

Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010

2010 CHAPTER 10

An Act to make provision about the rights of third parties against insurers of liabilities to third parties in the case where the insured is insolvent, and in certain other cases. [25th March 2010]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Act excluded by 1995 c. 21, s. 225P(7)(c) (as inserted (14.4.2015) by Wreck Removal Convention Act 2011 \(c. 8\), ss. 1\(2\), 2\(2\) (with s. 255T); S.I. 2015/133, art. 3)

Transfer of rights to third parties

1 Rights against insurer of insolvent person etc

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a relevant person incurs a liability against which that person is insured under a contract of insurance, or
 - (b) a person who is subject to such a liability becomes a relevant person.
- (2) The rights of the relevant person under the contract against the insurer in respect of the liability are transferred to and vest in the person to whom the liability is or was incurred (the “third party”).
- (3) The third party may bring proceedings to enforce the rights against the insurer without having established the relevant person's liability; but the third party may not enforce those rights without having established that liability.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) For the purposes of this Act, a liability is established only if its existence and amount are established; and, for that purpose, “establish” means establish—
- (a) by virtue of a declaration under section 2 or a declarator under section 3,
 - (b) by a judgment or decree,
 - (c) by an award in arbitral proceedings or by an arbitration, or
 - (d) by an enforceable agreement.
- (5) In this Act—
- (a) references to an “insured” are to a person who incurs or who is subject to a liability to a third party against which that person is insured under a contract of insurance;
 - (b) references to a “relevant person” are to a person within sections 4 to 7 ^{F1}(and see also paragraph 1A of Schedule 3)];
 - (c) references to a “third party” are to be construed in accordance with subsection (2);
 - (d) references to “transferred rights” are to rights under a contract of insurance which are transferred under this section.

2 Establishing liability in England and Wales and Northern Ireland

- (1) This section applies where a person (P)—
- (a) claims to have rights under a contract of insurance by virtue of a transfer under section 1, but
 - (b) has not yet established the insured's liability which is insured under that contract.
- (2) P may bring proceedings against the insurer for either or both of the following—
- (a) a declaration as to the insured's liability to P;
 - (b) a declaration as to the insurer's potential liability to P.
- (3) In such proceedings P is entitled, subject to any defence on which the insurer may rely, to a declaration under subsection (2)(a) or (b) on proof of the insured's liability to P or (as the case may be) the insurer's potential liability to P.
- (4) Where proceedings are brought under subsection (2)(a) the insurer may rely on any defence on which the insured could rely if those proceedings were proceedings brought against the insured in respect of the insured's liability to P.
- (5) Subsection (4) is subject to section 12(1).
- (6) Where the court makes a declaration under this section, the effect of which is that the insurer is liable to P, the court may give the appropriate judgment against the insurer.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Where a person applying for a declaration under subsection (2)(b) is entitled or required, by virtue of the contract of insurance, to do so in arbitral proceedings, that person may also apply in the same proceedings for a declaration under subsection (2)(a).
- (8) In the application of this section to arbitral proceedings, subsection (6) is to be read as if “tribunal” were substituted for “court” and “make the appropriate award” for “give the appropriate judgment”.
- (9) When bringing proceedings under subsection (2)(a), P may also make the insured a defendant to those proceedings.
- (10) If (but only if) the insured is a defendant to proceedings under this section (whether by virtue of subsection (9) or otherwise), a declaration under subsection (2) binds the insured as well as the insurer.
- (11) In this section, references to the insurer's potential liability to P are references to the insurer's liability in respect of the insured's liability to P, if established.

