) for paragraph (b) substitute –
 - “(b) for the charging (whether on the making of an appointment for a test or otherwise) of reasonable fees for or in connection with the test and any inspection of a vehicle required by regulations under paragraph (a) above in relation to the test,”.
- (4) In subsection (5) (driving tests in parts), omit paragraph (b) and the word “and” before it.
- (5) After that subsection insert –
- “(5ZA) Regulations under subsection (3)(b) above may in particular provide –
- (a) for the supply by the Secretary of State to persons by whom tests of competence to drive, or parts of such tests, may be conducted of forms for certificates evidencing the results of such tests or parts of such tests, and

*Supplementary59 Repeals and revocations

Schedule 7 contains repeals and revocations (including repeals of some spent enactments).

60 Power to make amendments

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order make such amendments (including repeals and revocations) as may appear appropriate in consequence of any provision contained in this Act—
 - (a) in any enactment contained in an Act passed, and
 - (b) in any instrument made,before, or in the same Session as that in which, the provision comes into force.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) may include any appropriate transitional provisions or savings.
- (3) The power to make an order under subsection (1) is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (4) No order shall be made under subsection (1) unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

61 Commencement

- (1) The preceding provisions of this Act come into force on such day as the Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument appoint (but subject to subsections (7) to (10)).
- (2) Different days may be appointed for different purposes.
- (3) Any provision of this Act which alters any penalty for an offence has effect only in relation to offences committed after the coming into force of the provision.
- (4) Section 2B of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52) (inserted by section 20) has effect only in relation to driving occurring after the coming into force of that section; and section 3ZB of that Act (inserted by section 21) has effect only in relation to driving occurring after the coming into force of that section.
- (5) In relation to an offence under section 2B or 3ZB of the Road Traffic Act 1988 committed before the commencement of section 154(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), the references in column 4 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) relating to offences under those sections have effect with the omission of the words “12 months (in England and Wales) or” and “(in Scotland)”.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument make such transitional provisions and savings as he considers appropriate in connection with the coming into force of any provision of this Act.
- (7) The following provisions come into force at the end of the period of two months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed—
 - (a) section 1, and
 - (b) section 49.

- (8) The day on which sections 8 and 9 and Schedule 2 (and the repeals contained in Schedule 7 under the heading “Endorsement: unlicensed and foreign drivers”) come into force must be—
 - (a) later than the day on which section 5 and Schedule 1 (and the repeals contained in Schedule 7 under the heading “Giving of fixed penalty notices by vehicle examiners”) come into force, but
 - (b) earlier than the day on which section 10 and Schedule 3 (and the repeals contained in Schedule 7 under the heading “Endorsement: all drivers”) come into force.
- (9) Sections 51, 58 and 60, and the repeals contained in Schedule 7 under the heading “Spent enactments” (and section 59 so far as relating to them), come into force on the day on which this Act is passed; but—
 - (a) section 51(2) does not affect anything done or omitted to be done before that day, and
 - (b) section 58(6) has effect only in relation to offences committed on or after that day.
- (10) Any power to make an order or regulations which is conferred by any provision of this Act may be exercised at any time after the passing of this Act.

62 Extent

- (1) Section 1 extends only to England and Wales.
- (2) Section 11(3) and Schedule 4, section 16 and section 51 extend only to England and Wales and Scotland.
- (3) Section 49(2) extends only to Northern Ireland.
- (4) Apart from the amendments made by sections 1 and 46, the amendments (and repeals and revocations) made by this Act have the same extent as the enactments and instruments amended (or repealed or revoked).

63 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Road Safety Act 2006.

“58A Effect of endorsement of driving record without hearing

- (1) Where a person’s driving record is endorsed under section 57A of this Act he shall be treated for the purposes of sections 13(4), 28, 29 and 45A of this Act and of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 as if –
- (a) he had been convicted of the offence,
- (b) the endorsement had been made in pursuance of an order made on his conviction by a court under section 44 of this Act, and
- (c) the particulars of the offence endorsed by virtue of section 57A(6)(a) of this Act were particulars of his conviction of that offence.
- (2) In relation to any endorsement of a person’s driving record under section 57A of this Act, the references in section 13(4) of this Act to any order made on a person’s conviction are to be read as references to the endorsement itself.”
- 18 In section 61 (fixed penalty notice mistakenly given: exclusion of fixed penalty procedures), in the heading, after “given” insert “to licence holder”.
- 19 After that section insert –

“61A Fixed penalty notice mistakenly given to unlicensed person: exclusion of fixed penalty procedures

- (1) This section applies where, on accessing information held on the driving record of a person to whom a fixed penalty notice was given under section 54 of this Act, but who is not the holder of a licence, it appears to the fixed penalty clerk or the Secretary of State that the person would be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence in respect of which the fixed penalty notice was given.
- (2) The person’s driving record must not be endorsed under section 57A of this Act.
- (3) In a case where the fixed penalty is required to be paid to the fixed penalty clerk he must not send notice to the Secretary of State under section 57A of this Act but instead must notify the chief officer of police that the person to whom the fixed penalty notice was given would be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence in respect of which the fixed penalty notice was given.

- (4) Nothing in this Part of this Act prevents proceedings being brought in respect of the offence in respect of which the fixed penalty notice was given where those proceedings are commenced before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which that notice was given.
- (5) Where proceedings in respect of that offence are commenced before the end of that period, the case is from then on to be treated in all respects as if no fixed penalty notice had been given in respect of the offence.
- (6) Accordingly, where proceedings in respect of that offence are so commenced, any action taken in pursuance of this Part of this Act by reference to that fixed penalty notice shall be void (including, but without prejudice to the generality of the preceding provision –
 - (a) the registration under section 71 of this Act of any sum, determined by reference to the fixed penalty for that offence, for enforcement against the person to whom the fixed penalty notice was given, and
 - (b) any proceedings for enforcing payment of any such sum within the meaning of sections 73 and 74 of this Act (defined in section 74(5)).
- (7) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1) above whether a person convicted of an offence would be liable to disqualification under section 35, it shall be assumed, in the case of an offence in relation to which a range of numbers is shown in the last column of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to this Act, that the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence would be the lowest in the range.”

- 20 In section 69(4) (payment of penalty), for “77” substitute “77A”.
- 21 (1) In section 70(4) (registration certificates), after paragraph (b) insert “and
 - (c) otherwise –
 - (i) if the offence to which the fixed penalty notice or conditional offer relates was committed in England or Wales, cause it to be sent to the designated officer for the local justice area in which the offence was committed, or
 - (ii) if the offence was committed in Scotland, cause it to be sent to the clerk of a court of summary jurisdiction for the area in which the offence was committed.”
- (2) An order under section 61 may provide that sub-paragraph (1) is to come into force only in relation to an area specified in the order.
- (3) If such an order provides that sub-paragraph (1) is to come into force only in relation to an area specified in the order, it may also provide that (unless continued in force by a subsequent order) sub-paragraph (1) is to remain in force there only for a period specified in the order.
- 22 (1) Section 71 (registration of sums payable in default) is amended as follows.
 - (2) In subsection (1), after paragraph (a) insert “or” and after paragraph (c) insert “or

- (d) if it appears to him that the defaulter does not reside in England, Wales or Scotland –
 - (i) in a case where the offence to which the fixed penalty notice or conditional offer relates was committed in the local justice area for which he is the designated officer, he must register that sum for enforcement as a fine in that area by entering it in the register of a magistrates’ court acting in that area,
 - (ii) in a case where it was committed in another local justice area in England and Wales, he must send the certificate to the designated officer for that area, and
 - (iii) in a case where it was committed in Scotland, he must send the certificate to the clerk of a court of summary jurisdiction for the area in which the offence was committed.”

