- (5) Provision under subsection (2)(c) must also include provision for—

PART 5

NATURE CONSERVATION

CHAPTER 1

MARINE CONSERVATION ZONES

Designation of zones

116 Marine conservation zones

- (1) The appropriate authority may by order designate any area falling within subsection (2) as a marine conservation zone (an “MCZ”).

Section 117 sets out the grounds on which such an order may be made.

- (2) An area falls within this subsection if—
- (a) it is an area of the sea within the seaward limits of the territorial sea adjacent to the United Kingdom;
 - (b) it is an area of the sea within the limits of the exclusive economic zone;
 - (c) it is an area of the sea bed or subsoil within the limits of the UK sector of the continental shelf (so far as not falling within an area mentioned in paragraph (b)).
- (3) But an area does not fall within subsection (2) if it is in—
- (a) the Scottish inshore region, or
 - (b) the Northern Ireland inshore region.
- (4) Section 118 makes further provision as to the areas that may be included in an MCZ.
- (5) For the purposes of this Chapter the appropriate authority is—
- (a) in relation to an area in Wales, the Welsh Ministers;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) in relation to an area in the Scottish offshore region, the Scottish Ministers;
 - (c) in any other case, the Secretary of State.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may not designate any area as an MCZ without the agreement of the Secretary of State.
- (7) An MCZ designated by the Scottish Ministers under this section is to be known as a marine protected area.
- Any reference in this Act to an MCZ is, in relation to an MCZ designated by the Scottish Ministers, to be read as a reference to a marine protected area.
- (8) Until the coming into force of the first Order in Council made under section 41 (the exclusive economic zone), the reference in subsection (2)(b) to the exclusive economic zone is to be read as a reference to a renewable energy zone.

117 Grounds for designation of MCZs

- (1) The appropriate authority may make an order under section 116 if it thinks that it is desirable to do so for the purpose of conserving—
- (a) marine flora or fauna;
 - (b) marine habitats or types of marine habitat;
 - (c) features of geological or geomorphological interest.
- (2) The order must state—
- (a) the protected feature or features;
 - (b) the conservation objectives for the MCZ.
- (3) Any reference in this Chapter to the conservation objectives stated for an MCZ is a reference to the conservation objectives stated for the MCZ under subsection (2)(b).
- (4) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to conserving marine flora or fauna includes, in particular, a reference to conserving any species that is rare or threatened because of—
- (a) the limited number of individuals of that species, or
 - (b) the limited number of locations in which that species is present.
- (5) The references in subsection (1)(a) and (b) to conserving marine flora or fauna or habitat include references to conserving the diversity of such flora, fauna or habitat, whether or not any or all of them are rare or threatened.
- (6) Any reference to conserving a thing includes references to—
- (a) assisting in its conservation;
 - (b) enabling or facilitating its recovery or increase.

118 Further provision as to orders designating MCZs

- (1) An order under section 116 must identify the boundaries of the area designated.
- (2) The boundary of an MCZ may be determined by, or by reference to, mean high water spring tide.
- (3) Any reference in subsection (2)(a) or (b) of section 116 to an area of sea includes a reference to any island in the sea, whether or not any part of it lies above mean high water spring tide.
- (4) If an MCZ includes an area falling within subsection (2)(a) of section 116 (“area A”), it may also include an area of the seashore lying above mean high water spring tide (“area B”) if—
 - (a) area B adjoins area A, and
 - (b) any of the conditions in subsection (5) is satisfied.
- (5) The conditions are—
 - (a) that the protected feature or features leading to the designation of area A is or are also present in area B;
 - (b) that area A is designated for the purpose of conserving marine flora or fauna which are dependent (wholly or in part) on anything which takes place in, or is present in, area B;
 - (c) that, without the inclusion of area B, the identification of the boundary of the MCZ (either in the order designating the area or on the ground for the purposes of exercising functions in relation to it) would be impossible or impracticable.
- (6) An order under section 116—
 - (a) must designate an area of land (whether or not that land is covered by water), and
 - (b) in the case of an area falling within subsection (2)(a) or (b) of that section, may designate some or all of the water covering that land.