3 Establishing liability in Scotland

- (1) This section applies where a person (P)—
 - (a) claims to have rights under a contract of insurance by virtue of a transfer under section 1, but
 - (b) has not yet established the insured's liability which is insured under that contract.
- (2) P may bring proceedings against the insurer for either or both of the following—
 - (a) a declarator as to the insured's liability to P;
 - (b) a declarator as to the insurer's potential liability to P.
- (3) Where proceedings are brought under subsection (2)(a) the insurer may rely on any defence on which the insured could rely if those proceedings were proceedings brought against the insured in respect of the insured's liability to P.
- (4) Subsection (3) is subject to section 12(1).
- (5) Where the court grants a declarator under this section, the effect of which is that the insurer is liable to P, the court may grant the appropriate decree against the insurer.
- (6) Where a person applying for a declarator under subsection (2)(b) is entitled or required, by virtue of the contract of insurance, to do so in an arbitration, that person may also apply in the same arbitration for a declarator under subsection (2)(a).
- (7) In the application of this section to an arbitration, subsection (5) is to be read as if “tribunal” were substituted for “court” and “make the appropriate award” for “grant the appropriate decree”.
- (8) When bringing proceedings under subsection (2)(a), P may also make the insured a defender to those proceedings.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) If (but only if) the insured is a defender to proceedings under this section (whether by virtue of subsection (8) or otherwise), a declarator under subsection (2) binds the insured as well as the insurer.
- (10) In this section, the reference to the insurer's potential liability to P is a reference to the insurer's liability in respect of the insured's liability to P, if established.

Transferred rights: supplemental

8 Limit on rights transferred

Where the liability of an insured to a third party is less than the liability of the insurer to the insured (ignoring the effect of section 1), no rights are transferred under that section in respect of the difference.

Commencement Information

I8 S. 8 in force at 1.8.2016 by S.I. 2016/550, art. 2

9 Conditions affecting transferred rights

- (1) This section applies where transferred rights are subject to a condition (whether under the contract of insurance from which the transferred rights are derived or otherwise) that the insured has to fulfil.
- (2) Anything done by the third party which, if done by the insured, would have amounted to or contributed to fulfilment of the condition is to be treated as if done by the insured.
- (3) The transferred rights are not subject to a condition requiring the insured to provide information or assistance to the insurer if that condition cannot be fulfilled because the insured is—
 - (a) an individual who has died, ^{F36}...
 - (b) a body corporate that has been dissolved^[F37], or
 - (c) an unincorporated body, other than a partnership, that has been dissolved.]
- (4) A condition requiring the insured to provide information or assistance to the insurer does not include a condition requiring the insured to notify the insurer of the existence of a claim under the contract of insurance.
- (5) The transferred rights are not subject to a condition requiring the prior discharge by the insured of the insured's liability to the third party.
- (6) In the case of a contract of marine insurance, subsection (5) applies only to the extent that the liability of the insured is a liability in respect of death or personal injury.
- (7) In this section—

“contract of marine insurance” has the meaning given by section 1 of the Marine Insurance Act 1906;

^{F38} ...

“personal injury” includes any disease and any impairment of a person's physical or mental condition.
- ^{F39}(8) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) “dissolved” means dissolved under the law of England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland (whether or not by a process referred to as dissolution), and
 - (b) a body has been dissolved even if, since it was dissolved, something has happened which has the effect that (but for this paragraph) the body is treated as not having been dissolved or as no longer being dissolved.]

12 Limitation and prescription

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a person brings proceedings for a declaration under section 2(2)(a), or for a declarator under section 3(2)(a), and the proceedings are started or, in Scotland, commenced—
 - (a) after the expiry of a period of limitation applicable to an action against the insured to enforce the insured's liability, or of a period of prescription applicable to that liability, but
 - (b) while such an action is in progress.
- (2) The insurer may not rely on the expiry of that period as a defence unless the insured is able to rely on it in the action against the insured.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), an action is to be treated as no longer in progress if it has been concluded by a judgment or decree, or by an award, even if there is an appeal or a right of appeal.
- (4) Where a person who has already established an insured's liability to that person brings proceedings under this Act against the insurer, nothing in this Act is to be read as meaning—
 - (a) that, for the purposes of the law of limitation in England and Wales, that person's cause of action against the insurer arose otherwise than at the time when that person established the liability of the insured,
 - (b) that, for the purposes of the law of prescription in Scotland, the obligation in respect of which the proceedings are brought became enforceable against the insurer otherwise than at that time, or
 - (c) that, for the purposes of the law of limitation in Northern Ireland, that person's cause of action against the insurer arose otherwise than at the time when that person established the liability of the insured.