- (3) In subsection (2), after paragraph (a) insert “or” and after paragraph (c) insert “or

- (d) if it appears to him that the defaulter does not reside in England, Wales or Scotland –
 - (i) in a case where the offence to which the fixed penalty notice or conditional offer relates was committed in the area of the court, he must register that sum for enforcement as a fine by that court,
 - (ii) in a case where it was committed in an area of any other court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland, he must send the certificate to the clerk of that court, and
 - (iii) in a case where it was committed in England or Wales, he must send the certificate to the designated officer for the local justice area in which the offence was committed.”

- (4) An order under section 61 may provide that sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) are to come into force only in relation to an area specified in the order.
- (5) If such an order provides that sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) are to come into force only in relation to an area specified in the order, it may also provide that (unless continued in force by a subsequent order) sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) are to remain in force there only for a period specified in the order.

- 23 (1) Section 72 (notices on-the-spot etc.: when registration and endorsement invalid) is amended as follows.

- (2) After subsection (4) insert –

“(4A) Where in any case within subsection (2)(a) above the driving record of the person to whom the relevant fixed penalty notice was given was endorsed under section 57A of this Act in respect of the offence in respect of which the notice was given, the endorsement shall be void.”

- (3) In subsection (5)(a), after “57” insert “or 57A”.

- (4) After subsection (6) insert –
- “(6A) The proper officer of the relevant court must send notice to the Secretary of State of any endorsement of a person’s driving record that is void by virtue of this section and the Secretary of State must adjust the endorsements on that record accordingly.”
- 24 (1) Section 75 (issue of conditional offer) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (5), for “and 77” substitute “, 77 and 77A”.
- (3) In subsection (6), for “and 77” substitute “, 77 and 77A”.
- (4) In subsection (8), after “conditional offer” insert “sent to an alleged offender who is the holder of a licence”.
- (5) After subsection (8) insert –
- “(8A) A conditional offer sent to an alleged offender who is not the holder of a licence must indicate that if the following conditions are fulfilled, that is –
- (a) within the period of twenty-eight days following the date on which the offer was issued, or such longer period as may be specified in the offer, the alleged offender makes payment of the fixed penalty to the appropriate person, and
- (b) the appropriate person is satisfied, on accessing information held on the driving record of the alleged offender, that if he were convicted of the offence, he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act,
- any liability to conviction of the offence shall be discharged.”
- (6) In subsection (9) –
- (a) for “condition” substitute “conditions”, and
- (b) after “(8)(b)” insert “and (8A)(b)”.
- (7) In subsection (11A), for “and 77” substitute “, 77 and 77A”.
- 25 (1) Section 76 (effect of offer and payment of penalty) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (3) –
- (a) in paragraph (a), after “counterpart” insert “or (where the alleged offender is not the holder of a licence) accessing information held on his driving record”, and
- (b) in paragraph (b), after “with” insert “(where he is the holder of a licence)”.
- (3) In subsection (4), after “75(8)(a)” insert “or (8A)(a)”.
- 26 (1) Section 77 (endorsement where penalty paid) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1)(a), after “a person” insert “who is the holder of a licence”.
- (3) In the heading, after “endorsement” insert “of counterparts”.
- 27 After that section insert –
- “77A Endorsement of driving records where penalty paid
- (1) Where –

- (a) in pursuance of a conditional offer issued under subsection (1), (2) or (3) of section 75 of this Act a person who is not the holder of a licence (referred to in this section as the “alleged offender”) makes payment of the fixed penalty to the fixed penalty clerk, and
 - (b) proceedings against the alleged offender for the offence to which the conditional offer relates are excluded by section 76 of this Act, the fixed penalty clerk must forthwith send to the Secretary of State notice of the relevant particulars to be endorsed on the alleged offender’s driving record.

- (2) The Secretary of State must endorse the relevant particulars on a person’s driving record –
 - (a) on receiving notice under subsection (1) above, or
 - (b) if, in pursuance of a conditional offer issued under subsection (1A) or (3B) of section 75 of this Act, a person who is not the holder of a licence (also referred to in this section as the “alleged offender”) makes payment of the fixed penalty to him and proceedings against the alleged offender are excluded by section 76 of this Act.
- (3) Where in Scotland the appropriate person is the fixed penalty clerk and it appears to him that there is an error in an endorsement made by virtue of this section on a person’s driving record, he may send to the Secretary of State notice of the error.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, where a cheque tendered in payment is subsequently dishonoured –
 - (a) any endorsement made by the Secretary of State under subsection (2) above remains effective notwithstanding that the alleged offender is still liable to prosecution in respect of the alleged offence to which the endorsement relates, and
 - (b) unless the appropriate person is the Secretary of State, the appropriate person must upon expiry of the period specified in the conditional offer or, if the period has expired, forthwith notify the person required to be notified that no payment has been made.
- (5) When proceedings are brought against an alleged offender where subsection (4) above applies, the court –
 - (a) must order the removal of the fixed penalty endorsement from the driving record of the alleged offender,
 - (b) may, on finding the alleged offender guilty, make any competent order of endorsement or disqualification and pass any competent sentence, and
 - (c) must send to the Secretary of State notice of any order made under paragraph (a) or (b) above.
- (6) On receiving notice under subsection (3) above, the Secretary of State may correct the error in the endorsement on the driving record; and any endorsement corrected shall be treated for all purposes as if it had been correctly made on receipt of the fixed penalty.

- (7) On receiving a notice under subsection (5)(c) above, the Secretary of State must make any necessary adjustments to the endorsements on the alleged offender's driving record.
- (8) The references in subsection (1) and (2) above to the relevant particulars are to—
- (a) particulars of the offence, including the date when it was committed, and
 - (b) the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence.
- (9) Where a person's driving record is endorsed under this section he shall be treated for the purposes of sections 13(4), 28, 29 and 45A of this Act and of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 as if—
- (a) he had been convicted of the offence,
 - (b) the endorsement had been made in pursuance of an order made on his conviction by a court under section 44 of this Act, and
 - (c) the particulars of the offence endorsed by virtue of subsection (8)(a) above were particulars of his conviction of that offence.
- (10) In relation to any endorsement of a person's driving record under this section, the references in section 13(4) of this Act to any order made on a person's conviction are to be read as references to the endorsement itself.”
- 28 (1) Section 83 (powers of court in cases of deception) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) This section also applies where—
- (a) particulars are endorsed on a person's driving record under section 57A of this Act because the fixed penalty clerk or the Secretary of State is deceived as to whether endorsement under that section is excluded by section 61A(2) of this Act by virtue of the fact that the person to whom the fixed penalty notice was given would be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence, or
 - (b) particulars are endorsed on a person's driving record under section 77A of this Act because the appropriate person or court is deceived as to whether proceedings against the person are excluded by section 76 of this Act by virtue of the fact that the person to whom the conditional offer is issued would be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence.”
- (3) In subsection (2)—
- (a) in paragraph (a), for “licence holder” substitute “person to whom the fixed penalty notice was given or conditional offer was issued”,
 - (b) in paragraph (b), for “the licence holder” substitute “he”,
 - (c) after “57” insert “or 57A”, and
 - (d) after “77” insert “or 77A”.
- 29 In section 84(1) (regulations), after “54(4)” insert “or (5C)”.

