

Presumption of Death Act 2013

2013 CHAPTER 13

Declaration of presumed death

4 Other powers of court making declaration

- (1) When making a declaration under this Act, the court may—
 - (a) determine any question which relates to an interest in property and arises as a result of the declaration, and
 - (b) determine the domicile of the missing person at the time of his or her presumed death.
- (2) When making a declaration under this Act, the court may make such order as it considers reasonable in relation to any interest in property acquired as a result of the declaration.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) may direct that the value of any interest in property acquired as a result of the declaration is not to be recoverable by virtue of an order made under section 7(2).
- (4) It may, in particular, direct that the value of the interest—
 - (a) is not to be recoverable in any circumstances, or
 - (b) is not to be recoverable where conditions specified in the order are met.