13 Jurisdiction within the United Kingdom

- (1) Where a person (P) domiciled in a part of the United Kingdom is entitled to bring proceedings under this Act against an insurer domiciled in another part, P may do so in the part where P is domiciled or in the part where the insurer is domiciled (whatever the contract of insurance may stipulate as to where proceedings are to be brought).
- (2) The following provisions of the Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982 (relating to determination of domicile) apply for the purposes of subsection (1)—
 - (a) section 41(2), (3), (5) and (6) (individuals);
 - (b) section 42(1), (3), (4) and (8) (corporations and associations);
 - (c) section 45(2) and (3) (trusts);
 - (d) section 46(1), (3) and (7) (the Crown).

Enforcement of insured's liability

14 Effect of transfer on insured's liability

- (1) Where rights in respect of an insured's liability to a third party are transferred under section 1, the third party may enforce that liability against the insured only to the extent (if any) that it exceeds the amount recoverable from the insurer by virtue of the transfer.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if a transfer of rights under section 1 occurs because the insured person is a relevant person by virtue of—
 - (a) section 4(1)(a) or (e), (2)(b) or (3)(b) or (c),
 - (b) section [^{F40}6(1)], (2)(a), (3)(c) or (4)(a), or
 - (c) section 7(1)(b).
- (3) If the liability is subject to the arrangement, trust deed or compromise by virtue of which the insured is a relevant person, the liability is to be treated as subject to that arrangement, trust deed or compromise only to the extent that the liability exceeds the amount recoverable from the insurer by virtue of the transfer.
- ^{F41}(4)
- ^{F41}(5)
- (6) For the purposes of this section the amount recoverable from the insurer does not include any amount that the third party is unable to recover as a result of—
 - (a) a shortage of assets on the insurer's part, in a case where the insurer is a relevant person, or
 - (b) a limit set by the contract of insurance on the fund available to meet claims in respect of a particular description of liability of the insured.
- (7) Where a third party is eligible to make a claim in respect of the insurer's liability under or by virtue of rules made under Part 15 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the Financial Services Compensation Scheme)—
 - (a) subsection (6)(a) applies only if the third party has made such a claim, and
 - (b) the third party is to be treated as being able to recover from the insurer any amount paid to, or due to, the third party as a result of the claim.

Supplemental

[^{F42}19 Power to change the meaning of “relevant person”

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision adding or removing circumstances in which a person is a “relevant person” for the purposes of this Act, subject to subsection (2).
- (2) Regulations under this section may add circumstances only if, in the Secretary of State's opinion, the additional circumstances—
 - (a) involve actual or anticipated dissolution of a body corporate or an unincorporated body,
 - (b) involve actual or anticipated insolvency or other financial difficulties for an individual, a body corporate or an unincorporated body, or
 - (c) are similar to circumstances for the time being described in sections 4 to 7.
- (3) Regulations under this section may make provision about—
 - (a) the persons to whom, and the extent to which, rights are transferred under section 1 in the circumstances added or removed by the regulations (the “affected circumstances”),
 - (b) the re-transfer of rights transferred under section 1 where the affected circumstances change, and
 - (c) the effect of a transfer of rights under section 1 on the liability of the insured in the affected circumstances.
- (4) Regulations under this section which add or remove circumstances involving actual or anticipated dissolution of a body corporate or unincorporated body may change the cases in which the following provisions apply so that they include or exclude cases involving that type of dissolution or any other type of dissolution of a body—
 - (a) section 9(3) (cases in which transferred rights are not subject to a condition requiring the insured to provide information or assistance to the insurer), and
 - (b) paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 (notices requiring disclosure).
- (5) Regulations under this section which add circumstances may provide that section 1 of this Act applies in cases involving those circumstances in which either or both of the following occurred in relation to a person before the day on which the regulations come into force—
 - (a) the circumstances arose in relation to the person;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a liability against which the person was insured under an insurance contract was incurred.
- (6) Regulations under this section which—
- (a) add circumstances, and
 - (b) provide that section 1 of this Act applies in a case involving those circumstances in which both of the events mentioned in subsection (5)(a) and (b) occurred in relation to a person before the day on which the regulations come into force,
- must provide that, in such a case, the person is to be treated for the purposes of this Act as not having become a relevant person until that day or a later day specified in the regulations.
- (7) Regulations under this section which remove circumstances may provide that section 1 of this Act does not apply in cases involving those circumstances in which one of the events mentioned in subsection (5)(a) and (b) (but not both) occurred in relation to a person before the day on which the regulations come into force.
- (8) Regulations under this section may—
- (a) include consequential, incidental, supplementary, transitional, transitory or saving provision,
 - (b) make different provision for different purposes, and
 - (c) make provision by reference to an enactment as amended, extended or applied from time to time,
- (and subsections (3) to (7) are without prejudice to the generality of this subsection).
- (9) Regulations under this section may amend an enactment, whenever passed or made, including this Act.
- (10) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (11) Regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.]