30 After section 84 insert –

“84A Notices to Secretary of State

Any notice sent to the Secretary of State under this Part must be sent in such manner and to such address and contain such particulars as the Secretary of State may determine.”

31 In section 91ZA(1) (application to Northern Ireland licence holders) –

SCHEDULE 4

Section 11

PROHIBITION ON DRIVING: IMMOBILISATION, REMOVAL AND DISPOSAL OF VEHICLES

Cases to which regulations may apply

1 The Secretary of State may make regulations with respect to any case where, on or after such date as may be prescribed, the driving of a vehicle has been prohibited under –

(a) section 99A(1) of the Transport Act 1968 (c. 73) (powers to prohibit driving of vehicles in connection with contravention of provisions about drivers’ hours),

(b) section 1 of the Road Traffic (Foreign Vehicles) Act 1972 (c. 27) (powers to prohibit driving of foreign goods vehicles and foreign public service vehicles),

(c) section 69 or 70 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52) (powers to prohibit driving of unfit or overloaded vehicles), or

(d) section 90D of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) (power to prohibit driving of vehicle on failure to make payment in compliance with financial penalty deposit requirement).

Immobilisation

2 (1) The regulations may provide that an authorised person or a person acting under his direction may –

- (a) fix an immobilisation device to the vehicle, and
 - (b) move the vehicle, or direct it to be moved, for the purpose of enabling an immobilisation device to be fitted it.
- (2) The regulations may provide that on any occasion when an immobilisation device is fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations the person fixing the device must also fix to the vehicle a notice –
 - (a) indicating that the device has been fixed to the vehicle and warning that no attempt should be made to drive it or otherwise put it in motion until it has been released from the device,
 - (b) specifying the steps to be taken to secure its release, and
 - (c) giving such other information as may be prescribed.
 - (3) The regulations may provide that a vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been fixed in accordance with the regulations –
 - (a) may only be released from the device by or under the direction of an authorised person, but
 - (b) subject to that, must be released from the device if the first and second requirements specified below are met.
 - (4) The first requirement is that such charge in respect of the release as may be prescribed is paid in any manner specified in the immobilisation notice.
 - (5) The second requirement is that, in accordance with instructions specified in the immobilisation notice, there is produced such evidence as may be prescribed establishing that the prohibition has been removed.
 - (6) The regulations may provide that they do not apply in relation to a vehicle if –
 - (a) a current disabled person’s badge is displayed on the vehicle, or
 - (b) such other conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled, and “disabled person’s badge” means a badge issued, or having effect as if issued, under any regulations for the time being in force under section 21 of the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 (c. 44).
 - (7) The regulations may provide that an immobilisation notice is not to be removed or interfered with except by or on the authority of a person falling within a prescribed description.

Offences connected with immobilisation etc.

- 3 (1) The regulations may provide that a person who fails to comply within a reasonable time with a direction under provision made under paragraph 2(1)(b) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (2) The regulations may provide that a person contravening provision made under paragraph 2(7) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.
- (3) The regulations may provide that a person who, without being authorised to do so in accordance with provision made under paragraph 2, removes or attempts to remove an immobilisation device fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

- (4) The regulations may provide that where they would otherwise have applied in relation to a vehicle but for provision made under paragraph 2(6)(a) and the vehicle was not, at the time at which they would otherwise have applied, being used –
- (a) in accordance with regulations under section 21 of the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 (c. 44), and
 - (b) in circumstances falling within section 117(1)(b) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (c. 27) (use where a disabled person's concession would be available),
- the person in charge of the vehicle at that time is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (5) The regulations may provide that where –
- (a) a person makes a declaration with a view to securing the release of a vehicle from an immobilisation device purported to have been fixed in accordance with the regulations,
 - (b) the declaration is that the prohibition has been removed, and
 - (c) the declaration is to the person's knowledge either false or in any material respect misleading,
- he is guilty of an offence.
- (6) The regulations may provide that a person guilty of an offence for which provision is made under sub-paragraph (5) is liable –
- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or both.

Removal and disposal of vehicles

- 4 (1) The regulations may provide that where such conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled an authorised person, or a person acting under his direction, may remove the vehicle or direct it to be removed.
- (2) The regulations may provide that where such conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled an authorised person, or a person acting under his direction, may deliver the vehicle, or direct it to be delivered, into the custody of a person –
- (a) who is identified in accordance with prescribed rules, and
 - (b) who agrees to accept delivery in accordance with arrangements agreed between that person and the Secretary of State,
- and the arrangements may include provision as to the payment of a sum to the person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for such persons as may be prescribed to be informed that a vehicle has been removed and delivered into a person's custody and may, in particular, include provision requiring –
- (a) the publication by an authorised person of such notices as may be prescribed, and
 - (b) the giving of notice by an authorised person to such persons as may be prescribed.

- (4) The regulations may provide that the person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered may dispose of it, and may in particular make provision as to –
 - (a) the time at which the vehicle may be disposed of, and
 - (b) the manner in which it may be disposed of.
- (5) The regulations may make provision allowing a person to take possession of the vehicle if –
 - (a) he claims it before it is disposed of, and
 - (b) any prescribed conditions are fulfilled.
- (6) The regulations may provide for a sum of an amount arrived at under prescribed rules to be paid to a person if –
 - (a) he claims after the vehicle’s disposal to be or to have been its owner or to have been the person in charge of the vehicle when it was removed,
 - (b) the claim is made within a prescribed time of the disposal, and
 - (c) any other prescribed conditions are fulfilled.
- (7) The regulations may provide that (whether or not a claim is made under provision made under sub-paragraph (5) or (6)) –
 - (a) the Secretary of State, or
 - (b) a person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered under the regulations, may recover from the vehicle’s owner or the person in charge of the vehicle such charges as may be prescribed in respect of all or any of its release, removal, custody and disposal.
- (8) In sub-paragraph (7) “person in charge” and “owner”, in relation to a vehicle, means the person who was in charge of the vehicle or was the vehicle’s owner when it was removed.
- (9) The conditions prescribed under sub-paragraph (5) may include conditions as to –
 - (a) satisfying the person with custody that the claimant is the vehicle’s owner or was the person in charge of the vehicle when it was removed,
 - (b) the payment of prescribed charges in respect of the vehicle’s release, removal and custody, and
 - (c) the production of such evidence as may be prescribed establishing that the prohibition has been removed.
- (10) The regulations may in particular include provision for purposes corresponding to those of sections 101 and 102 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (c. 27) (disposal and charges) subject to such additions, omissions or other modifications as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

Offences as to securing possession of vehicles

- 5 (1) The regulations may provide that a person who fails to comply within a reasonable time with a direction under provision made under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) of paragraph 4 is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (2) The regulations may provide that where –

- (a) a person makes a declaration with a view to securing possession of a vehicle purported to have been delivered into the custody of a person in accordance with provision made under paragraph 4,
 - (b) the declaration is that the prohibition has been removed, and
 - (c) the declaration is to the person's knowledge either false or in any material respect misleading,
- he is guilty of an offence.
- (3) The regulations may provide that a person guilty of an offence for which provision is made under sub-paragraph (2) is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or both.

