

Offender Management Act 2007

2007 CHAPTER 21

PART 1 E+W

NEW ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE PROVISION OF PROBATION SERVICES

Probation purposes

1 Meaning of “the probation purposes” E+W

- (1) In this Part “the probation purposes” means the purposes of providing for—
- courts to be given assistance in determining the appropriate sentences to pass, and making other decisions, in respect of persons charged with or convicted of offences;
  - [<sup>F1</sup>the giving of assistance to persons]in determining whether conditional cautions should be given and which conditions to attach to conditional cautions;
  - the supervision and rehabilitation of persons charged with or convicted of offences;
  - the giving of assistance to persons remanded on bail;
  - the supervision and rehabilitation of persons to whom conditional cautions are given;
  - the giving of information to victims of persons charged with or convicted of offences.
- (2) The purpose set out in subsection (1)(c) includes (in particular)—
- giving effect to community orders and suspended sentence orders (or, in the case of persons mentioned in subsection (3), any corresponding sentence which is to be carried out in England and Wales);
  - assisting in the rehabilitation of offenders who are being held in prison;
  - supervising persons released from prison on licence;
  - providing accommodation in approved premises.
- (3) That purpose also applies in relation to persons who—

- (b) for enabling functions conferred by any enactment (whenever passed or made) on providers of probation services, or on officers of a provider of probation services, to be performed; and
  - (c) for the performance of any function of the Secretary of State under any enactment (whenever passed or made) which is expressed to be a function to which this paragraph applies;
- and any provision which the Secretary of State considers should be made for a purpose mentioned above is referred to in this Part as “probation provision”.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall discharge his function under subsection (1) in relation to any probation provision by making and carrying out arrangements under section 3.
  - (3) The Secretary of State must have regard to the aims mentioned in subsection (4) in the exercise of his functions under subsections (1) and (2) (so far as they may be exercised for any of the probation purposes).
  - (4) Those aims are—
    - (a) the protection of the public;
    - (b) the reduction of re-offending;
    - (c) the proper punishment of offenders;
    - (d) ensuring offenders' awareness of the effects of crime on the victims of crimes and the public; and
    - (e) the rehabilitation of offenders.
  - (5) The Secretary of State is not required by subsections (1) and (2) to take any action in relation to the making of provision for a purpose mentioned in subsection (1) if it appears to him that appropriate provision is being or will be made by any person acting otherwise than in pursuance of arrangements under section 3.
  - (6) In this section “enactment” includes subordinate legislation (within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978 (c. 30)).

3 Power to make arrangements for the provision of probation services E+W

- (1) This section applies to any probation provision which the Secretary of State considers ought to be made for any of the purposes mentioned in section 2(1).
- (2) The Secretary of State may make contractual or other arrangements with any other person for the making of the probation provision.
- (3) Arrangements under subsection (2) may in particular authorise or require that other person—
  - (a) to co-operate with other providers of probation services or persons who are concerned with the prevention or reduction of crime or with giving assistance to the victims of crime;

*Changes to legislation: Offender Management Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. ---

- (b) to authorise individuals under section 9(2) to act as officers of a provider of probation services;
  - (c) to make contractual or other arrangements with third parties for purposes connected with the probation provision to be made, including in particular contractual or other arrangements—
    - (i) for provision to be made, or for activities to be carried out, by third parties on behalf of that other person; or
    - (ii) for individuals who are not members of that other person's staff to act as officers of a provider of probation services.
- (4) The Secretary of State may make provision for the performance of any function to which section 2(1)(c) applies by making arrangements under subsection (2) above providing for the delegation of that function to the other person.
- (5) If instead of making arrangements under subsection (2) the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to make any probation provision himself, he shall make arrangements for the making of that probation provision (and for the avoidance of doubt the members of staff through whom he may act in making and carrying out those arrangements include prison officers or other persons employed at a prison).
- (6) In this Part “provider of probation services” means—
- (a) a person with whom the Secretary of State has made arrangements that are in force under subsection (2); or
  - (b) the Secretary of State (in relation to probation provision which is the subject of arrangements that are in force under subsection (5)).
- [<sup>F6</sup>(6A) The Secretary of State must ensure that arrangements under subsection (2) or (5) for the supervision or rehabilitation of persons convicted of offences—
- (a) state that the Secretary of State has, in making the arrangements, complied with the duty under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010 (public sector equality duty) as it relates to female offenders, and
  - (b) identify anything in the arrangements that is intended to meet the particular needs of female offenders.]
- (7) In carrying out functions under this Part in relation to arrangements under subsection (2) with another person (“the provider”), the Secretary of State shall have regard to the need to take reasonable steps to avoid (so far as practicable) the risk that—
- (a) the provision, in pursuance of the arrangements, of assistance to a court or to the Parole Board for England and Wales, and
  - (b) the carrying out, in pursuance of the arrangements, of any other activities, might be adversely affected by any potential conflict between the provider's obligations in relation to those activities and the financial interests of the provider.

