COMMENTARY

Section 6: Consequential amendments

29. Subsection (1) provides the Treasury with a power to make amendments of other enactments in consequence of any provision made by or under the Act.
30. Subsection (2) permits this power to be used to amend any enactment passed or made before commencement of the relevant section in the Act including provisions of the Act itself. This will ensure that even if implementation dates are delayed, legislation on the statute book as at the date of commencement will not clash with the new provisions.
31. Subsection (3) defines “enactment”.