Disputes

- 6 The regulations may make provision about the proceedings to be followed where a dispute occurs as a result of the regulations, and may in particular make provision—
- (a) for an application to be made to a magistrates' court or (in Scotland) to the sheriff, or
 - (b) for a court to order a sum to be paid by the Secretary of State.

Authorised persons

- 7 As regards anything falling to be done under the regulations (such as receiving payment of a charge or other sum) the regulations may provide that it may be done—
- (a) by an authorised person, or
 - (b) by an authorised person or a person acting under his direction.

Application of Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53)

- 8 The regulations may make provision for the application of any or all of sections 1, 6, 11 and 12(1) of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 to an offence for which provision is made by the regulations.

Interpretation

- 9 References in this Schedule to a vehicle include references to any trailer drawn by the vehicle.
- 10 (1) This paragraph makes provision about the meaning of “authorised person” for the purposes of this Schedule.
- (2) Where the driving of the vehicle has been prohibited under section 99A(1) of the Transport Act 1968 (c. 73), section 1(2) of the Road Traffic (Foreign Vehicles) Act 1972 (c. 27) or section 69 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52), “authorised person” means—
- (a) an examiner appointed by the Secretary of State under section 66A of the Road Traffic Act 1988, or

- (b) a constable authorised by or on behalf of a chief officer of police to act for the purposes of the provision under which the driving of the vehicle has been prohibited.
- (3) Where the driving of the vehicle has been prohibited under section 1(3) of the Road Traffic (Foreign Vehicles) Act 1972 (c. 27), “authorised person” means a person authorised to exercise the powers of section 78 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52) with respect to the weighing of motor vehicles and trailers.
- (4) Where the driving of the vehicle has been prohibited under section 70 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, “authorised person” means a person mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) or a person authorised with the consent of the Secretary of State to act for the purposes of subsection (1) of that section by –
- (a) a highway authority other than the Secretary of State, or
 - (b) a local roads authority in Scotland.
- (5) Where the driving of the vehicle has been prohibited under section 90D of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53), “authorised person” means –
- (a) an examiner appointed by the Secretary of State under section 66A of the Road Traffic Act 1988, or
 - (b) a constable.
- 11 In this Schedule –
- (a) references to an immobilisation device are to a device or appliance which is an immobilisation device for the purposes of section 104 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (c. 27) (immobilisation of vehicles illegally parked), and
 - (b) references to an immobilisation notice are to a notice fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations.
- 12 In this Schedule “prescribed” means prescribed by the regulations.
- 13 (1) The regulations may make provision as to the meaning for the purposes of the regulations of “owner” as regards a vehicle.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may provide that for the purposes of the regulations the owner of a vehicle is taken to be the person in whose name it is then registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (c. 22).

Supplementary provisions about regulations

- 14 (1) The power to make regulations under this Schedule is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (2) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this Schedule is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Section 22

NEW SCHEDULE 2A TO THE ROAD TRAFFIC ACT 1988

The Schedule inserted after Schedule 2 to the Road Traffic Act 1988 is as

“SCHEDULE 2A

Section 144D

OFFENCE OF KEEPING VEHICLE WHICH DOES NOT MEET INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS: IMMOBILISATION, REMOVAL AND DISPOSAL OF VEHICLES

Immobilisation

- 1 (1) Regulations may make provision with respect to any case where an authorised person has reason to believe that, on or after such date as may be prescribed, an offence under section 144A of this Act is being committed as regards a vehicle which is stationary on a road or other public place.
- (2) The regulations may provide that the authorised person or a person acting under his direction may –
 - (a) fix an immobilisation device to the vehicle while it remains in the place where it is stationary, or
 - (b) move it from that place to another place on the same or another road or public place and fix an immobilisation device to it in that other place.
- (3) The regulations may provide that on any occasion when an immobilisation device is fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations the person fixing the device must also fix to the vehicle a notice –
 - (a) indicating that the device has been fixed to the vehicle and warning that no attempt should be made to drive it or otherwise put it in motion until it has been released from the device,
 - (b) specifying the steps to be taken to secure its release, and
 - (c) giving such other information as may be prescribed.
- (4) The regulations may provide that a vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been fixed in accordance with the regulations –
 - (a) may only be released from the device by or under the direction of an authorised person, but
 - (b) subject to that, must be released from the device if the first and second requirements specified below are met.
- (5) The first requirement is that such charge in respect of the release as may be prescribed is paid in any manner specified in the immobilisation notice.
- (6) The second requirement is that, in accordance with instructions specified in the immobilisation notice, there is produced such evidence as may be prescribed establishing –
 - (a) that any person who proposes to drive the vehicle away will not in doing so be guilty of an offence under section 143 of this Act, and
 - (b) that the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 is not guilty of an offence under section 144A of this Act as regards the vehicle.

- (7) The regulations may provide that they do not apply in relation to a vehicle if—
- (a) a current disabled person’s badge is displayed on the vehicle, or
 - (b) such other conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled, and “disabled person’s badge” means a badge issued, or having effect as if issued, under any regulations for the time being in force under section 21 of the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970.
- (8) The regulations may provide that an immobilisation notice is not to be removed or interfered with except by or on the authority of a person falling within a prescribed description.

Offences connected with immobilisation

- 2 (1) The regulations may provide that a person contravening provision made under paragraph 1(8) above is guilty of an offence.
- (2) The regulations may provide that a person who, without being authorised to do so in accordance with provision made under paragraph 1 above, removes or attempts to remove an immobilisation device fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations is guilty of an offence.
- (3) The regulations may provide that where they would apply in relation to a vehicle but for provision made under paragraph 1(7)(a) above and the vehicle was not, at the time it was stationary, being used—
- (a) in accordance with regulations under section 21 of the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970, and
 - (b) in circumstances falling within section 117(1)(b) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (use where a disabled person’s concession would be available),
- the person in charge of the vehicle at that time is guilty of an offence.
- (4) The regulations may provide that where—
- (a) a person makes a declaration with a view to securing the release of a vehicle from an immobilisation device purported to have been fixed in accordance with the regulations,
 - (b) the declaration is that no offence under section 144A of this Act is or was being committed as regards the vehicle, and
 - (c) the declaration is to the person’s knowledge either false or in any material respect misleading,
- he is guilty of an offence.

