Functions of primary authorities

Section 27: Advice and guidance

72. This section charges the primary authority with the task of giving advice and guidance both to the regulated person in respect of the relevant function, and to other local authorities regarding how they should exercise the relevant function in relation to the regulated person. The primary authority and regulated person may make such arrangements as they see fit in order to manage their relationship. This might include entering into an agreement or memorandum of understanding which sets out the rights and obligations of each party. Such agreement or memorandum might supplement any inspection plan approved by LBRO under section 30.