119 Consultation before designation

- (1) Before making an order under section 116, the appropriate authority must comply with subsections (2) to (9) of this section.

This is subject to subsection (11).
- (2) The appropriate authority must publish notice of its proposal to make the order.
- (3) The notice under subsection (2) must—
 - (a) be published in such manner as the appropriate authority thinks is most likely to bring the proposal to the attention of any persons who are likely to be affected by the making of the order;
 - (b) contain a statement of the terms of the proposed order.
- (4) The appropriate authority must consult any persons who the appropriate authority thinks are likely to be interested in, or affected by, the making of the order.
- (5) Where the appropriate authority is not the Secretary of State, the authority must consult the Secretary of State.
- (6) If the appropriate authority for an area other than Wales considers that—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) the making of the order may affect any activity which is or may be carried on in the Welsh zone, or
 - (b) any activity which is or may be carried on in the Welsh zone may affect any part of the proposed MCZ,the authority must consult the Welsh Ministers.
- (7) If the appropriate authority for an area other than the Scottish offshore region considers that—
 - (a) the making of the order may affect any activity which is or may be carried on in the Scottish zone, or
 - (b) any activity which is or may be carried on in the Scottish zone may affect any part of the proposed MCZ,the authority must consult the Scottish Ministers.
- (8) If the appropriate authority considers that—
 - (a) the making of the order may affect any activity which is or may be carried on in the Northern Ireland zone, or
 - (b) any activity which is or may be carried on in the Northern Ireland zone may affect any part of the proposed MCZ,the authority must consult the Department of the Environment in Northern Ireland.
- (9) The Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Welsh Ministers, if any part of the proposed MCZ lies in the Welsh offshore region;
 - (b) the Department of the Environment in Northern Ireland, if any part of the proposed MCZ lies in the Northern Ireland zone.
- (10) If the appropriate authority fails to make the order before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which notice was published under subsection (2), then anything done by the appropriate authority for the purposes of complying with subsections (2) to (9) of this section is, for those purposes, to be treated as not having been done.
- (11) In a case where the appropriate authority thinks that there is an urgent need to protect the area proposed to be designated, the authority need not comply with subsections (2) to (4).
- (12) In such a case, the order designating the area as an MCZ remains in force for a period not exceeding two years, unless the appropriate authority makes a further order before the end of that period confirming the designation.

PART 9

COASTAL ACCESS

The coastal access duty

296 The coastal access duty

(1) Natural England and the Secretary of State must exercise the relevant functions in order to secure the following objectives.

(2) The first objective is that there is a route for the whole of the English coast which—

- (a) consists of one or more long-distance routes along which the public are enabled to make recreational journeys on foot or by ferry, and
- (b) (except to the extent that it is completed by ferry) passes over land which is accessible to the public.

(3) The second objective is that, in association with that route (“the English coastal route”), a margin of land along the length of the English coast is accessible to the public for the purposes of its enjoyment by them in conjunction with that route or otherwise, except to the extent that the margin of land is relevant excepted land.

(4) The duty imposed on Natural England and the Secretary of State by subsection (1)—

- (a) is referred to in this Part as the coastal access duty, and
- (b) is to be discharged by them in such stages and within such period as appear to them to be appropriate.

