

These notes refer to the Energy Act 2010 (c.27) which received Royal Assent on 8 April 2010

ENERGY ACT 2010

EXPLANATORY NOTES

PART 3: REGULATION OF GAS AND ELECTRICITY MARKETS

Adjustment of energy charges

Commentary on Sections

Section 29: Adjustment of energy charges: interpretation

138. Subsection (2) allows regulations made by the Secretary of State to exclude certain sets of customers from being considered in relation to an energy charge adjustment scheme. Subsection (5) provides that the definition of ‘energy supplier’ includes electricity suppliers, gas suppliers, and suppliers of both gas and electricity.