Removal and disposal of vehicles

- 3 (1) The regulations may make provision with respect to any case where—
- (a) an authorised person has reason to believe that an offence under section 144A of this Act is being committed as regards a vehicle which is stationary on a road or other

- public place, and such conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled, or
- (b) an authorised person has reason to believe that such an offence was being committed as regards a vehicle at a time when an immobilisation device which is fixed to the vehicle was fixed to it in accordance with the regulations, and such conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled.
- (2) The regulations may provide that the authorised person, or a person acting under his direction, may remove the vehicle and deliver it into the custody of a person –
- (a) who is identified in accordance with prescribed rules, and
 - (b) who agrees to accept delivery in accordance with arrangements agreed between that person and the Secretary of State,
- and the arrangements may include provision as to the payment of a sum to the person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered.
- (3) The regulations may provide that the person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered may dispose of it, and may in particular make provision as to –
- (a) the time at which the vehicle may be disposed of, and
 - (b) the manner in which it may be disposed of.
- (4) The regulations may make provision allowing a person to take possession of the vehicle if –
- (a) he claims it before it is disposed of, and
 - (b) any prescribed conditions are fulfilled.
- (5) The regulations may provide for a sum of an amount arrived at under prescribed rules to be paid to a person if –
- (a) he claims after the vehicle’s disposal to be or to have been its owner,
 - (b) the claim is made within a prescribed time of the disposal, and
 - (c) any other prescribed conditions are fulfilled.
- (6) The regulations may provide that –
- (a) the Secretary of State, or
 - (b) a person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered under the regulations,
- may recover from the vehicle’s owner (whether or not a claim is made under provision made under sub-paragraph (4) or (5) above) such charges as may be prescribed in respect of all or any of the following, namely its release, removal, custody and disposal; and “owner” means the person who was the owner when the vehicle was removed.
- (7) The conditions prescribed under sub-paragraph (4) above may include conditions as to –
- (a) satisfying the person with custody that the claimant is the vehicle’s owner,
 - (b) the payment of prescribed charges in respect of the vehicle’s release, removal and custody,

- (c) the production of such evidence as may be prescribed establishing that in driving the vehicle away the claimant will not be guilty of an offence under section 143 of this Act, and
 - (d) the production of such evidence as may be prescribed establishing that the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 is not guilty of an offence under section 144A of this Act as regards the vehicle.
- (8) The regulations may in particular include provision for purposes corresponding to those of sections 101 and 102 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (disposal and charges) subject to such additions, omissions or other modifications as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

Offences as to securing possession of vehicles

- 4 The regulations may provide that where—
- (a) a person makes a declaration with a view to securing possession of a vehicle purported to have been delivered into the custody of a person in accordance with provision made under paragraph 3 above,
 - (b) the declaration is that no offence under section 144A of this Act is or was being committed as regards the vehicle, and
 - (c) the declaration is to the person's knowledge either false or in any material respect misleading,
- he is guilty of an offence.

Disputes

- 5 The regulations may make provision about the proceedings to be followed where a dispute occurs as a result of the regulations, and may in particular make provision—
- (a) for an application to be made to a magistrates' court or (in Scotland) to the sheriff, or
 - (b) for a court to order a sum to be paid by the Secretary of State.

Authorised persons

- 6 As regards anything falling to be done under the regulations (such as receiving payment of a charge or other sum) the regulations may provide that it may be done—
- (a) by an authorised person, or
 - (b) by an authorised person or a person acting under his direction.

Application of Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988

- 7 The regulations may make provision for the application of any or all of sections 1, 6, 11 and 12(1) of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 to an offence for which provision is made by the regulations.

Interpretation

- 8 (1) The regulations may make provision as to the meaning for the purposes of the regulations of “owner” as regards a vehicle.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may provide that for the purposes of the regulations the owner of a vehicle is taken to be the person in whose name it is then registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994.
- 9 (1) The regulations may make provision as to the meaning in the regulations of “authorised person”.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may provide that—
- (a) references to an authorised person are to a person authorised by the Secretary of State for the purposes of the regulations,
 - (b) an authorised person may be a local authority or an employee of a local authority or a member of a police force or some other person, and
 - (c) different persons may be authorised for the purposes of different provisions of the regulations.
- 10 In this Schedule—
- (a) references to an immobilisation device are to a device or appliance which is an immobilisation device for the purposes of section 104 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (immobilisation of vehicles illegally parked), and
 - (b) references to an immobilisation notice are to a notice fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations.”

SCHEDULE 6

Section 42

DRIVING INSTRUCTION

Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52)

- 1 The Road Traffic Act 1988 is amended as follows.
- 2 For section 123 (instruction in the driving of motor cars to be given only by registered or licensed person) and the heading before it substitute—

“Instructors and instruction businesses to be registered

123 Requirement of registration

- (1) A person—
- (a) must not give paid driving instruction of any prescribed description unless he is registered in respect of the giving of that description of driving instruction, and
 - (b) must not carry on business in the provision of paid driving instruction of any prescribed description unless he is registered in respect of the carrying on of business in the provision of that description of driving instruction.

- (2) A person—
 - (a) must not give paid driving instruction of any prescribed description unless prescribed requirements as to the displaying of evidence that he is registered in respect of the giving of that description of driving instruction are complied with, and
 - (b) must not carry on business in the provision of paid driving instruction of any prescribed description unless prescribed requirements as to the displaying of evidence that he is registered in respect of the carrying on of business in the provision of that description of driving instruction are complied with.
- (3) In this Part of this Act “driving instruction” means instruction in relation to the driving of a motor vehicle.
- (4) Regulations under this Part which prescribe a description of driving instruction may do so by reference to—
 - (a) the class of motor vehicle to which the instruction relates,
 - (b) the description of persons to whom the instruction is given or provided, or
 - (c) the nature of the instruction or where or how it is given or provided.
- (5) For the purposes of this Part of this Act instruction is paid instruction if payment of money or money’s worth is, or is to be, made for the instruction by or in respect of the person to whom the instruction is given or provided.
- (6) Regulations may prescribe circumstances in which instruction provided free of charge shall be deemed to be given for payment of money by or in respect of the person to whom the instruction is given or provided.
- (7) For the purposes of this Part of this Act a person is “registered” if his name is in the register together with—
 - (a) an indication as to whether he is registered in respect of the giving of driving instruction or the carrying on of business in the provision of driving instruction (or both),
 - (b) an indication as to the description of driving instruction in respect of which he is registered, and
 - (c) such other particulars as may be prescribed,and “registration” shall be construed accordingly.
- (8) In this Part of this Act “the register” means the register established for the purposes of this Part of this Act under section 125 of this Act.

123A Paid driving instruction: offences

- (1) If driving instruction is given in contravention of section 123(1)(a) of this Act—
 - (a) the person by whom it is given,
 - (b) if that person is employed by another to give that instruction, that other (as well as that person), and

(c) if that person is a franchisee under a driving instruction franchise, the franchisor under the driving instruction franchise (as well as that person), is guilty of an offence.

(2) If a person contravenes section 123(1)(b) of this Act he is guilty of an offence.

(3) In proceedings against a person for an offence under subsection (1) or (2) above it shall be a defence for him to prove that he did not know, and had no reasonable cause to believe, that—

(a) in a case within paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above, or within subsection (2) above, he,

(b) in a case within paragraph (b) of subsection (1) above, the person employed by him, or

(c) in a case within paragraph (c) of that subsection, the person who was the franchisee under the driving instruction franchise, was not at the material time registered in respect of the description of driving instruction in question.

(4) If a person contravenes section 123(2) of this Act he is guilty of an offence.”

3 For section 124 (exemption of police instructors) substitute—

“124 Exemption from prohibitions imposed by section 123

(1) Regulations may prescribe circumstances in which section 123 of this Act shall not apply in relation to driving instruction, or driving instruction of a prescribed description.

(2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision for section 123(1)(a) and (2)(a) of this Act not to apply in prescribed circumstances for the purpose of enabling persons to acquire experience in giving driving instruction.”

