24 Co-operation with UK or international investigations

The Treasury must take such steps as they consider appropriate to co-operate with any investigation, in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, relating to the funds, economic resources or financial transactions of a designated person.

25 Application of provisions

- (1) Nothing done under this Chapter is to be treated as a breach of any restriction imposed by statute or otherwise.
- (2) But nothing in this Chapter authorises a disclosure that—
 - (a) contravenes the Data Protection Act 1998, or
 - (b) is prohibited by Part 1 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000.
- (3) Nothing in this Chapter is to be read as requiring a person who has acted as counsel or solicitor for any person to disclose any privileged information in their possession in that capacity.
- (4) This Chapter does not limit the circumstances in which information may be disclosed apart from this Chapter.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) This Chapter does not limit the powers of the Treasury to impose conditions in connection with the discharge of their functions under section 17 (licences).
- (6) In this section—
- “information” includes documents;
 - “privileged information” means information with respect to which a claim to legal professional privilege (in Scotland, to confidentiality of communications) could be maintained in legal proceedings.