8 Annual plans E+W

- (1) The Secretary of State shall at least once in every year consult the Welsh Ministers, and such other persons as he thinks fit, about the provision that should be made for the purposes mentioned in section 2(1) for the following year.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall, before the end of each year, publish an annual plan for the following year which sets out the way in which the Secretary of State proposes to—
  - (a) discharge his functions under section 2(1) and (2) during that year; and
  - (b) carry out any arrangements which he expects to be in force under section 3(5) for that year.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall have regard to the annual plan published under subsection (2) for any year—
  - (a) in discharging his functions under section 2(1) and (2) during that year; and
  - (b) in making or carrying out arrangements under section 3(5) for that year.
- (4) Arrangements made by the Secretary of State under section 3(2) with a probation trust shall require the trust to publish an annual plan for each year in which it expects to carry out any specified activities.
- (5) Arrangements made by the Secretary of State under section 3(2) with a person other than a probation trust shall, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, require that person to publish an annual plan for each year in which it expects to carry out any specified activities.
- (6) In subsections (4) and (5)—

“annual plan” means a plan setting out the way in which the probation trust or other person (as the case may be) proposes to carry out any specified activities during the year to which the plan relates;

“specified activities”, in relation to a probation trust or other person with whom arrangements under section 3(2) are made, means activities of a description specified in those arrangements for the purposes of subsection (4) or (5) above (as the case may be).
- (7) In this section “year” means a period of 12 months ending with 31st March.

[<sup>F13</sup>13A Approved premises: substance testing E+W

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
  - (a) the manager of any approved premises has given an authorisation that specifies when the power in that subsection may be exercised at those premises, and
  - (b) that authorisation is in force.
- (2) A member of staff may, at the approved premises and in accordance with the authorisation given under subsection (1), require any resident of those premises to provide a sample of urine for the purpose of ascertaining whether the resident has in their body any—
  - (a) controlled drug,
  - (b) prescription only medicine, or
  - (c) psychoactive substance.
- (3) The power in subsection (2) includes power to require a resident to provide a sample of any other description, except an intimate sample, whether instead of or in addition to a sample of urine.
- (4) The Secretary of State may use any residents’ samples to test, on an anonymised basis, for the prevalence of the following substances in approved premises—
  - (a) controlled drugs,
  - (b) medicinal products, or
  - (c) psychoactive substances.
- (5) In giving, or deciding whether to give, an authorisation under subsection (1), the manager must have regard to any guidance regarding the giving of authorisations issued by the Secretary of State.
- (6) In exercising the power in subsection (2), a member of staff must have regard to any guidance regarding the exercise of that power issued by the Secretary of State.
- (7) In this section—
  - “approved premises” has the meaning given by section 13(1);
  - “controlled drug” means any drug which is a controlled drug for the purposes of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 (see section 2 of that Act);

29 Effect of polygraph condition E+W

- (1) For the purposes of section 28, a polygraph condition is a condition which requires the released person—
- (a) to participate in polygraph sessions conducted with a view to—
    - (i) monitoring his compliance with the other conditions of his licence; or
    - (ii) improving the way in which he is managed during his release on licence;
  - (b) to participate in those polygraph sessions at such times as may be specified in instructions given by an appropriate officer; and
  - (c) while participating in a polygraph session, to comply with instructions given to him by the person conducting the session (“the polygraph operator”).
- (2) A polygraph session is a session during which the polygraph operator—
- (a) conducts one or more polygraph examinations of the released person; and
  - (b) interviews the released person in preparation for, or otherwise in connection with, any such examination.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a polygraph examination is a procedure in which—
- (a) the polygraph operator questions the released person;
  - (b) the questions and the released person's answers are recorded; and
  - (c) physiological reactions of the released person while being questioned are measured and recorded by means of equipment of a type approved by the Secretary of State.
- (4) In subsection (1)(b) “appropriate officer” means an officer of a provider of probation services or an officer of a local probation board.
- (5) An appropriate officer giving instructions as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.
- (6) The Secretary of State may make rules relating to the conduct of polygraph sessions.