“125 Register

(1) Regulations shall make provision for the establishment and maintenance of a register for the purposes of this Part of this Act.

(2) An application to be registered in respect of any description of driving instruction must be made to the officer of the Secretary of State (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the Registrar”) by whom the register is, on behalf of the Secretary of State, compiled and maintained.

(3) An application under subsection (2) above shall be made in such manner, and shall be accompanied by such particulars, as the Secretary of State may determine.

(4) The Registrar must, on making a decision on an application under subsection (2) above, give notice in writing of the decision to the applicant which, in the case of a decision to refuse the application, must state the grounds for the refusal.

- (5) Regulations may make provision authorising the Secretary of State to make available information about persons registered under this section.
- (6) Subsections (2) to (5) above and section 125ZA of this Act do not apply in relation to an application by a person to be registered, or to a person's registration, as a disabled instructor in respect of the giving of instruction in the driving of a motor vehicle in the motor vehicle."

5 After that section insert –

“125ZA Conditions of registration

- (1) Where a person duly applies to be registered in respect of a description of driving instruction, the Registrar must register him in respect of that description of driving instruction if he satisfies the Registrar that the conditions prescribed under this subsection are fulfilled.
- (2) In the case of applications by persons to be registered in relation to the giving of a description of driving instruction, those conditions may (in particular) include –
 - (a) conditions requiring the persons to have passed such examinations of ability and fitness to give driving instruction of that description as may be prescribed under section 132 of this Act,
 - (b) conditions requiring the persons to hold, or to have held for a prescribed period, such licences to drive motor vehicles of a prescribed description as may be prescribed, and

 - (6) The conditions prescribed under subsection (1) or (3) above may (in particular) include a condition that persons are fit and proper persons to be, or to continue to be, registered.
 - (7) Regulations may include provision for persons of a prescribed description to be exempt from any condition, to such extent as is prescribed, in prescribed circumstances.”
- 6 (1) Section 125A (registration of disabled persons) is amended as follows.
- (2) For subsection (1) substitute –
 - “(1) A person may apply to the Registrar to be registered as a disabled instructor in respect of the giving of instruction in the driving of a motor vehicle of a prescribed description in such a motor vehicle if he –
 - (a) suffers from a disability or prospective disability affecting the driving of motor vehicles of that description,
 - (b) holds a current disabled person’s limited driving licence relating to motor vehicles of that description, and
 - (c) holds a current emergency control certificate specifying motor vehicles of that description.”
 - (3) For subsections (5) to (7) substitute –
 - “(5) Where a person duly applies to be registered as a disabled instructor in respect of the giving of instruction in the driving of a motor vehicle of a prescribed description in such a motor vehicle, the Registrar must (subject to section 125B(4) of this Act) so register him if he satisfies the Registrar that the conditions prescribed under this subsection are fulfilled.
 - (6) Those conditions may (in particular) include –
 - (a) conditions requiring the person to have passed such examinations of ability and fitness to give driving instruction of that description as may be prescribed under section 132 of this Act,
 - (b) conditions requiring the person to hold, or to have held for a prescribed period, such licences to drive motor vehicles of a prescribed description as may be prescribed, and
 - (c) conditions requiring the person not to have been disqualified during a prescribed period under prescribed provisions for holding or obtaining a licence to drive motor vehicles.

- (7) A person may be so registered subject to fulfilling the conditions prescribed under this subsection for so long as he continues to be so registered.
- (7A) Those conditions may (in particular) include—
- (a) conditions requiring the person, if at any time required to do so by the Registrar, to submit himself for such examinations of continued ability and fitness to give driving instruction of that description as may be prescribed under section 132 of this Act,
 - (b) conditions requiring the person to have passed those examinations,
 - (c) conditions requiring the person, if at any time required to do so by the Registrar, to submit himself for a further emergency control assessment on the day (within such period as may be prescribed) and at the place specified by the Registrar,
 - (d) conditions within subsection (6)(b) and (c) above, and
 - (e) conditions requiring the person to follow guidance issued by the Registrar as to the giving of instruction in the driving of a motor vehicle of a prescribed description in such a motor vehicle.
- (7B) The conditions prescribed under subsection (5) or (7) above may (in particular) include a condition that persons are fit and proper persons to be, or to continue to be, registered.
- (7C) In considering whether to exercise, in respect of any person, his power under subsection (7A)(c) above, the Registrar must have regard to any recommendation included in the person's current emergency control certificate as to the period after which he should undergo a further emergency control assessment.
- (7D) Regulations may include provision for prescribed persons to be exempt from any prescribed condition, to such extent as is prescribed, in prescribed circumstances.
- (7E) Regulations may make provision authorising the Secretary of State to make available information about persons registered under this section.”
- (4) In subsection (8)—
- (a) for the definition of “appropriate motor car” substitute—

““appropriate motor vehicle” means, subject to section 125B(2) of this Act, a motor vehicle equipped with automatic transmission;”,
 - (b) in the definition of “disability”, for “means a want of physical ability affecting the driving of motor cars” substitute “, in respect of motor vehicles of any description, means a want of physical ability affecting the driving of motor vehicles of that description”,

- 7 (1) Section 125B (provisions supplementary to section 125A) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (2), for “car”, in each place, substitute “vehicle”.
 - (3) For subsection (3) substitute –
 - “(3) Regulations may make provision for prescribed persons to be exempt from section 125A(1)(c) of this Act in prescribed circumstances.”
 - (4) In subsection (4), for “enter the name of a person in the register under section 125A of this Act as that of a disabled instructor” substitute “register a person under section 125A of this Act”.
 - (5) Omit subsections (6) and (7).
- 8 For section 126 (duration of registration) substitute –

“126 Duration of registration

- (1) Unless previously terminated under the following provisions of this Part of this Act, a person’s registration in respect of any description of driving instruction shall (subject to subsection (3) below) be terminated at the end of the period of four years beginning with the day specified in subsection (2) below.
- (2) That day is –
 - (a) the first day of the month next after that in which the person became registered in respect of that description of driving instruction, or
 - (b) where his registration in respect of that description of driving instruction has been extended under section 127 of this Act, the day on which the last further period for which the registration was last extended began.
- (3) If an application for the extension of a person’s registration in respect of any description of driving instruction is made under section 127 of this Act, the registration is not terminated under subsection (1) above.
- (4) Where a person whose registration in respect of any description of driving instruction has been terminated under subsection (1) above applies under section 125 of this Act to be registered again in respect of that description of driving instruction, he shall be required again to fulfil such of the conditions prescribed under section 125ZA(1) of this Act as may be prescribed.
- (5) But if the person was a registered disabled instructor he shall instead be required again to fulfil such of the conditions prescribed under section 125A(5) of this Act as may be prescribed.”

