

Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014

2014 CHAPTER 14

PART 11

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Documents

144 Form etc of electronic documents sent to FCA or PRA

- (1) The FCA or PRA (“the authority”) may impose requirements as to the form, authentication and manner of delivery of documents sent electronically to it under this Act.
- (2) As regards authentication, the authority may—
 - (a) require the document to be authenticated by a particular person or a person of a particular description;
 - (b) specify the means of authentication;
 - (c) require the document to contain or be accompanied by the name or registered number of the society to which it relates (or both).
- (3) As regards the manner of delivery, the authority may specify requirements as to the hardware and software to be used, and technical specifications (for example, matters relating to protocol, security, anti-virus protection or encryption).
- (4) The power conferred by this section does not authorise the authority to require documents to be delivered electronically.
- (5) Requirements imposed under this section must not be inconsistent with requirements imposed by this Act or any other enactment with respect to the form, authentication and delivery of the document concerned.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) In this section, a document is sent electronically if it is sent by electronic means or in electronic form.