(5) For the purposes of this section, land is accessible to the public if it is—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) land which is available to the public for the purposes of open-air recreation, by virtue of provision made under section 3A of the CROW Act and subject to any exclusions or restrictions imposed by or under Part 1 of that Act (access to the countryside),
 - (b) land in England which, for the purposes of section 1(1) of that Act, is treated by section 15(1) of that Act as being accessible to the public apart from that Act, or
 - (c) excepted land in England which is accessible to the public by virtue of any enactment or rule of law (other than a military lands byelaw).
- (6) Nothing in this section requires Natural England or the Secretary of State, in discharging the coastal access duty so far as it relates to the objective in subsection (3), to exercise functions so as to secure that any land becomes land within subsection (5) (b) or (c).
- (7) For the purposes of the coastal access duty, a person is to be regarded as enabled to make a journey by ferry even if that journey can be made at certain times, or during certain periods, only.
- (8) In this section—
- “the 1949 Act” means the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act 1949 \(c. 97\);
 - “the CROW Act” means the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 \(c. 37\);
 - “excepted land” has the same meaning as in Part 1 of the CROW Act;
 - “military lands byelaw” means a byelaw under section 14 of the Military Lands Act 1892 \(c. 43\) or section 2 of the Military Lands Act 1900 \(c. 56\);

 - “the relevant functions” means—
 - (a) in relation to Natural England—
 - (i) its functions under this Part, Part 4 of the 1949 Act (long-distance routes) and Part 1 of the CROW Act (access to the countryside), and
 - (ii) such of its other functions as it considers it appropriate to exercise for the purpose of securing the objectives in subsections (2) and (3), and
 - (b) in relation to the Secretary of State—
 - (i) the Secretary of State’s functions under this Part, Part 4 of the 1949 Act and Part 1 of the CROW Act, and
 - (ii) such of the Secretary of State’s other functions as the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to exercise for the purpose of securing the objectives in subsections (2) and (3).

297 General provision about the coastal access duty

- (1) In discharging the coastal access duty, Natural England and the Secretary of State must comply with the requirements of this section.
- (2) They must have regard to—
 - (a) the safety and convenience of those using the English coastal route,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) the desirability of that route adhering to the periphery of the coast and providing views of the sea, and
 - (c) the desirability of ensuring that so far as reasonably practicable interruptions to that route are kept to a minimum.
- (3) They must aim to strike a fair balance between the interests of the public in having rights of access over land and the interests of any person with a relevant interest in the land.
- (4) For this purpose a person has a relevant interest in land if the person—
- (a) holds an estate in fee simple absolute in possession in the land,
 - (b) holds a term of years absolute in the land, or
 - (c) is in lawful occupation of the land.

298 The coastal access scheme

- (1) Natural England must—
- (a) prepare a scheme setting out the approach it will take when discharging the coastal access duty, and
 - (b) submit the scheme to the Secretary of State.
- (2) The Secretary of State may—
- (a) approve the scheme, with or without modifications, or
 - (b) reject the scheme and give Natural England a notice requiring it to prepare and submit a new scheme under subsection (1).
- (3) The scheme must be submitted to the Secretary of State within the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force or, in a case within subsection (2)(b), within the period specified in the notice.
- (4) Natural England may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, revise a scheme approved under this section.
- (5) A scheme approved under this section (and any revised scheme) must set out the approach Natural England will take when deciding, for the purposes of section 55A(4) of the 1949 Act, whether it would be appropriate for an access authority to carry out any preliminary activity (within the meaning of section 55A(3) of that Act).
- (6) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a copy of the scheme approved under this section and, where that scheme is revised, a copy of the revised scheme.
- (7) Before preparing or revising a scheme under this section, Natural England must consult such persons as it considers appropriate.
- (8) Natural England must, as soon as reasonably practicable, publish in such manner as it considers appropriate—
- (a) the scheme approved by the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) where that scheme is revised, the revised scheme.
- (9) In discharging the coastal access duty, Natural England must act in accordance with the scheme approved under this section (or, where that scheme has been revised, the revised scheme).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (10) Until such time as there is an approved scheme under this section, Natural England may not prepare or submit a report under section 51 or 55 of the 1949 Act (report containing proposals for long-distance routes) pursuant to the coastal access duty.
- (11) Nothing in subsection (10) prevents Natural England from surveying any land in connection with the preparation of such a report.