- 9 (1) Section 127 (extension of duration of registration) is amended as follows.
- (2) For subsections (1) to (4) substitute –
- “(1) A person may, no later than such time before his registration in respect of any description of driving instruction is terminated under section 126(1) of this Act as is prescribed, apply to the Registrar for the extension of that registration for a further period of four years.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) above shall be made in such manner, and shall be accompanied by such particulars, as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (3) On an application under subsection (1) above, the applicant shall be entitled to have the registration extended for the further period of four years if he satisfies the Registrar that the prescribed requirements are fulfilled.
- (4) The continued registration of a person by virtue of an extension under this section may be made subject to –
- (a) in the case of a registered disabled instructor, the conditions prescribed under section 125A(7) of this Act, and
- (b) in any other case, the conditions prescribed under section 125ZA(3) of this Act.”
- (3) In subsection (7), after “application” insert “under subsection (1) above”.
- (4) In subsection (7A), for “A decision to refuse” substitute “The termination of a person’s registration on a decision to refuse such”.
- (5) In subsection (8), for “decision shall” substitute “termination of registration shall”.
- 10 For section 128 (removal of names from register) substitute –
- “128 Termination of registration by Registrar
- (1) The Registrar may terminate a person’s registration in respect of any description of driving instruction if he is satisfied that any relevant prescribed condition has not been complied with in the case of the person –
- (a) in a case where his registration has not been extended under section 127 of this Act, at any time since he became registered, or
- (b) in a case where his registration has been so extended, at any time since it was last extended.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above “relevant prescribed condition” means –
- (a) in the case of a registered disabled instructor, a condition prescribed under section 125A(7) of this Act, and
- (b) in any other case, a condition prescribed under section 125ZA(3) of this Act.
- (3) The Registrar may also terminate a person’s registration in respect of a description of driving instruction if the person’s registration, or (if the person’s registration has been extended) the last extension of his registration, was made by mistake or procured by fraud.

- (4) Before terminating a person's registration in respect of any description of driving instruction, the Registrar must give him written notice stating that he is considering terminating the registration and giving particulars of the grounds on which he is considering it.
- (5) Where the Registrar gives notice to a person under subsection (4) above—
 - (a) that person may, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice is given, make representations with respect to the proposed termination,
 - (b) the Registrar must not decide to terminate the registration until after the end of that period, and
 - (c) before deciding whether or not to terminate the registration, the Registrar must take into consideration any such representations made by him within that period.
- (6) The Registrar must, on making a decision to terminate a person's registration in respect of any description of driving instruction, give notice in writing of the decision to the person.
- (7) A decision to terminate a person's registration in respect of any description of driving instruction shall take effect at the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which notice of the decision is given (or, if any appeal brought against the decision under the following provisions of this Part of this Act is previously withdrawn or dismissed, when the appeal is withdrawn or dismissed).
- (8) But the Registrar may, when giving notice of his decision to terminate a person's registration in respect of any description of driving instruction, direct that the decision shall instead take effect—
 - (a) where no appeal under the following provisions of this Part of this Act is brought against the decision within the time limited for the appeal, at the end of that time,
 - (b) where such an appeal is brought and is withdrawn or struck out for want of prosecution, on the withdrawal or striking out of the appeal, or
 - (c) where such an appeal is brought and not withdrawn or struck out for want of prosecution, if and when the appeal is dismissed, and not otherwise."

11 After that section insert—

“128A Power to give direction as to further applications

- (1) This section applies when the Registrar decides—
 - (a) to refuse to register a person,
 - (b) to refuse an application for the extension of a person's registration, or
 - (c) to terminate a person's registration,in respect of any description of driving instruction.
- (2) The Registrar may direct that any application by that person to be registered in respect of that description of driving instruction shall not be entertained before the end of such period, not exceeding four - years beginning with the day on which the decision takes effect, as may be specified in the direction.

- (3) Notice of any such direction must be included in the notice of the decision in connection with which it is given.”
- 12 Omit sections 129 and 130 (licences for giving instruction so as to obtain practical experience) and the heading before them.
- 13 (1) Section 131 (appeals) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for paragraphs (a) to (c) substitute—
- “(a) to refuse an application for his registration or for the extension of his registration,
(b) to terminate his registration,

- (3) Omit subsection (2).
- (4) In subsection (3), for paragraph (b) and the word “or” before it substitute—
- “(b) for the continuation or termination of the registration, or
(c) for the revocation or confirmation of the direction or the alteration of the period specified in the direction,”.
- (5) In subsection (4), for the words from the beginning to the end of paragraph (b) substitute “An order for refusal or termination under subsection (3)(a) or (b) above may direct that an application by the appellant to be registered”.
- (6) In subsection (4B), for “, 128(7) or 130(6)” substitute “or 128(8)”.
- (7) In subsection (4D)—
- (a)* for “retention of a name in the register, to remove a name from the register or to revoke a licence granted under section 129 of this Act” substitute “extension of a person’s registration or to terminate a person’s registration”, and
(b) for “, 128(7) or 130(6)” substitute “or 128(8)”.
- (8) In subsection (4F), for “instruction in the driving of a motor car” substitute “driving instruction”.
- 14 For sections 132 and 133 and the heading before them substitute—

“Examinations and training

132 Examinations

- (1) Regulations may make provision with respect to—
- (a)* the nature of examinations of the ability and fitness (or continued ability and fitness) to give driving instruction (which may consist of practical tests and other tests and means of assessment) and the administrative arrangements for submitting for such examinations,
(b) the qualification, selection and appointment of persons by whom they may be conducted, conditions which must be satisfied during the currency of an appointment, the charging of reasonable fees in respect of applications for appointment or appointments or in connection with any examination or

- assessment which may be required before appointment or during the currency of any appointment and the revocation of any appointment,
- (c) evidence of the results of such examinations, and
 - (d) the making available of information about the results of such examinations,
- and generally with respect to such examinations.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may make provision –
- (a) for requiring a person submitting himself for any part of an examination which consists of practical tests, to provide a safe and suitable vehicle for the purposes of the practical tests and for requiring that, if the vehicle is a vehicle of a prescribed description, the vehicle has been certified in the prescribed manner after a prescribed inspection as satisfying such requirements as may be prescribed,
 - (b) for the charging (whether on the making by a person of arrangements to submit himself for any part of an examination or otherwise) of reasonable fees for or in connection with the examination, or any part of it, and any inspection and certification of a vehicle required by regulations under paragraph (a) above in relation to any part of the examination,
 - (c) for requiring a person who desires to submit himself, or is required to submit himself, for an examination, or any part of it, to supply the Registrar with such particulars as the Secretary of State may determine, and
 - (d) for ensuring that a person submitting himself for an examination, or any part of it, and failing to pass it shall not be eligible to submit himself for another examination, or any part of it, by the same or any other person before the end of a prescribed period, except under an order made by a court or sheriff under the power conferred by section 133 of this Act.

133 Review of examinations etc.

- (1) On the application of a person who has undergone a relevant instructor examination, or a part of a relevant instructor examination –
- (a) a magistrates' court, or
 - (b) in Scotland, the sheriff within whose jurisdiction he resides,
- may determine whether the examination, or the part of the examination, was properly conducted.
- (2) In this Part of this Act “relevant instructor examination” means –
- (a) an examination of ability and fitness referred to in section 125ZA(2)(a) or 125A(6)(a) of this Act,
 - (b) an examination of continued ability and fitness referred to in section 125ZA(4)(a) or 125A(7A)(a) of this Act, or
 - (c) an emergency control assessment under section 133A of this Act.
- (3) If it appears to the court or sheriff that it was not properly conducted, the court or sheriff may –

- (a) (except in the case of an emergency control assessment) order that the applicant shall be eligible to submit himself for another examination before the end of the period prescribed under section 132(2)(d) of this Act, and
 - (b) (in any case) order that any fee payable by the applicant in respect of the examination shall not be paid or, if it has been paid, shall be repaid.
- (4) No appeal shall lie under section 131 of this Act in respect of any matter in respect of which an application may be made to a magistrates' court or a sheriff under subsection (1) above.

