EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 4: General and Final Provisions

Section 89: Orders

323. Subsection (1) of this section ensures that orders made by the Secretary of State, the Treasury or the Scottish Ministers are made by statutory instrument. Subsection (2) enables the powers of the Secretary of State and the Treasury to make orders to be exercised to make different provision for different cases, descriptions of cases, or purposes. An order may also make supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory and saving provision. Subsection (3) sets out the orders which are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure. Subsections (5) and (6) set out the orders which are subject to the negative resolution procedure.
