    - (i) which was disposable property (see section 468), or

- (7) This section needs to be read with sections 469 to 473.
- (8) This section and sections 469 to 473 do not apply for the purposes of Chapter 5 of Part 5 of ITTOIA 2005 (amounts treated as income of settlors).

470 Transfers between settlements

  - (a) is not for full consideration,
  - (b) is not by way of a bargain made at arm's length, and
  - (c) is not excluded by subsection (2).
- (2) A transfer of property is excluded for the purposes of subsection (1) if—
  - (a) it occurs only because of the assignment by a beneficiary under settlement 1 of an interest in that settlement to the trustees of settlement 2,

- (2) The settlor (or each settlor) of the property disposed of by the trustees of settlement 1 (“the disposed property”) is treated from the time of the disposal as having made settlement 2.
- (3) If there is more than one settlor of the disposed property, each of them is treated in relation to settlement 2 as the settlor of a proportionate part of the property acquired by the trustees of settlement 2 on the disposal.
- (4) So far as the disposed property—
  - (a) was provided for the purposes of settlement 1, or
  - (b) was derived from property so provided,the property acquired by the trustees of settlement 2 on the disposal is treated from the time of the disposal as having been provided for the purposes of settlement 2.

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) a disposition of property following a person's death is varied, and
  - (b) section 62(6) of TCGA 1992 applies in relation to the variation.
- (2) If property becomes settled property because of the variation (and would not, but for the variation, have become settled property), a person within subsection (3) is treated for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts (except where the context otherwise requires) —
  - (a) as having made the settlement, and
  - (b) as having provided the property for the purposes of the settlement.
- (3) The persons within this subsection are—

---

- (2) If—
- (a) property would have become comprised in a settlement within subsection (3), but
  - (b) as a result of the variation, the property, or property derived from it, becomes comprised in another settlement,
- D is treated for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts (except where the context otherwise requires) as having made the other settlement.
- (3) A settlement is within this subsection if—
- (a) it arose on D's death (whether by D's will or on D's intestacy or in any other way), or
  - (b) it was in existence immediately before D's death (whether or not D was a settlor in relation to it).
- (4) If—
- (a) immediately before the variation property is comprised in a settlement and is property of which D is a settlor, and