133ZA Training

- (1) Regulations may provide that a person—
- (a) shall not be permitted to take any part of a relevant instructor examination,
 - (b) shall not be registered, or
 - (c) shall not have his registration extended,
- unless he has successfully completed training in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) Regulations may make provision in relation to training—
- (a) by means of courses provided in accordance with the regulations,
 - (b) by means of study conducted in accordance with the regulations, and
 - (c) by any other prescribed means.
- (3) Regulations under this section may include provision exempting persons from any requirement imposed by virtue of subsection (1) above; and regulations including such provision may (in particular)—
- (a) limit an exemption to persons in prescribed circumstances,
 - (b) attach conditions to an exemption,
 - (c) regulate applications for an exemption, and
 - (d) include provision for the evidencing by a person of his being within an exemption.
- (4) Regulations under this section may provide that training is not to be taken into account for the purposes of the regulations if it was completed before such time as is prescribed.
- (5) Regulations under this section may, in particular, include—
- (a) provision about the nature of training,
 - (b) provision for the approval by the Secretary of State of persons providing training or giving instruction as part of training and the withdrawal of approval (including provision for appeals to the Transport Tribunal against refusal and withdrawal of approval) and provision for exemptions from any requirement of approval,
 - (c) provision for the training or assessment, or the supervision of training or assessment, of persons providing training or giving instruction as part of training,

- (d) provision setting the maximum amount of any charges payable by persons undergoing training,
 - (e) provision for the evidencing of the successful completion of training, and
 - (f) provision authorising the Secretary of State to make available information about persons providing training or giving instruction as part of training.
- (6) Regulations under this section may include provision for the charging of reasonable fees in respect of the exercise of any function conferred or imposed on the Secretary of State by the regulations.”
- 15 In section 133A (assessment of disabled person’s ability to control a motor car in an emergency), for “car” in each place (including in the heading) substitute “vehicle”.
- 16 (1) Section 133B (further assessments) is amended as follows.
 - (2) In subsection (1), for “125B(6)(a)” substitute “125A(7A)(c)”.
 - (3) In subsection (2), for “whose name is not on the register” substitute “who is not registered”.
 - (4) In subsection (4)(b), for “car” substitute “vehicle”.
- 17 (1) Section 133C (duty to disclose further disability) is amended as follows.
 - (2) Omit subsection (1).

- 18 (1) Section 133D (offences relating to giving by disabled person of paid driving instruction) is amended as follows.
 - (2) Omit subsection (1).
 - (3) For “car” in each place substitute “vehicle”.
 - (4) In subsections (2) and (3), for “person to whom this section applies” substitute “registered disabled instructor”.
 - (5) For subsection (4) substitute –
 - “(4) Where a registered disabled instructor gives instruction in contravention of this section –
 - (a) the instructor,
 - (b) if the instructor is employed by another person to give that instruction, that other person (as well as the instructor), and
 - (c) if the instructor is a franchisee under a driving instruction franchise, the franchisor (as well as the instructor),is guilty of an offence.”
- 19 For section 134 (power to alter conditions for entry or retention in, and removal from, register etc.) substitute –
 - “134 Power to alter registration period
 - (1) Regulations may alter –

- (a) the period at the end of which a person’s registration is terminated (unless extended or further extended),
 - (b) the period for which a person’s registration may be extended or further extended, and
 - (c) the period before the end of which it may be directed that any application by a person to be registered shall not be entertained.
- (2) Regulations under this section may contain amendments of this Part of this Act.”

20 For section 135 substitute –

“135 Evidence of registration

- (1) Regulations may prescribe –
- (a) certificates or other items that may be issued to registered persons to be displayed as evidence of their registration, and
 - (b) a title or other description which may be used as such evidence.
- (2) If at any time a person who is not registered –
- (a) displays a certificate or other item prescribed under subsection (1)(a) above,
 - (b) uses a title or other description prescribed under subsection (1)(b) above, or
 - (c) uses a title or other description implying that he is registered, he is guilty of an offence unless he proves that he did not know, and did not have reasonable cause to believe, that he was not registered at that time.
- (3) If a person carrying on business in the provision of driving instruction at any time –
- (a) uses a title or other description prescribed under subsection (1)(b) above in relation to any relevant person who is not appropriately registered, or
 - (b) issues any advertisement or invitation calculated to mislead with respect to the extent to which relevant persons are appropriately registered,
- he is guilty of an offence unless he proves that he did not know, and did not have reasonable cause to believe, that the relevant person was, or relevant persons were, not appropriately registered at that time.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) above –
- (a) a relevant person is a person who is employed by the person carrying on business to give driving instruction, or is a franchisee giving driving instruction under a driving instruction franchise under which that person is the franchisor, and
 - (b) a relevant person is appropriately registered if he is registered in respect of the giving of the description of driving instruction which he is employed to give or which is given by him under the driving instruction franchise.”

21 In section 136 (surrender of certificates) –

- (a) for paragraphs (a) and (b) substitute “the registration of a person to whom a certificate or other item prescribed under section 135(1)(a) of this Act has been issued is terminated,”

- 23 (1) Section 140 (receipts) is to be renumbered as subsection (3) of that section.
 - (2) Before that subsection insert–
 - “(1) Regulations may make provision for the payment of such fees (if any) as may be prescribed in connection with registration or extension of registration.
 - (2) Regulations may make provision for the repayment (in whole or in part) of any fee payable by virtue of any provision of this Part of this Act in such circumstances as may be prescribed.”
 - (3) For the heading substitute “Fees”.
- 24 (1) Section 141 (regulations) is to be renumbered as subsection (1) of that section.
 - (2) In that subsection, after “by regulations” insert “and for prescribing anything which may be prescribed under this Part of this Act”.
 - (3) After that subsection insert–
 - “(2) Regulations under this section–
 - (a) may be expressed to apply generally or only in particular circumstances,
 - (b) may make different provision in relation to different cases or other circumstances or otherwise for different purposes, and

- (c) may make incidental, supplementary, consequential or transitional provision or savings.”

25 For section 141A (meaning of “motor car”) substitute –

“141A Interpretation of Part 5

- (1) For the purposes of this Part of this Act persons may carry on business in the provision of driving instruction in any way, including in particular –
- (a) by giving instruction themselves,
 - (b) by arranging for the giving of driving instruction by their employees, or
 - (c) by arranging for the giving of driving instruction by persons who are franchisees under driving instruction franchises under which they are the franchisor.
- (2) In this Part of this Act “driving instruction franchise” means an agreement under which one party (the “franchisor”) grants to another party (a “franchisee”) rights consisting of or including the right to use a particular trading name, style or design in the carrying on of business in the giving of driving instruction.
- (3) In this Part of this Act references to “the franchisor” and “a franchisee”, in relation to a driving instruction franchise, shall be construed accordingly.
- (4) In this Part of this Act “current”, in relation to a licence or certificate, means one which has not expired and has not been cancelled, revoked or suspended.
- (5) In this Part of this Act –
- (a) “Community licence” and “counterpart”, in relation to a Community licence, and
 - (b) “provisional licence”,
- have the same meanings as in Part 3 of this Act.”
