

Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007

2007 CHAPTER 28

PART 14

PATIENT AND PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT IN HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE

[^{F1}Local arrangements]

[^{F1}223A Independent advocacy services

- (1) Each local authority must make such arrangements as it considers appropriate for the provision of independent advocacy services in relation to its area.
- (2) In this section, “independent advocacy services” means services providing assistance (by way of representation or otherwise) to persons making or intending to make—
 - (a) a complaint under a procedure operated by a health service body or independent provider;
 - (b) a complaint under section 113(1) or (2) of the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003;
 - (c) a complaint to the Health Service Commissioner for England;
 - (d) a complaint to the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales which relates to a Welsh health body;
 - (e) a complaint under section 73C(1) of the National Health Service Act 2006;
 - (f) a complaint to a Local Commissioner under Part 3 of the Local Government Act 1974 about a matter which could be the subject of a complaint under section 73C(1) of the National Health Service Act 2006; or
 - (g) a complaint of such description as the Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe which relates to the provision of services as part of the health service and—
 - (i) is made under a procedure of a description prescribed in the regulations, or

- (ii) gives rise, or may give rise, to proceedings of a description prescribed in the regulations.
- (3) Each local authority may make such other arrangements as it considers appropriate for the provision of services in relation to its area providing assistance to individuals in connection with complaints relating to the provision of services as part of the health service.
- (4) Arrangements under this section may not provide for a person to make arrangements for the provision of services by a Local Healthwatch organisation.
- (5) In making arrangements under this section, a local authority must have regard to the principle that the provision of services under the arrangements or arrangements made in pursuance of the arrangements should, so far as practicable, be independent of any person who is—
- (a) the subject of a relevant complaint; or
 - (b) involved in investigating or adjudicating on such a complaint.
- (6) A local authority may make payments to—
- (a) a person providing services under arrangements under this section;
 - (b) a person arranging for the provision of services in pursuance of arrangements under this section;
 - (c) a person providing services under arrangements made in pursuance of arrangements under this section.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring a person providing services under arrangements under this section or arrangements made in pursuance of the arrangements to have cover against the risk of a claim in negligence arising out of the provision of the services.
- (8) The Secretary of State may give directions to a local authority about the exercise of its functions under this section.
- (9) A direction under subsection (8) may be varied or revoked.
- (10) In this section—
- “the health service” has the same meaning as in the National Health Service Act 2006;
- “health service body” means—
- (a) in relation to England, a body which, under section 2(1) of the Health Service Commissioners Act 1993, is subject to investigation by the Health Service Commissioner for England;
 - (b) in relation to Wales, a Welsh health service body (within the meaning of [^{F2}the Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2019]);
- “independent provider” means—
- (a) in relation to England, a person who, under section 2B(1) of the Health Service Commissioners Act 1993, is subject to investigation by the Health Service Commissioner for England;
 - (b) in relation to Wales, a person who is an independent provider in Wales (within the meaning of [^{F3}the Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2019]);
- “Welsh health body” means—
- (a) a Local Health Board,