299 Review of the coastal access scheme

- (1) Where a scheme has been approved under section 298, Natural England may, from time to time, review the scheme (as revised from time to time under that section).
- (2) At least one review must be completed within the period of 3 years beginning with the day on which a scheme is first approved under section 298(2).
- (3) Natural England must publish a report of each review under this section as soon as reasonably practicable after the review is completed.

300 The English coast

- (1) In this Part “the English coast” means the coast of England adjacent to the sea, including the coast of any island (in the sea) comprised in England (other than an excluded island).
- (2) An island is “excluded” if it is neither—
 - (a) an accessible island, nor
 - (b) an island specified by the Secretary of State by order for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (3) An island is “accessible” if it is possible to walk to the island from the mainland of England, or from another island within subsection (2)(a) or (b), across the foreshore or by means of a bridge, tunnel or causeway.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), it is possible to walk to an island even if it is possible to do so at certain times, or during certain periods, only.
- (5) An island may be specified by an order under subsection (2)(b) only if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the coast of the island is of sufficient length to enable the establishment of one or more long-distance routes along its length capable of affording the public an extensive journey on foot.
- (6) For the purposes of the objective in section 296(2) (the English coastal route), the means of access to an accessible island is (to the extent that it would not otherwise be the case) to be regarded as part of the English coast.
- (7) This section is subject to section 307 (Isles of Scilly).

301 River estuaries

- (1) This section applies in a case where the continuity of any part of the English coast is interrupted by a river.
- (2) Natural England may exercise its functions as if the references in the coastal access provisions to the sea included the relevant upstream waters of the river.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) For this purpose “the relevant upstream waters”, in relation to a river, means—
- (a) the waters from the seaward limit of the estuarial waters of the river upstream to the first public foot crossing, or
 - (b) if Natural England so decides, the waters from the seaward limit of the estuarial waters of the river upstream to such limit, downstream of the first public foot crossing, as may be specified by it.
- (4) When exercising any power conferred by subsection (2) or (3), Natural England must have regard to the following matters (in addition to the matters mentioned in section 297(2))—
- (a) the nature of the land which would, for the purposes of this Part, become part of the coast of England if Natural England exercised the power in subsection (2) in respect of the relevant upstream waters for the limit under consideration;
 - (b) the topography of the shoreline adjacent to those waters;
 - (c) the width of the river upstream to that limit;
 - (d) the recreational benefit to the public of the coastal access duty being extended to apply in relation to the coast adjacent to those waters;
 - (e) the extent to which the land bordering those waters would, if it were coastal margin, be excepted land;
 - (f) whether it is desirable to continue the English coastal route to a particular physical feature (whether of the landscape or otherwise) or viewpoint;
 - (g) the existence of a ferry by which the public may cross the river.
- (5) Anything done pursuant to subsection (2) (including any decision under subsection (3)(b)) is to be regarded as done pursuant to, and for the purpose of discharging, the coastal access duty.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) apply in relation to the Secretary of State as they apply in relation to Natural England.
- (7) A decision by Natural England to exercise a power conferred by subsection (2) or (3) in relation to a river—
- (a) is without prejudice to any decision by the Secretary of State (by virtue of subsection (6)) as to whether or not to exercise such a power in relation to the river, and
 - (b) does not affect the requirements of subsection (4) (as they apply by virtue of subsection (6)) or of section 297(2) and (3), in relation to such a decision by the Secretary of State.
- (8) In this section—
- “coastal access provisions” means—
- (a) this Part (other than this section), and
 - (b) sections 55A to 55J of the 1949 Act;
- “excepted land” has the same meaning as in Part 1 of the CROW Act;
- “public foot crossing”, in relation to a river, means a bridge over which, or tunnel through which, there is a public right of way, or a public right of access, by virtue of which the public are able to cross the river on foot.

