

Equitable Life (Payments) Act 2010

2010 CHAPTER 34

1 Payments

- (1) Expenditure incurred by the Treasury for or in connection with the making of payments to which this section applies may be paid out of money provided by Parliament.
- (2) This section applies to any payments that the Treasury authorise in cases where persons have been adversely affected by maladministration in the regulation before December 2001 of the Equitable Life Assurance Society.
- (3) The Treasury may make provision by order made by statutory instrument for a payment to which this section applies to be disregarded to any extent for the purposes of any of these—
  - (a) liability to tax;
  - (b) entitlement to a tax credit;
  - (c) liability to make a payment in respect of the provision under an enactment of goods or services (including accommodation);
  - (d) a requirement to provide a document or information for purposes connected with anything within paragraphs (a) to (c).
- (4) Different provision may be made under subsection (3) for different purposes.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (3) may not be made unless a draft has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) The functions of the Director of Savings include anything the Director is appointed by the Treasury to do in connection with payments to which this section applies.
- (7) In this section “enactment” includes an enactment contained in subordinate legislation (within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978) and an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under, any of these—
  - (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament;
  - (b) Northern Ireland legislation;
  - (c) a Measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales.
