

Energy Act 2013

2013 CHAPTER 32

PART 3

NUCLEAR REGULATION

CHAPTER 5

SUPPLEMENTARY

Supplementary

110 Electronic delivery of notices etc

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) section 109 authorises the giving of a notice or other document by its delivery to a particular person (“the recipient”), and
 - (b) the notice or other document is transmitted to the recipient—
 - (i) by means of an electronic communications network, or
 - (ii) by other means but in a form that requires the use of apparatus by the recipient to render it intelligible.
- (2) The transmission has effect for the purposes of section 109 as a delivery of the notice or other document to the recipient, but only if the recipient has indicated to the person making the transmission (“the sender”) a willingness to receive the notice or other document in the form and manner used.
- (3) An indication to the sender for the purposes of subsection (2)—
 - (a) must be given to the sender in such manner as the sender may require,
 - (b) may be a general indication or an indication that is limited to notices or other documents of a particular description,
 - (c) must state the address to be used,

Changes to legislation: Energy Act 2013, Section 110 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 20 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (d) must be accompanied by such other information as the sender requires for the making of the transmission, and
 - (e) may be modified or withdrawn at any time by a notice given to the sender in such manner as the sender may require.
- (4) In this section “electronic communications network” has the same meaning as in the Communications Act 2003; and the reference to giving a notice is to be read in accordance with section 109.
