
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Parliament (Joint Departments) Act 2007, Cross Heading: Introductory. (See end of Document for details)

SCHEDULE

STAFF TRANSFERS

Introductory

- 1 (1) This Schedule applies for the purposes of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/246).
- (2) Anything treated under this Schedule as a transfer of an undertaking is to be treated as a relevant transfer.
- (3) Anyone treated under this Schedule as employed in an undertaking transferred is to be treated as assigned to an organised grouping of resources that is subject to the relevant transfer.
- (4) Nothing in this Schedule prevents the Regulations applying in a case where they would apply apart from this Schedule.
- 2 (1) In this Schedule—
 - “change” in any paragraph means the change in allocation of functions referred to in sub-paragraph (1) of the paragraph;
 - “employed” means employed under a contract of employment;
 - “House authority”—
 - (a) in relation to the House of Commons, means the House of Commons Commission;
 - (b) in relation to the House of Lords, means the Corporate Officer of the House of Lords;
 - “House department” means a department of either House of Parliament.
- (2) This Schedule, as it applies in relation to a department of the House of Commons, also applies in relation to an office or post in that House (and not in a department) in which a person is, or is to be, employed in or for the purposes of that House.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Parliament (Joint Departments) Act 2007, Cross Heading: Introductory.