- (9) That amount shall not be less than the amount up to which they were liable to contribute to the assets of the company if it was wound up.

Section 69P

FURTHER PROVISION ABOUT CHARITABLE INCORPORATED ORGANISATIONS

Powers

- 1 (1) Subject to anything in its constitution, a CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its purposes or is conducive or incidental to doing so.
- (2) The CIO’s charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO.

Constitutional requirements

- 2 A CIO shall use and apply its property in furtherance of its purposes and in accordance with its constitution.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- 3 If the CIO is one whose members are liable to contribute to its assets if it is wound up, its constitution binds the CIO and its members for the time being to the same extent as if its provisions were contained in a contract—
- (a) to which the CIO and each of its members was a party, and
 - (b) which contained obligations on the part of the CIO and each member to observe all the provisions of the constitution.
- 4 Money payable by a member to the CIO under the constitution is a debt due from him to the CIO, and is of the nature of a specialty debt.

Third parties

- 5 (1) Sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) are subject to sub-paragraph (4).
- (2) The validity of an act done (or purportedly done) by a CIO shall not be called into question on the ground that it lacked constitutional capacity.
- (3) The power of the charity trustees of a CIO to act so as to bind the CIO (or authorise others to do so) shall not be called into question on the ground of any constitutional limitations on their powers.
- (4) But sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) apply only in favour of a person who gives full consideration in money or money's worth in relation to the act in question, and does not know—
- (a) in a sub-paragraph (2) case, that the act is beyond the CIO's constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) in a sub-paragraph (3) case, that the act is beyond the constitutional powers of its charity trustees,
- and (in addition) sub-paragraph (3) applies only if the person dealt with the CIO in good faith (which he shall be presumed to have done unless the contrary is proved).
- (5) A party to an arrangement or transaction with a CIO is not bound to inquire—
- (a) whether it is within the CIO's constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) as to any constitutional limitations on the powers of its charity trustees to bind the CIO or authorise others to do so.
- (6) If a CIO purports to transfer or grant an interest in property, the fact that the act was beyond its constitutional capacity, or that its charity trustees in connection with the act exceeded their constitutional powers, does not affect the title of a person who subsequently acquires the property or any interest in it for full consideration without actual notice of any such circumstances affecting the validity of the CIO's act.
- (7) In any proceedings arising out of sub-paragraphs (2) to (4), the burden of proving that a person knew that an act—
- (a) was beyond the CIO's constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) was beyond the constitutional powers of its charity trustees,
- lies on the person making that allegation.
- (8) In this paragraph and paragraphs 6 to 8—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) references to a CIO’s lack of “constitutional capacity” are to lack of capacity because of anything in its constitution, and
 - (b) references to “constitutional limitations” on the powers of a CIO’s charity trustees are to limitations on their powers under its constitution, including limitations deriving from a resolution of the CIO in general meeting, or from an agreement between the CIO’s members, and “constitutional powers” is to be construed accordingly.
- 6 (1) Nothing in paragraph 5 prevents a person from bringing proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which would be—
- (a) beyond the CIO’s constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) beyond the constitutional powers of the CIO’s charity trustees.
- (2) But no such proceedings may be brought in respect of an act to be done in fulfilment of a legal obligation arising from a previous act of the CIO.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not prevent the Commission from exercising any of its powers.
- 7 Nothing in paragraph 5(3) affects any liability incurred by the CIO’s charity trustees (or any one of them) for acting beyond his or their constitutional powers.
- 8 Nothing in paragraph 5 absolves the CIO’s charity trustees from their duty to act within the CIO’s constitution and in accordance with any constitutional limitations on their powers.

Duties

- 9 It is the duty of—
- (a) each member of a CIO, and
 - (b) each charity trustee of a CIO,
- to exercise his powers, and (in the case of a charity trustee) to perform his functions, in his capacity as such, in the way he decides, in good faith, would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.