INFORMATION AND DISCLOSURE FOR THIRD PARTIES

Notices requesting information

- 1 (1) If a person (A) reasonably believes that—
- (a) another person (B) has incurred a liability to A, and
 - (b) B is a relevant person,
- A may, by notice in writing, request from B such information falling within subparagraph (3) as the notice specifies.
- (2) If a person (A) reasonably believes that—
- (a) a liability has been incurred to A,
 - (b) the person who incurred the liability is insured against it under a contract of insurance,
 - (c) rights of that person under the contract have been transferred to A under section 1, and
 - (d) there is a person (C) who is able to provide information falling within subparagraph (3),

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010. (See end of Document for details)

A may, by notice in writing, request from C such information falling within that sub-paragraph as the notice specifies.

- (3) The following is the information that falls within this sub-paragraph—
- (a) whether there is a contract of insurance that covers the supposed liability or might reasonably be regarded as covering it;
 - (b) if there is such a contract—
 - (i) who the insurer is;
 - (ii) what the terms of the contract are;
 - (iii) whether the insured has been informed that the insurer has claimed not to be liable under the contract in respect of the supposed liability;
 - (iv) whether there are or have been any proceedings between the insurer and the insured in respect of the supposed liability and, if so, relevant details of those proceedings;
 - (v) in a case where the contract sets a limit on the fund available to meet claims in respect of the supposed liability and other liabilities, how much of it (if any) has been paid out in respect of other liabilities;
 - (vi) whether there is a fixed charge to which any sums paid out under the contract in respect of the supposed liability would be subject.
- (4) For the purpose of sub-paragraph (3)(b)(iv), relevant details of proceedings are—
- (a) in the case of court proceedings—
 - (i) the name of the court;
 - (ii) the case number;
 - (iii) the contents of all documents served in the proceedings in accordance with rules of court or orders made in the proceedings, and the contents of any such orders;
 - (b) in the case of arbitral proceedings or, in Scotland, an arbitration—
 - (i) the name of the arbitrator;
 - (ii) information corresponding with that mentioned in paragraph (a)(iii).
- (5) In sub-paragraph (3)(b)(vi), in its application to Scotland, “fixed charge” means a fixed security within the meaning given by section 47(1) of the Bankruptcy and Diligence etc (Scotland) Act 2007 (asp 3).
- (6) A notice given by a person under this paragraph must include particulars of the facts on which that person relies as entitlement to give the notice.

Provision of information where notice given under paragraph 1

- 2 (1) A person (R) who receives a notice under paragraph 1 must, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day of receipt of the notice—
- (a) provide to the person who gave the notice any information specified in it that R is able to provide;
 - (b) in relation to any such information that R is not able to provide, notify that person why R is not able to provide it.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Where—
- (a) a person (R) receives a notice under paragraph 1,
 - (b) there is information specified in the notice that R is not able to provide because it is contained in a document that is not in R's control,
 - (c) the document was at one time in R's control, and
 - (d) R knows or believes that it is now in another person's control,
- R must, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day of receipt of the notice, provide the person who gave the notice with whatever particulars R can as to the nature of the information and the identity of that other person.
- (3) If R fails to comply with a duty imposed on R by this paragraph, the person who gave R the notice may apply to court for an order requiring R to comply with the duty.
- (4) No duty arises by virtue of this paragraph in respect of information as to which a claim to legal professional privilege or, in Scotland, to confidentiality as between client and professional legal adviser could be maintained in legal proceedings.
