- (d) provision about signing a recall petition in person, by post or by proxy, and in particular—
    - (i) provision under which an entitlement to sign a recall petition in person, by post or by proxy may be exercised only where conditions specified in the regulations are met;
    - (ii) provision about what a person must do in order to be regarded as having signed a recall petition for the purposes of this Act;
    - (iii) provision about when a person who signs a recall petition by post is treated as signing it for the purposes of this Act;
    - (iv) provision about when a person's signing of a recall petition is invalid for the purposes of this Act;
  - (e) provision permitting or requiring the petition officer, in determining under section 14(2)(a) whether a recall petition was successful, to treat a person who signed the petition as having validly signed it for the purposes of section 14(3);
  - (f) provision about access to, or the supply of copies of, the register of parliamentary electors for a constituency or documents produced in relation to a recall petition;
  - (g) provision about the retention or disposal of documents or other information in relation to a recall petition;
  - (h) further provision about the regulation of campaigning in relation to a recall petition.
- (4) Provision made as mentioned in subsection (3)(e) does not affect—
- (a) the question of whether, for the purposes of provision made under subsection (1)(b), a person validly signed a recall petition for the purposes of section 14(3) (determination of whether recall petition successful), or
  - (b) liability to any penalty arising from a person signing a recall petition but failing to validly sign it for the purposes of section 14(3).
- (5) The outcome of a recall petition may be questioned only in accordance with provision made under subsection (1)(b).
- (6) The provision that may be made under subsection (1)(c) includes—
- (a) provision about how a notice or other document authorised or required under this Act to be given, sent or delivered is given, sent or delivered;
  - (b) provision about the circumstances in which, and the time at which, a notice or other document is (or is to be treated as having been) given, sent, delivered or received.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, “a provision of electoral legislation” means—
- (a) a provision of, or made under, the Representation of the People Acts, or
  - (b) a provision of other legislation which is a provision relating to elections.
- (8) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