Implementation of the coastal access duty

302 Long-distance routes

(1) After section 55 of the 1949 Act insert—

“55A Proposals relating to the English coastal route

- (1) Pursuant to the coastal access duty, Natural England may prepare and submit a report under section 51 containing proposals for a route (whether or not the requirements of section 51(1) are satisfied).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) it is immaterial whether the route or any part of it is already a route in approved proposals relating to a long-distance route.
- (3) In subsections (4) and (5) “preliminary activity” means activity which Natural England considers would facilitate the preparation by it of a report under section 51 pursuant to the coastal access duty.
- (4) Where Natural England considers it necessary or expedient for preliminary activity to be carried out as respects any land, it must—
 - (a) consider whether it would be appropriate for the access authority in relation to that land to carry out any of the preliminary activity, and
 - (b) if it concludes that it would be so appropriate, take all reasonable steps to enter into an agreement with the access authority for that purpose.
- (5) An access authority may, as respects any land in its area, enter into an agreement with Natural England under which the access authority undertakes to carry out preliminary activity.
- (6) In this section “the coastal access duty” means the duty imposed on Natural England and the Secretary of State by section 296(1) of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009.

55B Route subject to erosion etc

- (1) This section applies in relation to a report under section 51 prepared pursuant to the coastal access duty.
- (2) Where Natural England considers that the area through which the route passes is an area to which subsection (3) applies, the report may set out proposals for the route, or any part of it, to be determined at any time in accordance with provision made in the proposals (rather than as shown on a map).
- (3) This subsection applies to an area if it is or may be—
 - (a) subject to significant coastal erosion or encroachment by the sea, or
 - (b) subject to significant physical change due to other geomorphological processes.
- (4) The provision made by virtue of subsection (2) may, in particular, provide for the route to be determined by reference to the edge of a cliff or boundary of a field (as it exists from time to time).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) Where the report contains proposals under subsection (2), the map included in the report in accordance with section 51(2) must show the route as determined, at the time the report is prepared, in accordance with those proposals.
- (6) Natural England must consult the Environment Agency before exercising its powers under subsection (2) in respect of an area which is or may be—
 - (a) subject to significant coastal erosion or encroachment by the sea, or

 - (a) flooding,
 - (b) the action of the tide,
 - (c) coastal erosion or encroachment by the sea, or
 - (d) the effect of any other geomorphological process.
- (5) In subsection (3)(a) “specified” means—
 - (a) specified in, or determined in accordance with, the proposal, or
 - (b) determined in accordance with the proposal by—

 - (c) a proposal for the landward or seaward boundary of any area excluded from any description of excepted land to coincide with a physical feature so identified.
- (3) The report must contain—
- (a) a map showing the landward boundary of the relevant coastal margin, or
 - (b) a description of that boundary which is sufficient to identify the relevant coastal margin.
- (4) Where a map is contained in a report pursuant to subsection (3)(a), Natural England must provide a person with a relevant interest in affected land, on request, with a copy of that map.
- (5) The report must set out such proposals (if any) as Natural England considers appropriate as to the directions to be made by it under Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the CROW Act for the exclusion or restriction of the right of access that would arise under section 2(1) of that Act in relation to any land if the proposals in the report were to be approved.
- (6) Before preparing the report, Natural England must (in addition to complying with section 51(4))—
- (a) take reasonable steps to consult persons with a relevant interest in affected land,
 - (b) consult any body of a kind mentioned in section 51(4) in whose Park or area affected land is situated (but which is not required to be consulted under section 51(4)),

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) provide Natural England with such information as it may reasonably require as to any exclusion or restriction of the right of access to affected land under section 2(1) of the CROW Act which the Secretary of State proposes to make provision for under section 28 of that Act (defence and national security), and

- (a) might reasonably be regarded as relevant for the purpose of determining—
 - (i) whether, in the respects identified in the objection, the proposals in the report strike a fair balance, or
 - (ii) whether any modification of those proposals would produce proposals that strike a fair balance or mitigate the effects of any failure to strike a fair balance,
