Powers of trustees

- 7 (1) The trustees of the Fund may invest the assets of the Fund, whether at the time in a state of investment or not, in any investment whatever and may also from time to time vary any such investments.
- (2) The trustees of the Fund may settle or compromise any claim or dispute relating to the Fund, but—
- (a) so far as the claim or dispute relates to a scheme under paragraph 8 or 12, they may do so only with the consent of the IPSA, and
 - (b) so far as the claim or dispute relates to a scheme under paragraph 16, they may do so only with the consent of the Minister for the Civil Service.
- (3) The IPSA must consult the Minister for the Civil Service before giving its consent to the settlement or compromise of a claim or dispute relating to a scheme under paragraph 8.
- (4) Section 35(1) to (4) of the Pensions Act 1995 (pension scheme trustees must prepare statement of investment principles) applies to the trustees of the Fund despite any provision in regulations under section 35 of that Act which would (apart from this sub-paragraph) prevent it applying.
- (5) Any provision in regulations under that section which would require the trustees of the Fund to consult the employer applies as if it required them to consult the IPSA and the Minister for the Civil Service.

- 8 (1) The IPSA may make a scheme containing provision about—
- (a) the administration of the Fund,
 - (b) the management of the Fund's assets,
 - (c) the indemnification of the trustees (and former trustees) of the Fund,
 - (d) the proceedings of the trustees of the Fund, and
 - (e) the application of the Fund's assets in connection with the matters in paragraphs (a) to (d).
- (2) A scheme under this paragraph may in particular—
- (a) include any or all of the provisions specified in paragraphs 31 to 33,
 - (b) make different provision in relation to different cases, circumstances or persons,
 - (c) make such incidental, consequential and transitional provision (other than provision modifying an enactment or subordinate legislation) as the IPSA considers appropriate.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2)(c) the reference to subordinate legislation does not include a scheme under this paragraph.
- (4) No provision of a scheme under this paragraph is to be construed as restricting the powers of the trustees under paragraph 7(1).

Exchequer contribution to Fund

- 10 (1) In respect of each financial year an Exchequer contribution is to be paid into the Fund out of money provided by Parliament.
- (2) Subject to any provision made by the IPSA under paragraph 11, the amount of the contribution for any financial year is to be calculated in accordance with recommendations for that year contained in a report made by the Government Actuary under this paragraph.
- (3) The Government Actuary must make a report under this paragraph as soon as practicable after the beginning of—
- (a) the period of three years beginning with the relevant date, and
 - (b) each succeeding period of three years.
- (4) The “relevant date” means the date immediately following the end of the three year period which is current for the purposes of section 3 of the Parliamentary and other Pensions Act 1987 when this paragraph comes into force.
- (5) The report is to be made to—
- (a) the trustees of the Fund,
 - (b) the IPSA,
 - (c) the Minister for the Civil Service, and
 - (d) the Treasury.
- (6) The report must—
- (a) report on the general financial position of the Fund at the beginning of the period of three years in which the report is made, and
 - (b) make a recommendation as to the rate at which (subject to any subsequent report under this paragraph) Exchequer contributions should be paid into the Fund in respect of any financial year beginning after the report is made.
- (7) The rate is to be expressed by reference to such matters as the Government Actuary considers appropriate.
- (8) A copy of every report made by the Government Actuary under this paragraph is to be laid before the House of Commons.

Power to determine Exchequer contribution

- 11 (1) The IPSA may, with the relevant consents, make provision for determining the Exchequer contribution in respect of any financial year.
- (2) The “relevant consents” means—
- (a) if the result of making the provision is that the amount of the Exchequer contribution in respect of any financial year is less than it otherwise would be, the consent of the Treasury, the Minister for the Civil Service and the trustees of the Fund, and
 - (b) otherwise, the consent of the Treasury and the Minister for the Civil Service.
- (3) The “Exchequer contribution” means the amount to be paid into the Fund under paragraph 10.
- (4) Before making provision under this paragraph the IPSA must consult—
- (a) (if sub-paragraph (2)(a) does not apply) the trustees of the Fund,
 - (b) the Government Actuary, and
 - (c) persons appearing to the IPSA to represent persons likely to be affected by the provision.
- (5) The IPSA must send to the Speaker of the House of Commons for laying before the House of Commons—
- (a) any representations made by the trustees of the Fund in response to consultation under this paragraph,
 - (b) any provision made by the IPSA under this paragraph, and
 - (c) a statement of the reasons for making the provision.
- (6) When the provision and the statement of reasons have been laid, the IPSA must publish them in a way it considers appropriate.
- (7) Provision under this paragraph may—
- (a) apply to a financial year which has already ended or which has begun before the making of the provision, and
 - (b) make such incidental, consequential and transitional provision (other than provision modifying an enactment or subordinate legislation) as the IPSA considers appropriate.

Meaning of “service as a member of the House of Commons”

- 13 (1) For the purposes of this Schedule a person is to be treated as in service as a member of the House of Commons at any time if at that time a salary is or was payable to the person under—
- (a) section 4 of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009, or
 - (b) in relation to a time before that section was in force, the resolutions of the House of Commons then in force relating to the remuneration of its members.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule service as a member of the House of Commons includes service as the holder of a qualifying office or position.
- (3) In relation to a time when a determination under section 4(4) of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009 is in effect a “qualifying office or position” means an office or position in respect of which, because of section 4A(2) of that Act, a higher salary is payable than the salary payable to members of the House of Commons generally.
- (4) In relation to a time before the first determination under section 4(4) of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009 comes into effect a “qualifying office or position” means—
- (a) the office of Chairman of Ways and Means and the office of Deputy Chairman of Ways and Means,
 - (b) an office or position in respect of which, under the resolutions of the House of Commons then in force relating to the remuneration of its members, a higher salary was payable than the salary payable to members of the House of Commons generally.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISION

Protection of accrued rights

- 19 (1) This paragraph applies where—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010, SCHEDULE 6. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the IPSA makes a scheme under paragraph 12, or
 - (b) the Minister for the Civil Service makes a scheme under paragraph 16, (the “new scheme”).
- (2) The new scheme must not make any provision in relation to an accrued right which puts (or might put) a person in a worse position than the person would have been in apart from the provision.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not apply if—
- (a) the trustees of the Fund consent to the new scheme making the provision, and
 - (b) the person making the new scheme is satisfied that the consent requirement is met.
- (4) The consent requirement is met if under the new scheme the provision has effect in relation to an accrued right only with the written consent, given in accordance with sub-paragraph (5), of—
- (a) the person (“P”) in respect of whose service the right has accrued, or
 - (b) if P is dead, the persons (“the survivors”) who because of the accrued right are entitled, or may become entitled, to a pension or the benefit of any pension.
- (5) Consent is given in accordance with this sub-paragraph if it is given after the person making the scheme has given P (or the survivors)—
- (a) information in writing which adequately explains the nature of the provision and its effect,
 - (b) notice in writing that they may make representations about the provision,
 - (c) an adequate opportunity to make such representations, and
 - (d) notice in writing that the provision has effect in relation to the accrued right only with their written consent.
- (6) Consent may be given by a person acting on behalf of P (or the survivors); and the references in sub-paragraph (5) to P (or the survivors) include a person acting on their behalf.
- (7) In sub-paragraph (4)(a) “service” means—
- (a) where the new scheme is a scheme under paragraph 12, service as a member of the House of Commons, and
 - (b) where the new scheme is a scheme under paragraph 16, service to which that paragraph applies.
